

FITZPATRICKS TO ENJOY BIG EVENT

GOLDEN WEDDING OF DR. FITZPATRICK'S PARENTS TO BE CELEBRATED FRIDAY. WILL BE REMARKABLE FAMILY GATHERING

Twelve of Fourteen Children Living, and Eleven of Them Will Be Present at the Reunion—Aged Pair Has Given One Son and Three Daughters to Religion.

In the little town of Greeley, in Delaware county, on Saturday, will be celebrated one of the most interesting events ever taking place in northeastern Iowa, when Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzpatrick, parents of Rev. Dr. James J. Fitzpatrick, pastor of St. Mary's church in this city, will observe the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick are among the pioneer residents of Delaware county, where they have lived on a farm, in the edge of the town of Greeley, for forty-five years. Mr. Fitzpatrick is now 87 years old, and his wife is 73. They were married in Dubuque on Nov. 11, 1860.

Have Twelve Children Living. One of the most interesting features of the anniversary gathering will be the presence of eleven of the aged pair's twelve living children. Another remarkable feature is that in this Rooseveltian family, which numbered fourteen, there have been but two deaths.

Have Given Four to Religion. Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick have cause to be proud of their family, all of whom have been given to religion, although two of these are now dead.

Aside from their son, Rev. Dr. Fitzpatrick, a daughter is a sister of the Visitation in Dubuque. She will be the only member of the family who will not be able to be present at the family gathering, as the rules of the order prevent the sisters from leaving the convent unless in the event of a death in their families. One of the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick is a prominent attorney in Dubuque, and another a leading physician in that city. A daughter is the wife of Judge Martin J. Wade, of Iowa City, former congressman from the Second district.

The children who will be present at the golden wedding, together with their families, are Rev. James J. Fitzpatrick, the eldest son of the family, of this city; Michael Fitzpatrick, of Greeley; Thomas J. Fitzpatrick, of Dubuque; Dr. Dennis Fitzpatrick, of Iowa City; Bernard, Martin and John Fitzpatrick, of Greeley; Mrs. M. J. Wade, of Iowa City; Mrs. John Schaefer, of Edgewood; Mrs. Patrick Leary, of Marshalltown; and Miss Leola Fitzpatrick, assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Waterloo. The other living daughter is Sister M. Theresa, of the Visitation convent, Dubuque. The two daughters who are dead are Sister Emma, of the Visitation, and Sister M. Bertha, who was superior of the Holy Ghost Sisters at the time of her death.

CENTRAL BUILDS NEW TERMINAL

New Yards Having Capacity of 600 Cars Finished at Maxwell, Ill. Extensive terminal facility work and the building of an immense new yard at Maxwell, Ill., which the Iowa Central has had under way for several months, has just been completed. The company has finished the building of storage and switching yards at Maxwell which have a capacity of 600 cars. The yards are for the handling of business destined to and come from Peoria, where the company has no terminal facilities. Formerly the terminal for its freight business was the yards at Bartlett, Ill., just out of Peoria, but because of the heavy grades just west of the yards, new yards were built at the station called Maxwell, which is four miles west of Bartlett.

TO ADMIT THE LADIES.

Open Meeting of Searchlight Club to Be Held During Season. By a vote of the members of the Searchlight committee, of the Railroad Y. M. C. A., taken at the Tuesday night meeting, an open meeting of the club, to which the wives of its members will be invited, is to be held sometime during the season. Last season a similar movement came up before the club and was defeated because it was believed that no satisfactory arrangements could be made to care for so large a number at one time. A full detail of the proposed open meeting has not been arranged yet, the officers in charge of the club's affairs were instructed to arrange for an open meeting.

ALLEN IS DISCHARGED.

Prosecuting Witness Fails to Appear and Station Agent is Let Go. W. J. Allen, station agent for the Iowa Central at Gilman, who was arrested with Mrs. Mary Swartz, of Mason City, at Gilman Saturday night on a charge filed by Mrs. Swartz's husband, Joseph Swartz, was discharged when arraigned in Justice Millard's court this morning. The case against him was dismissed when the complaining witness failed to appear against him. Allen was arraigned late Tuesday afternoon and thru his attorney pleaded not guilty. The preliminary examination was set for 7:30 o'clock this morning.

CLASS IN ANNUAL BANQUET.

Baptist Hill Bible Class Ladies and Guests Enjoy Delightful Affair. An unusually large gathering enjoyed the annual banquet and social affair of the Baptist Hill Bible Class, which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Baxter, 711 West State Tuesday evening. Forty or more were present, each member being privileged to take her husband, some member of her family or a friend, as a guest. Only two of the present membership, now numbering twenty, were absent. There were four of the seven charter members of the class present. The serving was begun at 7 o'clock and Mrs. Ellen Lennox gave the invocation. The long table in the dining room had a centerpiece decoration of yellow chrysanthemums, and candles added to the pretty effect. So bounteous and delicious was the repast prepared by the ladies that the second course of ice cream, cake and mince, was not served until later in the evening. Various of the bible class ladies did the serving, assisted by Miss May Baxter.

Instrumental music by Misses Gertrude Miller and Ora Schwieter, a vocal number by Mrs. Brown, several songs by little Dorothy Baxter, and singing by the assembled company, were much enjoyed. A roll of the members was called, each responding with a verse of scripture, and Mrs. N. F. Miller, according to the annual custom, read a brief history of the class, which was organized in 1892.

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Kentucky Belles" Fail to Draw on Election Night.

A burlesque show, with vaudeville acts and music, traveling under the name of "The Kentucky Belles," was the election night attraction at the Odeon. The audience was small. The performance consisted of a musical sketch called "Friends," an olio of novelty acts, and a burlesque sketch. The feature of the show and the act that is being featured was the Martell family of five in an acrobatic bicycle riding act. Their performance was excellent. Otherwise the show was very ordinary.

Football Boils Story Nuts For Frank Wing

While the boys of the Marshalltown high school football team were wrestling with their boils and trying their best to overcome the infection that struck the team, some cruel people in different parts of the country were having all kinds of fun at the expense of the Marshalltown team.

One of these cruel ones was Frank Wing, caricaturist of the Minneapolis Journal, and at one time employed on this paper. Wing has enough interest in Marshalltown to grab at a Marshalltown date line, and his eye was attracted to the "football boils" story, which was sufficiently unique to warrant a story to outside newspapers. Wing, whose own Elmwood, Ill., never produced anything so exciting as boils, thought this a good joke, and with his clever right hand he drew the supposed likeness of three of the Marshalltown high school team, which he labeled "And a plague descended; plague on it!" Wing also took a shot at his old friend, Rodney C. Wells, of the Times-Republican, whom he placed in the background as the "veracious correspondent." Wing hadn't tried to be nice, doubtless from the fact that it would be hard to forget, once seen.

Accompanying the illustration was the following: "Marshalltown, Iowa, is pestered over the sad condition of affairs of its football team. For the high school team, the pride of all Marshalltown, is undergoing an affliction of boils that makes Job's collection look they say like a mere collection of pimples upon the neck.

"The veracious correspondent from Iowa rushes to the front with the explanation that the team had a sort of community flea in the water and just before entering on entering the quarters every player grabbed the first jersey at hand, donned it and went forth upon the field of battle.

"Football players are never cautious about the little noisies of attire or the rights of individuals as concerns garb, and all went merry until some scoundrel camp accumulated boils and proceeded—after-effects would indicate—to wear about every jersey in the whole collection. The gentle germs spread and now the pride of Marshalltown is thinking of canceling its dates.

"A good hardy playing halfback, with two or three amputees and a dutiful tender body, various parts of his anatomy can hardly be expected to push forth to the meeting arms of a lusty tackle with that vim and spirit with which such efforts are supposed to be made for the glory of self and alma mater.

"Neither will a line man bump into an antagonist or pile up a play when the bumping shoulder is furnishing a leading place for one of those clumps of agony. Boils have a bad effect on football teams and, despite the encouragement of the spectators and the cheerfulness of the sideline athletes, the Marshalltown team is said to be just now attempting to advance dates a trifle and serenade has been more or less eliminated.

"The suits and sweaters were sterilized, and as soon as the young men recover sufficiently the Marshalltown massacre society will resume its labors—but not before. And hereafter the dead line will be drawn upon promiscuity in the wearing of gridiron garb. They are not so happy in that Iowa town today, but they have wised up amazingly on the question of bacterium—and otherwise—bacteria and the protoplasmic bug that raises a lump out of all proportions to its size."

Local Weather Record.

Fifty-one was the maximum temperature Tuesday, compared with 62 for the day before. The minimum for the day was 25, the temperature, at 7 o'clock in the morning, which was two degrees warmer than the minimum for Monday. At 7 o'clock this morning there was a marked rise in the temperature, the government instrument registering 59.

In the Police Court.

Charles Lake, who was arrested by the police for being drunk, paid the costs when arraigned before Justice Millard this morning and was discharged.

To Whom it May Concern.

All those having bills against me will kindly present them for payment and those indebted to me will kindly make settlement as we are anxious to close our accounts. All bills will go into the hands of attorneys Nov. 20. Respectfully, A. H. Simon.

Water Rents Due.

All water rents due Nov. 1, and payable at city clerk's office. No discounts after the 15th. F. B. Wiley, City Clerk.

"Miss Nobody From Starland" on Friday

OLIVE VAIL. Winsome Prima Donna Who is Featured With Singer Production.

On Friday evening, at the Odeon, will be seen for the first time the novelty musical farce, "Miss Nobody From Starland," featuring Olive Vail, a winsome prima donna. The production is by W. A. Singer, and was produced originally at the Princess theater, Chicago.

A decidedly novel feature of the production is that the audience are literally taken out of their seats to the stage, where they are shown how a big production looks from the other side of the footlights. The scenes and situations resulting from this phase of stage life are said to be highly amusing and entertaining.

Supporting Miss Vail in the production are Ralph Riggs, Lawrence Comer, Guy Deagon, Adriane Kroell, Joe Neimeyer, Bert Morton, and a chorus of fifty voices.

SHAVER WINS IN CHICAGO

Native Son Elected in Close Fight in Senatorial Race in Chicago—Harry L. Shaver, Son of Former Merchant Here, and Grandson of Professor Kemter.

Marshalltown friends will be glad to learn that Harry L. Shaver, a former Marshalltown boy and a native son, was elected to the Illinois senate in Tuesday's election from the Thirty-first district, Chicago. Harry Shaver is a young lawyer, a son of Fred Shaver, a former merchant of this city, and a grandson of Prof. and Mrs. E. S. Kemter, 210 West Church street. Mrs. Charles W. Allison, of this city, is an aunt of Mr. Shaver.

Young Shaver's career has been truly remarkable for its success. Mr. Shaver is now 26 years old, having been born in this city in 1884. He is a graduate of the Northwestern University law school, and is a member of the firm of Shaver & Nichols. He graduated at the head of his class in law, and held the highest honors in the examinations at Springfield that admitted him to the bar. He came into prominence in a Cook county debate, when he won a gold medal, the highest honor. A few years ago Mr. Shaver was assistant manager of the Law Review, a Chicago publication.

Professor and Mrs. Kemter are justly proud of their grandson, and one of the first things the young man did after knowing that his election was assured, was to wire his grandfather here.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaver, the young man's parents, moved from this city about twenty years ago. They went from here to Duluth, and then moved to Chicago, where they have lived for several years.

LOCAL MARKETS.

Prices Paid to Farmers by Marshalltown Dealers.

The following prices are quoted by Marshalltown dealers for the different varieties of farmers' provisions, grain, produce and poultry, also for hides, tallow, wool, pelts and skins.

Carlson Bros quote the following prices in trade for country produce until further notice: Eggs—28. Butter—28. GRAINS: F. E. Benedict & Co. will pay the following prices at their place of business in this city: Old corn—42. New corn—35. Oats—26. Timothy hay—14.00. Oat straw—6.00. HIDES, FUR AND WOOL: H. Willard, Son & Co., quote the following prices: Green hides—8. Horse hides—2.50@3.00. Sheep pelts—1.25, 75, 50. No. 1 tallow—5. Rough fat—1. Medium wool—18@20. Western wool—17@18. Fine wool—14@15. ### Hints on Cleaning the Sink

Every sink should be provided with a three-cornered sieve made by covering a metal frame with very fine netting. When water is thrown into the sink it should be turned into this sieve, preventing the solid matter from getting into the pipes and causing trouble. Each time the dishes are washed the sink should be carefully cleaned. The quickest way is to dissolve a teaspoonful of Gold Dust washing powder in hot water, rinse every portion of the sink with the Gold Dust solution, pouring some of the hot suds down the pipe to loosen the grease that may have gathered in the trap.
