

OUTFIELDER SHAUB GETS PRISON TERM

FORMER LOCAL BALL PLAYER SENTENCED TO TWO YEARS IN WISCONSIN.

FOUND GUILTY OF PERJURY WHEN SECURED DIVORCE

Shaub Convicted On Charge of Perjury When He Secured a Divorce From His First Wife, Formerly Gertrude Strand, Once Telephone Collector of This City—Case to Be Appealed.

Frank Shaub, a former outfielder of the Marshalltown baseball team of the old Iowa League, and the former husband of Miss Gertrude Strand, of this city, was sentenced to two years in the Wisconsin penitentiary Thursday afternoon for perjury. The crime charged against Shaub was falsely testifying in the divorce proceedings when Shaub and his wife separated. The Shaubs were living at Rock Island, Ill., when the divorce action was brought.

A telegram to the Times-Republican from Fond du Lac this afternoon says of the case: Fond du Lac, Wis., Nov. 18.—Frank Shaub, of the Oshkosh baseball club of the Wisconsin-Illinois league, formerly with the Rock Island and other clubs, was found guilty of perjury and yesterday afternoon was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. His counsel will carry the case to the supreme court. Shaub, it is claimed, swore to false statements when he obtained a divorce from his first wife, Gertrude Shaub, of Rock Island, formerly Gertrude Strand, of Marshalltown.

Before her marriage here Miss Strand was employed as a collector for the Iowa Telephone Company. She is a daughter of Mrs. Fred Nissen, 214 North Third avenue.

FORMER ALBION WOMAN DEAD.

Mrs. John M. Bogler, Nea Campbell, Dies at Menlo.

Mrs. Myrtle Bogler, wife of John M. Bogler, formerly of Albion, died Thursday at her home in Menlo, Guthrie county. The news of Mrs. Bogler's death came in a telegram Thursday evening to Mr. and Mrs. John Hobbs. Mrs. Hobbs left for Menlo this morning to attend the funeral.

Altho the telegram did not so state, it is presumed that Mrs. Bogler's death was caused by disease of the heart. In a letter, received recently from Mrs. Bogler by Mrs. Hobbs, the former wrote that she had been suffering with heart disease, but that she was improved and that as soon as she was able she expected to come to this city to visit. Mrs. Bogler was 26 years of age. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Campbell, who formerly owned what is now the David Whaley farm, east of Albion. The family moved from that neighborhood to Menlo about fifteen years ago. Within two years after leaving the Albion neighborhood Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and one son died. Mrs. Bogler is survived by one brother, Mr. Clark Campbell, of Menlo.

NEW LOCOMOTIVES HERE SOON.

First of Ten New Engines For Central Expected in Short Time. The first of the purchase of ten new freight locomotives, bought of the Baldwin works, Philadelphia, by the Iowa Central are expected to be delivered within the next thirty days. Four of twelve locomotives ordered at the same time for the Minneapolis & St. Louis will probably be delivered within ten days.

Master Mechanic C. E. Gossett, of the Minneapolis & St. Louis, while in the city for a short time this morning on his way home from Chicago where he had been on business connected with the purchase of the engines, was told by the makers agents that four of the Minneapolis & St. Louis engines were ready to leave Philadelphia. The Iowa Central engines are similar in type and construction to the big 200-class freight engines, bought a year or more ago. They are of about the same weight and general design, differing only in details of construction.

MELROY'S SISTER DEAD.

Getting Ready to Leave For This City When Death Comes.

As Miss Mary McElroy, of Washington, was getting ready this forenoon to leave for this city in company with her sister-in-law, Mrs. T. D. McElroy, Miss McElroy was stricken with heart disease, and died very suddenly. A message at 11 o'clock brought the news to Colonel McElroy.

On Wednesday Colonel McElroy received word from Washington that his sister was not feeling very well, and Mrs. McElroy left that night with the expectation of bringing her sister here. Arrangements were all made to start when Miss McElroy was taken.

Miss McElroy was an old resident of Washington, where the McElroys have lived since before the civil war. It was from that place that Colonel McElroy enlisted in the Thirtieth Iowa. Miss McElroy, who was 55 years old, is the last of the sisters of the family, and surviving her are four brothers—Colonel McElroy, of this city; Joseph, of Washington; Charles, of Davenport; and Frank McElroy, of Kansas.

Colonel McElroy will leave tonight for Washington to attend the funeral.

HOES ESTATE BEING CLOSED.

Estate That Has Frequently Been in Court Soon to Be Divided.

The Hoes estate, which was originally the estate left by E. Hoes, of Jefferson township, which has been dragged thru the local courts for years, and which has twice been brought to trial, is soon to be divided and the cases ended and closed. This morning a decree, ordering the sale of the real estate of the estate, was filed. The property, consisting of a 160-acre farm in Jefferson township, near Ferguson, and residence property on South Second avenue, this city, will be sold at auction, and the proceeds divided among the heirs, who are Dell Hoes, E. Agnes Eldred and Carrie E. Hillsbeck. For a number of years these heirs were warring in court over the division of the estate. Last spring a decree of court establishing the share each should receive was given and this second decree is filed that the property may be sold and the proceeds divided and the money turned over to the heirs. The real estate has a value of $14,000 or $15,000. The estate was left by E. Hoes to his widow Emily Hoes, who in turn willed it to her children. The court litigation has been upon the will of the mother.

cast, headed by Master Harold as "Buster," and Alfred Grady as "Tige," is said to be by far the best of any one of the many seen in the comedy. Buster needs no introduction, his face is too well known and the mirth provoking elements of the play have been too thoroughly tried. Prices 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents.

Tim Murphy offers as his play for tonight a new comedy. It gives to this always clever exponent of high class comedy unlimited opportunity to again distinguish himself as a player of merit. While it is a powerful story it is not devoid of comedy situations, for there are many amusing and logical episodes brought about as a framework for the more dramatic situations, with back of all a beautifully conceived love theme. In presenting it Mr. Murphy has considered every opportunity by which to make this a strictly high class entertainment, and offers it beautifully mounted, elaborately costumed and carefully cast. Will be seen at the New Odeon tonight. Prices, 25, 50, 75, 11 and $1.50.

Street Car Manners. (Christian Science Monitor.) A western contemporary remarks with gentle irony that while it is no longer regarded as necessary to a display of good manners that a man shall offer his seat in a crowded street car to a standing woman, yet in some quarters it is put down as evidence of a lack of courtesy if a man in rushing for a place or a seat in a crowded public conveyance shall "squeeze in ahead of a woman." Without saying so, the writer seems to be desirous of leaving the impression that there are certain forms of politeness still to be observed by men who would like to stand well in the esteem of their fellow creatures.

If in place of some or all of the advertising in street cars, for a time at least, there should be substituted well-written and kindly hints as to good manners on the part of passengers, much good might be the result. The tendency toward lax manners on street cars is due largely to social tolerance, and this, in turn, is due largely to so-dial carelessness and indifference on the subject. Parents who are themselves witnesses and victims of such manners on street cars and in public places are not always as particular as they might be in training their sons and daughters in habits of kindness and courtesy. Sometimes the girl and the woman menace public comfort as seriously as the boy and the man.

Cards containing useful hints on ordinary behavior, without making distinction as to class or sex, would in time no doubt, awaken thought now dormant with relation to the duty which people owe to one another even tho they be strangers while in the end, by leading to a better feeling among patrons, they would compensate for any losses the corporations might suffer in an advertising way. For traction corporations, like all others that deal with the general public, are deeply concerned in protecting their patrons against all preventable forms of annoyance.

Apple Show Train to Break Speed Records Between Spokane and Chicago. Special to Times-Republican. St. Paul, Nov. 18.—At the general offices of the Northern Pacific Railway Company in St. Paul it is expected that the speed records between Spokane, Wash., and Chicago will be broken by the special train which is to transport the apple show exhibits from Spokane to Chicago.

The show which will close in Spokane, Nov. 19, covers four acres of ground. It requires hundreds of barrels, boxes, cases and crates in addition to the stands, booths, signs and paraphernalia of an exhibition of this kind. Just as soon as the doors close on the Spokane show everything in it will be loaded into newly painted refrigerator cars that have just been turned out of the shops for this special purpose. There will be about a dozen of these cars.

In the Spokane show are 2,000,000 apples and every one of them will be taken to Chicago and placed on exhibition in the First Regiment armory in that city just as they were shown in Spokane.

The officers of the Spokane show, officials of the Northern Pacific and the exhibitors will ride in special Pullmans attached to the train.

The Northern Pacific's tracks between Spokane and St. Paul will be cleared for this special, which will try to beat the records for trains of this size. The regular passenger running time between Spokane and Washington is 53 hours. It will take about 13 hours to reach Chicago from St. Paul where the train will be transferred to the Burlington tracks.
