

Big Corn Husking Stunt. Leaville, Nov. 24.—The men who have been picking corn for S. A. Sparks recently made a record worth mentioning. The corn was hauled in three loads by each man, and was a mile from the crib, making two miles to each load. It was all weighed and gathered in nine hours. Following is the record: Jap DeCook, 161.40; Fred Ratliff, 116.25, and C. VanBemick, 112. DeCook also made a four days' record of 538.25, and the total of the day's picking by eight men in nine hours was 801.25. This is certainly throwing some corn.

HEIRS DIDN'T KNOW IT

TRAER MAN, VISITING OLD HOME AFTER ABSENCE OF THIRTY YEARS, MAKES DISCOVERY.

LONG GIVEN UP AS DEAD, PORTION OF HERITAGE SPENT

Other Heirs to Grandmother's Estate Had Divided Property—Eugene Gregory Sorry He Absented Himself So Long, But Will Get a Portion of What is Due Him.

Special to Times-Republican. Traer, Nov. 26.—"Gene" Gregory recently made the discovery that he is one of the principal heirs to an estate near Kalamazoo, Mich., valued at something like $30,000. The estate was the property of his grandmother, who died a number of years ago, leaving a farm and other property to be divided among a number of relatives. Mr. Gregory's address being unknown to the others heirs, they were unable to communicate to him his good fortune.

About three weeks ago, while in Chicago making arrangements to go to South America, he decided he would once more visit his old home, where his father and mother are buried. Thirty years had elapsed since he had left the old scenes and his experience very much resembled that of Rip Van Winkle. Most of his acquaintances were dead or gone, he himself was legally dead. It was supposed he had died in a western prison. One uncle still lived in the vicinity from whom he learned the particulars concerning the estate, to which he had been heir. Several hundred dollars left him by another relative were still held for him by this uncle.

In 1880 Mr. Gregory left home with the intention of seeing the world, and in that way was lost track of. He has been in Traer since 1892 working at his trade, that of a mason. A nickname that he acquired in the west, "Kalamazoo Gregory," served to further frustrate the efforts to locate him. Had Mr. Gregory been discovered a few years earlier he would have received much more but as it is he expects to get about $3,000.

Some of the family who were given his portion are now dead. He has postponed his South American trip until the matter can be settled in court.

TREARY PLEADS GUILTY.

Married Latham Woman Because of Belief She Was His Wife. Davenport, Nov. 26.—Frank Treary, under indictment by the grand jury on a charge of lewdness, and who figured so prominently in the sensational proceedings of Mrs. Emma Latham, his alleged wife, who was supposed to have fallen heir to a fortune variously estimated at from $2,000,000 to $16,000,000, entered a plea of guilty to the indictment and was sentenced to serve a term of six months in the county jail. He was brought before Judge Bollinger by County Attorney Fred Volmer to whom he confessed a desire to plead guilty to the charge. Treary was let off with a light sentence because of his probable innocence in the affair. He claimed he had married the Latham woman at the time of his arrest and had lived with her for several years before the matter was found out through the supposed inheritance of an enormous amount of money by the woman with whom he was living as man and wife. No disposition has yet been made of the woman's case, she being held under the same charge.

MISS AMES IOWA HAMSTADT.

Woman Traveler Gives Birth to Babe at Hotel in Iowa. Special to Times-Republican. Nevada, Nov. 26.—Mrs. Emma Hamstadt, a widow lady who was traveling from her home at Columbus, Neb., to the home of her husband's people at Milwaukee, was taken ill on a Northwestern train the other day and when Ames was reached there was a carriage waiting to convey her to a hotel. A physician had been summoned and within an hour a little daughter had been born. Traveling men about the hotel soon learned of the occurrence and at once busied themselves. One offered a dollar for a peep at the child, then another and another and it was but short time until a fund was provided, a nurse secured, purchased, and the woman and babe made comfortable for the balance of their stay in Ames. The child is doing nicely and is to be christened Ames Iowa Hamstadt.

She was ill but a week, and the baffled surgeons did not diagnose the case as infantile paralysis until near the end.

TEN LIVES SAVED.

Pasteur Treatment Successful in Cases of all Boone People Bitten. Special to Times-Republican. Iowa City, Nov. 26.—Ten more lives of Iowa people, imperiled by the fangs of a mad dog, have been saved, it is believed, at the Iowa state bacteriological laboratory, in Iowa City. The victims were residents of Boone, all of whom, as previously chronicled in these

MURDER AND SUICIDE

Mt. Pleasant Man Shoots Wife, Sets Fire to House and Then Kills Himself—Aged Mother Discovers Tragedy.

Mount Pleasant, Nov. 26.—Neighbors rushing into the burning house of Charles W. Mabeus, a farmer living eight miles southwest of here, found the dead bodies of Mabeus and his wife, both burned beyond recognition. Evidence given by the neighbors who found the bodies, however, went to prove that the woman was shot before being burned, and a revolver found close to the body of Mabeus with three empty shells lead to the belief that he also was killed by shots from the fire. According to the neighbors there had been a good deal of quarreling between the couple about their children, and the man is said to have had a violent temper. While it never will be known just how the tragedy occurred, an oil can found in the center of the house showed that the fire had been set by whoever is responsible for the killings. Mabeus was married to his wife about two years ago, and both had children from former marriages. None of the children were about when the tragedy occurred.

The authorities investigating the case believe that Mabeus killed the woman and, after setting fire to the house, then himself. The aged mother of Mabeus, who lives near, was the first to discover the fire, and by the telephone summoned neighbors to aid, who made the gruesome discovery. The circumstances of the case has created intense excitement thruout the neighborhood.

RUN DOWN BY CAR.

Prominent Farmer of Harcourt Killed on Interurban.

Harcourt, Nov. 26.—Peter Johnson, a prominent farmer living at Lanyon crossing, near here, was instantly killed at 6 o'clock last night when he was struck by an interurban car on the Fort Dodge, Des Moines & Southern which he was attempting to flag. It is thought that he was so dazzled by the brilliancy of the headlights that he did not realize that the car was close upon him.

Mr. Johnson was on his way to Des Moines, from whence he expected to go to New Richmond, Wis., to take treatment for rheumatism. The motorman of the car declared that he saw the man, but was unable to stop the car not strayed away. All the park men, including Mr. Reed were overjoyed that the lost had returned. The supposition is that feed growing scarce and with the knowledge of a long winter ahead, the deer like the prodigal son in the scriptures decided that the best place was the home feed yard.

Des Moines. News of a pretty little romance supplies the death notice sent out from Minneapolis several days ago, announcing the demise of Oscar Walters, former Des Moines street car motorman, who died in his bed at the age of 34, after a long illness.

Wren Barker, a barber who disappeared from his home here last Friday evening, was found Tuesday at Atalissa, where he had gone on his bicycle. He was taken from Atalissa to Iowa City, where the authorities pronounced him temporarily insane. He is now at his home here.

Des Moines. Two fake spiritualist mediums in the persons of Mrs. Mary McDewitt, aged 80 years, and George W. Welburn, aged 60 years, were indicted by the grand jury on charges of defrauding the public to the tune of nearly 200 people by telling them they were heirs to $3,000,000 in England and persuading them to pay a certain amount to establish a right to share in the money.

Sidney. Hezekiah Roscoe, alleged slayer of the Hubbell family at Barnard, Mo., was born in this county within only a few miles of Sidney, residing with his parents here until he was about 9 years of age. He still has several relatives here, and only a few years ago, after his release from prison for his first crime, paid them a visit. His parents were early settlers in this county, but moved away about twenty-three years ago.

Atlantic. For the killing of John Frost, who lived with his daughter, Mrs. Phillip Hubbell, in the city, some time the latter part of last year, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad has paid his estate $1,200 in settlement of the death claim. Attorney H. H. Boorman, who represented the estate, secured the settlement for the claim agent in Omaha and the amount was agreed on. The man who was killed was 84 years of age and leaves eight children, among whom the money will be divided.

Jefferson. The corn in the northern part of the county is the finest in quality, and the largest in quantity known for many years. From such reports as can be gathered it is averaging sixty bushels to the acre on good and well-tended land. In the south part of the county the results of the drought of July and August was much more disastrous, and cut down the yield to from 35 to 45 bushels per acre, the occasional fields run far beyond those figures. The Bagley neighborhood was especially hard hit by the dry weather.

Cedar Rapids. Last June a deer escaped from the enclosure in Bever park. No one could find what had become of him. All that the park authorities knew about the matter was that he was gone. They hunted for it and advertised for it and sent out letters but nothing was heard of the deer. And so the deer was given up as lost or stolen or sold into some other captivity. Commissioner Reed tied a piece of crepe to the deer, corral and marked a vacant place at the Thanksgiving trough. And then the deer came back, came back without the aid of detectives. No one knows how he came back or where he came back, or where he came from. He just came back and jumped over the high fence into the enclosure and took his place at the trough with the deer that had
