MADERO ACCLAIMED HERO IN CAPITAL

ARRIVES IN MEXICO CITY AMIDST WILDEST ENTHUSIASM OF POPULACE.

TENS OF THOUSANDS VOICE THEIR WELCOME

Civilians and Soldiers Take Part in Triumphant Procession From Railway to Residence of Madero's Father—Plotters Secretly Busy and Several Arrests Are Made.

Mexico City, June 7.—Amid the wildest enthusiasm Francisco I. Madero, Jr., today entered the seat of the government which he overturned. The demonstration was the greatest which the capital has known in a generation. Business was practically suspended and the streets thru which the revolutionary leader made his triumphal way were lined with flags, bunting and flowers while from the throats of tens of thousands came roars of acclaim.

The welcome began when the great crowd at the railway station first caught sight of the bearded face and stocky figure as Madero emerged from his private car and stepped quickly into a waiting carriage.

Shouts of "Viva Madero" swelled into a great chorus as the cry was taken up along the streets leading from the railway station.

Bowing and smiling right and left Madero was driven from the station to the national palace and then to the home of his father at Berlin and Liverpool streets. Through the lined way fell in line as the carriage passed until a great noisy but friendly procession had been formed.

A stirring spectacle. Scores of civilian societies, political organizations, women in carriages, and soldiers in parade uniforms moved on in the quick step music of the military bands.

It was a spectacle stirring and unusual but amid the popular rejoicing could be detected the undercurrent of resentment on the part of unreconciled aristocracy, that looked on silent but not unmoved.

Plotters Are Busy. Rumors of plots against the life of the hero of the day were rife, as were reports that secret arrests had been made. Antonio Villacencia, former chief of police, was taken into custody last night. Immediately members of the house of deputies is said to have stayed the arm of the law against others alleged to have been implicated in a plot, the discovery of which was followed by the arrest of W. L. Dunn, an American at Monterey, Mexico, and Daniel De Villiers, who was arrested. These two men are accused of being at the head of the plotters.

J. Gallagher, of Sioux City, asking the court to reverse itself in its decision in regard to the time when the Moon law applied in limiting the number of saloons in a city. It was contended earnestly that the court was engaged in legislation in making that decision, but from the questions asked by members of the court during the argument it is certain the court will adhere to the decision.

QUAKE KILLS MANY IN MEXICO CITY

WRECKS SEVERAL BUILDINGS, INCLUDING ARTILLERY HEAD-QUARTERS.

BETWEEN FIFTY AND SEVENTY DEAD AND OTHERS INJURED

Seventy Soldiers Buried in Ruins of Barracks—Seismographs in Washington and New York Record Most Severe Quake in Years—Estimated to Be Distant 3,000 Miles.

Mexico City, June 7.—An earthquake at 4 o'clock this morning wrecked several buildings, including the artillery headquarters, where seventy soldiers were buried in the ruins. The dead and wounded are estimated at between fifty and seventy.

The tremor moved from north to south and opened fissures in the streets. The adobe houses crumbled, but the dead in these can not be numbered at present.

The shock was most severely felt in the western part of the city, the buildings in the central part of the capital were rocked.

Several persons were killed thru the collapse of the building occupied by the street railway power plant.

At Buena Vista the railway tracks were wrecked by an explosion of gas at the army barracks which added to the horrors of the scene.

Warehouses at the central station collapsed and an engineer was killed. A private boarding school building was wrecked but none of the occupants was injured.

The national palace had one of its walls cracked and the keystone of one of the arches was displaced. The ancient cathedral in Santo Domingo was damaged.

Washington, June 7.—Seismographs thruout the entire country were jarred at an early hour today by the most severe earthquake that has been recorded in several years. It is estimated to have occurred 4,000 or 5,000 miles from Washington, but in what direction would not be ascertained.

Beginning at 4:05 o'clock this morning the needles of the seismographs at Georgetown University observatory began to move.

The tremors steadily increased in intensity, causing the needles to record an unusual vibration. The maximum of the north and south movement was reached at 4:23 o'clock and lasted eight minutes, while the maximum of the east and west movement was reached at 4:24 o'clock, lasting ten minutes.

Gradually the tremors subsided and died away at 7:51 o'clock, after one hour and forty-one minutes.

Father Tondorf declared that it indicated the most severe earthquake that had been recorded since the establishment of the Georgetown observatory two years and a half ago.

Recorded in New York. New York, June 7.—A severe earthquake, estimated at about 3,000 miles from New York, was recorded on the seismograph of Fordham University this morning. The beginning of the earthquake was at 4:11 o'clock, with the principal shock seven minutes later.

The direction of the earthquake was on lines from east to west, as were noted at the time of the San Francisco earthquake, and there were slight movements also from north to south.

Professor Tinnon, of Fordham, said that the earthquake was the heaviest that has been recorded at Fordham in a long time. He thought the center of the quake was about 2,500 to 3,000 miles away, but in what direction he could not say.

None of the telegraph and cable companies reported any interruption of service which generally follows in the district where the quake is the severest. The South American and Trans-Atlantic cables were working all right and telegraph wires in all directions were not hampered.

REPORT ON STEEL READY. Facts Gathered by Herbert Knox Smith After Three Year's Work. Washington, June 7.—A full report on the United States iron and steel industry, which Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of corporations, has been three years in gathering, will be laid before the president within the next ten days. The general outlines of Commissioner Smith's report will be as follows: On this report and the report of special investigators of the department of Justice Frederick Taft and Attorney General Wickersham probably will decide what action, if any, shall be brought against the corporation.

Commissioner Smith's report is founded on investigations which were ordered by former President Roosevelt and which have been continued by direction of President Taft. While government action might be influenced by the report it would not be based on it.

It was said yesterday that it may be several weeks before President Taft and Attorney General Wickersham go into conference on the case. It is understood that Solicitor General Lehman will participate in these conferences.

HEARINGS ON PARCELS POST. Democrats Start Movement Looking for Possible Legislation. Washington, June 7.—The democratic organization in the house of representatives started the movement for parcels post legislation by arranging for hearings on all bills proposing the package carrying system. The hearings will begin on June 18.

That a parcels post system will be established by the present congress is the settled conviction of republican and democratic leaders alike. But whether the legislation will be enacted at the regular session, beginning next December, or at the final session of year later, and whether it will be an experimental or a comprehensive package carrying system are undetermined questions.

While there will be no attempt to pass any of the numerous pending parcels post bills at this special session, attention will be concentrated on the series of hearings on the proposition conducted by the subcommittee of the house postoffice committee. Chairman Lloyd, of the subcommittee, has announced he would call his associates together on June 14 for a preliminary consideration of the subject and that the public hearings would begin on June 16.

The scope of the investigation will be without limit. The members of the committee desire to hear the views of the postal officials, the managers of the mail order houses, the local retail merchants, the rural residents and any other persons whose interests would be affected. The hearings may not be concluded during the special session.

Chairman Lloyd believes the hearings will provide all the information necessary for the framing of an adequate parcels post bill. It is his idea that this ground work will be completed this summer so that a bill can be reported early in the regular session.

New Orleans, June 7.—Another revolution in Mexico, with Governor Felix Diaz, of the state of Oaxaca, a nephew of the recently deposed ruler, as its promoter and ruling spirit, is said to be taking shape, according to a private letter received in Mexico City yesterday by one of the most prominent Mexicans in the local colony, a general in the administration of General Huerta.

The governor is one of the most powerful factors in the south, says the letter, "and he has about 10,000 men under his hand, and all his personal effects in the looting of the city."

He says the four days' battle was precipitated by the stubbornness of Colonel Morales of the federal garrison. Three thousand rebels demanded the surrender of 800 federal troops. Governor Redo and General Aguilar wanted to yield, but Morales refused.

Fighting started May 29 and continued four days. June 1 a white flag was raised by Aguilar and the rebels entered the city. Morales kept up the fighting and the battle became hand to hand. But the rebels refused to surrender if his life was spared. The rebels agreed and the surrender followed. The city was looted from one end to the other. The residents were enraged at both sides and demanded the life of Morales. Redo and Aguilar were arrested but the rebels had no feeling against them and later they were released. Morales and forty-five others are still in jail.

Seventy-five dead federalists were counted in the street. Morales said he hoped to kill a few Gringos and turn them over to the rebels. It is not known whether any Americans were killed.

Secretary Knox Again Appears Before Reciprocity Committee to Explain Canadian Treaty—Tells of Probable Effects of Amendments Proposed by Root and Others.

Washington, June 7.—Judge E. H. Gary, executive head of the United States Steel Corporation, was a witness again today before the Stanley steel trust committee of the house. Mr. Gary was interrogated further by Representative Littleton on the absorption of the Tennessee Coal & Iron Company by the steel corporation.

Charges alleged to have been made by Senator Oliver, of Pennsylvania, that the United States Steel Corporation is endeavoring to get control of water transportation on the Ohio river thru absorption of the Pittsburgh Coal & Coke Company and the Monongahela River Company were presented to the committee by Robert C. Hall, of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Gary, replying to questions by Chairman Stanley, denied that the steel corporation had any such plans in mind.

Knox Reciprocity Witness. Washington, June 7.—In response to an urgent request Secretary Knox appeared before the senate finance committee today to explain further the Canadian reciprocity agreement. The committee hopes to be able to take a final vote on the measure today.

An opinion of Secretary Knox as to the effect of the Root and other amendments was heard by the committee in executive session.

Hope of the administration that the finance committee would report the Canadian reciprocity bill unamended were dashed when after a brief executive session of the committee it was learned before the senate vote on the paper and wood pulp section probably would be adopted in modified form.

It was said that in addition to seven republican members of the committee, Senators Bailey, Simmons and Johnson were demoted by the members of the amendment; while Senators Penrose and Cullom are declared to be with the three democrats in opposition, thus precluding the adoption of the amendment by a vote of ten to five.

Final consideration of the measure will be begun by the committee today. The amendment offered by Senator Root provides that the paper and wood pulp section of the bill shall "not be" in force until the president "shall have satisfactory evidence and shall make proclamation that such wood pulp, paper and kindred products of the United States are admitted into all the provinces of Canada free of duty."

It is contended by the opponents that the amendment raising the question of the Dominion government's jurisdiction over the provinces will endanger the measure, a contention that is refuted by those who believe in the provision.

The modification of the amendment may have an important bearing on the situation.

The committee endeavored to agree on a day for a vote on the measure. It was apparent that the members favored the amendment, but a recommendation probably will be made to the senate to this effect when the bill is reported. Senator Bailey suggested that July 20 be set aside for a vote on the free list bill, and that the vote schedule be acted upon early in August. No definite agreement was reached, however.

The committee will meet again today, but it is not believed it will be able to take final action on the reciprocity bill at that time.
