JOHN ASHER DIES NEAR EAGLE CITY

CLAIMED TO BE FIRST WHITE CHILD BORN IN MARSHALL COUNTY.

WAS SON OF MR. AND MRS. WASHINGTON ASHER

Was Born West of Albion, on What is Now a Part of the Swearingen Farm, in 1848—Spent Most of His Life in Hardin County—Funeral to Be Held Sunday Afternoon.

John Asher, one of the first, if not the first white child born in Marshall county, and a son of one of the county's real pioneers, died at his home near Eagle City, Hardin county, at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Death was caused by ailments due to old age. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Washington Asher, the founders of the Asher family in this county.

John Asher, altho he was born in the county, lived here only a short time, as his parents moved to Hardin county when he was a small child. They lived for a great many years near Union.

Born Here in 1848. Mr. and Mrs. Washington Asher came west from Indiana in May, 1848, being one of the first couples to settle in the county, at a point west of what is now Albion, and a part of what is now the Thomas Swearingen farm. On Jan. 4, 1848, the son John was born. In October, 1849, his parents moved to Hardin county, but altho they had lived in the county for only a few years they gave the name of Asher to the good-sized creek that has its source in the northern part of the county and empties into the Iowa river near the Center street dam.

The family settled on the farm south of Union, later known as the O. B. Chapin farm, where they lived for many years. Was Married in 1875. Jan. 10, 1875, John Asher married Miss Minerva Lamb, who died at the Asher home northwest of Eldora, Feb. 17, 1911. Mr. and Mrs. John Asher lived for a time on a farm northwest of Union, but in 1905 they moved to a farm north of Iowa Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Asher were the parents of six children, two sons and four daughters, all of whom live near Eagle City, Hardin county. Since Mrs. Asher's death the daughters have been keeping house for their father. The funeral will be held from the home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be near Berlin.

McCord's Sunday Menu. Cream of Tomato, Roast Chicken, Baked Fresh Ham, Leg Mutton with Caper Sauce, Oyster Dressing, Mashed Potatoes, Combination Salad, Pastry, Pumpkin, Lemon, Apple, Cream Pie, Ice Cream, Coffee, Milk, Home cooking, McCord's Cafe.

To the Public. I have sold my interest in the Johnson & Hines grocery and wish to thank our customers for their patronage. Carl Johnson.

Equal to Emergencies.

The quick wit of a traveling salesman who has since become a well-known proprietor, was severely tested one day. He sent in his card by the office boy to the manager of a large concern whose inner office was separated from the waiting room by a glass partition.

When the boy handed his card to the manager the salesman saw him impatiently tear it in half and throw it in the wastebasket; the boy came out and told the caller that he could not see the chief. The salesman told the boy to go back and get him his card; the boy brought out 5 cents with the message that his card was torn-up. Then the salesman took out another card and sent the boy back, saying: "Tell your boss I sell two cards for 5 cents."

He got his interview and sold a large bill of goods.—Everybody's Magazine.

Brief Cases.

In a certain town of Vermont there was a lively widow maintaining a boarding house, who was joined in matrimony by her brother, a widower. Now, so chance that their very first guests were a young widow and her sister, who had recently lost her second wife. An agent from the associated charities came to investigate a case of distress in that neighborhood, and this was the first house she hit upon. "Of whom does your family consist?" she inquired of the mistress. "All remnants!" was the reply.

From "Old Slawsh." "We are more frivolous in our college life than in our business," George Fitch said. "Still, college life has made business what it is. Fraternities are a clearinghouse for ability and ambition."—Kansas City Star.
