Children's millinery opening, Saturday. Carnation given to each child. Miss Middlekauff. Fancy Aisyke, red and mammoth clover seed, at right prices, also fancy timothy seed. Bowles & Billings. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Friends church will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Andrews, 7 South Ninth street. Miss Middlekauff will have a special display of children's hats Saturday, March 21, and will give a carnation to every child. Miss Middlekauff. Mrs. Wallace Collins, of Freeport, Ill., arrived in the city Wednesday evening and is a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Ainsworth. The quartet composed of Mrs. Meeker, Miss Ruth Bell, Mr. Shove and Mr. Salisbury will sing "Anne Laurie" by Buck at the concert, Congregational church, Friday evening, 8 o'clock. Brotherhood. Mrs. E. B. Clinton, 10 West Grant street, entertained the members of the Tattling Club Wednesday afternoon. Assisted by Mrs. J. B. Troutner and Miss Vida Barsaloux, the hostess served refreshments. Margaret Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thompson, a student at St. Joseph's Academy, Des Moines, is ill of scarlet fever in Des Moines. Miss Thompson has been ill for a week and her condition is somewhat improved. The members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First United Evangelical church were entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Frank Hollcroft, 708 South Ninth avenue. The hours were pleasantly spent visiting and with fancy work. Mrs. Hollcroft served refreshments. The entertainment given by the Central Church of Christ orchestra under the direction of C. H. Reese, at the church Wednesday evening, proved a most successful affair. There was a large attendance and the program of solos and instrumental numbers and readings was very fine. Miss Luella Wendenhall, soloist, and Miss Lucille Ruben, reader, assisted the orchestra. At the Odeon tomorrow special matinee at 3 p. m., William A. Brady will present "Little Women," just as New Yorkers saw the dramatization of Louisa M. Alcott's immortal story at The Playhouse, New York, all last year. The metropolitan production has been taken on tour intact and the characters who have swayed millions of readers from tears to laughter are in the hands of players of established reputation. Odeon. "Within the Law" the intensely interesting new drama of present day New York life, with the same clever cast of players and lavish production as seen here before, is announced for a return engagement at the Odeon Saturday, where it will be seen matinee and night. This play which engrossingly depicts a good girl's struggle in the underworld, after having been unjustly sent to prison, is the triumphant successful dramatic offering of the year in both New York and Chicago. Odeon. The pupils of the Arnold school sixth grade, taught by Miss Tess Tinker, entertained the pupils of the seventh grade, taught by Miss Mary Hall, Wednesday afternoon. The affair was a St. Patrick's party and was held in the kindergarten room, where games and exercises furnished the entertainment. Refreshments were served in the seventh grade room, the children being assisted by Mrs. M. M. Tinker and Mrs. J. F. Schultz. Members of the Careaway Club were entertained Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Miller, at the Balch home, 108 North Second street. Dinner was laid for forty, and dinner served at 6:30, the hostesses being assisted by Mrs. Frank Willard, Mr. Will Wallace and Miss Dorothy Balch. During the evening military five fun Fred was played, the prizes being won by Mrs. Emma Spers and Mrs. T. C. Cartwright and A. J. Jarmey and D. W. Maister. Mrs. Frank Navarra, 404 East Nevada street, was surprised by about twenty of her friends and relatives at her home Wednesday evening, the affair having been arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Navarra in honor of the 22d birthday anniversary of Mrs. Navarra. The evening was pleasantly spent in a social way and refreshments were served. Those present were C. Viver, T. Hadner, T. Clirger, P. Stramsky, L. Stramsky, M. J. Dumpath, Miss Hawirova, Miss Divis, Miss Vejraskova, Miss Charnat, Miss Steshlik, and Miss Ena Tranoska. One hundred and seventy-five patrons of the Anson school enjoyed a St. Patrick's program at the school building Wednesday evening, when the members of the Anson Mothers' Club entertained. Earl Bartholomew told of the life of St. Patrick, and piano solos were played by Marjorie Miller, Thomas Haines, Dora Lillie, and Phyllis Fantom. Several clever readings and Irish stories were given by Max Wright, Miss Ethel Havens, Ford Dann, Laddie Novotny, Miss Mary Parsons, and Jessie Rogers. Other numbers on the program were a whistling solo by Mrs. Bert Bogie, an Irish folk dance by eight pupils of the fourth grade, a little play, "The Courtship of Miles Standish," by pupils of the sixth and seventh grades. After the program various games were enjoyed, and refreshments were served.

Dr. Bulard, otopath, 15 West Main. Big L. corn, four cans, 25 cents. Flower. Walnuts, per bushel 75 cents. Flower. Fancy apples, per peck, 45 cents. Flower. Wisconsin seed potatoes, 99 cents a bushel. Flower. High grade coffee, five pounds for 95 cents. Flower. All bakery goods delivered. Phone 333. Standard bakery. A. J. Busby, of Waterloo, spent the day in the city on business. George W. Dobson, of New Hampton, was in the city and LeGrand today on business. Saturday is a special day for children and a carnation will be given each child. Miss Middlekauff. T. T. Shorthill, 208 North First street, is confined to his home, suffering from a severe case of shingles. President C. C. St. Clair, of the First National Bank, and G. W. Lawrence were in Des Moines Wednesday on business. A carnation for every child that attends the children's spring millinery opening, Saturday, at this store. Miss Middlekauff. Mrs. L. J. Jarrett is making a good recovery from the effects of her operation for appendical abscess at St. Thomas hospital. The Sinclair Tea and Coffee Company will serve their Leader coffee free on Saturday, the 21st. You are cordially invited.—Advertisement. The Glick School Mothers' Club will meet at the school building Friday afternoon, when Mrs. N. Merrill will give an address on "Home Care of the Sick." Mrs. C. H. Morris went to Des Moines today to attend a meeting of the Iowa Christian Woman's Board of Missions, of which Mrs. Morris is vice president. Mrs. W. R. Rubee, 514 North Center street, was taken to St. Thomas hospital this morning to be prepared for a surgical operation to be performed Friday morning. Warren Nichols, of Minerva, was in the city today. Mrs. Nichols who is recovering from an operation on the knee, is still compelled to use crutches, but she is getting better. Harry G. Hopkins' condition today is much improved over Wednesday, following his operation for appendicitis at the Deaconess hospital. His symptoms are encouraging. We are paying 60 cents for No. 3 or better yellow shelled corn; 25 cents for good white oats; 80 cents for good winter wheat. Bowles & Billings Grain Company, Marshalltown and Marietta, Iowa. Alonzo Dwire, of Newton, arrived in the city Wednesday evening to visit for about a week at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. N. Dickerson. Mrs. Dickerson and Mr. Dwire will visit in St. Anthony Friday with the former's son, Tony Brown. Bert G. Cochrane, formerly of this city, but now of Becker county, Minnesota, has sold to Mrs. Kate Hirmance the residence property at 401 West Boone street. Clerk of Courts S. H. Rielly, who has been living in the property, has leased it from the new owner. Rev. C. E. Luce, pastor of the Methodist church of Albion, left for Oasis, Johnson county, this morning to sing with the Methodist preachers' quartet that gives a concert there this evening. This quartet sang here when the Upper Iowa conference met in this city about a year ago. W. N. Dickerson went to Clarion this forenoon to superintend the erection of some buildings on an unimproved quarter section two and one-half miles south of Clarion that he bought a short time ago. Later in the spring Mr. and Mrs. Dickerson are going to go the farm to live for a few weeks while a house and barn are being built. Mr. and Mrs. S. J. McClain, living four miles northwest of the city in Taylor township, entertained twenty neighbors at their country home Wednesday evening. Games and music furnished the amusement and the time was spent socially. Mrs. McClain, assisted by Cecil Stogall and Margaret McClain, served a two-course supper. "Little Women" has lost none of its charm in its transfer from a sweet old story to an absorbing play of today, and players are expected to flock in large numbers to the Odeon tomorrow, matinee and night, to see the much-loved characters in real life. William A. Brady, under whose direction "Little Women" ran at The Playhouse, New York, all last year, is presenting the play on tour with the same close attention to detail that marked its long metropolitan engagement. Odeon. Funeral services for Albert Dawson were held at 2 o'clock this morning from St. Mary's church. Rev. J. J. Fitzpatrick officiating, and were attended by many friends and neighbors from Taylor township. The pall bearers were Roland Clay, C. B. Weeks, John Robb, Roy Cakerice, Roy Faught, and William White. Burial was in Riverside, From St. Anthony, the former home of Mrs. Dawson, there were in attendance at the funeral Mr. and Mrs. William Lyons, and John and William Curley. There were also present from a distance Mrs. Stephen Curley and daughter Cella, of Zealring. Rev. L. D. Tobin, pastor of the Church of the Sacred Heart, St. Anthony, had charge of the funeral of Thomas, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mackin, of St. Anthony, at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The services were held from the church. The flower bearers were Gladys McLaughlin and Cella Lyons, and the pall bearers Wendell and Carroll Dunn, William Claffey, and Raymond Dwyer. Burial followed in the St. Anthony cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Thompson, of Eldora, were in attendance at the funeral, as was also Miss Katherine Welch, of this city. MISS SUSANNA CARTER DEAD. Aged Maiden Lady, Formerly of Albion, Dies Here. Miss Susanna Carter, aged 81, of Albion, and a long time resident of Taylor township, died at the home of her sister Mrs. Mary M. Collins, 408 1/2 North Third street, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. During the winter Miss Carter has been living with her sister. Miss Carter has been falling in health for some time, due to valvular heart disease, but she did not become seriously sick until Monday when she was taken with pneumonia which followed an attack of grip. Miss Carter was the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Carter. She was born at Mooresville, Ind., and came to Marshall county with her parents in 1863. They settled at Prairieville, where Miss Carter lived until after the death of her parents, when she moved to Albion. There she has lived with her sister, Miss Anna Carter, since 1874. Miss Carter taught rural schools of the county for a number of years. She was a life-long member of the Friends church. In addition to the sisters, Miss Carter and Mrs. Mary Collins, one other sister, Mrs. Rebecca H. Collins, of Taylor township, survives. Five Brothers and sisters are dead, the last of them to die being Mrs. Eliza M. Collins, who died here last November. READ THE T. R. WANT ADS.

New Colonial Tonight. A most sensational scene ever filmed, horse and rider are actually taken up in the clouds, 2,000 feet over the sea. This was photographed, and now in "brass" new and has never been run thru a machine before. Prices the same as usual, 5 and 10 cents. New Colonial. Strawberry Not European. A great many people are under the impression that the strawberry is of European origin. As a matter of fact, it is derived from the Chilian bush, which is native to the Pacific coast.
