employed by Herbert Bros. were in town in the evening, and according to report, got drunk. The fight started on the way home, when one of the laborers called "water boy," was attacked by his companion. After reaching the camp, the "water boy's" companion got a shovel handle and renewed the attack. "Water boy" injuries consist of one fractured rib; three teeth gone; a gash on the forehead, one black eye and numerous bruises. The police were not called.

READY FOR OPENING First Game in Central Association in This City to Be Played Tuesday Unless Heavy Rains Should Interfere—Plans Completed For Local Opening. Unless heavy rains tonight or tomorrow should interfere, the opening of the Central Baseball Association in this city will take place Tuesday. The opening is now dependent only on the weather bureau, which gives out the following prediction for Tuesday: "Slightly cooler tonight and Tuesday; increasing cloudiness, with probable showers." The heavy rains of Sunday night did not materially effect the playing field, and the diamond will be in shape for the game provided there is no further heavy rainfall. The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock, being preceded by an automobile parade to the same basis with other stock issued by the association. There is outstanding about 2,500 shares and the articles of incorporation say that in order to change it is necessary to have present in person or by proxy 50 percent of the stock. The officers and directors are anxious that all members who can attend the meeting, if you cannot come, please see that the secretary has your proxy tomorrow. George F. Thayer, Secretary.

SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION Special Meeting at Marshalltown Club Tuesday Evening. The board of directors at the April meeting called a special meeting for May 12 at 7:30 at the Marshalltown club rooms to increase the capital stock from $250,000 to $500,000, this was necessary as practically all the original capital stock had been sold. Also to change article seven placing paid up stock on the same basis with other stock issued by the association. There is outstanding about 2,500 shares and the articles of incorporation say that in order to change it is necessary to have present in person or by proxy 50 percent of the stock. The officers and directors are anxious that all members who can attend the meeting, if you cannot come, please see that the secretary has your proxy tomorrow. George F. Thayer, Secretary.

AMUSEMENTS. "Pop" Anson's Appearance in Vaudeville Warmly Received. "Pop" Anson, noted from New York to Shanghai as the "great old man of baseball" came home Sunday evening to show the home folks that his fame was not entirely dependent upon his diamond deeds. "Cap" is now an actor. The engagement at the Orpheum was arranged in order that Anson might be present at the opening of the local baseball season and might show his old neighbors and friends that he had highly developed histrionic abilities, sufficiently so to cause Christy Mathewson, Ruber Marquard, "Chief" Bender, and other great actors to grow green with envy.

Downs Returns to Vaudeville. T. Nelson Downs, of this city, known to the vaudeville stage as "King of Kinks," who has not appeared professionally for some time, has returned to the stage, playing an engagement at the Orpheum in Clinton last week. Mr. Downs scored a big hit with the Clinton theater goers. The bill was an unusually strong one and included Anson's old Iowaan, Harry Irwin, of Clinton.

No Afternoon Delivery Tuesday. Owing to the closing of all grocery stores Tuesday for the opening of the baseball season there will be no delivery by the Trust Delivery Company after 10:30 a. m.—Advertisement.

Students Are Entertained. Athletes and students attending the meet were royally entertained by Cornell College. Meals were served to all the visiting students and all were admitted free of charge to the Iowa-Cor-

TEMPLE OF CHILDHOOD United States Government Probing the "Temple of Childhood" Scheme—The National and the State Association of Photographers Against It. The "Temple of Childhood" scheme unofficially connected with the San Francisco exposition and which contemplates a beauty contest with an unsuspected money attachment, involving a trip to San Francisco at the winner's expense, is to be inquired into by the United States government. Many mothers have asked us regarding this. We wish to emphatically state that we, the following photographers, are in no way connected with such a scheme and never have even considered it. It's a money making scheme from start to finish. Aggar studio, Watters studio and Stonestreet studio.

Pictured above are three distinct types of corsets, each far superior to all others in their class. No. 352 NEMO KOPERSERVICE CORSET, for full figures. New double construction combines the ease of the old skirt corset with the long and the ease of the present mode and the "Landing" figure. Deep girths and elastic bands prevent all pressure over the gastric region. Long best, with Nemo "front" construction. Fine white coutil. $5.00 No. 303 NEMO "EASY-FRONT" CORSET, for slender figures. Very low bust—almost topless. Wide girths of elastic Landing Cloth cover the entire gastric region. Extra-long flexible skirt. This is the best corset for slender figures, over made at so low a price. Unparalleled for comfort. $3.00 No. 327 NEMO DUPLEX SELF-REDUCING CORSET, for full figures. Has the improved Self-Reducing front, with incurved front steels, giving excellent support. Broad bands of Landing Cloth webbing, extending far below back bands, make the extremely long skirt comfortable and flexible. Low bust. (No. 328 is same, but with medium bust). Fine white coutil or batiste. $3.00 KOPERSERVICE CORSETS—$5.00 LASTIKOPS CORSETS—$3.00 up SELF-REDUCING CORSETS—$3.00, $4, $5 and up. The only standardized line of corsets in existence, from which every figure can be fitted with correct style, comfort and hygienic safety. ASK YOUR DEALER! Nemo Hygienic-Fashion Institute, N. Y.
