FORGED TO OPEN SAFE

BOLD ROBBERY PERPETRATED BY NEGRO HOLD-UP MEN IN KEOKUK.

STOREKEEPER COMPELLED TO TURN OVER CASH AND CHECKS

Under Cover of Guns, Proprietor Opens Safe and Watches Robbers Help Themselves—Three Negroes Engaged in Job—Two Suspects in Jail—Less Than $100 Secured.

Keokuk, July 3.—A bold holdup, the under all the circumstances not so daring as it might seem to be, was perpetrated in Keokuk last night. Covered with a gun, Ham Inman, proprietor of a grocery store at 1611 Blondeau street, was compelled to open his own safe and witness its rifling of $73.80 in money and $14.18 in checks. The robbery was committed by three negroes, who extinguished one of the coal oil lamps and turned down the other so that they would not be observed by possible passersby. They also rifled the cash register and an old money drawer of a large quantity of pennies and several dollars in stamps. The stickup men then fled out the plank road and made their escape. Later in the night two suspects were taken into custody, who have been partly identified and are believed by the police to be the men who committed the robbery. It is assumed from circumstantial evidence at hand that the crime will eventually be fastened upon them. The men under arrest are Keokuk negroes. No money or other property taken from the store was found upon them. The robbery was committed at 9 o'clock last night.

Proprietor Inman was sitting on the sidewalk in front of his place of business enjoying the cool of the evening, when a negro brushed past him, entered the store and stopped at the candy showcase. Inman responded to answer the call of a supposed customer, when the second negro entered, who in a moment extinguished one of the coal oil lamps in the chandelier in the forward part of the store and then lowered the wick in the other one, so that there was a vague twilight effect in the establishment. About the time this low-light stage effect was produced a third negro made his appearance and immediately thereafter one of the trio presented a revolver to the face of Inman and ordered him to throw up his hands. Mr. Inman responded to the command with all the alacrity that he could summon.

Demanded Valuables. "I want your money." That was all the stickup man said. Inman now fully realized the situation and bowed to the inevitable with calm acquiescence. Without further word or ceremony the visitors proceeded to disburse the amount they were about. While one of the men drew a bead on Inman's head with the ugly-looking weapon, the other two robbed the cash register of its change, which amounted to about 200 pennies and three Columbia half-dollar coins. Then they opened the store drawer, from which was taken $1 worth of one-cent stamps and $1 worth of two-cent stamps. The scene of activity was now shifted to the safe in the rear of the store. Under the persuasive influence of the revolver pointing him squarely in the face Inman turned the combination and opened the safe. Then the robbers helped themselves to its contents in the form of money and checks and four gold finger-rings. Nothing further of value invited their attention, the men hastened thru the front doorway and disappeared in the darkness up the plank road.

PUSH NATHOO PROSECUTION.

Y. W. C. A. of Muscatine Becomes Interested in Seduction Case. Special to Times-Republican. Muscatine, July 3.—Sensational developments will likely mark the prosecution of "Prince" Nathoo, of Muscatine, Hindoo fortune teller and medicine man. His arrest on the charge of seduction of a 30-year-old French girl, Alice Cornish, of Iowa City, is not his first experience with the workings of an American criminal court. This time it appears, however, that a more de-

Cherries are in Season

The cherry is one of the few fruits that are improved by cooking, and of all the desserts that can be made with them, none is more delicious than this pudding. If made with K C Baking Powder, the pastry will be light and porous especially if you have a slow oven at the start to give it time to rise. Try this recipe and you will want it again and again as long as the cherries last.

K C Cherry Pudding

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine. 2 cups sifted pastry flour; 2 level tea-spoonfuls K C Baking Powder; 1/2 cup powdered sugar; 1/2 cup butter; 1 cup milk (scant); cherries; salt or 1 table-spoonful butter.

Sift together, three times, the flour, baking powder and salt, and work in the butter. Beat the eggs, add the milk, and stir into the dry ingredients. Butter an agate or china baking dish, half fill it with choice cherries, sprinkle with a little salt or add bits of butter; turn the soft dough over the cherries and bake about thirty minutes, or steam one hour. Turn from the dish to have the cherries uppermost. Serve with hard sauce or with a cup of stoned cherries, cooked tender in a cup of sugar and water. This recipe is from "The Cook's Book." It contains 90 tested recipes by Mrs. Hill among which are Strawberry and Raspberry Cream, and other desserts that will help you to make the most of fresh fruits while they are in season. "The Cook's Book" will be sent for one certificate from a 25-cent can of K C Baking Powder. Address Jacques Mig. Co., Chicago.

Clinton. Friends of Bernard V. Murphy, former coach of the Clinton high school, received announcements of his marriage, which occurred on June 28. The announcement comes from Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Caron of Oak Park, Ill., whose daughter, Laura, became the wife of Mr. Murphy on that day. The groom is well known in Clinton, in connection with his work at the high school. He now holds a position as traveling salesman.

Henry Lanskink purchased the quarter section, paying $185 per acre. This land was originally purchased by Mr. Walsh in 1879 and he paid $6 per acre for it. Last year the farm rented for $5.50 per acre, cash rent. A fine set of buildings and other improvements have been made on the farm during the past two years.

Spencer. The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hammond was struck by lightning last Friday evening. The bolt struck the side of the chimney, tearing away the shingles and plastering in the kitchen, running along the stove it melted two or three holes in a dishpan and also some in a granite dipper, setting fire to a tea-towel, and if Mr. and Mrs. Hammond had not recovered from the shock when they did, might have resulted in quite a loss. As it was they were quite badly shocked. It was a narrow escape.

Stanhope. While Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Steinfeldt and family of near Stanhope were out for a joy ride Sunday afternoon they met with a mishap which was of a very serious nature. Mrs. Steinfeldt, mother of the boy, received some bad injuries to her head and face and the son's back was quite badly injured. The auto was quite badly damaged, but at this writing the injured occupants are getting along nicely and are expected to recover in a short time.

Cat Mothers Young Rabbit. Special to Times-Republican. Iowa City, July 3.—A queer family has been discovered in Iowa City. A big, motherly Maltese, rearing four kittens brought them a young rabbit in her mouth, a week ago. Onlookers anticipated the destruction of the bunny for the hungry kittens, naturally. Instead, the elder cat is still "mothering" the rabbit and is evidently intending to rear it with her own feline brood.
