ANSONS ARE HELPLESS BEFORE "CY" ALBERTS

SECURE BUT THREE HITS AND LOSE LAST GAME TO MUSKIES 6 TO 2.

NEW FACE APPEARS IN MARSHALLTOWN LINE-UP

Mulroney Relieves Andreen at Backstop—Harvey Readmitted at Shortstop—Boyle's Boys Get Hop on Visitors in First Frame, and Increase Lead in Sixth and Seventh.

Special to Times-Republican.

Muscatine, Aug. 1. — Not taking any chance whatever on Marshalltown slipping anything over on them, those Muskies stepped right up to the plate yesterday across on Richards' Ansons, 6 to 2.

The elongated Mr. Richardson was sent to the peak to stop the Muskies' winning streak, but he failed to develop into a whale of a stopper, as Curtis waited him out for a walk in the opening frame, Runser's swift grounder to Delaney put Curtis at second, from which station he easily scored on Masters' ripping wallop to right center.

"Cy" Alberts was effective during almost every frame, and for eight innings twirled hitless ball. As a matter of fact there wasn't an inning, except the seventh, when more than three Ansons came up to the wicket.

Alberts was effective during almost every frame, and for eight innings twirled hitless ball. As a matter of fact there wasn't an inning, except the seventh, when more than three Ansons came up to the wicket.

Alberts was accorded some great support. In the second semester things looked bad when Runser let Foster's drive proceed right between his legs but, after Delaney had dropped one into Wetzels' talons, Harvey swiped the pill to Masters, who, with Harrell and Hasbrook, executed a double play.

Change of Bill at Orpheum.

Melroe and Reese, novel comedians; Hazel Linch, the singing comedienne, and Dale and Dale, in a comedy musical sketch, will make up the new bill for the first half of the coming week at the Orpheum theater, opening with two performances Sunday evening.

Dale and Dale have an unusually clever sketch, full of good comedy and excellent music. Hazel Linch is recognized as one of the leading singing comediennes on the stage and her offering this season is regarded as the best in her career.

Melroe and Reese are dancers par-excellence and their team work is unsurpassed by any other team of dancers in the town. The bill as a whole is strictly high class and should prove one of the best in recent weeks.
