WANT NORTH EIGHTH STREET BOULEVARDED

PROPERTY OWNERS PETITION FOR IMPROVEMENT, INCLUDING PARKINGS IN STREETS.

FILE PLAT ASKING FOR GRADE AND SIDEWALKS

Sidewalk Contract Let to R. A. Elzy, Only Bidder For 10 1/4 Cents a Square Yard—Councilman Nicholson Authorized to Contract For City Improvement of South Center Street.

A petition from property owners to boulevard three blocks of North Eighth street, the letting of a contract to R. A. Elzy for laying cement sidewalks, and the authorizing of Councilman W. E. Nicholson to enter into a contract on behalf of the city for the widening of South Center street, were three important street improvement projects before the council this forenoon.

Owners of property along Eighth street want the street boulevarded from State to Jerome street. Those who petitioned for the improvement own 1,500 feet of lot frontage. They ask the city to establish the grade for the street and order in the sidewalks. The plat filed by the petitioners calls for parkings in the middle of the street, with intersections thru the parkings at the alley and street intersections. In the later circular parkings have been placed. The sidewalks have been laid out between the lot line and the street curb. The plan is very similar to the one carried out in the Denmead Bros' addition. The petition was placed on file without action being taken.

Sidewalks For 10 1/4 Cents.
R. A. Elzy, of this city, was the only bidder for the sidewalk contract. His bid was 10 1/4 cents a square foot, which is one-half cent under the last contract. The walks included in this contract comprise a long list ordered in by the council earlier in the summer. The council authorized the mayor to enter into a contract with Elzy.

City Authorizes Work.
Councilman W. E. Nicholson was authorized by the council to join in a contract with the county and committee representing property owners for the work of widening South Center street from Main to Church street. The committee that has this work in charge is about ready to let the contract.

BICYCLIST INJURES WOMAN.

Mrs. Mary E. Aldrich, Mother of Mrs. O. D. Elliott, Has Arm Broken.
Mrs. Mary E. Aldrich, of Vermontville, Mich., mother of Mrs. O. D. Elliott, 6 West Church street, met with a serious accident Sunday morning while on her way to Sunday school at the Methodist church. As Mrs. Aldrich was walking along the side of the church on South Second street Stanley Ozan, aged 13, who was riding his bicycle, suddenly appeared from the back of the church lawn and on the walk, colliding with Mrs. Aldrich. She was thrown down and her right arm broken. As Mrs. Aldrich is 73 years old the accident is considered quite serious. An X-ray examination will be made of the arm this afternoon. Mrs. Aldrich was taken to the Deaconess hospital.

HAS HUSBAND ARRESTED.

J. Wade Conn and Mrs. Jessie S. Rebbeke Held.
J. Wade Conn, a traveling man, formerly of Cedar Rapids, and Mrs. Jessie S. Rebbeke, of this city, were arrested by Officer Charles Hurd and Fred H. Houghkirk, a detective, at 306 South Third street, early Sunday morning, after Conn's wife, Elizabeth A. Conn, of Cedar Rapids, had filed a complaint in the mayor's court charging a serious statutory offense.
Conn and Mrs. Rebbeke were locked in jail. They were arraigned in the mayor's court this morning, where Mrs. Conn appeared against the defendants, who asked for time to employ a lawyer. The hearing was set for this afternoon.
The local officers understand that Mrs. Conn has filed suit for divorce in the Linn county court.

ADDITION PLAT APPROVED.

Council Accepts Plat of Summit Park Addition.
The plat for Summit Park addition, a tract lying south of Summit street was presented to the city council this forenoon by M. E. Melvin. It was approved and accepted. T. C. Blue, of this city, and C. B. Fletcher, of Des Moines, are both interested in the addition.

FINE WHEAT YIELD.

Charles Loss Shows Forty-Eight-Bushel Average on Twenty-Two Acres.
Charles Loss, who is farming the Darling farm, southwest of the city, shows a fine yield of winter wheat from twenty-two acres. The wheat went forty-eight bushels to the acre. Twenty-seven acres to oats produced a yield of forty-four bushels to the acre.

STEINER IS APPOINTED.

Former City Engineer Again at Head of Department.
The resignation of City Engineer W. B. Skogerson was accepted by the city council this forenoon and W. H. Steiner was appointed to fill vacancy for the unexpired term, which ends April 1, 1915, at a salary of $100 a month.

The Dobson Funeral.

Funeral services for Henry L. Dobson, of LeGrand, were largely attended Sunday forenoon at 11 o'clock from the Carlton Church of the Brethren, in Tama county. Rev. Mr. Henderson had charge of the service.
Among the many flowers were pieces from the Eastern Star chapter and Masonic lodge of Montour; the ladies' society of the Carlton church, and the LeGrand Savings Bank. At the home of Mr. Dobson's son, J. A. Dobson, in LeGrand, at 9:45 Sunday, Rev. A. M. Hanson conducted a prayer service.

The pall bearers were D. M. Ferguson, James Lowry, Henry Wall, J. C. Friebley, Joseph Smaha, and C. W. McGune. Interment was in the Dobson cemetery, adjoining the Carlton churchyard.
A great many old friends from Garwin and its vicinity were in attendance at the funeral.

Serves Notice of Injury.

Attorneys for Frederick Hall served notice on the city this forenoon that their client had been seriously injured by falling over obstructions on a sidewalk of East State street, east of North First avenue, on July 25.

Notice.

Information is desired regarding the heirs of John H. Blake, who formerly lived at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and died at Iowa Soldiers Home, Dec. 9, 1912. Frank M. Haradon, Administrator, Marshalltown, Iowa.

Wife Files Divorce Petition.

Mrs. Ethel E. Blake, of this city, has filed a petition for divorce from James Z. Blake in the district court. She asks the court to award her the custody of her daughter Norma. The couple was married Aug. 27, 1909.

Nude Man, Thought Crazy, Arrested

"There's a naked man down here in a pasture; he must be crazy."

That was the telephone message received from the Hooven home, six miles south of the city on the Twelfth avenue road, Saturday afternoon. Deputy Sheriff R. G. Goodale answered the call.

When the officer arrived he found that the man had not only disrobed and was parading about the pasture in nature's dress, but that he had further exercised himself by climbing a tree.

The man, who is about 45 years of age, was clothed, then brought to this city and locked in jail. He said his name was James Smith, and that he was "traveling for his health."

The sheriff's officers think the man eccentric rather than crazy.

Arrangements were being made to arraign him probably on a vagrancy charge in Justice Burritt's court this afternoon.

Missourian, Who Uses Tobacco, Disappointed at the Waldorf.

Several months ago a visitor from Arizona complained that there were no hotjacks in the Waldorf, and immediately the management sent out and ordered a supply of them. A man from Missouri discovered five minutes after he entered the hotel recently that it was short of what he considered one of the most necessary and delectable of commodities.

The visitor, who registered from Springfield, Mo., headed for the cigar stand in the barroom.

"What? You don't keep chewing tobacco?" he demanded as the clerk shook his head. "Well!"

That was all he said, but the emphasis was remarkable. It conveyed sur-
