

Marshalltown Druggist Has Valuable Agency

B. A. Morgan has the Marshalltown agency for the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-I-ka, the remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis. This simple remedy has powerful action and drains such surprising amounts of old matter from the body that JUST ONE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation almost IMMEDIATELY. The QUICK action of Adler-I-ka is astonishing.

ORIGINAL NOTICE.

To Robert C. Muller. You are hereby notified, that there is now filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the state of Iowa, within and for the county of Marshall, the petition of Arzula Muller claiming of you a divorce on the ground of your cruel and inhuman treatment of her such as to endanger her life and because you have become addicted to habitual drunkenness; also asking that she be restored to her former name of Arzula Wardlow and that she have other and further relief. For same see petition.

Now, unless you appear and make defense thereto, at or before noon of the second day of the next September term of said court, to be begun and held at Marshalltown, Iowa, on the seventh day of September A. D. 1914, your default will be entered and a judgment and decree rendered thereon as prayed for in said petition.

Dated this sixth day of August A. D. 1914.

JINX PURSUES "BIG RICH;" ANSONS LOSE

MUSCATINE CAPTURES SECOND GAME WEDNESDAY BY SCORE OF 6 TO 1.

"SHAMROCK" FLANNAGAN ALLOWS BUT FIVE HITS

Richardson Pitches Good Game, But Luck is Always With Opponents—Mates Play Classy Ball, But Fail With the Stick in Pinches—Harrell Gets Away With Delayed Steal.

"Shamrock" Flannagan celebrated the near-victory of home rule in Ireland and the declaration of war by King George with true Celtic spirit Wednesday afternoon when he held the ambitious Ansons to five hits, sending the Boyle bunch to the mess tent with a 6-to-1 victory in the second engagement of the last series between the two teams this season.

Despite the seeming one-sided score, the game was a good one nevertheless and "Big" Richardson, whose jinx has not deserted him, was working heroically, only to have his mates fall him in pinches and the luck break against him at every turn of the game.

The Celtic lad, so it was rumored about the ball lot, had added incentive to make an unusual good showing, as a lynx-eyed expert from the major leagues was hovering somewhere in the grand stand looking over the Muskie hurler with view of purchase.

Muskies Again Bunch Hits.
The only time that the visitors could nick the luckless Richardson they managed to crowd their bingles together, and on just such occasions the luck would turn in favor of the Boyle band.

Three hits in the second and another three in the eighth account for five of the runs, and the sixth was secured by a walk, a steal and a sacrifice fly in the seventh.

Richardson's boys managed to crowd the bases in the first turn at bat, but failed to put a man across to give "Big Rich" a lead. A walk and two hits in the fifth resulted in the lone tally registered.

Brennan's Drive Turns Tide.
After the Ansons had failed in the first, the Muskies jumped into the lead in the second by a margin of two runs, Brennan's healthy swing upsetting the defense and giving the Buttonmakers the game. Wetzel lived when Burgwald fumbled his grounder and Sours singled. The former, however, was caught napping at second. Richardson making a quick throw to retire the player. Harrell fled out to Delaney and the gloom lifted momentarily. But Brennan did the surprising thing at this juncture, driving out a three-bagger, which Seibert misjudged, and when he turned third, the throw-in hit a bad spot in the infield and bounded away, allowing Brennan to ramble in for the second run. Sours having crossed the pan before him.

Pass Coats One Run.

Thence on to the seventh the Boylites were cutting out of "Big Rich's" hand, and he was in no apparent danger of further damage being inflicted. A base on balls to the first man up in the seventh, however, upset the dope and resulted in another tally being registered. Harrell was the lucky individual, and he watched Brennan, the king pin of hitters for the afternoon, swing wildly and return to the bench on three strikes. Lee, however, proved to be the man in the emergency, lifting a sacrifice fly to Bromley, in deep right, bringing Harrell in.

Three More in the Eighth.

Curtis led off in the eighth with a single and was sent down on Hasbrook's sacrifice. Masters hit to Burgwald, who made a wide throw to first. The error was excusable, as the throw was necessarily hurried. Wetzel, the fence buster, who had been doing little for the Muskie pennant hopes of late, stepped into a two-bagger, which tallied Curtis. Sours sacrifice fly to Jude netted another. Masters scoring. Harrell singled, driving home Wetzel, and the spasm ended when Brennan fled out to Bromley.

Where the Ansons Failed.

The Ansons had a golden opportunity in the opening frame, but failed to deliver in the pinch. Jude led off with a single, and Bromley was safe when Harrell fumbled his easy roller. Burgwald singled, filling the sacks. In the pinch Foster fanned. Delaney forced Jude at the plate, and Harvey forced Delaney at second.

Seibert singled in the next round, but was out stealing. Thereafter there was little doing until the fifth, when the Ansons' lone tally was hung up. After Richardson had been retired at first, Jude out-guessed Flannagan and walked. Bromley singled, but was forced at second by Burgwald, Jude going to third, from where he scored easily, when Foster delivered a clean-cut hit over short. Delaney walked, but Harvey was an easy out at first.

Wrecking Crew Called On.

After the fifth the Ansons were unable to get to Emerald Islander for a single safe blow. In the ninth the wrecking crew was called on, but the cogs were rusty and it failed to accomplish its purpose. Andreen, Richards, and Taylor went to bat in that inning, the manager drawing a pass and the other two passing away on strikes.

Delaney got away with a circus catch in the sixth when he speared a wicked liner from Master's bat, after a brish run and a wild leap, robbing the battermaker of a hit that was apparently good for two bases.

A word of praise is due Wait, the new Anson catcher, who was of great assistance to Richardson in his game. In addition to working nicely behind the plate, Wait has shown in the last two games, that he has an excellent peg and few Muskies have taken chances on the paths. Wait has the faculty of making the base runners hug the initial sack, and his snap throw to first is attracting the notice of the fans. The score:

Many of the best lots sold today. If You want one don't wait, be on hand early tomorrow morning

Every lot in the addition will soon sell for double our sale price. If you want a home or a nice profit you owe it to yourself to look at this opportunity

Eighty choice lots, close to school and public improvements. Examine and save this plat showing location and size of each lot. We will have an office on the ground each day during the sale from 8 a. m. to 7:30 p. m. to help you find just what you want. The land is regularly platted and accepted by the city. A tag will be placed on each lot giving size, number and price of lot. Take this tag to our office on the ground and get your contract—OUR SPECIAL TERMS during this sale for all lots purchased will be $10 cash and $5 per month on each lot purchased, with 5 per cent interest on the unpaid balance and we will allow a cash discount of 10 per cent on any amount of cash paid above $10 during this sale. You may pay down any amount you wish and pay out your contract any time you wish and receive your deed and abstract. All monthly payments to be paid to the Iowa Savings Bank, which will give you credit on your contract. You can have full possession of the lot as soon as you sign the contract. Come prepared to close up your contract as we can not hold any lots during the sale.

Restrictions—No house costing less than $1,000 to be built on the front half of any lot. No buildings to be moved on any lot without the consent of adjoining owners. Prices range from $150 to $475 per lot. The city is already well built to Summit Park and the water mains extend past it. The manager of the street car company informs us that the material for the Summit street extension has been ordered and will be on the ground within thirty days, which will give you street car service and electricity to your very door. Summit Park is beautifully located in the fastest growing section of the city where lots have doubled and tripled in value within a short time. We have had so many inquiries for these lots, we believe a large percentage will be built on within a year. Our prices are so low and terms so liberal surely it is a great opportunity.

WE BELIEVE THE STREET CAR LINE WILL SOON TURN SOUTH ON NINETEENTH STREET TO MAIN AND THEN BACK ON MAIN TO THE BUSINESS SECTION, MAKING A LOOP AND ACCOMMODATING DOUBLE THE PEOPLE WITHOUT FURTHER TRAVEL. THERE IS A BIG DEMAND FOR THESE LOTS. YOU MUST MAKE YOUR SELECTIONS EARLY.

Remember these terms and the 10 per cent discount only apply during the sale days. Payments stop during sickness.
