

The Odeon

BUSSY BROS. Managers

EIGHT NIGHTS COMMENCING

Sunday, Aug. 16th

THERSA L. MARTIN

AND HER STOCK COMPANY

OPENING PLAY Sunday Night

"Salmony Jane"

10 CENTS 20

FOUR BIG ACTS OF VAUDEVILLE

THEIR OWN CONCERT BAND AND ORCHESTRA

ORPHEUM Theater Beautiful

High Class Vaudeville

STANLEY AND LEBRAC, Comedy Singing and Dancing

SAM KAINVA Hawaiian Singing and Instrumentalist

DICK AND DIRIE Singing, Talking, Juggling and Tight Wire

Matinee Wednesday, 2:30 Complete Change of Program Thursday

COOLEST THEATER IN THE CITY

Princess Theater

MRS. NELLIE HEAD, Prop. BERNARD HEAD, Mgr.

TONIGHT

WOLFORD & BURYARD

In High Class Singing and Dancing.

PICTURES

Vitagraph Masterpiece

The portrait in two reels Lubin Comedy

"A DANGEROUS CASE, SLUMPVILL'S SCARE"

New Colonial

ALWAYS GOOD

AUG. 12, 1914

The Russian Photo Play, "THE NIHILIST"

Featuring Anna Gorky, Queen of the Nihilists.

FOUR ACTS THAT HOLD THE ATTENTION THROUGHOUT

FEATURES EVERY DAY

LICENSED EMBALMERS

ORIGINAL NOTICE.

To George H. Webein.

You are hereby notified that there is now on file in the office of the clerk of the district court of the state of Iowa, within and for the county of Marshall, the petition of Elsie A. Webein claiming of you an absolute divorce from the bonds of matrimony, on the grounds of desertion and for other equitable relief.

Now, unless you appear and make defense thereto, at or before noon of the second day of the next September term of said court, to be begun and held at Marshalltown, Iowa, on the 7th day of September, A. D. 1914, your default will be entered and a decree and judgment rendered as prayed for in said petition.

Dated this 5th day of August, A. D. 1914.

ELSIE A. WEBEIN, Plaintiff. By J. W. Whitaker, her Attorney.

Read T.-R. Want Ads

Times-Republican

CITY IN BRIEF

We deliver. Standard Bakery. Bring your watches in. Hodges.

Dr. Graham, osteopath, Masonic temple. Special jewelry sale now going on. Helberg's.

Special jewelry sale now going on. Helberg's.

Eye, ear, nose and throat specialist; glasses fitted. Dr. F. P. Lierle.

Henry Pappé went to Chicago Tuesday night for a short stay on business.

Phone 119 for your winter's flour or feed for the chickens. "We deliver." Bowles & Billings.

Your choice of any dress left in our store, sizes 34 to 54, while they last, 75 cents. Bargain Store.

Your choice of any dress left in our store, sizes 34 to 54, while they last, 75 cents. Bargain Store.

Plenty of those fine cantaloupes at the melon shed now. Open day and night, except Sundays.—Advertisement.

Mrs. C. H. Tidd and son Kim went to Geneva Tuesday evening for a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends.

Don't miss getting in on our final clean-up sale on summer dresses, sizes 34 to 54, your choice 75 cents. Bargain Store.

Don't miss getting in on our final clean-up sale on summer dresses, sizes 34 to 54, your choice 75 cents. Bargain Store.

My dental office is now located over the Iowa Savings Bank, and equipped with modern appliances. Phone 712. Dr. Fraczy.

Mrs. Lee N. Beatty, of Bartlesville, Okla., arrived in the city Tuesday for a few weeks' visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. G. Leffler.

Mrs. George O. Coburn has arrived home from Brainerd, Minn., where she has been visiting since the middle of May at the L. H. Coryell home.

Mrs. William Bedeger, 420 Swayze street, went to Garwin Tuesday afternoon, summoned by the illness of her sister-in-law, Mrs. N. T. Mattingly.

The Excelsior Aid Society will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Fred O'Neal and Mrs. Henry Ritter, at the former's home, 406 West Boone street.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Hamm have returned from a week's visit in Ames with Mr. Hamm's sister, Mrs. J. W. Latherow, and mother, Mrs. Mary Hamm.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dakota, of Rockford, Ill., arrived in the city on Tuesday evening for a two weeks' visit with the family of Mrs. Dakota's uncle, Frank Sheffield.

John Nolan, wife, and son, John, Jr., left this morning for Concord, N. H. Mr. Nolan's old home, to visit for a month at the home of Mr. Nolan's father, Martin Nolan.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wilson, daughter Esther, and son William, arrived home Tuesday from Loomis, Wis., where they have been spending the summer on the Wilson farm.

Samuel Mooney, of Clemons, left Tuesday evening for Kirksville, Mo., where he will remain for a three weeks' visit with his daughters, Mesdames Claude Cox and E. W. Brace.

If starch doesn't agree with you, try whole wheat bread. In case of stomach trouble and for people troubled with gas, doctors prescribe whole wheat bread. The checker board kind. Standard Bakery.

Rev. R. F. Hurlburt was in Toledo Tuesday afternoon to attend the funeral of W. F. Johnston, one of the members of the board of trustees of Cornell College, of which Mr. Hurlburt is also a member.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Betz and daughters Lois and Elizabeth, formerly of this city, but now of Coon Rapids, arrived in the city Tuesday for a two days' visit at the J. N. Cooper home and with other friends.

We might not bake all the bread in Marshalltown, but we do bake the best. It is made under the most sanitary conditions and from the finest flour and milk, and wrapped in waxed paper to insure its delivery clean to you. Standard Bakery.

Wallace G. Ginder, formerly of Marshalltown but now of Los Angeles, is in the city for a short visit with his mother, Mrs. Carrie Ginder, and sister, Mrs. B. W. Hamm. Mr. Ginder stopped here on his way home from a business trip to New York City.

Mrs. Paul Kruse, of Seattle, who has been spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Manney, went to Des Moines this morning for the day, and from there will leave for her home, via Omaha, where Mrs. Manney joins her daughter and will accompany her to Seattle. Mr. Manney expects to go to Seattle in December for the rest of the winter.

Mrs. S. P. Knisely chaperoned the girls of her Sunday school class of the Episcopal church Tuesday afternoon at a picnic which was held in the Cottage Grove park. The girls enjoyed the afternoon with games and telling how they had spent their vacation. A diary was read by Marian and Jeanette Elder, relating their experiences in the mountains in Colorado, where they have been for the summer. At 5 o'clock Mrs. Knisely was assisted by Mrs. Lillie Palmer and Miss Isabel Aillard in serving a picnic supper.

Miss Margaret Wasson, 402 North Fifth street, entertained Tuesday afternoon at a porch party complimentary to Miss Esther Hole, who will become the bride of Ralph Van Horn, on Tuesday Aug. 25. The guests including fifteen of Miss Hole's more intimate friends, enjoyed a pleasant afternoon visiting and sewing on the spacious porch of the Wasson home. The feature of the affair was a shower for the guest-of-honor, who received many useful gifts. Much amusement was furnished by the clothes pin dolls that the guests dressed according to their idea of a bride. Miss Wasson was assisted by her mother, Mrs. T. I. Wasson, and sister, Mrs. D. W. Norris, in serving refreshments. Miss Alma Van Horn, of Albion, was an out-of-town guest.

Glasses properly fitted. Helberg.

Dr. Bullard, osteopath, 15 West Main. Special jewelry sale now going on. Helberg's.

George R. Norris, fire, lightning, and tornado insurance. Over 35 West Main.

H. A. Weisman went to Chicago Tuesday night for a brief stay on business.

A full line of grain, feed, flour, baled hay and straw. "We deliver." Bowles & Billings.

Your choice of any dress left in our store, sizes 34 to 54, while they last, 75 cents. Bargain Store.

Your choice of any dress left in our store, sizes 34 to 54, while they last, 75 cents. Bargain Store.

Your choice of any dress left in our store, sizes 34 to 54, while they last, 75 cents. Bargain Store.

Don't miss getting in on our final clean-up sale on summer dresses, sizes 34 to 54, your choice 75 cents. Bargain Store.

Don't miss getting in on our final clean-up sale on summer dresses, sizes 34 to 54, your choice 75 cents. Bargain Store.

Pure Gold flour $1.50 sack, Clear Quill flour $1.75 sack, Maplesota flour $1.75 sack, Occident $1.90 sack. Bowles & Billings.

Mrs. A. A. Sichel, of Chicago, arrived in the city Tuesday evening for a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. H. A. Colt.

Plenty of old papers at 5 cents a bundle at the Times-Republican office, just the thing to go under the carpets during housecleaning time.

J. P. Bigelow, 403 South Sixth street, who was taken suddenly ill last Sunday, and has since been in a semi-conscious condition, is somewhat improved today.

The St. Elizabeth Society will serve ice cream and home made cake Thursday evening on the lawn of Mrs. Eugene Kearns, 105 South Second avenue. Price 10 cents.—Advertisement.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Tuffree and daughter Helen went to Des Moines Tuesday evening to visit a few days at the homes of Mrs. Tuffree's sister, Mrs. Frank Styles, and Mr. Tuffree's niece, Mrs. S. S. Arnold.

Our men can repair your furnace now. More than half the houses in Marshalltown are heated with Lennox furnaces, so do not ask us to attend to all of them on one day. Lennox Furnace Company.

A cake might be a cake but there's a difference. We know when you buy your cake of us, you will find it different. Our cakes don't have the bakery taste. Try our devil food cake with the marshmallow filling. "Standard Bakery."

Mrs. William Twogood and son, Everist, of Cedar Rapids, visited Tuesday with Mrs. Martha P. Newell and Mrs. W. W. and H. A. Newell. Mrs. Twogood and her son made the trip in their automobile and from here went to Conrad for a short stay.

The St. given every two weeks by the members of St. Margaret's Mission have been so successful that another will be given Thursday afternoon at the L. C. Abbott home, 5 South Fifth avenue. Members of the mission and their friends are invited. Admission 10 cents. Committee.

The funeral of Bernice May, the baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Turner, of near Lamolle, will be held at the Ralph Ankrum home, one-half mile west of Lamolle, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. James P. Linn will conduct the service, and burial will be in the Lamolle cemetery.

Theresa L. Martin and her stock company will open an engagement of eight nights at the Odeon, commencing Sunday August 16. Miss Martin this season is carrying as an added attraction a concert band and orchestra. "Salmony Jane" will be the opening bill. Bargain prices, 10 and 20 cents. Odeon.

Marvel Bishop, the 11 year old daughter of Herbert Bishop, who lives with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben J. Bishop, 206 North Eleventh street, was injured Tuesday evening while playing with neighborhood children. The children were playing "hide and seek" when the little Bishop girl ran into a barbed wire fence with such force that her face and neck and right arm were severely cut.

Complimentary to her niece, Mrs. William Sloan, of Columbus, Neb., Mrs. Lucy Loree, 401 North Center street, entertained a few friends Tuesday afternoon. The hours were pleasantly spent in an informal social way and with fancy work, and in serving refreshments the hostess was assisted by her daughter, Mr. F. G. Pierce, and Miss Ina Goodale and Eva Van Derwever. Mrs. F. M. Legg, of Springfield, Ill., was an out-of-town guest.

Lockard & Overturn have a complete line of fancy fruits and vegetables—fancy duchess apples, sweet potatoes, large spanish onions, red onions, small green onions, fancy home grown tomatoes, fancy Michigan celery, peaches by the dozen or box, pears, bananas, oranges and plums. Home grown watermelons and musk melons. Now is the time to eat tomatoes, we can furnish you any amount. Phones 628-234. Lockard & Overturn, 222 East Main street.

Dr. and Mrs. George M. Johnson and daughters, Harriet and Marjorie, left today for Maquoketa, where, after a brief visit with Dr. Johnson's mother, Mrs. L. A. Johnson, the family will leave for Chicago. From there a lake trip will be taken to East Jordan, Mich., where a family camping party is to be enjoyed for about three weeks. At East Jordan, which is on Pine Lake, there are to be in the party Mrs. Johnson's parents, Rev. and Mrs. S. F. Millikan, of this city; their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. Robert E. Brown, of Waterbury, Conn.; Mrs. Grace M. Behr, of Des Moines, another daughter; and the Johnson family from this city. The Johnson family from the Millikan family will observe the golden wedding of Rev. and Mrs. S. F. Millikan, at which all the children and their families are to be present.

CLERKS PREPARE AGREEMENT.

Will Ask Employers to Close All Legal Holidays and 9 p. m. Saturdays.

The details of an agreement between the clerks and their employers, retail merchants, were prepared at a meeting of local No. 563, of the Retail Clerks' International Protective Association, held Tuesday night.

The agreement, which a committee representing the local will ask the employers to sign, provides for closing the stores all day on all legal holidays, and at 9 o'clock on Saturday nights thruout the year.

L. B. JONES VERY LOW.

Former Mayor of City Not Expected to Survive the Day.

Ex-Mayor L. B. Jones, who has been an invalid for ten years, and who has been falling quite rapidly since early in July, is in a very critical condition, and it is hardly expected that he can survive the day. Septic cystitis, which has developed with the other ailments of long standing, is the direct cause of the former mayor's present condition.

Automobilists, Attention.

Having secured the exclusive agency for Marshall county for the American Tire and Rubber Co's. automobile tires, I am prepared to save you money on your tires. I will be glad to quote you prices, or mail you our circular about these tires and prices. As you no doubt, know the price of tires is considerably higher than last week, and now is the time to buy while you can get deliveries at the old prices.

Remember we have a Ford expert to work on Ford cars and if you are having trouble that others can't find, bring your car to us and we will fix it up. We are prepared to fix broken or badly worn magneto's or defective coils. I. E. Hubler, 14 to 18 North First street.

At the Hospital.

Eugene, aged 7 years, son of Dr. Lauder, of Garwin, submitted to a minor surgical operation Tuesday afternoon at the Deaconess.

Thomas hospital, passed thru a surgical operation this morning at St. Thomas hospital and her condition following the operation was satisfactory.

J. W. Walters, of Zealring, a patient at St. Thomas, where he is receiving medical treatment, remains about the of Mrs. I. S. Millard, at St. Thomas hospital, today. The patient did not rest well Tuesday night, and no examination for a diagnosis of the case was made today.

Calvin Baldwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Baldwin, 527 North First street, who was wounded in the arm by a stray bullet while in Riverside cemetery ten days ago, underwent an operation to have the bullet removed at St. Thomas hospital Tuesday. The bullet, which was of 31 caliber, was found imbedded between the scapula and the end of the humerus. The wound had become infected and made the operation necessary.

WHOLESALE CHICKEN THEFT.

About 300 Broilers Stolen From Monroe Farm, Southwest of City. Word received in the city today from the Harry Monroe farm, eleven miles south of the city in Washington township, tells of the theft of about 300 spring chickens, of broiler size, from the Monroe yards. The chickens were owned jointly by Mrs. Monroe and her brother, Ray Wildman, of this city. The chickens were of an early hatch, and plans had been made to market them next week. There is no clue.

A SALE THAT COMMANDS ATTENTION A Sale That Is Making More Friends For the Store

LEVIN'S RUMMAGE SALE

On July 18th we promised to the public to give you an out of the ordinary sale. Now we are carrying out our pledge.

A sale that will be remembered for years to come. Not at any time since our business existence in Marshalltown have we offered our entire stock at the prices we are now making.

This rummage sale is not alone comprised of the remaining summer lines, but includes new winter lines as well.

500 pieces of new wool dress goods are placed on sale at prices which you will not duplicate later at the same prices under ordinary conditions.

We have fully 200 new suits in stock. They are all marked very special.

You can buy and anticipate your Thanksgiving and Christmas linens now to your best advantage. You will save at least 25 to 35 per cent on every purchase in the linen department.

The same policy of low prices exists all over the store. Every line is included. The remaining stock of summer goods is priced ridiculously.

Store Hours During the Sale

To get stocks ready for display, new merchandise brought out, to replace the lines sold out the day before this store will open every morning until further notice at 8:30.

During August This Store Will Close Every Evening at 5 O'clock

Watch the Yellow Tickets

Every piece of goods on sale is marked with an extra ticket. The first price is given on the original white ticket, the sale price you will find on an extra yellow ticket.

Summer Dresses Up to $22.50 Values $3.75

Tomorrow, Thursday, at 9 A. M. in our Cloak Department

Beginning tomorrow morning at 9 a. m., we will place on sale in our Cloak Department about fifty of our very finest ladies' and misses' sizes, colored summer dresses. The materials are of the imported novelties and of the very latest summer styles, on sale until closed $3.75 out. You can have them now for.....

You Can Buy Linens Freely For Christmas and Thanksgiving

Table with 6 columns: $1.25 Table Damask, $1.00 Table Damask, 59c German Linen Table Damask, $1.50 Table Damask, 10c Linen Crashes, yard, 12 1/2c Linen crashes, yard, 5c Cotton Crash, a yard.

You Can Safely Invest in Dress Goods at This Time

50 inch Epingle, made in France, in black, navy, copen, French blue, plum, reseda, cardinal, wine and burgandy. This material is finer than poplin and it is all wool, suitable for dresses, skirts and suits. You have never seen this cloth for less than $1.25—many stores would charge you $1.50. Just fifty pieces from our early purchase are now on sale. They can not be duplicated this season on account of the war in Europe. You can buy them now for, a yard..... 89c

Table with 6 columns: $1.00 54 inch Serge at, Up to $1.50 Wool Dress Goods, yd., $1.25 50 in. shrunk en sponged serge, 75c 38 in. Roman striped suitings, $1.50 56 in. Roman striped suitings, yd., 50c 38 inch wool Bedford cords, $1.25 44 and 46 in. —the well known Jamestown wool dress goods on sale now at $1 a yard

In the Rummage Sale Now You Will Find the Following Lines Priced 1 Cent, 2 Cents, 5 Cents, 10 Cents, 25 Cents and 50 Cents

ARTICLES WORTH UP TO $5—It may not look possible that you can buy a $5 article made for this season's wear at 50c, or desirable merchandise which is worth as high as 15c and 25c for 2c. Seeing is believing. In order for you to appreciate this announcement you had better come and see Levin's Rummage Sale. For instance, you can buy at 1c velvet bows. Many articles in the jewelry line at 1c that are worth 25c. They are useful, too. Trimmings at 2c trimmings worth 10c, 15c, 25c and up to 50c a yard. One tableful for you to choose from at 2c a yard. In the jewelry line you can buy articles for 10c which are very stylish, such as brooches, set pins, lavaliers, beads, rings, ear rings, bracelets, cuff buttons, values up to 50c for 10c. One lot of neckwear at 1c. One lot of neckwear at 10c, values up to $1. One lot of suede belts for 10c—50c kind. One lot of minirettes, up to $5.00 values at 50 cents, remnants, at 65 per cent off, etc., etc.

The Rummage Sale In the Balcony

Includes nearly everything in waists, silk waists also chiffon waists, up to $10 values, at $1.49 and $1.98. Tailored linen waists up to $5 values at $1. Lingerie waists up to $3 values at $1. Gingham house dresses, the $1.25 kind, at 89c. Lawn and crepe street dresses, made with tunic, at $1 and 85c. The entire line of muslin underwear in the rummage. Many corset lines have been placed in the rummage sale.

NEW FALL SUITS

In our second floor Cloak Department we are now showing new models in fall suits. A good representative line of over 200 suits is now on display. For the special rummage sale we are placing on sale new fall suits in ladies' and misses' sizes made of all wool birdseye novelty, lined with Skinner satin linings, the skirts are made with long Russian $12.75 Other suits especially priced at $15, $17.50, $19, and by degrees up to $47.50.

EVERYBODY'S STORE LEVINS 106-108 EAST MAIN ST DRY GOODS, CLOAKS, SUITS AND MILLINERY Great Reductions On Wool Dresses Great Reductions On Skirts