MINOR LEAGUES WILL FIGHT FOR EXISTENCE

MUST SOLVE PROBLEM OF "HIGHER COST OF BASEBALL" AT OMAHA MEETING.

MEETING NEXT WEEK TO BE MOST IMPORTANT ONE

Situation in Some Quarters So Desperate That Minor Organizations Have Suggested Suspension of Operations in 1915—Minors Want More Protection or Recognition of "Feds."

The annual meeting of the National Association of Professional Baseball Clubs, at Omaha next week, will be one of the most important in the history of the organization. Matters of exceptional importance to the future of the game will demand attention, and not the least of these is the "higher cost of baseball." The past season was a bad one for baseball, and it is generally conceded that the situation now is one which may spell ruin to the national game.

The minor leagues will insist that during the past they have not been aided by the major leagues, who, to tell the truth, have had all they could do to take care of their own interests. To remove the difficulties the minors, who have paid "protection" money to the national commission for years, will demand more "protection" or the recognition of the Federal league.

It is rumored that an understanding has been reached between the major league magnates and the powers that be in the Federal organization, and if this be true it is likely that the difficulties will be overcome without any drastic measures being resorted to.

Some Would Suspend Next Year.

The situation in some quarters has become so desperate that some of the minor organizations have suggested that they suspend operations in 1915, or at least until the close of the European war. Such a measure, it is said, will be presented at the Omaha meeting, but it is doubtful if it will get far, as it is not likely that the magnates, especially those of the higher class of baseball, will want to close up shop entirely.

In fact the American association and the International league can not quit under fire, as they would do should they suspend at this time. Such an action would leave the field clear in Indianapolis, Kansas City, Buffalo, and any other cities the Independents might choose to invade.

Some of the minor league magnates are threatening to desert to the "out-laws," but the Federals declare they do not want to carry any more "burden."

Federal Draft Makes Cost High.

The great draft on minor leagues from the Federals, who have induced many of the younger players to jump to the outlaw organization, has depleted the ranks in many quarters and has consequently added to the expense of maintenance of the minor organizations. As a result the little fellows have been obliged to pay big salaries and to buy players at exorbitant prices to keep their clubs up to the standard and to remain in their various championship races. This mad scramble for players has been the undoing of many clubs, and few minor leagues escaped the burden of carrying one or more clubs thru the season or were forced to see some of their members drop out of the game.

It is the general opinion among baseball men that if conditions are not changed the condition in 1915 will be much worse than it has been in the past, and it is to correct these evils that an unusual effort is being made to get a full representation at the Omaha meeting. In short it is a fight for the existence of the minor leagues, if not for all organized baseball.

Local Men to Attend Meeting.

The Central association, which felt the depression by the retirement of Ottumwa from the game this year, will be well represented at the meeting. Every club is expected to send delegates, and the Marshalltown association will be represented by President F. M. Wilbur and several others. Word from Manager Frank Richards is to the effect that he may also attend the meeting.

"MARTHA BY THE DAY."

May Robson Comes to the Odeon Tuesday in Pleasing Comedy.

It is said that in the dramatization of "Martha By-the-Day" one of the recent "best sellers," May Robson has secured for herself a comedy that contains even greater possibilities for humorous characterization than did "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," which for several seasons past has faithfully served Miss Robson, both artistically and financially. "Martha By-the-Day" has for its central character a matter of fact, but extremely lovable maid-of-all-work, who radiates optimism, interspersed with flashes of quaint philosophy. But Martha does not do her duty in good deeds to words alone, but lends a practical helping hand to all unfortunates who come her way. Under the direction of the Academic Producing Company, Miss Robson will bring the comedy to the Odeon theater Tuesday evening. Odeon.

Golden Rule is Applied Forcibly by LeGrand Men

LeGrand men, friends and neighbors of George Coffin, put the golden rule into practical application Thursday, when they appeared at the Coffin farm, fifty-five strong, and with thirty-two teams, and picked and cribbed the harvest of sixty-five acres of corn.

Mr. Coffin has been ill for several weeks, and is now recovering from a severe case of appendicitis, which necessitated an operation in the Deaconess hospital, this city. Mr. Coffin was discharged from the hospital a few weeks ago, but as yet has not regained sufficient strength to permit him to work.

Twenty-seven teams, bearing fifty-one men, pulled into the Coffin corn field shortly after 6 o'clock Thursday morning. Two portable cribs, one holding 1,600 bushels and the other with a capacity of 800 bushels, were erected, and filled in addition to the stationary cribs on the farm. Before the day was over the men had picked sixty-five of the seventy acres, which yielded a little over 3,000 bushels.

The women of the neighborhood were not to be outdone by their husbands, and eleven of them went to the Coffin farm, laden with baskets containing the many good things that country women know how to prepare. At noon a fried chicken dinner was served to a lot of happy and hungry men. Four more pickers and five more teams were added to the force for the afternoon's work.

In the evening, at the same home, the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Christian church held a Halloween social. The rooms were very appropriately decorated, and the evening was spent in the usual games and stunts. The guests came masked, and much merriment followed.

DRINK MORE WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

EAT LESS MEAT AND TAKE SALTS FOR BACKACHE OR BLADDER TROUBLE.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which every one should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

Pumpkin pie and coffee were served by the Misses Bessie McCarell, Ruth Lamer, and Noma Weitzel. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Gaunt and children went to Marshalltown Sunday, remaining until Monday afternoon at the home of Calvin Gaunt and family. Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Beebout visited Monday with relatives in Marshalltown.

G. G. Bowen, of Searsboro, called on LeGrand friends one day last week. A. T. Lowry was a business caller at Waterloo Thursday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Adair spent Monday afternoon at Marshalltown. Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Newell and son Ovon, of Marshalltown, and Miss Nina Nichols, of Grinnell, were guests Sunday at the D. W. Richards home.

Russell Hawbecker, of Des Moines, spent Sunday at home. Flora I. Pile was a Marshalltown caller Tuesday.

Misses Loretta and Eunice Arnold were over-Sunday visitors at their homes here, returning Monday to their school work at Cedar Falls.

Russell Arnold, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Arnold, had the misfortune to fall Monday evening while at school and break his left arm. This, however, did not keep him from his school work, as he appeared as early as any one Tuesday morning, but with his arm in a sling.

Miss Nina Nichols, of Grinnell College, visited from Friday until Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bowen.
