FREE LESSONS IN COOKERY FOR WOMEN

TIMES-REPUBLICAN PLANS "BETTER FOODS-BETTER HOMES" CAMPAIGN FOR CITY.

MISS PEET SECURED FOR LECTURES-DEMONSTRATIONS

Lessons Are Free, and No Obligations of Any Kind Are Involved—To Open Monday, Dec. 7, at Princess Theater, and Continue Thru Week — Night Meeting on Tuesday.

At the initial sessions of the T. R. Home Economics school in the Princess Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Miss Peet will talk on "Food and Its Functions" and will demonstrate how to follow a number of interesting and original recipes including a fine but economical cake.

A home economics school conducted by Miss Peet in another city along exactly the same lines to be followed here was pronounced by the leading newspaper of that city as "the most down-to-the-minute campaign in connection with the food situation ever held here." Reports from Boston where Miss Peet has been lecturing, are most flattering and there is every reason to believe that the school scheduled for Marshalltown next week will be the most interesting event of the season and of incalculable benefit to the housewives who attend.

Miss Peet will demonstrate how to prepare everything from entrees to desserts, how to cook meats and vegetables, how to make dainty salads, good bread, wholesome pie and economical cake. All of the wonderful dishes prepared by this skilled culinary artist will be served to her guests in the form of a dainty luncheon before the close of the school. Miss Peet will teach how to make cakes without butter, how to keep cakes from falling and to test them. She will teach the ladies who make up her cookery classes how to make a good loaf of bread and how to roast a chicken in the freless cooker. She will discuss practical economy and demonstrate economical baking.

The school will open on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and a pleasing musical program will precede each session. Women will do well to bring note books and pencils in order that none of the valuable information Miss Peet gives out from day to day is lost.

Mothers are urged to bring their daughters in order that they may gain from Miss Peet's lectures and cookery demonstrations something of the value of domestic science for young women and a little domestic science knowledge for experienced housekeepers. No woman in Marshall county who is interested in any aspect of the food question whether she be her own cook or merely superintends the preparation of family meals, should fail to take advantage of this splendid opportunity and all are invited to hear Miss Peet every afternoon next week in the Princess theater.

On Monday she will lecture on "Food and Its Functions" and in her cookery demonstration will prepare the following list of dishes:

- Foamy Omelet with Cheese.
- Macaroni American.
- Fruit Salad Supreme.
- Mayonnaise and Baked Dressing.
- Betty Lane Cake.
- Bolled Icings.

These will be served to the ladies attending the school. Everyone will be given a leaflet containing some of Miss Peet's best recipes and one or more of the ladies attending the first session will receive a beautiful cake.
