

Times-Republican

CITY IN BRIEF

Taxi, phone 104. Perkins. McCombs taxi. Phone 81. We deliver. Standard Bakery. For taxi, phone 81.—Advertisement. W. I. Lybarger, of Osage, was in the city Friday. Keys made and locks repaired. K. C. Cycle Shop. H. F. Osterland was in the city from Ackley Friday. W. M. Stough was in the city from St. Anthony Friday. Quality gun repairing. K. C. Cycle Shop, 13 North First street. Mrs. Wallace Arney went to Union for a brief visit Friday evening. Start the new year right. Enroll Monday. Central Iowa Business College. R. E. Miller, 809 East State street, went to Eldora Friday evening on business. George O. Coburn's uptown office is now located at 107 East Main.—Advertisement. Mrs. G. D. Hunnicutt, 910 East Main street, went to Union Friday evening for a brief visit. The Fidelity Bank building dental office established 1892. W. M. Choate, dentist. Phone 62. Hear the Oberlin Glee Club Tuesday evening, Jan. 5, at the Congregational church. Mrs. Gertrude Rempp, of Grinnell, arrived Friday evening for a visit with Miss F. M. Adams, 408 Bromley street. G. W. Rolph and Sidney Palem, of the soldiers' home, went to Council Bluffs Friday night for a few weeks' visit with friends. Miss Rose Kohler, of Eldora, returned home Friday evening after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bowen, 105 South Tenth street. Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Bort, of Cedar Rapids, returned home Friday evening after a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Petersen, 305 North Third avenue. Enjoy every meal—have Strub's buttermilk bread served. It has the taste that touches the palate. It brings health. Order from the grocer today. Strub's bakery. C. Duell's news depot, 202 East Main street, redeems Chicago Examiner and also Chicago Herald souvenir spoon coupons. You save postage and time. C. Duell. Sunday is go to church day for the Presbyterian congregation. Start the new year right. Attend church. Special New Year services at the First Presbyterian church, Committee. The Oberlin College Glee Club is composed of twenty young men, each selected with a view to musicianship. Hear them at the Congregational church Tuesday evening, Jan. 5. Committee. The New York City Evening Mail reports that the Oberlin College Glee Club appeared at the Waldorf Astoria where it gave a really notable concert to a crowded house. Don't fail to hear them Tuesday evening, Jan. 5, at the Congregational church. Committee. The Fidelity Savings Bank, established in 1892, with twenty years' experience in handling savings accounts, offers unusually attractive advantages to depositors. This bank has paid 4 per cent interest on deposit; since it was organized. One dollar starts an account.—Advertisement. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hopkins received a message New Year day announcing the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Van Osdol, of San Antonio, Tex. Mrs. Van Osdol was formerly Miss Grace Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins. The baby has been christened Elizabeth Ann. The First Presbyterian church will observe next Sunday as go to church day. All Presbyterians, all who were raised Presbyterians, all who attend the Presbyterian church regularly, all who attend once and awhile, and all who may desire to attend, are cordially invited to attend the services on Sunday. Begin the year right. Committee. A defective stove pipe caused a small fire in the waiting shed on the south side of the tracks at the union station about 5:30 Friday evening. The room was filled with smoke, and the flames were just beginning to creep around the edge of the roof when a still alarm was sent in. The fire department responded and extinguished the blaze with chemicals. Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Huggard, son Herbert, and daughter Phyllis, of Davenport, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Huggard's mother, Mrs. J. W. Carney, for a few days, left for Davenport this morning. They, Mr. and Mrs. Carney and Mr. and Mrs. John White, of this city, spent New Year's day with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carney at State Center. Mrs. Dora Kimball and daughter Ethel, of Green Mountain, returned Friday evening from Eldora, where they visited with G. C. French and family and M. B. Hogle and family. Mr. and Mrs. French gave a dinner party this week for their three daughters who were visiting them—Mrs. Harry Lawrence, of Marshalltown; Mrs. J. Howard, of Estherville; and Mrs. Charles Norby, of Fort Dodge. The singing of A. A. Bailey has created a near sensation at the Central Church of Christ. He has a most wonderful voice of rare quality, and in the most interesting part of the musical program was the violin music. Norman Orchard, age 15, played several solos on the violin, and also played several duets with his son, W. N. Orchard. A two-course luncheon was served at midnight by the hostess, assisted by her daughter Alta, and the Misses Mary Hoyt and Hazel Orchard. O. E. Tuttle, the jeweler. Bring your watches in. Hodges. Dr. Burkart, osteopath, 14 W. Main. G. D. Rabe, of Hampton, was in the city Friday. J. H. Reed, of Grinnell, was in the city Friday. V. J. Clemons was in the city from Clemons Friday. J. A. Shepard, of State Center, was in Marshalltown Friday. Mrs. J. G. Gifford, of Albia, visited briefly in the city Friday. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jentsch, of Liscomb, were in the city Friday. Skates sharpened 10 cents a pair. K. Cycle Shop, 13 North First street. For moving or stage see us. White Transfer line, 13 South First avenue. George O. Coburn's uptown office is now located at 107 East Main.—Advertisement. George O. Coburn's uptown office is now located at 107 East Main.—Advertisement. Voice culture, Mondays and Thursdays, Masonic temple, Marshalltown. H. P. Giger. Lester Greigs, Glenn Patterson, and Harry Carlstrom, of Gilman, were Friday visitors in the city. My office is over the Fidelity bank, corner First avenue and Main street. Phone 62. Dr. Cora Williams Choate. Hear a real college yell Tuesday evening at the Congregational church, Jan. 5. Oberlin will do it. Committee. My dental office is now located over the Iowa Savings Bank, and equipped with modern appliances. Phone 712. Dr. Frazey. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kohler, of Eldora, returned home Friday after visiting with Henry Weber, 309 East State street. J. B. Atwood, of Grinnell, returned home Friday evening after a visit with his brother, William Atwood, 614 West Nevada street. The regular meeting of the ladies' Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church, scheduled to meet Monday, Jan. 4, has been postponed. Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Wiley returned to Albion Friday evening after a visit with their daughter, Mrs. C. F. Crouse, of Timber Creek. Mr. and Mrs. John I. Bell and the latter's father, Gilbert Bingham, spent New Year's in Des Moines at the J. W. McPherson home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nixon, of Cedar Rapids, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hoag over New Year's, returned home this morning. Mrs. A. C. Patterson, of Gilman, returned home Friday evening after a holiday visit with her brother, Dr. F. Einsinger, 309 West Church street. Misses Mamie Anderson and Mamie Casey left today for Kansas City for a short visit with friends. Both are clerks in the Great Western freight depot. H. C. Laffler, of Des Moines, returned home Friday evening after a New Year's visit with his brother, Dr. E. G. Laffler, and family, 104 North Fourth street. Mrs. Nina Nell and son William, of Van Horn, arrived in the city Friday for a visit of a few days at the homes of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Helen C. Nell, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Joseph A. Whitaker. All who enjoy good glee club music should hear the Oberlin Glee Club at the Congregational church Tuesday evening, Jan. 5. Tickets on sale at E. R. Lay's, B. A. Morgan's, Benedict & Brintnall's, McBride & Will's. Committee. Announcement has been received by friends in the city of the birth of a son to Rev. and Mrs. F. J. Thomas, of Madison, Wis., on Tuesday. Rev. Mr. Thomas was formerly pastor of the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene in this city. Misses May and Lois Shorthill, of Topeka, Kan., who have been guests for a week of their uncle, T. T. Shorthill, and cousins, Mrs. J. Morrissey and Bert Shorthill, will leave this evening for their home. The Misses Shorthill are teachers in the Topeka schools. Will you start to save in 1915? If you buy some instant stock in the Marshalltown Savings and Loan Association, you can pay in each month a regular amount from $5 to $25. Start that saving habit now. The fifteenth series of stock is now for sale. George F. Thayer, secretary. The advance sale of seats for the engagement of "Seven Keys to Baldpate," George M. Cohan's mystery farce which is to be presented at the Odeon on Sunday evening, begins at the box office of that theater this morning. "Seven Keys to Baldpate" is one of the biggest successes of last season in New York where the piece ran an entire year at the Astor and Gaiety theaters, Odeon. An enjoyable New Year's party was held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Emmet Waters, 401 East State street, when the members of the former Standard Lecture Reading Club entertained complimentary to Mrs. A. Dan- skin, who will leave Monday for an extended trip thru California. In decorating California pepper berries and Christmas greens were used. The affair was an indoor picnic, and supper was served at 6 o'clock, after which an informal evening was spent socially. The Congregational church, Main and Fourth streets, begins the New Year with a high degree of prosperity and great opportunities. Tomorrow at 11 a. m. the theme will be "Loyalty in Religion" followed by the communion service and reception of members. At 5 o'clock p. m. the minister will speak on "Some Things Marshalltown Ought to Get Back of During 1915." Splendid congregational singing and special music by quartet and organist. You are cordially invited to come and bring your friends. Brotherhood. Members of the C. W. B. M. Auxiliary of the Central Church of Christ held their regular monthly meeting New Year's afternoon in the church parlors. There was a good attendance, and after the reports were given by the officers for the work accomplished during the last quarter of the year the members enjoyed an interesting program. Mrs. Mary Thornton led the program and conducted a missionary quiz. Miss Mrs. Early gave the paper of the afternoon on "Service Through Study." A letter from Mrs. S. G. Hanna, a missionary from Iowa, was read during the afternoon. Taxi, phone 104. Perkins. Glasses properly fitted. Heilberg. Dr. Bullard, osteopath, 15 West Main. Camera films developed and printed. Camera Shop. G. W. Royer was a visitor from Ames Friday. J. C. Cundiff, of Union, was in Marshalltown Friday. George O. Coburn's uptown office is now located at 107 East Main.—Advertisement. Our practical courses prepare for life's work. Enter Monday. Central Iowa Business College. Mrs. L. H. Hooker, of Timber Creek township, returned home Friday evening after a visit in Liscomb. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Perlish, R. J. Clemons and Hazel McCormack, of Union, were in the city Friday. John Turek, 510 Anson street, underwent an operation for a cleft palate this morning at the Deacons. Dr. G. W. Miller, who has been ill at his home of tonsillitis for several days, is showing slight improvement. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Church, of New Providence, went home Friday evening after a New Year's visit with E. F. Church, 1312 1/2 Summit street. The Sunday school institute, which has been meeting at the Central Church of Christ, will meet at the Congregational church on Sunday, Jan. 3, at 7:30. Professor Masters, of Leander Clark college, Toledo, will speak. The body of Mrs. Mary E. Searies, who died last Sunday at Pocatonia, Ill., reached this city this morning for burial, accompanied by the husband, Steven Searies, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Walter Thompson, of this city. Mr. Thompson is a son of Mrs. Searies. Brief funeral services were held from the D. C. Wilbur parlors at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, interment following in Riverside. O. P. Beale, of Fort Morgan, Colo., who has been here for a few days visiting with his brother, W. H. Beale, will with Mr. Beale to Tama this morning to visit another brother, N. S. Beale. O. P. Beale is a former resident of both Gilman and this city. He lived in Gilman prior to about twenty-five years ago, but has been interested in business with his brother, N. S. Beale, at Tama, for a number of years. The Central Church of Christ wishes to extend New Year's greetings to the people of Marshalltown, and to invite everybody to the great evangelistic meetings now in progress. The entire winter party eight evangelists will be something out of the usual. The past week has demonstrated the wisdom of the choice of the church in bringing these specialists to the city. Mr. Vawter will reach the city and be in charge of the meetings beginning Sunday morning. Come and hear him. Central Church. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Noggle and baby, Frank Brenecke, the latter's sister, Mrs. A. B. Danskin and his niece, Miss Pearl Parrett, the latter of Denver, will comprise a party that leaves Monday night for an extended trip in the west. They will stop at Santa Fe, N. M., and the Grand Canyon of Arizona on the way west, and will visit the San Diego and San Francisco expositions and Los Angeles. On the way home stops will be made at Salt Lake City and Denver. Miss Parrett, who has been visiting relatives here, will remain at her home in Denver. Mr. Brenecke and Mrs. Brenecke will visit their sister, Mrs. Jules Crapper, at San Francisco. All will return in March and April. HELD IN CEDAR RAPIDS. Mrs. Goldie West-Williams Arrested With Man Wanted For Desertion. Mrs. Goldie West-Williams of this city, daughter of G. E. West, 914 Iowa street, was taken thru this city early this morning by Deputy Sheriff Risden, of Marion, who had found her with Chauncey Haskins, whom he arrested at Moberly, Mo., for alleged wife desertion. Haskins and Mrs. Williams were taken by the officer to Cedar Rapids, but it could not be learned today whether she was only being held there as a witness or whether a criminal charge had been filed against her. Haskins formerly lived in Cedar Rapids. According to information given out from the sheriff's office at Marion, Mrs. Williams said her father bought her a ticket to Moberly. A relative here this afternoon verified this statement in part by saying that West had furnished his daughter money to go to Moberly about five weeks ago. From the same source of information it was learned that Mrs. Williams and her husband, who had been divorced and had remarried, but had not been living together. STATE CENTER MAN VERY LOW. Edward Jackson Very Critically Ill in Des Moines Hospital. Word today at State Center from Mercy hospital, Des Moines, called relative of Edward Jackson, a retired farmer of State Center, to Des Moines. Mr. Jackson was operated a week ago for intestinal cancer. His condition is very critical. Mr. Jackson is one of the trustees of State Center township. When a team driven by Henry Tisler, a farmer living six miles northeast of State Center in Minerva township, became frightened this afternoon, Mrs. Victoria Tisler, mother of Mr. Tisler, jumped from the sleigh and was bruised slightly. The horses became frightened when one of the runners struck one of the animal's heels, cutting the hook. Joseph Tisler, Mrs. Tisler's husband, was killed in a runaway accident last year. Notice to Taxpayers. E. M. Dodge, city assessor for the city of Marshalltown, and deputy, will enter upon the discharge of their duties about the eleventh day of January, 1915, and would kindly ask all property owners to prepare a list of the amount and kind of property owned or controlled and aid the assessor in arriving at the actual market value of each item of property. I am desirous of completing the work at the earliest date possible and all assistance rendered will be kindly appreciated. E. M. Dodge, city assessor. Liscomb News Notes. Mrs. Nancy Middleton has gone to Altoona to spend the winter at the home of her brother, M. F. Morgan. Miss Bess Buchanan, of Sac City, is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Buchanan. Mrs. L. W. Brush is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Weatherly, at Rock Rapids. On next Wednesday evening the following service will be installed in the L. O. O. F. lodge by District Deputy

Mrs. Beatrice V. Kirkman and daughter will be graduated together next June from the Kansas state normal school. Mrs. F. C. Penfield, wife of the American ambassador to Austria, has an income of over $1,000,000 a year. Nine-tenths of all the flattery in the world is expended on women or tombstones.

The Odeon BUSBY BROS. Managers Sunday, Jan. 3d COHAN & HARRIS' 7 KEYS TO BALDPATE Prices 25c, 50c, 75c, $1, $1.50 Seats Now Selling.

McINTYRE AND HEATH In a Massive Revival of Their Biggest Musical Comedy Success THE HAM TREE Company of 100 Special Ham Tree Orchestra THE WORLD'S GREATEST DANCING CHORUS Prices—Lower floor, $1.50 and $2.00 Balcony.....75c, $1 and $1.50 Gallery.....50 cents Seats on sale Friday 10 a. m.

ORPHEUM Theater Beautiful SUNDAY NIGHT, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday Helton Powell, Inc., Presents the Hilarious Musical Farce Watch Your Step —WITH— JACK TRAINOR SONG HITS "Early to Rise"—Down at the Barber's—"Just For Tonight"—"Tip-Tip-Tip"—"Watch Your Step"—"Shores of Italy"—"Home-Run Rag"—"How-Do-You-Do-It" "ADVENTURES OF KATHLYN"

Lyric Theater Where the Famous Players Play Tonight and Tomorrow William A. Brady Presents Miss Alice Bradley in the special Schubert and Brady Feature "As Ye Sow" By Rev. John Snyder There are some plays that never age, whose appeal is always strong because of their humanity and truth. "As Ye Sow," which was produced with great success ten years ago, and is one of these plays. Alice Brady, whose ability as an emotional actress has won her wide recognition, is the heroine of this dramatic photo play. TONIGHT We will also show "ZUDORA" Second Episode. After tonight "Zudora" will be at this theater every Wednesday instead of Saturday. SPECIAL MUSIC FOUR-PIECE ORCHESTRA Admission Adults 15c Children 10c

Princess Theater HEAD BROS. Managers TONIGHT Yankee Doodle Stock Co. —IN— JESSE JAMES "THE MISSOURI OUTLAW" SUNDAY Comedy "OH, WHAT A NIGHT!" MONDAY "THE COWBOY'S GIRL" TUESDAY "STRICKEN BLIND" WEDNESDAY "COUNTRY STORE" PICTURES CHANGE DAILY

George O. Coburn's uptown office is now located at 107 East Main.—Advertisement. Mrs. G. D. Hunnicutt, 910 East Main street, went to Union Friday evening for a brief visit. The Fidelity Bank building dental office established 1892. W. M. Choate, dentist. Phone 62. Hear the Oberlin Glee Club Tuesday evening, Jan. 5, at the Congregational church. Mrs. Gertrude Rempp, of Grinnell, arrived Friday evening for a visit with Miss F. M. Adams, 408 Bromley street. G. W. Rolph and Sidney Palem, of the soldiers' home, went to Council Bluffs Friday night for a few weeks' visit with friends. Miss Rose Kohler, of Eldora, returned home Friday evening after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bowen, 105 South Tenth street. Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Bort, of Cedar Rapids, returned home Friday evening after a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Petersen, 305 North Third avenue. Enjoy every meal—have Strub's buttermilk bread served. It has the taste that touches the palate. It brings health. Order from the grocer today. Strub's bakery. C. Duell's news depot, 202 East Main street, redeems Chicago Examiner and also Chicago Herald souvenir spoon coupons. You save postage and time. C. Duell. Sunday is go to church day for the Presbyterian congregation. Start the new year right. Attend church. Special New Year services at the First Presbyterian church, Committee. The Oberlin College Glee Club is composed of twenty young men, each selected with a view to musicianship. Hear them at the Congregational church Tuesday evening, Jan. 5. Committee. The New York City Evening Mail reports that the Oberlin College Glee Club appeared at the Waldorf Astoria where it gave a really notable concert to a crowded house. Don't fail to hear them Tuesday evening, Jan. 5, at the Congregational church. Committee. The Fidelity Savings Bank, established in 1892, with twenty years' experience in handling savings accounts, offers unusually attractive advantages to depositors. This bank has paid 4 per cent interest on deposit; since it was organized. One dollar starts an account.—Advertisement. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hopkins received a message New Year day announcing the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Van Osdol, of San Antonio, Tex. Mrs. Van Osdol was formerly Miss Grace Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins. The baby has been christened Elizabeth Ann. The First Presbyterian church will observe next Sunday as go to church day. All Presbyterians, all who were raised Presbyterians, all who attend the Presbyterian church regularly, all who attend once and awhile, and all who may desire to attend, are cordially invited to attend the services on Sunday. Begin the year right. Committee. A defective stove pipe caused a small fire in the waiting shed on the south side of the tracks at the union station about 5:30 Friday evening. The room was filled with smoke, and the flames were just beginning to creep around the edge of the roof when a still alarm was sent in. The fire department responded and extinguished the blaze with chemicals. Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Huggard, son Herbert, and daughter Phyllis, of Davenport, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Huggard's mother, Mrs. J. W. Carney, for a few days, left for Davenport this morning. They, Mr. and Mrs. Carney and Mr. and Mrs. John White, of this city, spent New Year's day with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carney at State Center. Mrs. Dora Kimball and daughter Ethel, of Green Mountain, returned Friday evening from Eldora, where they visited with G. C. French and family and M. B. Hogle and family. Mr. and Mrs. French gave a dinner party this week for their three daughters who were visiting them—Mrs. Harry Lawrence, of Marshalltown; Mrs. J. Howard, of Estherville; and Mrs. Charles Norby, of Fort Dodge. The singing of A. A. Bailey has created a near sensation at the Central Church of Christ. He has a most wonderful voice of rare quality, and in the most interesting part of the musical program was the violin music. Norman Orchard, age 15, played several solos on the violin, and also played several duets with his son, W. N. Orchard. A two-course luncheon was served at midnight by the hostess, assisted by her daughter Alta, and the Misses Mary Hoyt and Hazel Orchard.

My office is over the Fidelity bank, corner First avenue and Main street. Phone 62. Dr. Cora Williams Choate. Hear a real college yell Tuesday evening at the Congregational church, Jan. 5. Oberlin will do it. Committee. My dental office is now located over the Iowa Savings Bank, and equipped with modern appliances. Phone 712. Dr. Frazey. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kohler, of Eldora, returned home Friday after visiting with Henry Weber, 309 East State street. J. B. Atwood, of Grinnell, returned home Friday evening after a visit with his brother, William Atwood, 614 West Nevada street. The regular meeting of the ladies' Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church, scheduled to meet Monday, Jan. 4, has been postponed. Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Wiley returned to Albion Friday evening after a visit with their daughter, Mrs. C. F. Crouse, of Timber Creek. Mr. and Mrs. John I. Bell and the latter's father, Gilbert Bingham, spent New Year's in Des Moines at the J. W. McPherson home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nixon, of Cedar Rapids, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hoag over New Year's, returned home this morning. Mrs. A. C. Patterson, of Gilman, returned home Friday evening after a holiday visit with her brother, Dr. F. Einsinger, 309 West Church street. Misses Mamie Anderson and Mamie Casey left today for Kansas City for a short visit with friends. Both are clerks in the Great Western freight depot. H. C. Laffler, of Des Moines, returned home Friday evening after a New Year's visit with his brother, Dr. E. G. Laffler, and family, 104 North Fourth street. Mrs. Nina Nell and son William, of Van Horn, arrived in the city Friday for a visit of a few days at the homes of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Helen C. Nell, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Joseph A. Whitaker. All who enjoy good glee club music should hear the Oberlin Glee Club at the Congregational church Tuesday evening, Jan. 5. Tickets on sale at E. R. Lay's, B. A. Morgan's, Benedict & Brintnall's, McBride & Will's. Committee. Announcement has been received by friends in the city of the birth of a son to Rev. and Mrs. F. J. Thomas, of Madison, Wis., on Tuesday. Rev. Mr. Thomas was formerly pastor of the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene in this city. Misses May and Lois Shorthill, of Topeka, Kan., who have been guests for a week of their uncle, T. T. Shorthill, and cousins, Mrs. J. Morrissey and Bert Shorthill, will leave this evening for their home. The Misses Shorthill are teachers in the Topeka schools. Will you start to save in 1915? If you buy some instant stock in the Marshalltown Savings and Loan Association, you can pay in each month a regular amount from $5 to $25. Start that saving habit now. The fifteenth series of stock is now for sale. George F. Thayer, secretary. The advance sale of seats for the engagement of "Seven Keys to Baldpate," George M. Cohan's mystery farce which is to be presented at the Odeon on Sunday evening, begins at the box office of that theater this morning. "Seven Keys to Baldpate" is one of the biggest successes of last season in New York where the piece ran an entire year at the Astor and Gaiety theaters, Odeon. An enjoyable New Year's party was held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Emmet Waters, 401 East State street, when the members of the former Standard Lecture Reading Club entertained complimentary to Mrs. A. Dan- skin, who will leave Monday for an extended trip thru California. In decorating California pepper berries and Christmas greens were used. The affair was an indoor picnic, and supper was served at 6 o'clock, after which an informal evening was spent socially. The Congregational church, Main and Fourth streets, begins the New Year with a high degree of prosperity and great opportunities. Tomorrow at 11 a. m. the theme will be "Loyalty in Religion" followed by the communion service and reception of members. At 5 o'clock p. m. the minister will speak on "Some Things Marshalltown Ought to Get Back of During 1915." Splendid congregational singing and special music by quartet and organist. You are cordially invited to come and bring your friends. Brotherhood. Members of the C. W. B. M. Auxiliary of the Central Church of Christ held their regular monthly meeting New Year's afternoon in the church parlors. There was a good attendance, and after the reports were given by the officers for the work accomplished during the last quarter of the year the members enjoyed an interesting program. Mrs. Mary Thornton led the program and conducted a missionary quiz. Miss Mrs. Early gave the paper of the afternoon on "Service Through Study." A letter from Mrs. S. G. Hanna, a missionary from Iowa, was read during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kohler, of Eldora, returned home Friday after visiting with Henry Weber, 309 East State street. J. B. Atwood, of Grinnell, returned home Friday evening after a visit with his brother, William Atwood, 614 West Nevada street. The regular meeting of the ladies' Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church, scheduled to meet Monday, Jan. 4, has been postponed. Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Wiley returned to Albion Friday evening after a visit with their daughter, Mrs. C. F. Crouse, of Timber Creek. Mr. and Mrs. John I. Bell and the latter's father, Gilbert Bingham, spent New Year's in Des Moines at the J. W. McPherson home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nixon, of Cedar Rapids, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hoag over New Year's, returned home this morning. Mrs. A. C. Patterson, of Gilman, returned home Friday evening after a holiday visit with her brother, Dr. F. Einsinger, 309 West Church street. Misses Mamie Anderson and Mamie Casey left today for Kansas City for a short visit with friends. Both are clerks in the Great Western freight depot. H. C. Laffler, of Des Moines, returned home Friday evening after a New Year's visit with his brother, Dr. E. G. Laffler, and family, 104 North Fourth street. Mrs. Nina Nell and son William, of Van Horn, arrived in the city Friday for a visit of a few days at the homes of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Helen C. Nell, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Joseph A. Whitaker. All who enjoy good glee club music should hear the Oberlin Glee Club at the Congregational church Tuesday evening, Jan. 5. Tickets on sale at E. R. Lay's, B. A. Morgan's, Benedict & Brintnall's, McBride & Will's. Committee. Announcement has been received by friends in the city of the birth of a son to Rev. and Mrs. F. J. Thomas, of Madison, Wis., on Tuesday. Rev. Mr. Thomas was formerly pastor of the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene in this city. Misses May and Lois Shorthill, of Topeka, Kan., who have been guests for a week of their uncle, T. T. Shorthill, and cousins, Mrs. J. Morrissey and Bert Shorthill, will leave this evening for their home. The Misses Shorthill are teachers in the Topeka schools. Will you start to save in 1915? If you buy some instant stock in the Marshalltown Savings and Loan Association, you can pay in each month a regular amount from $5 to $25. Start that saving habit now. The fifteenth series of stock is now for sale. George F. Thayer, secretary. The advance sale of seats for the engagement of "Seven Keys to Baldpate," George M. Cohan's mystery farce which is to be presented at the Odeon on Sunday evening, begins at the box office of that theater this morning. "Seven Keys to Baldpate" is one of the biggest successes of last season in New York where the piece ran an entire year at the Astor and Gaiety theaters, Odeon. An enjoyable New Year's party was held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Emmet Waters, 401 East State street, when the members of the former Standard Lecture Reading Club entertained complimentary to Mrs. A. Dan- skin, who will leave Monday for an extended trip thru California. In decorating California pepper berries and Christmas greens were used. The affair was an indoor picnic, and supper was served at 6 o'clock, after which an informal evening was spent socially. The Congregational church, Main and Fourth streets, begins the New Year with a high degree of prosperity and great opportunities. Tomorrow at 11 a. m. the theme will be "Loyalty in Religion" followed by the communion service and reception of members. At 5 o'clock p. m. the minister will speak on "Some Things Marshalltown Ought to Get Back of During 1915." Splendid congregational singing and special music by quartet and organist. You are cordially invited to come and bring your friends. Brotherhood. Members of the C. W. B. M. Auxiliary of the Central Church of Christ held their regular monthly meeting New Year's afternoon in the church parlors. There was a good attendance, and after the reports were given by the officers for the work accomplished during the last quarter of the year the members enjoyed an interesting program. Mrs. Mary Thornton led the program and conducted a missionary quiz. Miss Mrs. Early gave the paper of the afternoon on "Service Through Study." A letter from Mrs. S. G. Hanna, a missionary from Iowa, was read during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kohler, of Eldora, returned home Friday after visiting with Henry Weber, 309 East State street. J. B. Atwood, of Grinnell, returned home Friday evening after a visit with his brother, William Atwood, 614 West Nevada street. The regular meeting of the ladies' Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church, scheduled to meet Monday, Jan. 4, has been postponed. Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Wiley returned to Albion Friday evening after a visit with their daughter, Mrs. C. F. Crouse, of Timber Creek. Mr. and Mrs. John I. Bell and the latter's father, Gilbert Bingham, spent New Year's in Des Moines at the J. W. McPherson home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nixon, of Cedar Rapids, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hoag over New Year's, returned home this morning. Mrs. A. C. Patterson, of Gilman, returned home Friday evening after a holiday visit with her brother, Dr. F. Einsinger, 309 West Church street. Misses Mamie Anderson and Mamie Casey left today for Kansas City for a short visit with friends. Both are clerks in the Great Western freight depot. H. C. Laffler, of Des Moines, returned home Friday evening after a New Year's visit with his brother, Dr. E. G. Laffler, and family, 104 North Fourth street. Mrs. Nina Nell and son William, of Van Horn, arrived in the city Friday for a visit of a few days at the homes of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Helen C. Nell, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Joseph A. Whitaker. All who enjoy good glee club music should hear the Oberlin Glee Club at the Congregational church Tuesday evening, Jan. 5. Tickets on sale at E. R. Lay's, B. A. Morgan's, Benedict & Brintnall's, McBride & Will's. Committee. Announcement has been received by friends in the city of the birth of a son to Rev. and Mrs. F. J. Thomas, of Madison, Wis., on Tuesday. Rev. Mr. Thomas was formerly pastor of the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene in this city. Misses May and Lois Shorthill, of Topeka, Kan., who have been guests for a week of their uncle, T. T. Shorthill, and cousins, Mrs. J. Morrissey and Bert Shorthill, will leave this evening for their home. The Misses Shorthill are teachers in the Topeka schools. Will you start to save in 1915? If you buy some instant stock in the Marshalltown Savings and Loan Association, you can pay in each month a regular amount from $5 to $25. Start that saving habit now. The fifteenth series of stock is now for sale. George F. Thayer, secretary. The advance sale of seats for the engagement of "Seven Keys to Baldpate," George M. Cohan's mystery farce which is to be presented at the Odeon on Sunday evening, begins at the box office of that theater this morning. "Seven Keys to Baldpate" is one of the biggest successes of last season in New York where the piece ran an entire year at the Astor and Gaiety theaters, Odeon. An enjoyable New Year's party was held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Emmet Waters, 401 East State street, when the members of the former Standard Lecture Reading Club entertained complimentary to Mrs. A. Dan- skin, who will leave Monday for an extended trip thru California. In decorating California pepper berries and Christmas greens were used. The affair was an indoor picnic, and supper was served at 6 o'clock, after which an informal evening was spent socially. The Congregational church, Main and Fourth streets, begins the New Year with a high degree of prosperity and great opportunities. Tomorrow at 11 a. m. the theme will be "Loyalty in Religion" followed by the communion service and reception of members. At 5 o'clock p. m. the minister will speak on "Some Things Marshalltown Ought to Get Back of During 1915." Splendid congregational singing and special music by quartet and organist. You are cordially invited to come and bring your friends. Brotherhood. Members of the C. W. B. M. Auxiliary of the Central Church of Christ held their regular monthly meeting New Year's afternoon in the church parlors. There was a good attendance, and after the reports were given by the officers for the work accomplished during the last quarter of the year the members enjoyed an interesting program. Mrs. Mary Thornton led the program and conducted a missionary quiz. Miss Mrs. Early gave the paper of the afternoon on "Service Through Study." A letter from Mrs. S. G. Hanna, a missionary from Iowa, was read during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kohler, of Eldora, returned home Friday after visiting with Henry Weber, 309 East State street. J. B. Atwood, of Grinnell, returned home Friday evening after a visit with his brother, William Atwood, 614 West Nevada street. The regular meeting of the ladies' Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church, scheduled to meet Monday, Jan. 4, has been postponed. Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Wiley returned to Albion Friday evening after a visit with their daughter, Mrs. C. F. Crouse, of Timber Creek. Mr. and Mrs. John I. Bell and the latter's father, Gilbert Bingham, spent New Year's in Des Moines at the J. W. McPherson home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nixon, of Cedar Rapids, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hoag over New Year's, returned home this morning. Mrs. A. C. Patterson, of Gilman, returned home Friday evening after a holiday visit with her brother, Dr. F. Einsinger, 309 West Church street. Misses Mamie Anderson and Mamie Casey left today for Kansas City for a short visit with friends. Both are clerks in the Great Western freight depot. H. C. Laffler, of Des Moines, returned home Friday evening after a New Year's visit with his brother, Dr. E. G. Laffler, and family, 104 North Fourth street. Mrs. Nina Nell and son William, of Van Horn, arrived in the city Friday for a visit of a few days at the homes of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Helen C. Nell, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Joseph A. Whitaker. All who enjoy good glee club music should hear the Oberlin Glee Club at the Congregational church Tuesday evening, Jan. 5. Tickets on sale at E. R. Lay's, B. A. Morgan's, Benedict & Brintnall's, McBride & Will's. Committee. Announcement has been received by friends in the city of the birth of a son to Rev. and Mrs. F. J. Thomas, of Madison, Wis., on Tuesday. Rev. Mr. Thomas was formerly pastor of the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene in this city. Misses May and Lois Shorthill, of Topeka, Kan., who have been guests for a week of their uncle, T. T. Shorthill, and cousins, Mrs. J. Morrissey and Bert Shorthill, will leave this evening for their home. The Misses Shorthill are teachers in the Topeka schools. Will you start to save in 1915? If you buy some instant stock in the Marshalltown Savings and Loan Association, you can pay in each month a regular amount from $5 to $25. Start that saving habit now. The fifteenth series of stock is now for sale. George F. Thayer, secretary. The advance sale of seats for the engagement of "Seven Keys to Baldpate," George M. Cohan's mystery farce which is to be presented at the Odeon on Sunday evening, begins at the box office of that theater this morning. "Seven Keys to Baldpate" is one of the biggest successes of last season in New York where the piece ran an entire year at the Astor and Gaiety theaters, Odeon. An enjoyable New Year's party was held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Emmet Waters, 401 East State street, when the members of the former Standard Lecture Reading Club entertained complimentary to Mrs. A. Dan- skin, who will leave Monday for an extended trip thru California. In decorating California pepper berries and Christmas greens were used. The affair was an indoor picnic, and supper was served at 6 o'clock, after which an informal evening was spent socially. The Congregational church, Main and Fourth streets, begins the New Year with a high degree of prosperity and great opportunities. Tomorrow at 11 a. m. the theme will be "Loyalty in Religion" followed by the communion service and reception of members. At 5 o'clock p. m. the minister will speak on "Some Things Marshalltown Ought to Get Back of During 1915." Splendid congregational singing and special music by quartet and organist. You are cordially invited to come and bring your friends. Brotherhood. Members of the C. W. B. M. Auxiliary of the Central Church of Christ held their regular monthly meeting New Year's afternoon in the church parlors. There was a good attendance, and after the reports were given by the officers for the work accomplished during the last quarter of the year the members enjoyed an interesting program. Mrs. Mary Thornton led the program and conducted a missionary quiz. Miss Mrs. Early gave the paper of the afternoon on "Service Through Study." A letter from Mrs. S. G. Hanna, a missionary from Iowa, was read during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kohler, of Eldora, returned home Friday after visiting with Henry Weber, 309 East State street. J. B. Atwood, of Grinnell, returned home Friday evening after a visit with his brother, William Atwood, 614 West Nevada street. The regular meeting of the ladies' Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church, scheduled to meet Monday, Jan. 4, has been postponed. Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Wiley returned to Albion Friday evening after a visit with their daughter, Mrs. C. F. Crouse, of Timber Creek. Mr. and Mrs. John I. Bell and the latter's father, Gilbert Bingham, spent New Year's in Des Moines at the J. W. McPherson home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nixon, of Cedar Rapids, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hoag over New Year's, returned home this morning. Mrs. A. C. Patterson, of Gilman, returned home Friday evening after a holiday visit with her brother, Dr. F. Einsinger, 309 West Church street. Misses Mamie Anderson and Mamie Casey left today for Kansas City for a short visit with friends. Both are clerks in the Great Western freight depot. H. C. Laffler, of Des Moines, returned home Friday evening after a New Year's visit with his brother, Dr. E. G. Laffler, and family, 104 North Fourth street. Mrs. Nina Nell and son William, of Van Horn, arrived in the city Friday for a visit of a few days at the homes of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Helen C. Nell, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Joseph A. Whitaker. All who enjoy good glee club music should hear the Oberlin Glee Club at the Congregational church Tuesday evening, Jan. 5. Tickets on sale at E. R. Lay's, B. A. Morgan's, Benedict & Brintnall's, McBride & Will's. Committee. Announcement has been received by friends in the city of the birth of a son to Rev. and Mrs. F. J. Thomas, of Madison, Wis., on Tuesday. Rev. Mr. Thomas was formerly pastor of the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene in this city. Misses May and Lois Shorthill, of Topeka, Kan., who have been guests for a week of their uncle, T. T. Shorthill, and cousins, Mrs. J. Morrissey and Bert Shorthill, will leave this evening for their home. The Misses Shorthill are teachers in the Topeka schools. Will you start to save in 1915? If you buy some instant stock in the Marshalltown Savings and Loan Association, you can pay in each month a regular amount from $5 to $25. Start that saving habit now. The fifteenth series of stock is now for sale. George F. Thayer, secretary. The advance sale of seats for the engagement of "Seven Keys to Baldpate," George M. Cohan's mystery farce which is to be presented at the Odeon on Sunday evening, begins at the box office of that theater this morning. "Seven Keys to Baldpate" is one of the biggest successes of last season in New York where the piece ran an entire year at the Astor and Gaiety theaters, Odeon. An enjoyable New Year's party was held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Emmet Waters, 401 East State street, when the members of the former Standard Lecture Reading Club entertained complimentary to Mrs. A. Dan- skin, who will leave Monday for an extended trip thru California. In decorating California pepper berries and Christmas greens were used. The affair was an indoor picnic, and supper was served at 6 o'clock, after which an informal evening was spent socially. The Congregational church, Main and Fourth streets, begins the New Year with a high degree of prosperity and great opportunities. Tomorrow at 11 a. m. the theme will be "Loyalty in Religion" followed by the communion service and reception of members. At 5 o'clock p. m. the minister will speak on "Some Things Marshalltown Ought to Get Back of During 1915." Splendid congregational singing and special music by quartet and organist. You are cordially invited to come and bring your friends. Brotherhood. Members of the C. W. B. M. Auxiliary of the Central Church of Christ held their regular monthly meeting New Year's afternoon in the church parlors. There was a good attendance, and after the reports were given by the officers for the work accomplished during the last quarter of the year the members enjoyed an interesting program. Mrs. Mary Thornton led the program and conducted a missionary quiz. Miss Mrs. Early gave the paper of the afternoon on "Service Through Study." A letter from Mrs. S. G. Hanna, a missionary from Iowa, was read during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kohler, of Eldora, returned home Friday after visiting with Henry Weber, 309 East State street. J. B. Atwood, of Grinnell, returned home Friday evening after a visit with his brother, William Atwood, 614 West Nevada street. The regular meeting of the ladies' Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church, scheduled to meet Monday, Jan. 4, has been postponed. Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Wiley returned to Albion Friday evening after a visit with their daughter, Mrs. C. F. Crouse, of Timber Creek. Mr. and Mrs. John I. Bell and the latter's father, Gilbert Bingham, spent New Year's in Des Moines at the J. W. McPherson home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nixon, of Cedar Rapids, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hoag over New Year's, returned home this morning. Mrs. A. C. Patterson, of Gilman, returned home Friday evening after a holiday visit with her brother, Dr. F. Einsinger, 309 West Church street. Misses Mamie Anderson and Mamie Casey left today for Kansas City for a short visit with friends. Both are clerks in the Great Western freight depot. H. C. Laffler, of Des Moines, returned home Friday evening after a New Year's visit with his brother, Dr. E. G. Laffler, and family, 104 North Fourth street. Mrs. Nina Nell and son William, of Van Horn, arrived in the city Friday for a visit of a few days at the homes of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Helen C. Nell, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Joseph A. Whitaker. All who enjoy good glee club music should hear the Oberlin Glee Club at the Congregational church Tuesday evening, Jan. 5. Tickets on sale at E. R. Lay's, B. A. Morgan's, Benedict & Brintnall's, McBride & Will's. Committee. Announcement has been received by friends in the city of the birth of a son to Rev. and Mrs. F. J. Thomas, of Madison, Wis., on Tuesday. Rev. Mr. Thomas was formerly pastor of the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene in this city. Misses May and Lois Shorthill, of Topeka, Kan., who have been guests for a week of their uncle, T. T. Shorthill, and cousins, Mrs. J. Morrissey and Bert Shorthill, will leave this evening for their home. The Misses Shorthill are teachers in the Topeka schools. Will you start to save in 1915? If you buy some instant stock in the Marshalltown Savings and Loan Association, you can pay in each month a regular amount from $5 to $25. Start that saving habit now. The fifteenth series of stock is now for sale. George F. Thayer, secretary. The advance sale of seats for the engagement of "Seven Keys to Baldpate," George M. Cohan's mystery farce which is to be presented at the Odeon on Sunday evening, begins at the box office of that theater this morning. "Seven Keys to Baldpate" is one of the biggest successes of last