

COCOANUT OIL FINE FOR WASHING HAIR

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, the less soap you use the better. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain multifid coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair. Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two spoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, lustrous and easy to manage. You can get multifid coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

JOHNSON AGAIN HEAD MARSHALLTOWN CLUB

IS CHOICE OF MEMBERS FOR PRESIDENT OF THE CLUB FOR NEW YEAR.

ANNUAL MEETING OF CLUB HELD AT NIGHT

Report of Secretary Galloway Shows Increase of Membership During Year—Cafe Operated at Loss—Resolution Adopted Calling for Open Day Once Each Month.

A. G. Johnson was re-elected president of the Marshalltown Club at the annual election of officers, held at the club Tuesday. Only eighty-seven votes were cast in the entire election, which aroused very little interest on the part of the members. E. D. Hamilton, George Gregory and F. M. Wilbur were elected vice presidents; H. K. Denmead was named for financial secretary, C. C. Trine for treasurer, and A. Weisman, R. W. McCreery, and L. C. Abbott for directors.

The annual meeting of the club was also held at the rooms Tuesday evening, at which time the secretary, W. E. Galloway, read his annual report, and several new resolutions were introduced and adopted. Only twenty-two members were present at the meeting.

Open House One Day Each Month. A resolution was passed saying that in the future the elections would be conducted on a different plan. A nominating committee will select five names for president, five for secretary, and five for treasurer, fifteen for vice presidents and directors, and at the primary all voting will be done on these names. This will do away with the scattering vote which has always been the result heretofore.

Green and white, the club colors, were effectively used in decorating, and late in the afternoon a two-course luncheon was served by the social committee, composed of Mesdames Robinson, John Crouse, and Miss Alma Van Hort. Mrs. Ben Henderson, accompanied by Mrs. Doolittle read "One Fine Day," from "Madame Butterfly," after which Mrs. Henderson read "At the Concert." The readings were followed by a piano duet by Mrs. Roy McKinnan and Mrs. J. W. Lloyd, who played a polonaise by Dvorak. Mrs. Charles Myers sang an aria from "Aida" and "Parle" (Arditi). George Keenan played a group of violin numbers, including "Legend" (Carl Bohm), a Mazurka by Mynski and "Gypsy Dancers" (Narchoz). The case brought by Birt Price, a builder, against F. W. Carl and Mrs. Lila Carl, on a claim for $300 for labor and material used in the house Carl built at 977 Fremont street, was brought to trial before Judge Cummings this forenoon. In the answer Carl admits a debt of $333, but alleges he paid a $500 lumber bill for Price to prevent a mechanics lien being placed on the house by the dealer. He wants credit for the $500 against Price's claim. The case had not been completed at noon.

Marshall county was given judgment for foreclosure of a mortgage against Annie M. Peterson. The judgment was obtained under a mortgage on city property. The money loaned on this place was from the school fund. This is the first case in a great many years where such a mortgage was foreclosed. The case of McCoy vs. Nuese, which was begun in the district court Monday, was continued by agreement late Tuesday, until Judge J. W. Willett, of Tama, could find time to come here to give testimony. A night session will probably be held to take this testimony.

Be Prepared to Tell Assessor All

Beginning with next Monday you are now warned that you should be prepared to unobscure yourself fully—even to the deep secrets of your life—to the assessor. Next Monday the assessors will begin assessing property all over the county for taxes, and at the same time they will begin to take the census.

The cards and other supplies for the assessors on which to make their census returns have been furnished Auditor A. W. Dobson. The information that the assessor will ask each citizen for will include, sex, color, married, single, divorced or widowed, occupation, length of employment in 1914, earnings in 1914, birthplace, extent of education, war record if any, father's birthplace, mother's birthplace. The cards on which the assessor will gather the census of the farmers will also be filled with statistics of the crops and farm statistics in 1914. This card contains a long list of questions that when answered will give a census of the livestock of the farm, the crops grown in the year, yields of all kinds and their value.

TWO COUPLES DIVORCED.

Pair of Decrees Granted, One New Petition is Filed.

Two decrees of divorce were granted and one new petition for divorce was filed in the district court Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Anna Pettit, of this city, was granted a divorce from W. M. Pettit. Stonewall Davis was given a divorce from Mrs. Bernice R. Davis for desertion. They were married at Topeka, Kan., Feb. 17, 1911.

Mrs. Margie Smith, of this city, has filed a petition for divorce from Charles Henry Smith. She alleges cruel and inhuman treatment, asks the custody of her daughter, Dorothy, and $30 a month alimony for support. On the allegations of the petition Judge Cummings issued an order for temporary injunction against Smith to prevent him molesting his wife. The Smiths were married here Aug. 15, 1912.
