"Brought Up" on Father John's Medicine, which Cured Her of a Terrible Cough and Built Her Up.

Her father in a recent letter said: "My little daughter is certainly a picture of health. She had a serious attack of lung trouble, with a terrible cough. After trying a doctor's medicine, which did very little good, we gave her Father John's Medicine, with the pleasing results that she was soon well, and we know that Father John's Medicine will keep her well."

Buschhorn, of Lamolle, spent Friday in the city. Voice culture, Mondays and Thursdays, Masonic temple, Marshalltown. H. P. Giger. A. E. McCullough and Miss Ada Keener, of Lamolle, were visitors in the city Thursday. Miss Mores Dunham returned home Friday evening, after a short visit with her grandparents, at Liscomb. My office is over the Fidelity bank, corner First avenue and Main street. Phone 62. Dr. Cora Williams Choate. My dental office is now located over the Iowa Savings Bank, and equipped with modern appliances. Phone 712, Dr. Brazey. Mrs. L. Hamilton, of Ottumwa, returned home this morning after a visit with her brother, James W. Burroughs, and her niece, Mrs. J. L. Williams. Mrs. H. B. Swan, of Grinnell, returned home this morning after attending the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Ella B. Adrian. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Yarrington, of Lamoni, who also attended the funeral, left for their home this morning. Thirty members of the M. B. A. enjoyed an informal social evening Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Hall, 705 West Linn street. The guests visited socially and refreshments were served later in the evening by the hostess. Twenty-two members of the Young People's society of the Friends' church joined in a farewell surprise Friday evening upon Miss Vera Womack, who is soon to leave the city. Miss Womack has been junior superintendent of the society. Her friends presented her with a fountain pen. From its historic triumphs in Chicago and New York, Jack Lait's great play "Help Wanted" comes to the Odeon tomorrow evening with the tried and tested assurance that it is the most human, the most laughable, the most genuine and the most intimate truthful play of modern American life that the stage of this country has known in years. These are the qualities which have made Jack Lait's now famous play the financial as well as the artistic success of 1914. Odeon. Mrs. Mary Thornton was elected president at the regular meeting of the Aid society, of the Central Church of Christ, held Friday afternoon in the church parlors. Other officers elected were: Mrs. L. S. Brown, first vice president; Mrs. J. C. Irvin, second vice president; Mrs. J. A. Pegg, secretary and Mrs. C. H. Ellenberger, treasurer. After the routine business an hour was spent socially and the hostesses, Mesdames T. E. Lockard, and Jesse Britt, D. M. Duncan and L. L. French, served refreshments. A very strong feature of the meetings now in progress at the Central Church of Christ, is the spirited congregational singing. Mr. Bailey, the leader of song, is in a class alone in this part of the work. The church is glad to announce to the public, that Mr. Bailey likes Marshalltown well enough to make it his home, and will remain with the church after the meetings are over. He will teach voice in the city, and have charge of the music. Come and hear him sing tomorrow. He is a most unusual type of soloist. Central church. Our hobby is making bread. Bread that will please everybody. Our bread is fresh at all times, day and night shifts baking continuously. The careful housewife who is anxious to provide the best for her family at the same time escape the necessity for doing her own baking will find just the bread she is looking for in Standard Bread. It was not intended for the housewife to toil all the time in the kitchen. Why should you wear yourself out toiling over hot ovens and sacrificing many pleasures for the sake of baking bread when the very best bread that can possibly be produced is baked in our new, large, sanitary bakery? Visitors are always welcome. The bakers will show you how the goods are made and convince you that the above statement is true. Standard Bakery.

Mrs. Charles Waterman, of Clemons, left Friday evening for Lebanon, Mo., for a visit with friends. Rev. H. F. Roney and sister, Miss Cella Roney, of State Center, were visitors in the city Friday. I. S. French and Mrs. E. F. French, of the soldiers' home went to Colo Thursday to visit with relatives. William Guyer, returned from St. Louis Thursday evening after a three weeks' visit with relatives in that city. Miss Norma Johnson, of Maquoketa, arrived in the city Thursday to visit at the home of her brother, Dr. G. M. Johnson. Mrs. A. Pettis, of Compton, Ill., went to State Center Friday evening for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. John Ferguson. L. A. Benson, of Minto, N. D., arrived in the city Friday evening for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Daniel Benson. Mrs. George Schroyer, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stewart for a week left Friday night for her home in New York. Sparks from a chimney did damage amounting to about $15 to the roof of the Mrs. Helen Brock home, 406 West Main street, at 10:15 this forenoon. The loss was covered by insurance. Mrs. Joseph Walker left this morning for Blooming Prairie, Minn., where she will make her future home. Mr. Walker has been in Blooming Prairie for several weeks. The body of Mrs. Margaret Foreman, the Spencer member of the soldier's home who died Friday, will be taken tonight to Garrison for burial. Frank Kabrick, of Spencer, a nephew, will accompany the body. At the first Presbyterian church on Sunday the subject of Faith will be discussed. Mrs. Tuffoe will sing. You will enjoy these services. The church is warm and comfortable and everything possible is done to make the services helpful to all who attend. The church is opposite the postoffice on South Center and Church streets. Committee. Old Ohio friends of Mrs. William Battin joined Thursday night in celebrating the 75th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Battin at the home of Rev. and Mrs. I. N. Rich, 507 North Third street. The oldest among the guests were Mr. Battin and Samuel Whinnery, who were 83. The youngest was Mrs. Mary Collins, aged 70. Dinner was served by Mrs. Rich, and the evening was spent in recounting reminiscences of pioneer days. The Vawter evangelistic party are in a great meeting at the Central Church of Christ. Almost two hundred people have united with the church in the two weeks of invitation. The services tomorrow will be the best of the series thus far. Those who are hearing, say that Mr. Vawter is the greatest bible teacher yet heard in the city. His preaching is characterized by a clearness not often found. It is worth while to hear his sermons tomorrow. Central church. "Milestones" the most notable play of a generation, the sensational hit of England and America, comes to the Odeon Thursday evening. This play by Arnold Bennett, novelist, and Edward Knoblauch, the author of "Kismet" is perhaps the first attempt to compress into a single evening's entertainment the spectacle of a man's whole existence. The action of the piece spreads over more than half a century. It begins in 1880 and ends amid the problems of 1912. Odeon. Mrs. Roy Bradbury, 302 North Third street, was hostess Friday afternoon to the members of Spinning Wheel Chapter, D. A. R., who spent an entertaining afternoon with a program on Indians. Mrs. C. C. Cornish, told of the Indians of Iowa after which Mrs. H. J. Howe gave an interesting account of Black Hawk and the Black Hawk war. Mrs. Etta Agnew read a paper on "Keokuk, the Indian Orator" and "The Statue of Keokuk and the Sculptor." Mrs. R. E. Johnson closed the program with a paper telling of the statue of Mahaska and the sculptor. At the close of the program a social hour and refreshments were enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Balch and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Meeker, entertained the members of the Careway Club Friday evening at the Balch home, 106 North Second street. The dinner which was served at 7 o'clock was rather unique in detail as the tables were laid without table silver, which caused no end of merriment. The four courses of the dinner were served by the hostesses, assisted by Misses Dorothy Balch and Patricia Wallace. The small tables at which the guests were seated were attractive in their decorations of green ferns and were lighted with green candles. On account of the lack of silver much fun was afforded by the very showy and highly colored bibs, one of which was given each guest and the numerous finger bowls which were in evidence. During the evening five hundred furnished the entertainment. Mrs. George Schroyer, of New York, Mrs. E. P. Wheeler and Mrs. T. C. Borden, of Chicago, were out-of-town guests.

Dr. Bullard, osteopath, 15 West Main. Mrs. Hester Fincham, of Colo, spent Friday in the city. We are prepared to take grain at $12 East Main street. Phone 619. B. L. Cook. Messrs John, Henry and Wilbur Guntert, of Gilman, spent Thursday in the city. MOVE TO MARSHALLTOWN. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Newby, of Hartford, Coming Here to Live. Neighbors and friends of the Hartland community pleasantly surprised Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Newby Friday at their country home two miles south-west of Hartland, Mr. and Mrs. Newby have sold their farm and will soon move to this city to make their home. Fifty friends attended the affair, taking with them well filled baskets containing a dinner which was served at noon. Rev. Mr. Bolland, pastor of the Hartland church, in behalf of the guests, presented the host and hostess with a handsome set of silver spoons. A delightful day was spent socially, several pleasing piano numbers being played by Mrs. Walton Howell and Miss Mabel Cory. A program of songs was also enjoyed. Nathan Carter and niece, Miss Chlo Carter, of Albion, and Mrs. Benjamin Packer, of Victor, Cal., were guests from a distance. Ferguson News. Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lawrence are the parents of a son. Rev. Helm, 407 East Boone street, is a patient at the Deaconess hospital. Ruskin Talks on Pole Discovery. About fifty business men of the city gathered at the Marshalltown Club Friday noon to hear John W. Ruskin, explorer and adventurer, present an argument on the Cook-Pearry controversy. Mr. Ruskin is a personal friend of Dr. Cook's, and while he does not question the fact that Peary found the pole, he does claim that Cook got there first. Mr. Ruskin was one of the party who met Dr. Cook on his return from his famous expedition and it is Ruskin's assertion that Cook has and did have proof positive that he found the place farthest north. Mr. Ruskin delivered his talk in an interesting way. Local Livestock Market. Brittain & Co. today quoted the following prices for hogs in wagon load lots: Premium hogs over 170 pounds—$25. Hogs, 150 to 170 pounds—$19. Good packers—$10. Light hogs, 125 to 150 pounds—$8.50. Washington Township Notes. Mrs. May Smith entertained the Helping Hand Society Thursday.
