CHARLES H. SMITH, OF DES MOINES, BADLY INJURED AT BAXTER, DIES HERE.

LEG CRUSHED WHEN HE FALLS UNDER WHEELS

Smith Injured While Coupling Cars of Chicago Great Western Freight
Train No. 82—Hurried to This City,
Leg Amputated—Dies Early This Morning of Injury and Shock.

Charles H. Smith, aged 36, 1316 Twentieth street, Des Moines, an extra conductor and brakeman on the Chicago Great Western, died at 2:30 this morning at the Deaconess hospital from internal injuries received when he was run over by a Great Western train at Baxter, and from shock following the amputation of his right leg. Smith was working as brakeman on local freight No. 82, and was uncoupling about 7 o'clock Thursday evening, when in some manner he slipped and was dragged several feet before he was thrown under the wheels.

Conductor Frank Carper, in charge of the train, was standing at the point where Smith was run over, and stopped the train at once, so that only one pair of trucks passed over the brakeman's right leg. Carper was not aware that Smith was being dragged until he saw him slip under the wheels.

Smith was brought to Marshalltown and taken at once to the Deaconess hospital, where the company surgeon, Dr. A. C. Conaway, was called. He found it necessary to amputate the right leg above the knee, but Smith's condition was so bad, due to exposure and undoubtedly suffering from internal injuries, that he sank steadily, and died about three and a half hours after the operation. Besides his right leg and foot being crushed, his left foot was badly cut between the ankle and the heel. Smith suffered intensely after he came from under the effects of the anesthetic.

Charles H. Smith was born near Newton, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Smith. He leaves besides his wife, four small children, Hazel, aged 16; Charles, 9; Inez, 7; and baby Margaret, aged 3 months. He also leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Smith, at Newton, two brothers, Henry Smith, of Red Deer, Alta., and Roy, of Newton, and three sisters, Mrs. W. P. Jones, Mrs. Joseph Bowen, and Florence Smith, all of Newton. Mr. and Mrs. John C. Crawford, 112 North Third avenue, are the parents of Mrs. Smith.

The body will be taken to Des Moines this evening. The funeral will probably be held Sunday.

Later he took up farming again, and for fourteen years lived on a farm near Neosho, Mo. For the past six months he had been living at Alamogordo, N. M.

LYRIC ATTRACTIONS

"The Girl of the Golden West," Tonight at the Lyric—Saturday and Sunday "Mignon"—"Wilhelm Meister" and "The Rose of the Ranch" Coming.

Tonight again, "The Girl of the Golden West," as presented in picture form by David Belasco, has absolutely beaten all records during the past week at the Strand Theater in New York City. This is saying a great deal but is the literal truth that standing room only has been the order from early in the afternoon until late in the evening, and the manner in which the Belasco drama has been received by audiences beggars description. Some of the expert critical applause for this feature are: Morning Telegraph, New York City—Dramatically strong, far beyond the average; most artistically staged, and interpreted by a most able cast. In its entirety a great success. Dramatic Mirror—"The Girl of the Golden West" receives unstinted praise. New York Evening Mail—Lasky best film to date.

The Saturday and Sunday photograph is another wonderful production. Schubert & Brady present Beatrix Mchela in "Mignon," adapted from Goethe's masterpiece "Wilhelm Meister" supported by a notable cast including Andrew Robson and House Peters.

Next Monday and Tuesday Jesse L. Lasky, in association with David Belasco presents the brilliant American play, "The Rose of Rancho." This most human document ever pictured was produced in the exact locale of the piece, amidst the old missions of Monterey, Cal.

The Lyric Theater has the Paramount features because they are the best. The second copy of the Paramount Magazine is out. Better come tonight and get your copy free. Lyric.

2 Drops of "GETS-IT," Out Comes the Corn!

It's the World's Wonder; Never Fails. You'll make goo-goo eyes at your feet, after you use "GETS-IT," and you'll find the places where those blankety corns used to be, just as smooth as your cheek. There's no corn or callus among the millions of feet in the world that "GETS-IT" will not remove—there's no escape. "GETS-IT" is the new way, the simple, common-sense, sure way. It does away with greasy ointments, salves, pads, cotton rings, harnesses, knives, scissors, razors, files, and the limping and the painful pison-toe walk of so many corn-bested people. All you do is put 2 drops of "GETS-IT"—on the corn shrivels up—and goodbye. Nothing else in the world like "GETS-IT." Millions are using it. There's no pain, no trouble, no changing shoes because of corns.

"How Wide is a 'GETS-IT' Sock? Well, a Good Deal Over 2 Feet!"

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. Sold in Marshalltown and recommended as the world's best corn cure by McBride & Will Drug Company.

Tries to Flee From Hospital; Arrested

Salvatore Chios, the Italian, who was wounded in the neck by a revolver bullet in a fight with Bastiano Rosetano, his prospective son-in-law, tried to escape from the Deaconess hospital Thursday where he was taken to have the wound treated. The Italian was dressing himself when nurses interrupted him and reported that he was ready to take a quick French leave.

A complaint had been filed in the mayor's court against Chios by Bastiano Rosetano, who shot him, in which the latter charged Chios with assault with intent to do great bodily injury. Rosetano alleges Chios tried to knife him before he shot in self defense. Chios was removed to the county jail by Officer Starn after he had obtained an order for the Italian's release from the hospital from Dr. F. H. Boucher who is attending him. As soon as Rosetano's injured leg will permit him to be brought to the mayor's court he will have to face a charge of carrying concealed weapons that is to be filed against him by the police.
