

LAST BILLS DAY IN IOWA SENATE

INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS WITH MEASURES TO BE CHOKED OFF.

COMMITTEE BILLS HAVE RIGHT OF WAY

Not All Appropriation Measures Yet In Senate Faces Difficult Task in Keeping Appropriations Within Limits of Available Funds - House to Vote Dry.

Special to Times-Republican. Des Moines, Feb. 15.—According to the rules of the senate today is last day for getting in the appropriation bills, as individual members can not introduce bills after Feb. 15.—Committee bills can be introduced, however, or the rule may be waived.

The committee on appropriations has a sub-committee at work now on the problem of deciding how much money ought to be given the railroad commission for the prosecution of rate cases. It has a committee at work on the subject of the millage taxes and to report on the returns from these taxes and how the money is being used. These millage taxes are used at all the state institutions.

The last of the big appropriation bills are presented today by Chairman Robinson of the board of control committee. This was the omnibus bill for board of control institutions. Chairman Savage of the appropriations committee last week presented the omnibus bill for the board of education institutions.

Two bills call for appropriations far beyond the visible supply of money. The board of education bill calls for an increase in expenditures of over a half million and the board of education bill about $350,000. But unless there is a special millage tax on the college the board of control bill will be at least doubled in size. The board of control recommendation in the biennial report was for the following sums:

Table with 2 columns: Item Name and Amount. Includes Mount Pleasant ($78,950), Cherokee ($49,000), Anamosa ($35,229), Waukegan ($35,500), Jewett ($29,000), Pocahontas ($19,300), Boone ($19,450), Independence ($17,000), Madison ($16,000), Keokuk ($7,500), Johnson ($7,800), Council Bluffs ($5,900), Marshalltown ($4,000).

Total $322,170. The board has made some slight changes in these figures and the aggregate is a little higher in the bill as presented.

The prohibitory amendment and mulct law repeal measures are scheduled for immediate passage in the senate, and this will remove a big disturbing element which has thus far stood in the way of any legislation on general topics. The mulct law repeal bill is to be pushed ahead of the other in the house, tho it would appear of little importance which takes precedence now. It is assumed that as soon as the mulct law repeal bill is passed practically all of the bills which are to amend the mulct law will be abandoned. For instance, the bills to increase the percentage on a petition, to shorten school hours and all such bills will be useless after the mulct law is repealed. This will greatly relieve the situation as most of these bills gave promise of disturbing things in the legislature.

The house has set for special order tomorrow the reconsideration of the bill to appropriate for the San Francisco exposition. The return of the bill to the house who was due to the fact that a motion to reconsider had not been disposed of before it went to the senate. Tho there has appeared a good deal of opposition to the bill in the house, even since it was passed, yet there is no doubt the appropriation will be given.

The women suffrage amendment seems to be practically at the finish. It has but to go thru the house and it is ready for a vote of the people. All along it has been assumed the house would be more disposed toward it than the senate, and the senate was overwhelmed for equal suffrage. The good effect of the campaign conducted the past three or four years is being felt now in favor of the amendment.

A hearing is to be given by the appropriate committees this afternoon on the move for erection of a temple of justice as first of the series of buildings that the state will ultimately need on the capital grounds. The state bar association and leading lawyers of the state are urging this step. All that would be asked at this time would be a way to secure and adopt plans for the building.

A concurrent resolution will be introduced soon to memorialize congress for a constitutional convention to put into the federal constitution a clause forbidding polygamy anywhere under the stars and stripes. The claims committee of the senate has turned over to the appropriations committee the bill to give $1,000 to the widow of an inmate of the hospital of the insane. He was and had been for several years harmless and was a good worker. One day he suddenly became violently insane and attacked an attendant. Another insane man killed him. Now what was he worth to the estate? And should the state pay?

Tomorrow the railroad magnates come to tell Iowa people what they will do to help business. They will appear before the governor and ask that he intercede for them and then go before the legislature to ask for higher rates. Subsequent steps in the proceeding are yet to be determined upon.

Wanderer Calls For Vengeance on Ackley When Denied Lodging. Ackley, Feb. 14.—For several months past Ackley has been a haven for weary wanderers who came not singly, but in pairs, but in squads. They have become such a nuisance that the city council decided to take some action on the matter and at the last meeting voted to deny them the use of the city lockup where they were kept and allowed to cook their grub. Since then only two have hit the town, and these having learned by intuition that they would get a cold reception.

The latter part of last week Marshal Pepperling was accosted by a pair who struck him for a place to bunk and they were told they could not be taken care of. They then sought higher authority and approached Mayor Lieuwen with the same appeal. After listening to the tale of woe of one of the pair, who presented a letter from some doctor, even the signature of which was written on a newspaper, the Mayor told them that he could not recognize a letter without a pen and ink signature. Angered at their failure to secure lodging, the other one spoke up and said, "Well, I'll be kosh darned if this wouldn't drive a man to lead a criminal life, what would?" Mayor Lieuwen reminded them that the town had a place for criminals but could not accommodate the two able-bodied applicants for free lodging. Upon passing out of the door one remarked: "I hope that the next cyclone which strikes in the United States will hit Ackley and blow the d— town all to h—."

FIX NORMAL WORK STANDARDS.

Educational Board Adopts Regulations to Comply With New Law. Special to Times-Republican. Des Moines, Feb. 15.—The state board of educational examiners has adopted rules and regulations fixing standards for the normal work which is to be required in the colleges and schools preparing teachers. This year the new law will go into effect requiring that before an applicant for a teacher's certificate can enter an examination before the state board she must have had either special training in certain colleges or at least twelve weeks of normal training in some school maintaining a training department. It is to meet this situation that the state board adopts the standards. The rule will be promulgated from the state department of education.

Dubuque. Catherine Specht, aged 36, divorced, has confessed to authorities that she smothered her new born infant shortly after its birth Feb. 1. The child was found dead under suspicious circumstances.

Sibley. The Sibley Commercial Club elected the following officers for the ensuing year: W. W. Overholser, president; Harry Russell, vice president; J. Fred Mattert, secretary; H. E. Scott, treasurer; George F. Sokol, C. W. Brown and C. E. Parker, members of executive committee.

Waterloo. Robert Tracey, colored, who is serving a sentence at the state penitentiary on a charge of manslaughter, has appealed to Chief of Police Leighton to assist him in securing his pardon. Tracey was sentenced for killing Percy Hopkins, also colored, in the north section of the city.

Waterloo. Jack Elliott, who deserted the ranks of Waterloo news writers about fifteen years ago, now is safely anchored in Los Angeles at a salary said to be $5,000 a year as collector of port. Since assuming the office it has been placed under the civil service department, hence his job holds good indefinitely.

Fort Dodge. Judge M. McCall at the conclusion of testimony in the divorce case of Mrs. Lulu Colson Morris against A. L. Morris, advised Mrs. Morris to "Stop, look and listen" the next time she contemplated matrimony. The testimony showed that she married her husband after an acquaintance of three weeks. Judge McCall granted her a divorce.

Cedar Rapids. Earl A. Wilson, a youth who has been in trouble on one or two occasions for violation of state laws, was arrested by Detective Christenson Wednesday on a charge of having held up Lawrence Freeman, proprietor of a shoe store at 417 Third avenue west on the night of Jan. 23, and robbing him of about $40. The arrest was made on a warrant issued by Justice Lightner at the request of Mr. Freeman, who is confident that Wilson is the chap who robbed him.

Harcourt. The Harcourt corn show which is scheduled for Feb. 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 1915, this year probably will exceed the other big shows that have been held here. Thirty-seven classes of exhibits of corn, oats, wheat, timothy seed, alfalfa and other farm products have been provided. The state science department of the show vies with the grain department in interest and the housewives and their daughters in the southern part of the county have been busy preparing exhibits. Twenty-three classes have been provided in this department. Speakers from the extension department of Iowa state college at Ames will appear each afternoon and evening. Professor Cordway will deliver his lecture on county advisers Thursday evening. Dr. A. E. Kefford of the state board of health is also down for a speech on tuberculosis. The judge of the grain exhibits will be T. R. Douglas of the extension department at Ames.

Cedar Rapids. Fred A. Canfield, county auditor, has sent out requests to all of the township trustees and road superintendents of Linn county to attend the annual school of instruction which is to be held next Tuesday, Feb. 16 at the commercial club rooms in Cedar Rapids. This school is provided for each county by the state laws and all the above mentioned men are required to be present. Topics for discussion will center around the proper methods of road and bridge work in each of the counties of Iowa, and the sessions never fail to prove of considerable value to the men attending. State Representative E. H. Cunningham has been retained to assist at the meeting and will deliver an address.

Cedar Rapids. The case against "Billy" Taylor and Mrs. Mills has been dropped, Mills having appeared in Justice Nugent's court where he filed a motion that the charges against his wife and Taylor be dismissed. Mrs. Mills was promptly released from custody, the necessary papers regarding the settlement of any question as to her ownership of the home were made out and signed by both parties. Mrs. Mills has made the following statement: "I have committed no wrongful act, and the charges filed by Mr. Mills on the night in question have been dismissed by him. I shall file a petition for divorce at once, and I am going to stay right here in Cedar Rapids and prove to my friends that I was not in the wrong."

Greeley. The funeral services of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Parker was held at their late home near Greeley on Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Dawson of Northwood, conducted the services and interment was made in Grant's View cemetery at Greeley. Mr. and Mrs. Parker passed away on the same day within the short space of eight hours. Mr. Parker's death was due to an illness of several years' duration and that of Mrs. Parker was due to a fall which she sustained a short time ago and the great shock of her husband's death. Lemuel Parker was born in Sherbrooke county, province of Quebec, Canada, on Feb. 27, 1828. He was reared and educated in Canada, remaining there until 1851, when he came to Iowa, settling in Delaware county and has since resided on the same farm. Mrs. Parker was born in Canada, April 4, 1840. She was united in marriage with Mr. Parker on Feb. 18, 1861, and came with him to Iowa. Four children were born to this union. Miss Ida and Willard H., having preceded their parents in death. Two sons survive, Arthur, who resides on the home farm, and Charles, who is engaged in the automobile business in Winthrop.

ELECTION JUDGES MAKE BLUNDERS

RECOUNT OF VOTES IN BLACK HAWK-GRUNDY DISTRICT SHOWS MANY ERRORS.

SENATOR GROUT WILL RETAIN HIS SEAT

Judges of Election Shown to Have Been Poor Mathematicians - Errors in Count Made in 70 Per Cent of Precincts, Most of Them in Black Hawk County.

Special to Times-Republican.

Des Moines, Feb. 15.—Not only are schools of voting needed in Iowa, but lessons in primary arithmetic at least know how to count and add, if one may judge from the revelations of the two contests before senate committees.

Senator Grout, of Black Hawk, retains his seat in the senate the recount showing he had a larger majority than the county and state canvass had stated. The final majority for Grout was 49. It is yet undecided whether Senator Lindley will retain his seat, but the chances favor him greatly.

Errors in Most of Precincts. The feature in the recount in the Black Hawk-Grundy district was that out of forty-seven precincts in the district errors were found in thirty-two of them, or in other words, 70 per cent of the election boards were unable to make a proper count of the ballots as cast. That these were practically all errors made by sheer carelessness and not because of failure to understand what the vote actually was is indicated by the fact that the errors ran for and against each one of the parties. In only one precinct was there such an error as to indicate the possibility of an effort to affect the result. In that precinct the incumbent gained 15 and the contestant lost 21 on the recount. But the lawyers and clerks who really made the recount for the contest committee agreed on the actual result all the way thru. Why were not the judges and clerks of election able to count right?

Most of the errors were found in Black Hawk county, many of them being in Waterloo. Henry-Jefferson Contest. In the Henry-Jefferson district the lawyers in the case are disagreeing and hundreds of ballots are being laid out to be passed on by the committee, or in other words, there is found that the voters themselves committed a great many errors which will have to be investigated by the committee. But there is complaint that the lawyers handling the case are drawing things too fine and objecting to ballots the plain intent of which is apparent.

The manner in which the Black Hawk-Grundy case was handled was a record breaker. Only three days were taken up in the recount. In the other contest three weeks have now been used and the end is not yet.

LINCOLN DAY AT ELDORA.

Herbert A. Huff Delivers Address at Celebration of Birthday Anniversary. Special to Times-Republican. Eldora, Feb. 15.—The anniversary of the birthday of Abraham Lincoln was observed in the Eldora Methodist church last evening with befitting exercises. The music by choir and congregation was in keeping with the occasion. The speaker of the evening was Hon. Herbert A. Huff, for two terms representative in the lower house of the Iowa legislature. While Mr. Huff is a lawyer by vocation, he appeared equally at home in the pulpit as before the judges on the court. He showed that he had given close study of the life of the great emancipator and familiarized himself with the history of the life of Lincoln. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, the church was well filled and the speaker saw the need of being fairly out with close attention while delivering a forty-minute eulogy of the martyred president. Mr. Huff has on many occasions proven to the people of Hardin county that he was an orator of more than ordinary ability, but when dealing with the life of Lincoln he fairly outdid his reputation and was the recipient of many and hearty congratulations. The old soldiers of the city attended the exercises in a body.

DEDICATE ROCKFORD CHURCH.

Methodist Congregation Occupies New $25,000 Home Free From Debt. Special to Times-Republican. Rockford, Feb. 15.—Sunday was a gala day for the Methodists of this city. Five years ago, when Rev. A. M. Jayne was appointed to the pastorate here, he saw the need of a fairer church home, and after these years of labor yesterday say the full consummation of his plans in the dedication of one of the handsomest and most conveniently arranged churches in the Cedar Falls conference. The new building cost $25,000, exclusive of the tract of land upon which it stands. It is built of Rockford brick, Bedford stone trimmings, with the roof. The morning services were very largely attended. Rev. J. W. Holland of Cedar Falls, preached a most eloquent sermon and the congregation was left in fine spirit for the program which followed. The offering was in charge of J. E. Johnson, and so expert was he at the job that the money came rolling and tumbling in so that when he had finished the debt was practically all taken care of.

The dedicatory service was in charge of District Superintendent E. M. Evans. This was his first service of the kind, and warming when a number of former pastors are expected to be present and they will be greeted by their friends. Tuesday evening there will be a banquet with toasts responded to by Dr. T. M. Evans, E. L. Webster, Col. H. D. Wood and Pastor Jayne. The Methodists of Rockford feel very proud of their new building and the success of Sunday's program.

News of Jewell.

Special to Times-Republican. Jewell, Feb. 15.—While Dave Jewell was in his room at the hotel here last Saturday afternoon the team became frightened at a train switching and ran away, throwing Mr. Jewell under the horses and wagon. The wagon passed over his head, cutting severe lacerations. He was taken to the doctors office here and was attended to and then taken to his home. He is resting easy today.
