Mr. Diller is a Spanish-American war veteran, having been a member of Company H, Forty-ninth Iowa, of this city.
Sixty girls of the high school and several of the teachers were entertained at a rather unique affair Saturday evening, when they were guests at the Y. W. C. A., and where they enjoyed a "day in college." To make the entertainment more interesting the girls were divided into three groups and assigned to one of three college courses, home economics, music, and liberal arts. For these courses "degrees" were conferred by the president of the college, Miss Lois Striblin, and the treasurer, Miss Luella Chapman. During the evening the members of the different courses gave entertainment, and refreshments were enjoyed.

Two more young people who are ill of smallpox have been removed to the city detention hospital and their respective homes were quarantined. They were Jessie Rogers, daughter of Charles Rogers, 209 West Church street, and Thomas Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Haines, 816 West Boone street. Dewey Wilson, aged 77, of Lamolite, was admitted to the hospital Saturday afternoon, a victim of smallpox.
Fifty members and friends of the Y. W. C. A. attended the special vesper services held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the association rooms. Miss Clara Taylor, of Minneapolis, secretary of the industrial work of the central field, spoke on "Responsibility of the Disciple." Her talk was very interesting to the large audience. After the talk A. A. Bailey and a quartet composed of Mrs. P. F. Arney and Misses Ruth Haines, Leona Peshak, and Irene Mason sang a pleasing group of songs. An hour was spent informally and refreshments were served.
Mrs. H. E. Passig, of Humboldt, spent Sunday in the city as the guest of her brother, J. W. Hook, and family, leaving this morning for her home. Mrs. Passig came here from Belle Plaine, where she accompanied her protegee, Miss Laura Schroder, of Humboldt, who won first in the dramatic class at the state oratorical contest Friday night. Mrs. Passig, who formerly taught dramatic reading at Iowa State College, keeps up her work in elocution as a pastime, and undertook the training of Miss Schroder for the state contest. The fact that she won was naturally very gratifying to Mrs. Passig.
