Feel the Sense of Road Mastery

Throttle down to four miles an hour—then give the motor all the gas it will take—away you go up to a mile a minute gait

And regardless of the roads you can keep up a high rate of speed because of the remarkable riding ease.

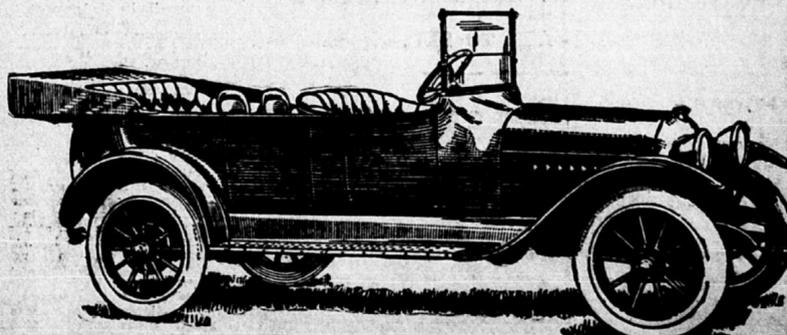

These are only three of the big advantages you get because the car is built right.

The deep, luxurious cushions and the roomy space in both rear and front seats give a new idea of comfort.

Economy shows up after continued use of the "Biltwel Six." You get from fifteen to eighteen miles per gallon of gasoline.

And the tires are the right size to eliminate expensive tire trouble.

All of these facts are being demonstrated by satisfied owners every day. They are the real facts you should consider.
