

FREE SELLING BY HOLDERS OF WHEAT

LARGE HOUSES UNLOAD AND PRICES ARE GENERALLY DEPRESSED.

STORM DAMAGE SOUTHWEST NOT BELIEVED SERIOUS

Bulls Also Discouraged by Lower Cables - Prospects of Large Receipts Next Week Ease Corn Market - Warmer Weather Also Factor - Lack of Demand For Oats.

Chicago, June 5.—Free selling by large houses had a depressing effect today on wheat. About the only support came from shorts. Bulls were discouraged by lower cables and by the prospects of clearing weather from the southwest, where storm damage apparently was not as serious as reports had indicated might be the case. After opening 3/4 to 1 cent lower the market underwent a further moderate setback.

Later something of a rally took place owing to week-end evening up, and to renewed apprehension about continued rain in Oklahoma and Texas. The close, however, was weak, at 2 1/2 to 2 3/4 under last night.

Prospects of enlarged receipts next week eased off the corn market. Warmer weather counted also against the bulls. Opening prices, which ranged from 1/4 and 1/2 cent lower, were followed by a slight additional decline.

No important reaction ensued. The close was steady, 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 net lower.

Oats suffered from lack of demand. Selling pressure was not unusually heavy.

Provisions seemed to have no aggressive support. Pit traders leaned to the bear side.

Chicago, June 5.—Wheat—Rallies in wheat were of short duration, and at no time did the market reach the night's closing figures. Heavy selling on every advance by commission houses and by local warehouse interests, found little demand in the market due to the fact that buyers are discouraged over the recent action of the market and were not disposed to commit themselves over a double holiday. Little attention was paid to reports from the southwest of further unfavorable weather and to the forecast for further rains over Sunday. Some of today's buying was by those in close touch with the southwestern situation and by houses that usually operate for foreign or export account.

Corn—The demand for corn came mostly from shorts who did not like the weather prospects. Without support from other grains and with considerable liquidating pressure, the market gradually sagged until stop loss orders were encountered. A great deal was made by local bears of the heavy receipts in Omaha. These, however, were due to accumulations of account of recent floods and a continuance of heavy receipts, is not anticipated by those in close touch with the western situation. Primary points had 2,549,000 bushels of corn this week and last shipped about the same amount. Last year receipts were 3,675,000 bushels for the corresponding week, and shipments less than half that amount.

Oats—Oats were lower, largely in sympathy with other grains. There was additional pressure, however, on account of favorable crop reports and moderate offerings of new crop grain to arrive. Elevator interests hedged their purchases of new oats in July. Premiums for carlots in the sample market advanced above those of yesterday, advanced at one time selling at 4 cents over July.

Provisions - Provisions ruled easy, with selling of lard by one of the larger packers. Commission houses bought pork, and packers bought ribs around inside prices. No great activity is indicated in the immediate future.

SOME FIRMNESS IN DAY'S HOG MART

PRICES SHOW SLIGHT STRENGTH BECAUSE OF LESSENING OF RECEIPTS.

ARRIVALS FAR LESS THAN LAST SATURDAY

Cattle Prices Nominal, Closing on Basis in Line With Recent Advances For Best—Sheep and Lambs Consigned Direct to Packers—Review of Market Conditions.

Chicago, June 5.—Hog prices showed a little firmness today as a result of the number of arrivals. Being far less than on the corresponding day last week.

Eleven markets received 75,100 hogs Friday or 6,900 less than last Friday, 7,200 more than a year ago. Total thus for this week, 518,000, or 63,000 more than the same time last year and 9,000 more than like time last year and 9,000 more than the corresponding five days two years ago.

Cattle prices were nominal. There was no beef loaded this week for American points from ports on the River Platte. None was loaded last week and there has been only one shipment from there in about five weeks.

Most meat is needed to feed the fighting armies of the allies. This was demonstrated this week, when a shipment of cattle from Chicago, about 12,000, or 1,938,000 more than same period 1914 and 1,414,000 more than the corresponding time 1913.

Cattle prices were nominal. There was no beef loaded this week for American points from ports on the River Platte. None was loaded last week and there has been only one shipment from there in about five weeks.

Receipts of cattle this week are totaling smaller than last week. During the first five days of the week there have been about 28,300 cattle received at Chicago, against 29,426 for same days last week, 37,995 a year ago and 45,067 for the period two years ago.

Compared with the close a week ago short hams were 25¢ higher, with the best grades showing the greatest upturn. Springers were fully 25¢ up and showed even more advance compared with last Saturday, when a few head came in for a fresh recession.

EXTRA SESSION SURE TO CONSIDER QUESTION

Congress if Convened Will Pass Resolution Backing Up President Wilson's Positions Towards Mexico and Germany—Congress Ready to Vote Funds if Situation Grows More Tense.

Washington, June 5.—What would happen if the president should call congress in extra session? This question is being freely asked about Washington. It has been asked for some days, since it is fully realized that there are two international situations either of which may force an extra session at almost any time.

Preparedness Live Issue. The next thing will be to turn attention to the ill-prepared state of the country for war. It is inevitable that if an extra session is called while the international situation continues tense there will be a movement for big army and navy appropriations.

Not many members of congress are coming to Washington these days who do not say frankly that the country must prepare itself. This feeling is so strong that even if no extra session is required, it is going to bear results in the regular session.

Should an extra session come and army and navy preparations be decided on, the financing of these preparations would involve a problem which would have to be met. A bond issue would probably follow, although it is possible for the government to sell Panama bonds if it has to do so, or feels it necessary.

Government purchase of ships would also come up. The supporters of government ownership of shipping intend to carry their plan thru in the next regular session, if not before. If an extra session is called, they will take advantage of the situation to drive thru a ship purchase bill then.

No doubt if there is an extra session, the advocates of closure in the senate will utilize the opportunity to force a rule on that body to limit debate. They would hold that expedition of public business required it and probably could muster the votes.

Finances a Problem. Should an extra session come and army and navy preparations be decided on, the financing of these preparations would involve a problem which would have to be met.

Generally an Easy Matter. Even if we have had no love for the distant deceased relative we can often put up a strenuous fight to get a bit of his property.

Daily Thought. There is not a man in the world but something improves in his soul from the moment he loves—and that, though his love be vulgar.—Masterlinck.

Olive Trees Live Longest. Olives are declared to be the longest-lived fruit trees, some in Syria having borne abundant crops for more than four hundred years.

Under this system a farmer possessing the necessary team and implement arranges with the land owner to crop a certain area for a season or for a number of seasons. The usual form of agreement provides that the land owner shall provide land, seed, two-thirds of the manure, where manure is used, and bags for his share.

Up to a specified yield of the crop the owner and farmer take equal shares; any excess becomes the property of the farmer as a bonus to encourage good and thorough farming.

Just at the entrance of Portland harbor, not far from the tip of Cape Elizabeth, is a dreaded ledge known as Truandy rock. It is carefully buoyed by the government and for the convenience of pilots is identified by marking the buoy with the initials of the ledge's name.

"Do you know the nervous thing he did?" "No," said the interlocutor. "But I'd believe anything. What do you call the nervous thing he did?"

"I think," said the first speaker, "that it took more gall to paint the government's channel buoys with his initials than anything else in his career."

"You don't mean that he did that?" gasped the other. "Go on! He has crust enough, but that's beyond belief!"

"Just wait," was all the other said. "We're now turning one of those buoys now. Look at it."

And there, just over the side, was a huge can buoy brassy marked in letters several feet high, T. R.
