ANSONS LOSE DOUBLE HEADER TO CLINTON

SLATTERY DEFEATED IN ELEVEN INNING CONTEST BY 3 TO 1 SCORE.

ANSONS MAKE GIFT OF SHORT AFTERPIECE

Present Clinton With Second Game, 3 to 2, After Having Hit Into the Lead—Slattery Hit Hard, But Keeps Blows Scattered—Beard Pitches Good Ball and Deserves Win.

By winning both games of Sunday's double header, the Clinton Pilots pulled the Ansons from their position and the home boys fell with a loud sickening thud into sixth place, just above Dr. Jay Andrews' Waterloo tribe. The first half of the double exhibition resulted in a Clinton victory, after eleven innings of play, by a score of 3 to 1. It was Slattery's fifth straight over-time conflict. The after-piece, a seven inning affair, terminated with a 3 to 2 score in Clinton's favor.

There was much in the first game to be commended; much in the latter to be condemned. Slattery was not in the best of form and was found for fourteen safe hits, the largest number registered against him since he has worn an Anson uniform. In spite of this, however, the visitor, tried to do the eleven frame with but one score to their credit. Slattery was often in the hole, but at the critical times he was effective, and his support was brilliant when Clinton appeared most threatening.

It must be conceded, however, that Drohan pitched a masterful game. Admittedly one of the most efficient moundsmen in the league, he hurled a game which justified all advance notices, but the Ansons hit him more freely than might have been expected. Their hits were scattered, however, and in the pinches they failed, not so much because of Drohan's great service, but on account of the old tendency to kill the ball and take chances on waste balls in their anxiety to connect.

Both Score in Sixth.
A gift run to the visitors opened the way to a victory in the sixth. Kensel, who featured in the hitting with five safe blows in six trips to the plate, singled, advanced on Menne's sacrifice, went to third on Milligan's at bat, and scored on a wild pitch. Slattery then hit Evans; Simmons doubled, and Ellison walked, but with the bases crowded and two out, Darrow poked a grounder to Lindberg, forcing Ellison at second.

The Ansons knotted the count in their half of the same inning, Tommy Ryan leading off with a single and moving to second on Richard's sacrifice. Martini swung on three balls for a strike-out, but Lindberg's patience was rewarded with a walk. DeLongy singled to center, Ryan going to third. Nolt booted the ball in attempting to field it and Ryan scored.

Bunched Hits Win Game.
Three hits in the eleventh gave Clinton two runs and the game. Darrow, ordinarily a weak hitter, singled, and advanced on Drohan's sacrifice. Nolt singled, putting Darrow on third. Nolt stole and Menne's timely hit scored both base runners.

With the exception of one or two innings the Ansons were never threatening. In the eighth with a man on third and one out, Martini again whiffed and Lindberg lifted a fly to Evans. The score:

Present Clinton With Game.
The Ansons forced the afterpiece on the Clintonians, errors being responsible for the home team's defeat. Beard pitched a better game than Jones and deserved a decision, but wild pegs in the fifth and seventh gave the visitors two runs, after Marshalltown had taken a lead. Beard was responsible for one of the miscues, which resulted in a run. Three wild throws, all of which were made after base runners had pulled up safely at the stations, marred the game in the two fatal rounds.

California scored on DeLongy's safe blow to right center. In the fifth the visitors were allowed to tie the score, when the home team gave its awful exhibition of long distance throwing. Ellison singled and stole second. A passed ball set him on third, and M. Ryan cut a throw to third after the runner had drawn up safely; the throw going to center field. Martini backed up the base and flagged the ball but "Marty's" insane desire to show his remarkable "whip" led him to relay the ball to the plate, which he missed by a block, the ball going to the amphitheater. Ellison scoring. Beard then passed Darrow, but relieved the tension and displayed his ability by striking out Jones, Nolt and Kensel.

Beard's Wild Throw Fatal.
Beard's wild throw in the seventh ended the battle. Simmons led off with a double to left. Ellison attempted to sacrifice, laying down to center field. Third, Beard, heeded the ball slowly, Ellison reaching first before Beard made the throw. The heave went to the bleachers, Simmons counting on the miscue. Darrow walked, putting Beard again in the hole. In this situation he again struck out Jones and Nolt and Kensel fled out to Martini. The score:

RICHARDS MAKING CHANGES.
Ansons' Manager Releases Woody and Signs Curtis, of Muscatine. More changes in the personnel of the Ansons were made over Sunday by Manager Richards. The first change was the release of Woody, who has appeared in the infield and the outfield, during the past two weeks.

When Curtis, last season with Muscatine, was signed, Curtis appeared in Sunday's games, but sustained an injury to his side in sliding to second base in the first game. He will play center field until Harris is able to return to the team.

Another outfielder is expected to join the team today or tomorrow, coming here from the Kitty League. The newcomer has been taken on the recommendation of Tommy Ryan, who is familiar with his work.

GOLFERS TO TOURNAMENT.

Players From Country Club Go to Cedar Rapids Sunday to play in the annual tournament of the Iowa State Golf Association which opens today with the first quality round. Those who went from here were A. H. E. Matthews, C. H. E. Boardman and son Elderkin and G. F. Thayer. Today and Tuesday are for the qualifying rounds when the field will be reduced to the thirty-two having the lowest score who will be eligible to play in the championship flight. Others below this thirty-two will qualify in other flights.

Lincoln Highway Tourists.
The first tourist traveling in a foreign car en route from the east to the west stopped here Sunday to rest. They were Albert A. Brager and Nathan Hecht, with driver Herbert Norris, all of Baltimore, Mr. going to San Francisco. They drove a huge Fiat touring car and had experienced great difficulty in getting thru the mud due to the enormous weight of the car. They confessed to local garage men that they had considered shipping the car from Belle Plaine to Omaha, but their pride had made them shovel the machine out of the mud and come ahead. They left Sunday afternoon. They left Baltimore June 8 and are following the Lincoln highway.

At 7 o'clock this morning the temperature was 57, compared with 53 at the same hour Sunday morning. The rainfall Saturday was .20 of an inch. Kodak finishing, developing, 10 cents per roll of six, extra prints 2, 3 and 4 cents each. The Kodakery.

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Orpheum.
Sa-Hera, a very large and ornate lady who wears a veil, is the main feature of this week's bill at the Orpheum, as she performs various mystic feats of mind reading. Her program consists of the well known reading of numbers and telling names, and afterwards her manager goes among the audience and tells people whatever they wish to know, supposedly, thru the aid of Sa-Hera. She offers nothing new but carries off what she does do well enough. Fields and La Adella present a comedy sketch concerning a janitor which caused much merriment. Fields tells a large number of funny stories, while the lady does some very good toe dancing. The bill is completed by Eugene Page who plays banjos of various sizes. Large audience saw the performances Sunday night.

Local Weather Record.
Seventy and 53 were the extremes of temperature Sunday, compared with 62 and 52, the range Saturday, and 59 and 53, the extremes a year ago Sunday.
