Theodore Cavros, a Greek, living at 611 East Nevada street, caught his right hand in the dirt crusher at the Farmers' Co-operative Brick & Tile Company plant this morning, and had it mangled so badly that it will probably have to be amputated. Cavros was taken to the Deaconess hospital, where the thumb and little finger were amputated this morning. The physician in charge said that the whole hand would probably have to be taken off at the wrist, although it was possible that part of it might be saved. FORMER RESIDENT DEAD. Mrs. George B. Hayes Passes Away at Springfield, Ill. A telegram received this morning by B. H. Howig tells of the death at Springfield, Ill., of Mrs. George B. Hayes, formerly of this city. The cause of Mrs. Hayes' death was not stated in the message. Mr. Hayes came here several years ago as superintendent of the Birchard canning factory. Later he was with the glucose company, and still later was employed by the city in the department of sewers and mains. The former family home was 504 East Linn street. In addition to her husband Mrs. Hayes is survived by two grown sons and three daughters. Saving Dollars in Varnish. One large contractor purchased varnish filler for two houses just being finished and has contracted with us to furnish him the same varnish at our cash price for two more under way. We have also furnished a firm building houses for rent and sale with all material for six new houses and will furnish for more to be built this season. We have had so many requests for varnish at our cash sale price from smaller buyers that we have decided to continue it until further notice. We want everyone to try these goods. If the large buyers save money on them, why not you? Investigate! Simons' book store. ACCORDION PLAITING MACHINE. Scottish Woolen Mills Installs New Plaiting Machine—Only One in City. There is a story that was told at a recent dinner by Miss Sybil Baker, who was chosen queen of the rose festival, at Portland, when reference was made to the wonderful excuses invented by the rising generation. One morning the teacher of a public school in a western village was glancing over her pupils, when her eye suddenly fastened on little Willie Brown.
