

JOYCES, OF CLINTON, ENTER LOCAL FIELD

CONTRACT TO BUY KREUTZER & WASEM BUSINESS AND WILL ENLARGE IT.

DEAL TO BE CLOSED UPON COMPLETION OF INVOICE

Should Prove Fine Thing Industrially, as Mill Output Will Be Increased, and Specialty Made of That Line—Company Already Owns Thirty-One Yards in Iowa.

As the result of a business deal that will be closed within a few days, one of the old-time manufacturing institutions of the city will pass into new hands and be increased in size and commercial importance.

Kreutzer & Waseem, lumbermen and millworkers, have contracted to sell their business to the Joyce Lumber Company, of Clinton, one of the largest lumber concerns in the middle west, and at the present time operating thirty-one yards in Iowa.

The final consummation of the deal will be made upon the completion of the invoice, the work of which is now in progress. M. H. Thiesen, general manager of the Joyce Lumber Company, is here superintending the invoice.

Will Enlarge Mill.
Altho no definite plans have yet been made by the new owners, their policy is one of progressiveness, and they expect to make out of Marshalltown a mill work center.

They have realized that the local field is one in which there is a big demand for mill work that is being done in other cities because of the limited capacity of the local mill. The change should prove a fine thing industrially for Marshalltown.

Improving Salvation Army Hall.
The local barracks of the Salvation Army are being renovated and improved by new paint and paper. Adjt. S. A. Moyer, formerly of this city, but more recently of Waterloo and Dubuque, is donating the work, assisted by Willis Peters. The material has been donated by the McBride and Will Drug Company and Bert Everist.

Adjutant Moyer is in the city for an indefinite stay owing to a physical breakdown. He intends to remain out of active army work for some time, in an effort to regain his health.

Local Weather Record.
Seventy-eight and 55 were the Tuesday temperature extremes, as compared to 80 and 55 for the day preceding, and 93 and 67 a year ago. At 7 this morning 82 was recorded, as against 71 for the same hour Tuesday morning. There was a trace of precipitation.

yards, to protect the stock from the weather.

Coincidence in Transfer.
In the transfer of the business from Kreutzer & Waseem to the Joyce Lumber Company an interesting coincidence arises. Just forty years ago, about this time, Peter Kreutzer and Fred Waseem bought their business of the late William B. Joyce of Clinton, the founder of the Joyce Lumber Company. Now his sons are at the head of the concern that is buying back the old Joyce property. William B. Joyce died about seven years ago. His widow, Mrs. Chloille Gage Joyce, lives in Lyons, and his sons, Stanley and David, in Chicago.

Peter Kreutzer retired from the local business several years ago, when he moved to California. His daughter Mary bought the Peter Kreutzer interest, and Fred Waseem, a brother of Mrs. Peter Kreutzer, retained his interest.

BEYE-WHITENACK WEDDING.
Miss Clara Whitenack Becomes Bride of Haverhill Farmer.

The marriage of Miss Clara Luella Whitenack and John Edward Beye, the latter of Haverhill, was solemnized today, the ceremony taking place at noon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Whitenack, 10 West Boone street.

Miss Whitenack wore a dainty gown of white embroidered voile, trimmed with lace and wore a corsage bouquet of white sweet peas. Both the bride and groom were unattended, and the service was performed by Rev. R. F. Hurlburt in the presence of only the immediate families of the bridal couple.

Following the service luncheon was served by Misses Clara Williams and Jennie Paul. In decorating, pink and white sweet peas and smilax were used. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Whitenack, and was graduated from the Marshalltown high school in 1910. Since then she has taught in the rural schools and done substitute work in the schools of the city. The groom, who is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Beye, three and one-half miles southwest of Haverhill, is a farmer. Mr. and Mrs. Beye will make their home on the farm of the former's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Beye will hold a reception Thursday evening for the bride and groom at the Beye home. One hundred fifty invitations have been issued for the affair.

Family Reunion Held.
In honor of the 82d birthday anniversary of Mrs. Margaret Johnson, 402 East State street, a reunion of her brothers and sisters was held Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Smith, 503 West Main street, the former a brother of Mrs. Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Smith entertained at dinner at 1 o'clock by Misses Geraldine and Doris Smith. Garden flowers made attractive decorations for the table and house. After dinner the hours were pleasantly spent socially.

With the exception of George W. Smith, of Omaha, all the brothers and sisters attended the affair. They are Edwin Smith, of Chicago; W. J. Smith, and wife, Gladbrook; and Alexander Smith and Miss Harlett Smith, of this city.

Lodge Changes Name.
Mrs. Ella Mark Lee, of Boone, state commander of the L. O. T. M. announced the change of the name of the organization from "The Lady Maccahees of the World" to "The Women's Benefit Association of the Maccahees."

Pitiable Case of "Dope Fiend" Ends in Death

Death, at 9 o'clock this morning at the county, brought to an end the pitiable case of a woman who, for many years, has foreseen the inevitable result of being addicted to the use of morphine.

Mrs. Ellen Cummins, for many years a resident of this city, died at the county farm because it was not possible for her lonser to secure her "dope."

For years Mrs. Cummins has been using morphine. When the Harrison act went into effect she dreaded to look forward to the end. She knew she could not live without the drug. She suffered the terrors of the damned, and went thru the awful agonies of delirium tremens. Horrible monsters were ready to devour her at every turn. Huge snakes crawled upon the floor and in her bed, and she could not escape them. She became a nervous wreck.

In an effort to quiet her a physician administered morphine to her last Sunday. It was too late, however. The deadly work of the subtle drug had been done. The woman died of nervous exhaustion.

Mrs. Cummins was 70 years old. For many years she lived in a little house in an alley at the rear of 503 1/2 East Linn street. Her husband was John Cummins, an old-time shoemaker of this city, who kept a shop in one of the late T. C. Hardy's little buildings in North First street, just north of the alley north of Main, and also in the little building just west of the McCord grocery store, not long since torn down. Cummins and his wife separated many years ago, but were never divorced, it is said. He is now dead.

Mrs. Cummins has been at the county farm since May 27, 1914. So far as known by Superintendent Kooztz she has not a living relative. Mrs. Cummins told the superintendent that she became addicted to the use of the drug many years ago, when it was given to her because of illness.

The funeral will be held from the Catholic church at State Center Thursday morning. Burial will be at State Center.

at a meeting of the lodge held at the hall Tuesday evening. The entire evening was devoted to business of the lodge and several other changes and plans for the work in the lodge were discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Wallace and daughter Florence, and Miss Pearl Van Ordel, the latter from Nevada, arrived home Tuesday evening from a three weeks' visit in Clear Lake and Mason City.
