Three Slightly Hurt.

Three Garwin men were slightly scratched and bruised and the automobile they were in was somewhat damaged when it was struck by a north bound Riverview park car, on the Marion street crossing, Friday afternoon. At the office of the Iowa Railway & Light Company it was said neither the car nor the auto was traveling rapidly. The car was not overturned.

The occupants of the auto were Herbert Puls, driver and owner of the car; A. Magnusson, and Henry Schmidt.

Magnussen lives in Garwin, and the others reside near there. The rear wheels, and fenders and the door of the auto were damaged. The street car was in charge of John E. Pilgrim, motorman.

Rainsbargers Happy Over Freedom; Appreciate Friends

Nathan and Frank Rainsbarger, Iowa's oldest convicts, who were pardoned by Gov. George W. Clarke Tuesday, reached this city Friday evening from Cedar Rapids, and left overland for Steamboat Rock shortly after they arrived here.

The brothers, who have spent twenty-eight years behind prison walls for a crime that their many friends are confident they never committed, appear as happy as two school boys out for a vacation. Frank Rainsbarger said to a Times-Republican reporter that he and his brother were most happy over their freedom, and that they appreciated beyond words the efforts of their friends to secure their release. They are especially grateful to Governor Clarke for his action in their case, and expect soon to make a public statement thanking the governor for the pardon.

Nathan and Frank were accompanied to the city by their nephew, Jay C. Rainsbarger, and Mrs. Rainsbarger, of Steamboat Rock. At this point Jay Rainsbarger secured an automobile and he and his wife and uncle left for the Rainsbarger home, where Nathan and Frank will remain for a visit.

To the Public. I will not be responsible for any debts made after this date by our son Edwin Piander. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Piander.
