Miss Elizabeth Jordan, of Drake University, Des Moines, was a guest at the affair.

YOUNG WOMAN DEAD.

Mrs. W. O. Jones Succumbs to Tuberculosis at Mother's Home.

Pulmonary tuberculosis caused the death at 1:30 this afternoon of Mrs. W. O. Jones, aged 18, at the home of her mother, Mrs. G. J. Anders, 1503 West Main street. Mrs. Jones had been ill for several months.

Mrs. Jones was born Eva Randolph at Atlantic Oct. 20, 1893. She was married in Marshalltown to Mr. Jones when she was 15, and the couple had been living with Mrs. Jones' mother. Mrs. Jones is survived by her parents, one brother, and five sisters. They are George Randolph, of Ottumwa; Mrs. Lizzie Bedford, Alberta; Mrs. W. C. Swolley, Atlantic; Mesdames F. S. Tucker and Will Riegel, Creston; and Mrs. Martin Peterson, Moorcroft, Wyo.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 from the Anders home. Rev. C. H. Morris officiating. Burial will be in Riverside.

MISS GROSS WEDS.

Former Marshalltown Girl Becomes Bride at Oakland, Cal.

Friends in this city have received cards issued by Dr. and Mrs. E. Burton Hamel, of Hastings, Neb., announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Louise Gross, to Milton H. Tomlinson, of Oakland, Cal., on Tuesday, Sept. 7. The wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride's uncle, Dr. W. D. Milliken, 3558 Howe street, Oakland.

The bride is a daughter of the late D. H. Gross, of this city, and lived here as a little girl. She met Mr. Tomlinson at Hastings and the wedding took place at Oakland from the fact that Mr. Tomlinson has settled there in the automobile business.

Mr. and Mrs. Tomlinson's at home cards read 5258 College avenue.

Erect New Sign.

The new sign informing tourists that the Marshalltown Club is ready and willing to impart information, is now in place on the north wall of the Masonic temple. It is 6x12 feet, in size, and attractively painted. The words "Marshalltown Club" are prominently displayed at the top, while underneath appear the words "Tourists' Information." Ask Us About Marshalltown.

Secretary Johnson plans to have a small sign placed on one of the electric poles at the corner of Main street and First avenue, with a hand pointing south to the Marshalltown Club.

Our second floor Cloak department invites your criticism on suits, coats, dresses, furs and millinery.
