

The Odeon

BUSSY BROS., Managers

Thursday, Sept. 30

Opening of the Regular Season

HENRY W. SAVAGE OFFERS The International Operetta Triumph of the Decade

'Sari'

Original Cast and Production

15-Their Own Orchestra-15

CAPTIVATING CHORUS

Prices: 50c, 75c $1, $1.50, $2.

SEATS NOW SELLING

Sunday OCT. 3rd

THE ROMANTIC COMEDY DRAMA

'A Royal Gentleman'

-WITH-

GUY AND CONSTANCE

Caufman

A STORY OF PICTURESQUE CALIFORNIA.

CASINO

The Pure Air Theater

TODAY

MATINEE AND NIGHT

YANGSI DOLLY

OF THE

FAMOUS DOLLY SISTERS

In a four-act Feature Production

The Call of the Dance

Miss Dolly is undoubtedly the most popular dancer in the east and among her Broadway appearances were such successes as "The Honey-moon Express," "Winter Garden," and "The Folies."

THE CALL OF THE DANCE is delightfully free from padding and among the pictures that can not be too highly recommended.

Casino Orchestra, under the direction of Daniel Abbate.

MATINEE EVERY DAY 5c

10-NIGHT-10

Colonial Theater

We show Quality, not Quantity.

TODAY

RELIANCE TWO-PART DRAMA

THE STRONGER MAN

Featuring the Magnetic Motion Picture Star A. D. Sears, with Jack Brammal supported by Irene Hunt as the heroine.

CHAPTER TWENTY

The Diamond From the Sky

The Soul Strangers, one of the most intense chapters in this great serial.

KOMIC COMEDY

THE SHOCKING STOCKINGS

Featuring Fay Tincher.

TOMORROW MUTUAL MASTER-PIECE.

Admission: Adults 10c, Children 5c

Matinee 5c

Lyric Theatre

Pictures Up to a Standard Not Down to a Price

TONIGHT

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

DANIEL FROHMAN

Presents

JOHN BARRYMORE

-IN-

The Melodramatic Comedy

'The Incurable Dukane'

FIVE ACTS - 410 SCENES

SPECIAL MUSIC

ADMISSION

Adults 15c--Children 10c

SUNDAY

MONDAY AND TUESDAY

WALKER WHITESIDE

-IN-

'THE MELTING POT'

By Israel Zangwill

A Film Masterpiece in Six Acts.

-COMING-

Walker Whiteside

-IN-

'THE MELTING POT'

Take Time to Investigate

Having decided to contract will furnish complete plans and specifications free. Let me figure on your building.

B. F. KEMPER

ARCHITECT AND BUILDER

Over 208 East Main St.

Read T.-R. Want Ads

Times-Republican

CITY IN BRIEF

Glasses properly fitted. Hellberg.

Dr. Graham, osteopath, Masonic temple

"The Diamond From the Sky," today.

Colonial.

Eye, ear, nose and throat specialist; glasses fitted. Dr. P. P. Leria.

George B. Spears, of Eldora, returned home this morning after a brief trip to Carroll.

The Methodist Ladies Aid Society will meet Thursday afternoon at 4:30 at the church.

Mrs. H. Parlow left this morning for Appleton, where she will visit her mother, Mrs. L. Edsall.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Congregational church will meet Thursday afternoon at the church parlors.

F. L. Orr, of San Antonio, Tex., arrived in the city Tuesday evening to visit his sister, Mrs. Georgia Orr.

Mrs. J. M. Ogle, of New Sharon, who has been visiting her nephew, Frank Ogle, returned home Tuesday evening.

Mrs. W. R. Beck, of Charles City, returned home this morning after visiting her brother, A. D. Woods, and family.

Mrs. J. N. Ward, of Sacramento, Cal., left this morning for Mason City to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Smith.

Mrs. C. Norval, of Cedar Rapids, went Tuesday evening to Bromley to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Butts.

The Ladies Aid Society of the State Street United Evangelical church will meet Thursday afternoon at the church.

Mrs. Emma Schwabke, of Eldora, returned home this morning after visiting her daughter, Miss Clara, who is a patient in the Deaconess hospital.

Mrs. E. W. Winslow, of Belle Plaine, was in the city this morning on her way to Lamolite, where she will visit her father-in-law, R. N. Winslow.

The Burnham system of beauty culture is not unknown. It is considered of the most perfect in use. Call at our new beauty parlors, Simon's Style Shop.

Ralph W. Van Horn will leave tonight for Alameda, Sask., where he will remain for several days looking after the D. E. Hole farming interests near that town.

Beeson camp, No. 385, M. W. A., will have a stag party Wednesday night, Sept. 29, 1915. All Woodmen urged to attend and bring a friend. Alfred P. Lee, clerk.

Ladies of Marshalltown! Call at Simon Style Shop beauty parlor, as reduced prices are now in effect to introduce this branch of our business. Simon's Style Shop.

Mrs. Edward Petersen, of Green Mountain, will be hostess Thursday afternoon to the Danish Ladies Society at the home of Mrs. Chris Hansen, 609 Woodbury street.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Wooten and Mrs. Wooten's mother, Mrs. Bursie Gibbs, of New Providence, returned home Tuesday evening after a three weeks' trip to California and the exhibitions.

Because of the bad roads and disagreeable weather the chicken pie supper scheduled to take place at the Methodist church at Minerva Tuesday night was postponed until a later date.

Members of the third division of the First United Evangelical aid society were entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Salem Bruner, 293 Anson street. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Bruner during the social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley D. Moore, formerly of this city but now of Waterloo, are parents of another daughter, born Tuesday, according to word received at the home of the babe's grandmother, Mrs. Maude Battis.

Miss Lillian Strickler, of Eldora, returned home this morning after visiting here with her sister, Mrs. T. W. Prothro.

Miss Para Maurer, of Marshall, Minn., who is also visiting Mrs. Prothro, goes Thursday to Red Oak to visit friends.

A small company of women of the neighborhood surprised Mrs. James Stevens, 716 East Linn street, Tuesday afternoon. They took their fancy work with them and spent the afternoon with it and visiting. Lunch brought by the guests was served.

Mrs. Frank Weaver arrived home Tuesday evening from Toledo, where she visited Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Taylor. Mrs. Weaver's daughter, Miss Leota Weaver, who has been working in Des Moines, also arrived home Tuesday and will remain here.

Lady friends of the aid society of Elm Lutheran church, living both in this city and the country, will be guests of the society at a 1 o'clock dinner Thursday afternoon in the church parlors. The regular meeting of the society will follow at 2:30.

Mrs. Ella Stoddard left Tuesday evening for a three months trip thru the west. From here she went to Cheyenne, Wyo., where she will visit friends. She will then go to Hood River, Ore., to visit her brother, A. L. Upson, then to Trinidad, Colo., where she will visit a sister, Mrs. Chloe Bloomfield. Returning, Mrs. Stoddard will visit in St. Louis with her sister, Mrs. H. V. Gehm.

Merritt McMahon and his sisters, Misses Jessie and Frances, came to the city from Des Moines Tuesday evening in charge of the body of their father, Elmer T. McMahon, who died Tuesday morning. The funeral will be held at 1:30 Thursday afternoon from the residence, 418 North Fourth street. Interment will be in the family lot in the Alton cemetery. Mrs. Grace Zug, of Des Moines; Mrs. McMahon's oldest daughter, will come to the city tonight.

Every woman who wants to see the sensational "Shades of the Models" gowns in Henry W. Savage's production of the operetta triumph "Sari," with Miss Hajo in the principal role, which comes to the Odeon tomorrow evening with the New York cast and production. They display the very latest designs and color combinations in women's gowns and are worn by a bunch of attractive girls who know how to wear them. "Sari" has scored the biggest hit in Europe and America of any operetta since "The Merry Widow." The fascinating music is played by a large special orchestra.

Bring your watches in. Hodges.

Dr. Bullard, osteopath, 15 West Main.

Miss Jennie Barke, of Pickering, was a Tuesday visitor in the city.

Voice culture Mondays and Thursdays, Masonic temple. H. P. Oiger.

Mrs. C. Christianson, of Union, returned home Tuesday after a few days' visit with Mrs. K. Brattig.

The ladies' aid of the Central Church of Christ will hold its annual bazaar and supper Dec. 1. Committee.

Miss Nellie Auld, 310 South Third street, will be hostess to the Harmony Aid Society Thursday evening.

Mrs. Adolph Jenves, of Tama, arrived in the city Tuesday evening to visit her sisters, Mrs. H. G. Foster.

Miss Mary Varium, of Zeining, returned home Tuesday evening after a few days' visit with her relatives in Tama.

Mrs. L. Christ, of Liscomb, returned home Tuesday evening after a few days' visit with her niece, Miss Flossie Adams.

Marshalltown Chapter, D. A. R., will be entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. P. M. Adamson, 202 North Seventh street.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hutson, of Union, returned home with her son, C. S. Hutson, and family.

Mrs. Archie Walkup and three daughters, of Klemme, left this morning for her home after visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Brady.

Mrs. Henry Rosenkrantz, of Liscomb, who has been visiting here with her husband's brother, Horace Rosenkrantz, returned home Tuesday evening.

The Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church will hold its first meeting of the season Thursday afternoon in the church parlors, with Mrs. Lewis Derby as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ketchum and daughter Annie returned home Wednesday evening from Cordova, Ill., where they visited Mr. Ketchum's cousin, Ira Carr, and family.

Our expenses for operating at a minimum, the public will reap the benefit if they acquit themselves with the new branch of our business, the beauty parlor, Simon's Style Shop.

Mrs. E. C. Carlson, of Burlington, who has been visiting here with her mother, Mrs. Anna C. Peterson, left this morning for Grand Mount, to visit friends. Her mother accompanied her.

The business office of the Marshall Telephone Company will be open until 9 p. m. Thursday, Sept. 30, the last day on which rentals for current month may be paid to secure the rebate. Marshall Telephone Company.

Having been newly inaugurated, you will find our beauty parlors sanitary in every respect, with the latest of appliances of modern models. The operators are the best; the Burnham school of Chicago sends out. Simon's Style Shop.

Mrs. Louis Williams, of Minneapolis, and Mesdames Hans Jorgenson and Will Engdren, of Garwin, were in the city Tuesday visiting with Mrs. E. L. Condon. The ladies were schoolmates. Mrs. Williams left for her home this morning.

Two hundred people were served with a roast beef dinner Tuesday evening at the W. T. Somers home, 611 East Main street, the members of Mrs. Somers' division, acting as hostesses. The division netted $40 out of the affair.

Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Morris spent the day in Cedar Rapids visiting Rev. and Mrs. Walter White, and also Mrs. Elizabeth Ross, of Canton, Mo., an old friend of the Morrises. Mrs. Ross' son, Emory Ross, a missionary from Africa, is also in Cedar Rapids for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Ralston, who have been living here for two months, have moved to Shenandoah, where they will make their home. Mr. Ralston is a salesman for the Chicago Furnace Supply Company, and his territory has been changed. Mr. Ralston's former home was at Shenandoah.

Mrs. G. S. Thompson, 411 East Church street, was hostess Tuesday afternoon to the members of the Past Matrons' Club of the Eastern Star. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock at a table decorated in yellow. The afternoon was enjoyed socially. Mrs. Katherine Black, of Emmetsburg, was an out-of-town guest.

Cards received by friends in this city announce the birth on Sept. 18 of a son to Mr. and Mrs. William J. Fahey, 1023 East Ocean avenue, Long Beach, Cal., formerly of this city. The babe has been christened Harold William. Mr. Fahey formerly conducted the Lyric here and now operates the Joyland, a motion picture house at Long Beach.

Marshall Printing Company, Phone 78.

Modern six-room house for rent, 109 South Sixth avenue. E. E. Benedict.

George R. Norris, fire, lightning, and tornado insurance. Over 25 West Main.

Mrs. Walter Ward, of Cedar Rapids, is visiting in the city with Mrs. R. L. Lippett.

Mrs. H. Aming and sons, Henry and Frank, of State Center, were visitors in the city Tuesday.

The Past Noble Grand's Association will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. G. D. Sweeney, 6 South Second street.

Mrs. W. J. Frederickson, of Grinnell, returned home Tuesday evening after visiting here with Mrs. W. F. Bridgman.

Louis F. McFarland, of Kansas City, traveling passenger agent for the Southern Pacific, was in the city today on business.

The Ladies Aid Society of the German Evangelical church will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Marion Gard, 102 North Ninth street.

Good country butter, 20 cents; fancy country butter, 25 cents; and extra fancy country butter 30 cents a pound. Phone 27, Reynolds & Sheldon grocery.

Twelve or fifteen Shriners of this city went to Waterloo this morning to attend a meeting of the El-Kahir shrine, of Cedar Rapids, to be held in Waterloo today.

Mrs. H. B. Wilcoxon, of Montour, left Tuesday evening for San Francisco, where she expects to remain for the next three years with her son, O. F. Wilcoxon.

The residence of W. L. Peckham, 1801 Summit street, was placed under quarantine today, because of a case of diphtheria. Mrs. Peckham is quarantined with her daughter.

Mrs. Ella Rhoades, 614 East State street, fell into the cellarway at her home at 7:30 Tuesday night and suffered severe sprains of one leg and an arm. Her injuries are not believed to be serious.

Miss Alice Kennedy, a missionary of the Friends church in the island of Jamaica, in the West Indies, is in the city visiting Mrs. E. L. Condon. Miss Kennedy is on her way back to Jamaica from California.

The business office of the Marshall Telephone Company will be open until 9 p. m. Thursday, Sept. 30, the last day on which rentals for current month may be paid to secure the rebate. Marshall Telephone Company.

The Burnham system of beauty culture is the oldest in the country, having been located in Chicago for forty years. The Burnham system of beauty culture is now used in the beauty parlor of this store. Simon's Style Shop.

Mrs. Margaret Lemmon and daughter Loraine returned home this morning from Nevada, where they attended the graduation exercises of the Iowa Soldiers' Sanatorium at that place. Miss Sadie Lemmon was graduated there as a nurse.

Herman Wagner, who has been very low of uremia, accompanying chronic Bright's disease, showing some improvement today from the fact that he has emerged from the uremic coma that has characterized his case for a few days.

Mrs. H. W. Welkert, 9 South Sixth street, entertained the members of the Wisteria Club at her home Tuesday afternoon. The ladies passed the afternoon with fancy work, Mrs. Welkert, assisted by Mrs. Edward Adams, served refreshments later.

Twenty-five ladies were present at the meeting of the Royal Neighbors Aid Society entertained by Mrs. Fred O'Neal, at her home, 406 West Boone street, Tuesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in sewing, after which the hostess served refreshments, assisted by Mesdames Clarence Culbertson, L. T. Anson, and C. B. Bates.

HOSPITAL CAMPAIGN ON.

Teams and Captains Report Encouraging Progress in Morning's Work.

Encouraging reports as to the success of the campaign to raise funds for enlarging and improving the Deaconess hospital were made at a noon meeting of a part of the teams and captains out soliciting funds. The men met at the Presbyterian church at noon, where dinner was served and a short conference held.

Altho many of the persons and firms solicited this morning did not give any contributions, they asked the men to come back this afternoon.

At the suggestion of several of the team captains a "flying squadron" was appointed, which visited many of the larger business houses and individuals this afternoon in an effort to obtain subscriptions. N. A. Evans, Rev. Karl Rest, and W. W. Doolittle had been appointed on the squadron, and others were expected to join them later in the day. The reports of the individuals at the noon meeting were all optimistic.

The entire band of solicitors will meet at the Presbyterian church at 5 o'clock this evening, where the cards and pledges will be checked up, and an effort made to find out the exact amount raised as soon as possible.

The campaign will probably be continued after today, depending on the final reports of the captains and teams tonight.

In the District Court.

The personal injury case for $15,000 damages brought by Sanford Thurston against Robert Bank, was finished and given to the jury at about 10 o'clock this forenoon. The jury was still out at 2:30 this afternoon.

Cabbage Wanted.

We are now ready to take in contracted cabbage and can also take in additional deliveries either carloads or less than carload lots. Write us or phone 7, Western Grocer Mills.

An electric motor no bigger than a watch is said to produce 1 horsepower.

M'DONALD IS CONVICTED.

Found Guilty of First Degree Murder in Connection With Death of Mird.

Special to Times-Republican.

Fort Dodge, Sept. 29—George McDonald was found guilty of first degree murder for stabbing Charles Mird, of Dubuque, the night of Sept. 13, in this city. The trial consumed two days.

McDonald did not take the stand in his own defense. McDonald was arrested almost on the scene of the crime and shortly afterward. The men, who were strangers to each other, had been drinking and quarreled over who bought the last drink.

COLO BANKER DIES SUDDENLY.

John Niland, Prominent Capitalist, Expires While at Dinner.

Special to Times-Republican.

Nevada, Sept. 29—John Niland, president of the Colo Savings Bank, a prominent merchant and extensive property owner, died suddenly at 12:00 o'clock today, while seated at the dinner table. He had been in his usual health during the forenoon. He is survived by a wife and five children.

No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

Olives which are dead ripe are delicious, but extreme care is required to preserve them.

"I Don't Feel Good"

That is what a lot of people tell us. Usually their bowels only need cleaning.

Jexall Orderlies

will do the trick and make you feel fine. We know this positively. Take one tonight. Sold only by us, 10 cents.

McBride & Will Drug Co.

CASINO

Neal OF THE Navy

The GREAT AMERICAN SERIAL

THURSDAY

And Every Thursday For 14 Weeks

William Hamilton Osborne's swiftly moving patriotic story of love and adventure, featuring LILLIAN LORRAINE and WILLIAM COURTLEIGH, Jr., will fascinate you with its pulse-quickenng adventures and a love story involving two waifs who escaped from the Martinique disaster.

A tremendous volcano belching fire and dealing death and destruction—A great ship caught in a torrent of flames and white hot ashes—A tiny child left helpless; her only protector a boy not yet in his teens—A bundle of crumpled papers containing in their faded writing secrets worth a vast fortune—A mere boy on one of Uncle Sam's floating fortresses who by pluck, character and efficiency, rises to a commission and a position in the world—furnish the seeds of a wonderful romance that will hold audiences spellbound.

MATINEE Every Day 5c
10c--NIGHT--10c

FOR SALE

Homes In Marshalltown

$ 800—Four-room house.
$1300—Four-room house.
$1500—Six-room house.
$1850—Five-room house.
$1700—Four-room house, with three large lots.
$2350—Six-room house.
$2500—Five-room house.
$2650—Seven-room house.
$2900—One eight-room house.
One five-room house.
One large barn and 3 lots.
$2750—Seven-room house with two large lots.
$2900—Seven-room modern house.
$4000—Seven-room modern house.
$4200—Eight-room modern house.
$3500—Six-room, new modern house.
$3500—Five-room, new modern bungalow.
$ 450—corner lot, 45x120.
$ 550—inside lot, 45x120.
$1350—inside lot, 45x180, on alley.
These are fine building sites in the northwest part of the city.

Telephone 374

H. V. V. CHAPMAN

Over 120 East Main Street
MARSHALLTOWN - IOWA

Notice.

In the district court of Marshall county, Iowa.

In the matter of the estate of James S. Haskell, deceased, the petition of J. M. Whitaker, as executor of said estate, asking for an order directing him as such executor to sell the west half of lot No. 2, in block No. 8, in Electric addition to the town of Marshall, in Marshall county, Iowa, for the purpose of distribution and that unless you appear and make defense thereto on or before the seventh day of October, 1915, the prayer of the said petition will be granted.

Dated this twenty-ninth day of September, 1915.

J. M. WHITAKER, Executor.

IT'S NO PLEASURE

TO SHOVEL COAL. NOBODY ENJOYS IT. BUT YOU WILL SHOVEL LESS IF YOU USE OUR KENTUCKY COAL. IT WILL LAST LONGER AND GIVE BETTER RESULTS THAN ANY OTHER COAL. ORDER YOUR WINTER SUPPLY OF US, AND YOU WILL HAVE SMALLER COAL BILLS AND DO LESS SHOVELING.

OTHER GRADES OF COAL CARRIED IN STOCK.

NELSON COAL COMPANY

409 South Center Street. Phone 1000.