Tuesday evening the Odeon Theater will offer for one night only the new Columbia Wheel attraction, Kelly and Damsel's 'Cabaret Girls.' In presenting this stella attraction the lovers of good clean all around musical comedy are bound to be more than pleased for seldom in the history of show business has a stronger cast and better equipped show ever played this town. The books written by such well known playwrights as Mike Kelly and Frank Damsel, fairly abounds with bright, breezy up to the minute comedy, pretty numbers and cleverly constructed bits. The costumes are real Parisian importations and the scenery is the work of master scenic artists. Odeon.

this city, sister of Mrs. Bovee, and a graduate nurse, is at Charles City to care for her sister.
A number of people from this county have bought farms in Delaware and Buchanan counties, Iowa. They say they can buy farms there that are just as good as we have around Marshalltown, but they can get them $50 to $75 per acre cheaper than here. If you will write A. M. Cloud, Manchester, Iowa, he will send you a fine sixty-page book about the matter.
Mrs. M. J. Linderer, of Waterloo, has just returned from a trip to the west.
She will tell him what size farm you are interested in, he will send you descriptions of some good bargains. If you would like to buy a good farm for a home or an investment, you should write at once. It will pay you.

'A Royal Gentleman,' a three-act comedy, with a heart survey, by Marion Rose, will be the theatrical event at the Odeon Sunday. The play is a story of picturesque California—the land of heart throbs. The scenic equipment is complete in every detail, and a cast of remarkable ability have been engaged by the management to support Guy and Constance Cauffman who need no introduction as artists in their line of work to the theatergoers of this city. These two clever people have appeared a number of times in the leading roles in some of the best plays Marshalltown has had the pleasure of witnessing, and this one 'A Royal Gentleman' promises to excel their past offerings. Odeon.
Mrs. David Lennox has returned from Kansas City, where she took four children of Mrs. Stanley, a widow living at 310 Anson street, to the Joseph Walter home. The mother, who has been working in the canning department of the Western Grocer Company and has been ill, threatened with pneumonia, and has been unable to care for her family as she realized they should be looked after. It was with reluctance that she consented to them being taken to the Kansas City home, but consented finally because she knew it would be for their good. The children, two of whom are boys, range in age from 11 to 8 1/2 years. The mother has her oldest boy, about 13, with her.
Mrs. Stanley is the widow of a former M. & St. L. employe at Gilman, who was killed four or five years ago, when a train struck a railway velocipede on which he and his wife were riding.
Mrs. Lennox found the Barker children well and happy.

for a week pumping water out of basements and caves.
One on the Water Wagon.
The alfalfa delegate was paying his first visit to a city of any size. Standing on the sidewalk, he chanced to see a sprinkling cart coming down the street, and no sooner had he set eyes on the thing than he began to laugh like a boy at a minstrel show.
'Say, old pal,' he remarked hilariously, punching a cop in the ribs, 'don't that beat all?'
'Don't that beat all?' responded the wondering cop. 'What's the joke?'
'Just look at that feller on that wagon!' replied the alfalfa party, pointing to the sprinkler. 'That darned chump won't have a drop of water left by the time he gets home!'—Philadelphia Telegraph.

More New Models For Marshalltown's Style Promenade Although the style promenade held on Wednesday and Thursday nights has been discontinued and will not be given again in this store until next spring. However, we will continue the style promenade all the time on the streets of Marshalltown and all around Marshalltown every day.
Since the close of the style promenade we received sufficient new models yesterday and today to warrant another promenade. You will see them in our store and in our windows, also in the style promenade in Marshalltown and vicinity.
