Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN FOR MEMBERS IS ON

ASSOCIATION OPENS SHORT, SHARP EFFORT TO INCREASE ASSOCIATION MEMBERSHIP.

TWO HUNDRED AT SUPPER GO AFTER NEW MEMBERS

Attorney General George Cosson Guest of Y. M. C. A. Men at Opening Rally of Season and Launching of Campaign—Effort Being Made Under Direction of Membership Committee.

At the noon luncheon of the teams working this forenoon on the Y. M. C. A. canvass a total of 182 new members was reported. Fred M. Wilbur's team reported the largest number, 44, and Max Smith's was next, with 32. W. T. Smith's team had 24, and J. H. Fisher's 19. At 7:30 tonight another report will be made at the rooms, when the total of the day's work will become known.

Nearly 200 members of the Y. M. C. A. gathered at the association building Monday evening in a rally that marked the opening of the season. Before they left after supper they had organized themselves into teams to promote a sharp one-day canvass for as many new members as could be secured. This forenoon members were seen scurrying about all parts of the business section soliciting prospects. The goal set was 296 new members. Arrangements were made for all who could report at the association building at the noon hour today for lunch and to give an accounting of what had been done during the forenoon.

Attorney General Cosson Guest. J. W. Hook, general manager of the C. A. Dunham Company, and chairman of the membership committee, under whose direction the campaign is being promoted, presided. The gathering had as a special guest Attorney General George Cosson, who made one of the short but important talks of the program.

The company was one of the most enthusiastic that has ever been assembled in the interest of the Y. M. C. A. The spirit recalled the days of the building campaign.

Speakers Urge Action. A group of fifteen or twenty high school boys added vim to the preliminaries by splitting the air with a number of rapid-fire yells, which were answered by another group of high school boys of a few years ago. Both groups yelled for most everybody and everything present and absent.

The speakers urged action to make the association building and equipment do a maximum of good. General Secretary John B. Northcott put the task up to the audience as "their job."

C. C. St. Clair, president of the First National Bank, called attention to the importance of the investment by increasing the membership to what it should be.

R. W. McCreery argued from the standpoint of service to the community, and drew applause by his sincerity. D. W. Norris spoke very briefly.

Senator Wallace H. Arney introduced Attorney General Cosson. The attorney general spoke with the thought in mind that Y. M. C. A. work was "preventive work," to keep aligned for good the moral forces of the community.

Team Captains in Charge. Lists containing several hundred names of men who should be members were circulated from table to table from which the teams might pick prospects. The captains of the eleven teams are C. W. Trine, Fred M. Wilbur, Jasper H. Fisher, Albert Hull, W. T. Smith, J. T. Basham, Bert Newcomer, George A. Olson, Max Smith, Herman Knudson, and Ralph W. Scott.

FORMER RESIDENT DEAD.

Samuel W. Ferguson Dies at Berkeley, Cal., of Cancer.

Word received by Smith C. Ferguson and his sister, Mrs. Eliza Bovee, 404 North Second avenue, tells of the death of Berkeley, Cal., on the 27th ult., of their brother Samuel W. Ferguson, a former resident of this city. Mr. Ferguson's death was due to cancer of the liver. He was 65 years old.

Mr. Ferguson was a native of Muscatine, a son of the late George Ferguson, one of the early residents of this county. As a young man, S. W. Ferguson worked in this city at the shoemaker's trade. He went to California in 1885 and has since lived there. For several years he has been in the real estate business in San Francisco.

In addition to his widow Mr. Ferguson is survived by two sons and a daughter—Paul W. and Garth S. Ferguson and Dr. Bertella Ferguson, all of Berkeley. Mr. Ferguson's body was buried at Oakland.

CLUB MASCOT GONE.

"Jim," Boston Terrier of Marshalltown Club, Strayed or Stolen.

"Jim," the mascot Boston terrier of the Marshalltown Club, has disappeared, either strayed or stolen, and his owner, Custodian Watrous, and the frequenters of the club rooms where "Jim" is a general favorite, are working over his disappearance. If some lad has given way to an anxious desire for ownership and has "Jim" tied in the barn, he had best let him loose before the avengers are upon him. The dog is being advertised for in this issue, and the incident of B. W. Sinclair's last dog and successful advertising should stir a ray of hope in the gloom. Mr. Sinclair ran a "lost" ad for his small terrier and reported that fifteen minutes after the paper was on the streets the animal scratched for admittance at the kitchen door.

"Jim" wears a Marshalltown license tag numbered 151.

Visit Deaconess Hospital. Ministers of the German Reformed church of America stopped in Marshalltown Monday afternoon on their way home from Wheeland, where they attended the conference of the Reformed church. While here they were guests of Rev. Karl Rest at the Deaconess hospital. Those in the party were Rev. Jacob Hauser and Rev. Mr.

Frans. of Melbourne; Rev. Mr. Fulbrecht, of Sidney, Neb., and Rev. Mr. Schwabke and Rev. Mr. Hanser, of Milwaukee.

Sister Caroline Suter, who is at the head of the Deaconess hospital at Farault, Minn., and Sister Carolyn Reimster, also from Faribault, are visiting at the Deaconess hospital with Sister Sophia Hubell. They are on their way home from the Deaconess conference at Lincoln, Ill.

LARGE CHURCH WEDDING.

Misses Catharine Welch and Maurice Jackson United in Marriage.

One of the larger and more elaborate weddings of the early fall was solemnized this morning when Miss Catharine M. Welch and Maurice F. Jackson were united in marriage at 8 o'clock at St. Mary's church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James Murphy, of Kinzley, a cousin of the bride. The double ring service was used, and the rings Miss Welch gave Mr. Jackson was the one which her mother had given her father thirty-five years ago.

Following the ceremony W. C. McCarten sang "Believe Me," and following this solemn nuptial high mass was said. Father Murphy acting as celebrant, Rev. J. J. Fitzpatrick as deacon, and Rev. M. E. Kettler as sub-deacon. Mrs. R. B. Valentine sang "Ave Maria" during the offertory. Miss Marie Welch played the wedding march, accompanied on the violin by Mrs. Bart Mitchell, of Vail. Miss Mary Jackson, a sister of the groom, acted as maid of honor, and Earl Dugan, of Vail, a cousin of the bride, as groomsmen.

The bride was gowned in ivory satin, trimmed with opalescent shell lace, with garnitures of the same. The dress was made en traine. The bride's veil was of white tulle, with lilies-of-the-valley forming the cap. She wore a corsage bouquet and carried an ivory prayer book. Miss Jackson, the maid of honor, wore white lace over yellow satin, with a hat of white panama velvet and gold lace trimmed with marten. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. William White and M. C. Roskopf acted as ushers.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary A. Welch, 411 West Boone street, to fifty of the relatives and friends. The house was decorated in yellow and white, the bride's colors, and the breakfast was served by Misses Marie Healy, Bernadette Dunn, Catherine Kennehan, Marie Miller, Nita Pursell, and Marie Mangano.

Mrs. Jackson is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Mary A. Welch and was graduated from St. Mary's Institute in 1911. She has been teaching music here for the past four years, and has been soprano soloist in St. Mary's choir. Mr. Jackson is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Jackson, and came here with his parents two years ago from Sterling, Ill. He is the junior partner of the Jackson Dairy Company. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson left at 1:15 for a tertium for Sterling and Chicago, and will be gone about two weeks. They will be at home after Dec. 1 at 304 South Fifth street.

In attendance at the wedding from out of the city were Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson and children of Ansony; Mr. and Mrs. Bart Mitchell, Earl Dugan and Mrs. J. J. Dugan, of Vail; Mrs. Richard Keane, Independence; Gregory Fitzgerald, Sterling, Ill.; Miss Florence Patrick, Tama; Misses Carrie and Mary Lang, Haverhill; and Mr. and Mrs. William Hannan, of Moning's Station.

INDIAN SCHOOL IN IOWA.

Was Conducted Among the Winnebago Indians in Early Days.

The first and most successful Indian school conducted by the United States government within the bounds of the present state of Iowa was the school among the Winnebago Indians in northeastern Iowa. Mr. Jacob Van der Zee, in a publication of the State Historical Society of Iowa, makes the following statement concerning the work of this school for the years 1842 and 1843:

"John L. Seymour acted as principal from 1842 to 1843. He recommended that knitting and spinning be added to the subjects taught to the girls and that a press and printer be furnished the school. One hundred and seventy children in every stage of advancement attended the school in constantly varying numbers, depending upon the season of the year. Some fifteen pupils walked ten miles daily to the agency. The school was taught two hundred and thirty-six days, exclusive of Sundays, when the children assembled for religious instruction. The girls furnished nearly seven hundred articles of clothing, such as boys' coats, trousers, shirts, dresses, short gowns, skirts, aprons, towels, bags, bedticks, and pillow cases."

Speaking of Nerve.

One evening a little boy entered a grocery store and handed the clerk a note which read: "I am a poor woman and have no money. My children and I are starving. Won't you give us something to eat?"

The kind-hearted clerk filled a large basket with food and gave it to the boy, who quickly departed.

In a few minutes he again entered the store.

"What's the trouble now?" said the clerk.

"Mamma sent me back to get the trading stamps," the lad replied.—Everybody's Magazine.

Pretty Bad.

Commander—What's his character apart from his leave-breaking?"

Fetty Officer—Well, sir, this man 'e goes ashore when 'e likes; 'e comes off when 'e likes; 'e uses 'orrible language when 'e's spoken to; in fact, from 'is general behavior 'e might be an officer!—Punch.
