DAY'S WORK YIELDS 310 NEW MEMBERS

SUCCESSFUL CANVASS FOR Y. M. C. A. MADE DURING ACTIVITIES OF TUESDAY.

TO PICK UP TAG ENDS AND REPORT SATURDAY

Team Members to Continue Work Thru Rest of Week, Seeing Prospects Who Were Not Available Tuesday—Max Smith's Committee Heads List, With Wilbur's Close Second.

Three hundred ten new members for the Y. M. C. A. was the result of the active one-day canvass made Tuesday by members of twelve teams. The figures were reported at a meeting held at the association building at 7:30 Tuesday night.

Altho this is not up to the goal set by Chairman J. W. Hook, of the membership committee, the showing was a most satisfactory one, and exceeds the figures in any city in Iowa yet heard from as a result of the first day's work of the state-wide campaign now in progress.

To Follow Up Rest of Week.
 During the rest of the week the team members will follow up prospects that were assigned Monday night, many of whom could not be seen Tuesday. These tag ends will be picked up during the week, and on Saturday night another report will be made. At this time it is hoped that the figures will reach the mark set, 395.

Max Smith's Team High.
 Max Smith's team, which was in second place at noon Tuesday, jumped into first by the night report when a total of 84 members was announced. Fred M. Wilbur's team was a close second, with 60, and W. T. Smith's was third, with 37.

Should Turn in Cards.
 Secretary Northcott and his assistants were busy today getting in touch with team captains in an effort to secure the application blanks that were signed up in the campaign Tuesday. It is important that these should reach the secretary's office at once, and if team members have not turned them over to their captains, or did not hand them in at the noonday or evening meetings Tuesday, they should see that they are sent to the association at once.

DEGREE OF HONOR CONVENTION.

District Meeting Held in This City With Grand Officer Present.
 Members of the Degree of Honor met in this city Tuesday for their district convention. The district in which the local lodge is included is No. 13, and has lodges in Toledo, Waterloo, Oelwein, and Castalia. Delegates were present from Oelwein, in the persons of Mesdames J. K. Christiansen and E. L. Borland, but none of the other towns were represented except Marshalltown.
 The convention was called to order at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon by the grand chief of honor of the state, Mrs. Etta A. Branson, of Shenandoah, who conducted the meeting. Mayor J. S. Millard gave an address of welcome to the delegates. Mesdames Borland and Christiansen also gave short talks, after which Mrs. Branson spoke on the idea of whole family protection for fraternal societies and the building of a Degree of Honor home for the benefit of orphans of former members of the lodge.
 The evening session was devoted to the initiation of new candidates. Toledo was selected as the meeting place for next year's convention.

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Odeon.
 Girls, comedians and costumes again held forth at the Odeon Tuesday night when "The Cabaret Girls," a Columbia wheel burlesque show, was presented to a good sized audience. Good comedians featured the performance, Mike Kelley, Joe Rose and Frank Damsel all proving themselves good laugh producers. Kelley and Rose had some especially comic specialties. Frances Farr and Mina Schall were featured in the two principal feminine roles, and entertained with several songs and many changes of costume. The costumes throughout the production were many and gorgeous, and some of those the chorus wore never should have got past the censor. They were evidently relics of the old time burlesque shows, and had no place in Tuesday night's production. Several good songs were introduced during the acting of the piece. "Has Anybody Got a Kiss to Spare" with the well-known expedient of going down in the audience proved popular.
 The olio consisted of several songs acceptably sung by the Irish trio, three young men, and some remarkably acrobatic and tumbling work by the Livingston family.

CITY WILL BUILD DAM.

Council Will Execute Contract With H. J. Benson For Work.
 Councilman M. S. McFarland has determined to build a dam across the waterway in the city land west of the Center street road to protect the water main that carries the city's supply from the wells to the pumping station. He has entered into an oral agreement with H. J. Benson, of Union, to give Benson the contract for $2,650. The council is expected to ratify a formal contract at its meeting next week.
 Some of the important details of the contract are to that Benson will guarantee the dam to stay where it is put for five years, and that after that time the Marshall Ice Company will maintain it without cost to the city. Benson is to furnish all the material, except some trees near the site that the city will allow him to use, and all local labor. He expects to begin work next week and finish the contract in four or five weeks.

Somebody Did It For Me

When you dig for your four bones per quarter, Or more as it happens to be, Here's a thought that perhaps will console you:
 Think: "Somebody did it for me."

Look round and take stock of conditions, Consider the happy word changes, Since you were a youth or a boy; If you've tramped the long day in committee, And are tired from shoulder to knee, Just grab for this thought with your slippers:
 "Somebody did it for me."

Somebody always was doing, Somebody always has done, Since God made a garden in Eden, And this jolly old world was begun; Somebody's sacrificed, struggled, Hoped for the best that could be, I am what I am because they were, All have done something for me.

So, when you part with your money, Or work for the Y. M. C. A., Think of what others did for you, Think of the debt you repay; For, whatever the check you have written, Or the work you have promised to do, Thru the fifty-odd centuries since Adam, Somebody did it for you.

BIG STATE CENTER WEDDING.

Wilkening-Pfanz Wedding Most Pre-tentious Affair.
 Between 500 and 600 guests witnessed the marriage this afternoon at State Center of Miss Aleta E. Pfanz to Chris Wilkening, Jr., which was celebrated at 3 o'clock at St. Paul's Lutheran church by Rev. J. G. Oitman. The wedding was a public affair, and a general invitation had been extended. At the Pfanz home, following the ceremony, a reception was held, to which 250 invitations were extended. Colors symbolic of the rainbow, and embodied in a big rainbow arch that extended across the church back of the altar, were used in decorating the church. The bride was attended by a maid of honor and two bridesmaids, and carried white roses. The bride was attired in a becoming gown of cream satin, with opal lace, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. Her veil was covered with lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Leona Bader, the maid of honor, wore lavender crepe de chine and carried white roses. Miss Martha Nowlan, one of the bridesmaids, wore pink silk and carried roses of the same color, and Miss Leona Pfanz, the other bridesmaid, was dressed in yellow silk and carried yellow roses. The best men were Lawrence Hartwig and Willem Wood, the latter of Des Moines. Little Irene Niedert was the ring bearer. The ushers were Walter Riemen-schneider and Leland Hilleman.

For the reception this afternoon at the Pfanz home the house was decorated prettily in green and white and autumn leaves. Carnations were used to grace the tables, at which a most sumptuous dinner was served by Mrs. Pfanz, Mrs. Charles Ficken, Mrs. Henry Lee, and Miss Amanda Smith, Isabel Harvey, Hilda Pfanz, Mary and Clara Eckert, and Lucile Nowlan. The ushers at the house were Mesdames Lena Wilkening and Laura Bader.
 Tonight, on an improvised platform laid under a large tent near the Pfanz home, a wedding ball will be enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkening are both well known in the State Center neighborhood, where both have been reared. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Pfanz, who live on a farm in the edge of town. Mr. Wilkening is a young farmer, and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Wilkening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Wilkening will make their home on a farm near town.

CHAUTAQUA ATTRACTIONS.

Next Year's Assembly at State Center Contains Good Talent.
 Talent for the 1916 assembly of the State Center Chautauqua Association was chosen at a meeting of the directors held Tuesday afternoon. The opening attractions, however, were not decided upon, as the directors are anxious to secure some good band, and as yet have made no choice. The dates of the assembly are June 24 to July 2.
 The talent chosen Tuesday is as follows: Monday, June 28, Norton Company, magicians; Tuesday, Dunbar Male Quartet and Bell Ringers; Wednesday, Father J. M. Cleary, of Minneapolis, in a lecture; Thursday, Dixie Jubilee Singers; Friday, Hinshaw Opera Singers; Saturday, July 1 and Sunday, July 2, The White Hussars, a singing band. On the afternoon of Sunday Rev. Arthur W. Evans will give a sermon-lecture.

BOY KICKED BY HORSE.

Baby Son of O. D. Jordan, of Rhodes, Seriously Injured.
 Warren, the 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Jordan, of Rhodes, had his skull badly fractured Tuesday when he was kicked by a horse in his four horse yard where he was playing. The little boy was playing around near the horse when the animal kicked him, the hoof striking just above the forehead, and mashing the skull terribly.
 He was hurried to the Deaconess hospital, where it was found necessary to remove the bones which had been crushed into the brain, cleanse the wound, and sew it up. His condition today is serious, with only a fair chance for recovery.

In the District Court.
 All of the testimony in the case of Mrs. Christine Coffey vs. the city, for damages for personal injury, had been completed by mid-forenoon, when arguments were begun. The case will probably be given to the jury late this afternoon.

ODD FELLOWS TO WATERLOO.

Big Delegation From Local Lodge to Attend Grand Lodge.
 Between 200 and 300 Odd Fellows from all branches of the order in this city will attend the meeting of the grand lodge of Odd Fellows to be held at Waterloo from Oct. 18 to 23, inclusive. The local delegation will be headed by a band of twenty pieces, and expects to make one of the larger showings from towns in the state.

A special train has been chartered and will leave the Great Western station at 7:30 on the morning of Wednesday, Oct. 20. Other lodge members from surrounding towns will go on this train as well. The train will arrive in Waterloo about 10 o'clock.

In the grand parade, which is scheduled to take place in Waterloo Wednesday afternoon, all the various branches of the order from this city will be represented in full uniform, headed by the band.
 It is possible that Marshalltown will make an effort to secure the next meeting of the grand lodge for this city.

PAYS DEBT; HAS NOTHING.

County Fair Association Borrows Small Sum For Next Year.
 Altho it made money at the fair held the middle of September, the Marshall County Fair Association is not going to have a surplus. At a meeting of the executive committee Tuesday afternoon all the bills incurred by the fair were ordered paid, and the committee paid its note of $2,500 held by the First National Bank. This note was for permanent improvements made in 1914. It was thought that the surplus would be sufficient to take up this note and leave a balance, but it was found necessary to negotiate a loan of $500 to furnish the association with what money it will need to carry it over to fair time of next year.

Miss Britt Resigns.

Miss Clare Britt, for two years visiting nurse employed by the Visiting Nurse Association, resigned her position Tuesday evening at the regular meeting of the board of directors, held at the library. The resignation will take effect as soon as the association is able to procure another nurse for the work. Routine business matters occupied the remainder of the evening.

In the Police Court.

Joe McDonald, arrested by a North-western detective for being drunk, pleaded not guilty in the mayor's court. His hearing was set for this afternoon.
 J. E. Baker, arrested for vagrancy.

Dandruff Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means, get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.
 It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.
 By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.
 You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

was discharged by Mayor Millard after Baker had served three days in jail.
 James Malloy, proprietor of a 3500 hall in State Center, was arrested Tuesday afternoon by E. E. Robinson, an officer of that place, charged with allowing minors to remain in his pool hall. He was brought to this city and given a hearing in Justice Peck's court, where he pleaded guilty and was fined $30 and costs, a total of $42, which he paid.
 Mrs. W. W. Eicholtz and son Howard, of Athol, S. D., left for their home Tuesday evening, after visiting for some time with Mrs. Eicholtz's mother, Mrs. E. E. McGowan.
