

Lyric Theater

Tonight and Tomorrow
PARAMOUNT FEATURE
OLIVER MOROSCO
Presents
CYRIL MAUDE
Star of "Grumpy," the big London and New York Success

"PEER GYNT"
The thrilling life story of the Norwegian's most human hero.
FIVE ACTS 420 SCENES

SPECIAL MUSIC
Admission.
Adults 15c Children 10c
SATURDAY AND SUNDAY
MARY PICKFORD
A picturization of Frances Hodgson Burnett's famous play
"ESMERALDA"

Colonial Theater

THANHOUSER PRESENTS
Bert Delaney, Ernest Howard and Riley Chamberlain

"The Dead Man's Keys"
The story tells how a tall-tale thumb mark saves an innocent youth.

"The Rose in the Dust"
CHAPTER 22, "THE DIAMOND FROM THE SKY"
One of the most exciting chapters in this serial.

"Love, Mumps and Bumps"
Featuring Neva Gerber, Lucille Ward and Webster Campbell
Proving that a little thing like the mumps can't stop Cupid.

MUTUAL MASTERPIECE
"The Girl From His Town"
Featuring Margarita Fisher and C. Elliott Griffin.

ADMISSION
Adults 10c Children 5c
MATINEE 5c

CASINO

TODAY
MATINEE AND NIGHT
The Famous Comedy Drama
"MY BEST GIRL"

A five-act photo-drama of the Park Theater success, by Channing Pollock and Rennold Wolf, featuring
Max Figman & Lois Meredith

TOMORROW
NEAL OF THE NAVY
The Great American Serial—
Third Episode.
ALSO
Pathe News and a good Comedy.
MATINEE EVERY DAY, 5c.
10c-NIGHT-10c

The Odeon

SATURDAY Oct. 16th
MATINEE AT 2:30
THE ORIGINAL ALL STAR REVIVAL OF THE

Bohemian Girl
THE WORLD'S GREATEST COMIC OPERA.

PRICES: Night, 50c to $2.00—Bargain Matinee, 50c to $1.00.
Mail orders now accepted; box office open Friday, 10 a. m.

Sunday OCT. 17

Gastill and MacVitty (Inc.)
Announce
The Shepherd of the Hills
Dramatized from Harold Bell Wright's Novel
Prices 25c, 35c, 50c and 75c.
Seats on Sale Saturday, 10 A. M.

Take Time to Investigate!
Having decided to contract will furnish complete plans and specifications free. Let me figure on your building.
B. F. KEMPER
ARCHITECT AND BUILDER
Over 208 East Main St.

Times-Republican

CITY IN BRIEF

Bring your watches in. Hodges, Marshall Printing Company, Phone 79.
Eye, ear, nose and throat specialist; Glasses fitted. Dr. F. P. Lierle.

Sausage in one-pound packages. Nothing finer. McCord grocery.
Try our None Such codfish, price 25 cents a box. Reynolds & Sheldon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carmody, of Zealing, were visitors in the city Tuesday.
George Stone went Tuesday to New Hampton for a few days' business trip.

"Life in the smart set," portrayed in "The Girl From His Town," tomorrow, Colonial.

Plenty of nice cooking apples here. Reynolds & Sheldon, 109 West Main street.

Marguerita Fisher starring in "The Girl From His Town," tomorrow, Colonial.

Mrs. W. A. Wentworth, of Tama, returned home Tuesday after visiting friends in Oskaloosa.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Streeter left Monday for Albert Lea, Minn., to visit their son, V. G. Streeter.

Swifts Premium smoked ham or boiled ham, bacon and veal loaf, came in today. McCord grocery.

Mrs. Herman Sassen, of Adrian, Minn., arrived in the city Tuesday to visit her son, John, at Haverhill.

I have a car of Muscatine Island sweet potatoes on M. & St. L. tracks by Gregory's coal yards. D. D. Fleming.

Miss Tena Blattspieider, Mrs. F. Coble and Mrs. W. Roben, of Ackley, were in the city Monday visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Cook went Tuesday evening to Searsboro to visit the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Saunders.

Barn paint, a paint that must stand weather, and last for ever. Get H. & M. We have it. Old Reliable Drug Company.

Watch for the announcement of H. Willard, Son & Co. opening of the retail store, 36 West Main street. Advertisement.

Mrs. O. G. Medhus, of Gilman, returned home Tuesday evening after visiting friends and relatives in and near the city.

Mrs. Albert Smith, and daughters, Geneva and Mabel, and Mrs. James Allison, of State Center, were visitors in the city Monday.

Mrs. R. S. Woodmansee, of Indianola, who has been visiting at the home of her son, C. C. Woodmansee, left this morning for Butterfield, Minn.

Mrs. James Mitchell and daughter Ruth, of Denison, returned home Monday evening after visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Mary McMahon.

"The Rose in the Dust," a stirring chapter of the "Diamond From the Sky." See this chapter if you never see another one; today, Colonial.

This weather makes one think of coal. Try ours, Bowles & Billings, dealers coal, hay and grain, and also city-oke, Phone 119.—Advertisement.

Miss Eva Bruett, of Laurens, who is a student at Iowa State College, returned to Ames Tuesday after a short visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Eliza Bovee.

At Batesole's grocery, 100 pounds of sugar for $4.44, with each $10.00 cash grocery order, and fifty pounds of sugar for $2.35 with each $5.00 cash grocery order, and twenty-five pounds of sugar for $1.20 with each $2.50 cash grocery order. Batesole's grocery, 20 North First avenue.

The little tad on the way to school in the morning with a grin on his face is the lad who is a strong booster for the new Strub bakery, as it is this bakery that bakes for him daily that delicious Strub butter-milk bread. The best for all the family. Ask your grocer to send it. Strub's bakery and cafe.

Appearance counts—this was proven again when a young man applied for a position. The manager of the store said: "Young man, how is it you dress so well?" He replied that it was a last year's suit he had on, but it had been cleaned and pressed, that is why it looked so like new. Other young men should profit by this and send their clothes to the Marshalltown Steam Dry Works for cleaning and pressing. Phone 111 and all work will be called for.—Advertisement.

Funeral services for Mrs. Martha Kerr were held from the home of her sister, Mrs. Anna Mausby, 310 North Second street, at 2:30, Tuesday afternoon, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the family. Rev. Harry R. Keats, of Des Moines, superintendent of pastoral and evangelistic work of the Iowa Yearly Meeting of Friends, and formerly pastor of a Friends church at Detroit, Mich., where Mrs. Kerr lived, had charge of the service, assisted by Rev. I. N. Rich. The flower bearers were Vera Eldridge, Anna and May Cotton, Grace and Helen Andrews, and Nina Binford, and Mrs. C. R. Williams. The pall bearers were E. B. Ems, W. B. Benson, A. C. Diller, A. L. Cotton, S. F. Millhiser, and W. P. Mausby. Burial was in Riverside, Mrs. E. F. Rogers, of Union, was in attendance at the funeral from out of the city.

At Batesole's grocery, 100 pounds of sugar for $4.44, with each $10.00 cash grocery order, and fifty pounds of sugar for $2.35 with each $5.00 cash grocery order, and twenty-five pounds of sugar for $1.20 with each $2.50 cash grocery order. Batesole's grocery, 20 North First avenue.

The little tad on the way to school in the morning with a grin on his face is the lad who is a strong booster for the new Strub bakery, as it is this bakery that bakes for him daily that delicious Strub butter-milk bread. The best for all the family. Ask your grocer to send it. Strub's bakery and cafe.

Appearance counts—this was proven again when a young man applied for a position. The manager of the store said: "Young man, how is it you dress so well?" He replied that it was a last year's suit he had on, but it had been cleaned and pressed, that is why it looked so like new. Other young men should profit by this and send their clothes to the Marshalltown Steam Dry Works for cleaning and pressing. Phone 111 and all work will be called for.—Advertisement.

Funeral services for Mrs. Martha Kerr were held from the home of her sister, Mrs. Anna Mausby, 310 North Second street, at 2:30, Tuesday afternoon, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the family. Rev. Harry R. Keats, of Des Moines, superintendent of pastoral and evangelistic work of the Iowa Yearly Meeting of Friends, and formerly pastor of a Friends church at Detroit, Mich., where Mrs. Kerr lived, had charge of the service, assisted by Rev. I. N. Rich. The flower bearers were Vera Eldridge, Anna and May Cotton, Grace and Helen Andrews, and Nina Binford, and Mrs. C. R. Williams. The pall bearers were E. B. Ems, W. B. Benson, A. C. Diller, A. L. Cotton, S. F. Millhiser, and W. P. Mausby. Burial was in Riverside, Mrs. E. F. Rogers, of Union, was in attendance at the funeral from out of the city.

At Batesole's grocery, 100 pounds of sugar for $4.44, with each $10.00 cash grocery order, and fifty pounds of sugar for $2.35 with each $5.00 cash grocery order, and twenty-five pounds of sugar for $1.20 with each $2.50 cash grocery order. Batesole's grocery, 20 North First avenue.

The little tad on the way to school in the morning with a grin on his face is the lad who is a strong booster for the new Strub bakery, as it is this bakery that bakes for him daily that delicious Strub butter-milk bread. The best for all the family. Ask your grocer to send it. Strub's bakery and cafe.

Appearance counts—this was proven again when a young man applied for a position. The manager of the store said: "Young man, how is it you dress so well?" He replied that it was a last year's suit he had on, but it had been cleaned and pressed, that is why it looked so like new. Other young men should profit by this and send their clothes to the Marshalltown Steam Dry Works for cleaning and pressing. Phone 111 and all work will be called for.—Advertisement.

Funeral services for Mrs. Martha Kerr were held from the home of her sister, Mrs. Anna Mausby, 310 North Second street, at 2:30, Tuesday afternoon, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the family. Rev. Harry R. Keats, of Des Moines, superintendent of pastoral and evangelistic work of the Iowa Yearly Meeting of Friends, and formerly pastor of a Friends church at Detroit, Mich., where Mrs. Kerr lived, had charge of the service, assisted by Rev. I. N. Rich. The flower bearers were Vera Eldridge, Anna and May Cotton, Grace and Helen Andrews, and Nina Binford, and Mrs. C. R. Williams. The pall bearers were E. B. Ems, W. B. Benson, A. C. Diller, A. L. Cotton, S. F. Millhiser, and W. P. Mausby. Burial was in Riverside, Mrs. E. F. Rogers, of Union, was in attendance at the funeral from out of the city.

At Batesole's grocery, 100 pounds of sugar for $4.44, with each $10.00 cash grocery order, and fifty pounds of sugar for $2.35 with each $5.00 cash grocery order, and twenty-five pounds of sugar for $1.20 with each $2.50 cash grocery order. Batesole's grocery, 20 North First avenue.

The little tad on the way to school in the morning with a grin on his face is the lad who is a strong booster for the new Strub bakery, as it is this bakery that bakes for him daily that delicious Strub butter-milk bread. The best for all the family. Ask your grocer to send it. Strub's bakery and cafe.

Appearance counts—this was proven again when a young man applied for a position. The manager of the store said: "Young man, how is it you dress so well?" He replied that it was a last year's suit he had on, but it had been cleaned and pressed, that is why it looked so like new. Other young men should profit by this and send their clothes to the Marshalltown Steam Dry Works for cleaning and pressing. Phone 111 and all work will be called for.—Advertisement.

Funeral services for Mrs. Martha Kerr were held from the home of her sister, Mrs. Anna Mausby, 310 North Second street, at 2:30, Tuesday afternoon, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the family. Rev. Harry R. Keats, of Des Moines, superintendent of pastoral and evangelistic work of the Iowa Yearly Meeting of Friends, and formerly pastor of a Friends church at Detroit, Mich., where Mrs. Kerr lived, had charge of the service, assisted by Rev. I. N. Rich. The flower bearers were Vera Eldridge, Anna and May Cotton, Grace and Helen Andrews, and Nina Binford, and Mrs. C. R. Williams. The pall bearers were E. B. Ems, W. B. Benson, A. C. Diller, A. L. Cotton, S. F. Millhiser, and W. P. Mausby. Burial was in Riverside, Mrs. E. F. Rogers, of Union, was in attendance at the funeral from out of the city.

At Batesole's grocery, 100 pounds of sugar for $4.44, with each $10.00 cash grocery order, and fifty pounds of sugar for $2.35 with each $5.00 cash grocery order, and twenty-five pounds of sugar for $1.20 with each $2.50 cash grocery order. Batesole's grocery, 20 North First avenue.

The little tad on the way to school in the morning with a grin on his face is the lad who is a strong booster for the new Strub bakery, as it is this bakery that bakes for him daily that delicious Strub butter-milk bread. The best for all the family. Ask your grocer to send it. Strub's bakery and cafe.

Appearance counts—this was proven again when a young man applied for a position. The manager of the store said: "Young man, how is it you dress so well?" He replied that it was a last year's suit he had on, but it had been cleaned and pressed, that is why it looked so like new. Other young men should profit by this and send their clothes to the Marshalltown Steam Dry Works for cleaning and pressing. Phone 111 and all work will be called for.—Advertisement.

Funeral services for Mrs. Martha Kerr were held from the home of her sister, Mrs. Anna Mausby, 310 North Second street, at 2:30, Tuesday afternoon, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the family. Rev. Harry R. Keats, of Des Moines, superintendent of pastoral and evangelistic work of the Iowa Yearly Meeting of Friends, and formerly pastor of a Friends church at Detroit, Mich., where Mrs. Kerr lived, had charge of the service, assisted by Rev. I. N. Rich. The flower bearers were Vera Eldridge, Anna and May Cotton, Grace and Helen Andrews, and Nina Binford, and Mrs. C. R. Williams. The pall bearers were E. B. Ems, W. B. Benson, A. C. Diller, A. L. Cotton, S. F. Millhiser, and W. P. Mausby. Burial was in Riverside, Mrs. E. F. Rogers, of Union, was in attendance at the funeral from out of the city.

At Batesole's grocery, 100 pounds of sugar for $4.44, with each $10.00 cash grocery order, and fifty pounds of sugar for $2.35 with each $5.00 cash grocery order, and twenty-five pounds of sugar for $1.20 with each $2.50 cash grocery order. Batesole's grocery, 20 North First avenue.

The little tad on the way to school in the morning with a grin on his face is the lad who is a strong booster for the new Strub bakery, as it is this bakery that bakes for him daily that delicious Strub butter-milk bread. The best for all the family. Ask your grocer to send it. Strub's bakery and cafe.

Appearance counts—this was proven again when a young man applied for a position. The manager of the store said: "Young man, how is it you dress so well?" He replied that it was a last year's suit he had on, but it had been cleaned and pressed, that is why it looked so like new. Other young men should profit by this and send their clothes to the Marshalltown Steam Dry Works for cleaning and pressing. Phone 111 and all work will be called for.—Advertisement.

Funeral services for Mrs. Martha Kerr were held from the home of her sister, Mrs. Anna Mausby, 310 North Second street, at 2:30, Tuesday afternoon, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the family. Rev. Harry R. Keats, of Des Moines, superintendent of pastoral and evangelistic work of the Iowa Yearly Meeting of Friends, and formerly pastor of a Friends church at Detroit, Mich., where Mrs. Kerr lived, had charge of the service, assisted by Rev. I. N. Rich. The flower bearers were Vera Eldridge, Anna and May Cotton, Grace and Helen Andrews, and Nina Binford, and Mrs. C. R. Williams. The pall bearers were E. B. Ems, W. B. Benson, A. C. Diller, A. L. Cotton, S. F. Millhiser, and W. P. Mausby. Burial was in Riverside, Mrs. E. F. Rogers, of Union, was in attendance at the funeral from out of the city.

At Batesole's grocery, 100 pounds of sugar for $4.44, with each $10.00 cash grocery order, and fifty pounds of sugar for $2.35 with each $5.00 cash grocery order, and twenty-five pounds of sugar for $1.20 with each $2.50 cash grocery order. Batesole's grocery, 20 North First avenue.

Glasses properly fitted. Hellberg.

Bowles & Billings for coal. We deliver.—Advertisement.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Conaway left Monday evening for a few days' visit in Chicago.

Strictly high grade flour only $1.50 per sack. Batesole's grocery, 20 North First avenue.

F. A. Gillette left this morning for a month's visit with friends in Burlington and Chicago.

Mrs. E. C. Lainsow this morning went to Waterloo, where she will remain for a week with friends.

Mrs. C. F. Poble and daughter Gertrude, of Gilman, visited in the city Tuesday with the former's son, Ernest.

Mrs. H. Niedert, Mrs. Earl Roberts, and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hartwig, of State Center, were Tuesday visitors in the city.

A darling romance of the theater, full of vim and go, and startling climaxes, "The Girl From His Town," tomorrow, Colonial.

The aid society of the German church will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Henrietta Bowman, 113 North Ninth avenue.

When there is painting to be done, then look into the line of H. & M. paint that is carried by this drug store. Old Reliable Drug Company.

The Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Clifford Unser, 309 1/2 North Second street.

Fancy cauliflower, celery, sweet peppers, Jersey sweet potatoes, rutabagas, Spanish onions and many other fresh vegetables. Culley's store.

"The Rose in the Dust," a stirring chapter of the "Diamond From the Sky." See this chapter if you never see another one; today, Colonial.

Mrs. C. E. Sharer and daughter Mabel, of Montezuma, returned home Tuesday evening after visiting here with the former's son, Bert Sharer.

Another of the famous sauer kraut dinners given by the Ladies' Aid society of the German Evangelical church was patronized largely at the church Tuesday evening. The ladies did well with the supper, which was greatly enjoyed by the patrons.

Mrs. C. W. Jennings, of Okene, Okla., who has been visiting her brother, Henry Nelson, at Liscomb, went Tuesday evening to Boone to visit her sister, Gladys Nelson. Miss Nelson came as far as this city to meet her.

Mrs. Jennings also visited here with an uncle, H. W. Nelson.

Twenty members of the Royal Neighbors' Aid society were entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mesdames J. W. Melton and Frank Crone and Miss Irene Melton at the former's home at 510 Lee street. Sewing occupied the afternoon while the guests visited. The hostesses served refreshments.

At a joint meeting of Marshall lodge of Rebekahs, No. 40, and Banner lodge of Odd Fellows, held in the Odd Fellows' hall Tuesday night, the Rebekahs presented the Odd Fellows with a handsome American flag 6x10 feet in size. The flag will be used in the lodge work and for decorative purposes. A social evening was enjoyed after the presentation.

Word received from Riverton announcing the death there this morning of Albert Shoemaker, a brother-in-law of W. P. Mausby and Mrs. A. L. Cotton. Mr. Shoemaker's death was due to heart disease. He was 79 years old last month. Mr. Shoemaker had been married twice, both wives being sisters of Mr. Mausby and Mrs. Cotton. Mr. and Mrs. Mausby and Mr. and Mrs. Cotton will leave for Riverton Thursday to attend the funeral.

Twenty-five members of the Busy Bee Circle of L. O. T. M. enjoyed a progressive dinner Tuesday evening, the first course being served at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. W. A. Talbot, 104 Marion street. The party then went to the home of Mrs. George L. Nason, 514 North First avenue, where they were served the second course. The third course was enjoyed at the home of Mrs. George Pepper, and the dessert was served by Mrs. Claude Whitner, 3 East Grant street. The remainder of the evening was spent socially at the Whitney home and a short business session was held.

Dr. Bullard, osteopath, 16 West Main.

Bowles & Billings for coal. We deliver.—Advertisement.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Conaway left Monday evening for a few days' visit in Chicago.

Strictly high grade flour only $1.50 per sack. Batesole's grocery, 20 North First avenue.

F. A. Gillette left this morning for a month's visit with friends in Burlington and Chicago.

Mrs. E. C. Lainsow this morning went to Waterloo, where she will remain for a week with friends.

Mrs. C. F. Poble and daughter Gertrude, of Gilman, visited in the city Tuesday with the former's son, Ernest.

Mrs. H. Niedert, Mrs. Earl Roberts, and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hartwig, of State Center, were Tuesday visitors in the city.

A darling romance of the theater, full of vim and go, and startling climaxes, "The Girl From His Town," tomorrow, Colonial.

The aid society of the German church will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Henrietta Bowman, 113 North Ninth avenue.

When there is painting to be done, then look into the line of H. & M. paint that is carried by this drug store. Old Reliable Drug Company.

The Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Clifford Unser, 309 1/2 North Second street.

Fancy cauliflower, celery, sweet peppers, Jersey sweet potatoes, rutabagas, Spanish onions and many other fresh vegetables. Culley's store.

"The Rose in the Dust," a stirring chapter of the "Diamond From the Sky." See this chapter if you never see another one; today, Colonial.

Mrs. C. E. Sharer and daughter Mabel, of Montezuma, returned home Tuesday evening after visiting here with the former's son, Bert Sharer.

Another of the famous sauer kraut dinners given by the Ladies' Aid society of the German Evangelical church was patronized largely at the church Tuesday evening. The ladies did well with the supper, which was greatly enjoyed by the patrons.

Mrs. C. W. Jennings, of Okene, Okla., who has been visiting her brother, Henry Nelson, at Liscomb, went Tuesday evening to Boone to visit her sister, Gladys Nelson. Miss Nelson came as far as this city to meet her.

Mrs. Jennings also visited here with an uncle, H. W. Nelson.

Twenty members of the Royal Neighbors' Aid society were entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mesdames J. W. Melton and Frank Crone and Miss Irene Melton at the former's home at 510 Lee street. Sewing occupied the afternoon while the guests visited. The hostesses served refreshments.

At a joint meeting of Marshall lodge of Rebekahs, No. 40, and Banner lodge of Odd Fellows, held in the Odd Fellows' hall Tuesday night, the Rebekahs presented the Odd Fellows with a handsome American flag 6x10 feet in size. The flag will be used in the lodge work and for decorative purposes. A social evening was enjoyed after the presentation.

Word received from Riverton announcing the death there this morning of Albert Shoemaker, a brother-in-law of W. P. Mausby and Mrs. A. L. Cotton. Mr. Shoemaker's death was due to heart disease. He was 79 years old last month. Mr. Shoemaker had been married twice, both wives being sisters of Mr. Mausby and Mrs. Cotton. Mr. and Mrs. Mausby and Mr. and Mrs. Cotton will leave for Riverton Thursday to attend the funeral.

Twenty-five members of the Busy Bee Circle of L. O. T. M. enjoyed a progressive dinner Tuesday evening, the first course being served at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. W. A. Talbot, 104 Marion street. The party then went to the home of Mrs. George L. Nason, 514 North First avenue, where they were served the second course. The third course was enjoyed at the home of Mrs. George Pepper, and the dessert was served by Mrs. Claude Whitner, 3 East Grant street. The remainder of the evening was spent socially at the Whitney home and a short business session was held.

Dr. Graham, osteopath, Masonic temple

J. L. Carney went Monday evening to Clarion on business.

The aid society of the Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at the church.

Potatoes, 55 cents a bushel, in five bushel or more, lots. Batesole's grocery, 20 North First avenue.

"The Rose in the Dust," a stirring chapter of the "Diamond From the Sky." See this chapter if you never see another one; today, Colonial.

The aid society of the Elm Lutheran church will be entertained by Mrs. O. Involstad in the Church parlors Friday instead of Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. E. W. Adams, 207 West Boone street, entertained Tuesday the members of the Wisteria Club. A pleasant afternoon was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A quarantine for diphtheria has been placed on the home of C. H. McMurray, 210 1/2 North Sixth street, on account of the illness of Mary Ellen McMurray, aged 5. The little girl is improving steadily.

Rev. G. Krueger, a German Evangelical missionary from China, was in the city Tuesday visiting Rev. Karl Rest. He went Tuesday evening to Eldora. Mr. Krueger is in this country on a year's leave of absence. He has been in the southern part of China for the past eighteen years.

A pleasant afternoon was spent by members of the O. E. S. Circle who were entertained Tuesday in the Masonic parlors by Mesdames J. W. Stewart, G. A. Smith, Rachel Eley, W. D. Culley, O. B. Waters, and Flora Stone. At the close of the business the members visited and sewed on their fancy work. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The Entre Nous Club members were entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. J. B. Simmons, 306 North Third street. The subject of Greek history was led by Mrs. Simmons, and talks were given by Mesdames R. E. Sears, George Whitton, and Elizabeth Lawrence. The study of Greek history was taken up preparatory to the study of "Troy," which will comprise this year's work of the club.

Funeral services for Inez Finkle were largely attended from the home, 308 South Fourth avenue, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. C. G. Zeller officiated. The pall bearers were Misses Inez Geler, Minnie Edwards, and Mildred and Alice Leaf. The flower bearers were Mildred Langdon, Mrs. Neertham Isahel, and Lucinda Riley. Burial was in Riverside. In attendance at the funeral from out of the city were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mulnix, of Shellsburg, Mrs. Finkle's parents, and also her sister, Mrs. Fred Beard, of Benton.

BATESOLE LOWERS PRICE SUGAR.

Only $4.44 a Hundred For Sugar—$2.35 For Fifty Pounds, at Batesole's.

The Batesole grocery, 20 North First avenue, again lowers the price of sugar, offering one hundred pounds for $4.44, with a cash grocery order of $10.00, and with every cash grocery order of $5.00 you can buy fifty pounds of sugar for $2.35. Also, with every $2.50 cash grocery order you can buy twenty-five pounds of sugar for $1.20.

A sack of guaranteed flour for $1.00, with each $1.00 cash grocery order, and sugar up to $1.00 is included in this offer.

You will find a great saving at the end of the month, if you will make your grocery purchases from the Batesole grocery. Batesole's.

GIRL SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Miss Vesta Hollingsworth Badly Hurt in Auto Accident.

Miss Vesta Hollingsworth, 205 East Webster street, who was injured in an auto accident Sunday near Grundy Center, was brought to the Deaconess hospital this morning, where it was found that she had sustained a fracture of the pelvis on the right side. Her condition is serious.

Miss Hollingsworth was with a party of six, and was the most seriously injured. She was taken to a farm home near Grundy Center, but became worse and was brought to the hospital today. It is not known yet whether an operation will be necessary, as the exact extent of the internal injuries has not been determined.

You will find a great saving at the end of the month, if you will make your grocery purchases from the Batesole grocery. Batesole's.

GIRL SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Miss Vesta Hollingsworth Badly Hurt in Auto Accident.

Miss Vesta Hollingsworth, 205 East Webster street, who was injured in an auto accident Sunday near Grundy Center, was brought to the Deaconess hospital this morning, where it was found that she had sustained a fracture of the pelvis on the right side. Her condition is serious.

Miss Hollingsworth was with a party of six, and was the most seriously injured. She was taken to a farm home near Grundy Center, but became worse and was brought to the hospital today. It is not known yet whether an operation will be necessary, as the exact extent of the internal injuries has not been determined.

You will find a great saving at the end of the month, if you will make your grocery purchases from the Batesole grocery. Batesole's.

GIRL SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Miss Vesta Hollingsworth Badly Hurt in Auto Accident.

Miss Vesta Hollingsworth, 205 East Webster street, who was injured in an auto accident Sunday near Grundy Center, was brought to the Deaconess hospital this morning, where it was found that she had sustained a fracture of the pelvis on the right side. Her condition is serious.

Miss Hollingsworth was with a party of six, and was the most seriously injured. She was taken to a farm home near Grundy Center, but became worse and was brought to the hospital today. It is not known yet whether an operation will be necessary, as the exact extent of the internal injuries has not been determined.

You will find a great saving at the end of the month, if you will make your grocery purchases from the Batesole grocery. Bates