EPIDEMIC OF CRIME IN CEDAR RAPIDS DURING MILITARY TOURNAMENT.

NEGRESS SERIOUSLY WOUND TURK DURING HOLD-UP

Wields Knife When Victim Seeks to Get His Money After Having Pockets Picked—Vinton Man Assaulted by Two Strangers and Robbed of Purse Containing $75.

Special to Times-Republican.

Cedar Rapids, Oct. 15.—An epidemic of crime broke here during the military tournament just closed. Following the robbery of a visitor on Wednesday night by two negroes, two more hold-ups were pulled off last night.

With his left arm gashed to the bone to five places and with blood dripping to the sidewalk with every step he took, Henry Rezy, a Turk, who has been employed as second cook at the Montrose hotel for some time, was taken to the police station at 11:15 Wednesday night, the victim of an attempted hold-up.

Rezy, who has been a resident of this city for twelve years, was on his homeward way late Wednesday evening after the close of his day's work. As he approached the corner of Second avenue and Sixth street a woman's figure stepped out from the shadows and stopped him requesting the time of night. Looking closely at his questioner Rezy discovered that she was a negro.

But the negro was not satisfied with a simple matter of minutes and seconds. She had other reasons for engaging in conversation. More questions followed as to what Rezy's name was, where he roomed and what he did for a living. Becoming suspicious of the woman he pulled away from her and started for his room. But she followed and at the door of his rooming house the pair stopped again. The negro wished to accompany the Turk to his room but he was firm in his refusal to admit her to the house. Finally she left him and started down Second avenue toward Sixth street. It was then that Rezy reached in his pocket to find his purse containing $80 missing.

He immediately started in pursuit and overtaking her, demanded his pocketbook. She insisted that he was wrong that she had not touched his money but her declarations did not fool the victim. He continued to walk with her and finally the pair clinched and the negro, drawing a knife from her clothing, stabbed Rezy repeatedly in the left arm. Even then he did not give up his attempt to recover his belongings. The pair kept up their squabbling, walking in the meantime, up and down Second avenue. Finally the woman admitted that she had taken his money and offered to return with him and show him just where she had dropped the pocketbook. It was found at the door of his rooming place but no money was within.

Officer Meets Pair. During the progress of the fight, which ranged up and down Second avenue, a woman who had witnessed the melee from her home, had telephoned to the police station and an officer had been sent out to pick up the combatants. He went to the place where they had been first seen but they were no longer in sight. While returning to headquarters he discovered them with Rezy still hanging to the woman and demanding his money. They were taken at once to the station.

Bills Found Behind Wall. Officers were sent to the scene of the fray and with them went Rezy. He told again in detail the happenings of the evening. With flashlights the officers went over every inch of the battle ground but not a trace of the missing money nor the knife could be found. It then occurred to Sergeant Kramer that perhaps the negro had had an opportunity to hide the roll of bills. Rezy led them to the place, which was in front of the Shaver home, at 603 Second avenue. Here a retaining wall of stone stands against which the negro was leaning for a time. Behind the wall, rolled into a ball, was found the missing $80, the bills stained with the blood of their owner.

Turk Badly Injured. Rezy was at once placed under the care of a physician. His wounds were sewed up and he was taken home for the night. The negro had a slight cut on her right hand which doubtless came from the knife she was so viciously wielding.

Tipton Man Attacked. Coming to Cedar Rapids with the intention of viewing his son in the national guard maneuvers of the past two days, Jeff Myers, of Tipton, met misfortune Wednesday night when he was badly beaten up and robbed of $75 in bills.

Myers, who has been staying at the Lincoln hotel, has a number of relatives in the city and desiring to visit with them, started out to find where they live. Being but poorly acquainted with the town he was forced to seek aid in locating the address, and meeting with a young stranger, asked him to point out the way.

The stranger, who seemed to know all about the town, offered to take Myers directly to the house he wished to find. Accordingly the pair started from the Lincoln hotel and at the door were met by a third man, a friend of the stranger.

When the trio had gotten as far as Eighth avenue and Eighth street, trouble started. The two men set upon Myers, beat him up and took from his pocket the roll of bills, $75 in all.

LAUNDRYMEN FORECAST DOOMS STRIPES AND DOTS

Dye Scarcity Cause of Predicted Change in Styles—No More of Old Fast Colors, Because of War Ending Exports of Dyestuffs From Germany —To Boost Association.

Davenport, Oct. 15.—The fall of the last colored shirt in the state of Iowa, flapping gayly in the breeze of a Monday morning six months hence, was clearly discerned by the prophetic trade eye of W. E. Fitch, secretary of the Laundrymen's National association, as he looked into the distant future at the Blackhawk hotel, where the Iowa Laundrymen were winding up their two-day convention.

This peep into the days to come cast an anxious look over the countenance of Mr. Fitch. He saw much trouble ahead. He saw the time coming, four months distant, when the first colored shirt made with the substitute dyes of America would appear in the Iowa clothing store windows, be sold to the Iowa businessman, be worn two or three days, be sent to an honest and painstaking laundryman but come out of the wash with all its pristine glory vanished.

Then he saw an angry Iowa business man refusing to pay a bill rendered by an honest and painstaking laundryman and endless haggling over "that beautiful colored shirt" so Mr. Fitch told the laundrymen to forestall criticism and begin a state-wide agitation for the wearing of the spotless and colorless white shirt.

It was in the last days of last February that the last shipment of fast colors arrived in the United States from Germany, said Mr. Fitch. The shirt manufacturers have about used them all up and are now coloring their fabrics with the pigment dyes of the United States, which are strictly no. 3. They faint at the site of water, lose their individuality and permit a hasty retreat from the shirt front into the bluing and the soap suds.

The old reliable fast colors simply can't be made in this country and none of the shirt manufacturers have a supply on hand. And there will be no supply and no inquiry no more of old reliable colored shirts until the war shall have ended. In such a manner did Mr. Fitch read the hand of destiny hovering over the laundry business.

To Extend Business. Most important of the resolutions passed by the convention was one recommending that no agency be established in a town where there is a laundry and the proprietor of it is a member of the Iowa association. This will prevent the big laundryman from eating up the little laundryman. It is in line with a development of the laundry trade by express, one of the big developments of recent years in the Iowa trade.

To go thruout the state of Iowa and secure as many new members as possible and to look into this agency, said the Iowa laundrymen commissioned President Erwin of Cedar Rapids, and to pay the expenses of his trips $131 was raised by popular subscription yesterday. More is to be raised by mail.

SALTS OF LEMON AND GRAPES STOP PAIN IN KIDNEYS. SAYS BACKACHE IS SURE SIGN YOU HAVE BEEN EATING TOO MUCH MEAT.

SALTS BEST TO CLEAN KIDNEYS AND OVERCOME ANY BLADDER IRRITATION.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get excited and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so you can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Dr. John A. Waterhouse can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in uric acid; so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

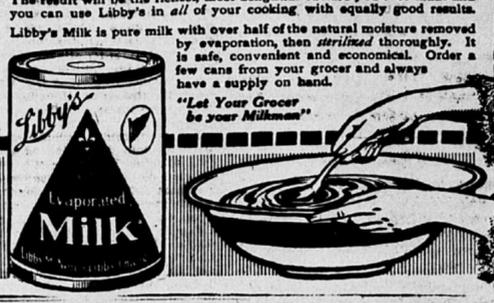

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. A Paris report says that the Prince of Wales, eldest son of King George and Queen Mary, is suffering from a bullet wound in the arm, inflicted by a French corporal, who was jealous of his wife. The story goes that the woman was an attendant at an inn frequented by the prince and other British and French officers, and that the corporal shot the prince and then turned his weapon upon himself when he saw his wife walking upon the officers. The corporal was badly wounded, but the prince, who is exonerated from blame in the matter, was only slightly hurt. Edward Albert, Prince of Wales, was born in 1894.
