Disgusting

Catarrh Victims Fearfully Nauseating to Those Who Are Near Them.

The Positive Cure For Catarrh is the Gausss Treatment—A Free Trial to Prove It is Sent to—Who Write For It.

"You Are Sentenced to Deportation—Society Cannot Put Up With Your Filthy Catarrh Habits Any Longer."

That is what most people would like to say to the man or woman who suffers from this abominable disease. It is not because society does not pity the poor victims, for it does, but because disgust is so much stronger than pity that it outweighs it.

Of course the poor victim can not help the catarrhal practices that so nauseate everybody else—they are part of the disease from which he suffers—but it is simply impossible for the average healthy man or woman to overcome the disgust that he or she feels at having to witness such unspeakable exhibitions of unclean friend-ship nor love can rise superior to these sights, sounds and odors, that revolt in spite of all attempts to check the revulsion. The victim becomes a social outcast, despite all his or her good qualities, simply because it is a trial to everyone else to have him or her in the vicinity.

Much may be borne for the sake of politeness and from a feeling of pity, but seldom indeed does one leave the presence of a catarrhal unfortunate without heaving a sigh of relief at being again in the pure, sweet, undefiled air, away from obnoxious breath odors, and out of sight of those symptomatic habits that turn the stomach.

Most pitiful of all the fact that so many of these catarrh victims do not recognize that they are objects of disgust to all around them. They do not smell their own breaths and do not, therefore, know how offensive they are. No one tells them, because no one wants to hurt their feelings. The catarrhal person doesn't notice his own acts in clearing his throat, blowing his nose and spitting, because he is so accustomed to these things, and they are so necessary to him that he pays no more attention to them than he does his breathing. Everybody else notices them, though, and everybody else wishes they didn't have to notice them.

The catarrhal practices, both pitiful and disgusting, are enough to make even the members of one's own family breathe a sigh of relief when the door closes after the victim.

Love itself wavers and disgust forbids the kiss. And out of regard for the afflicted one, little mention of his pollution is ever made to his face, and he must rely on his own misery and such plain talk as is contained in this page to reach him and to cure him. There is cure for this pestilence within the reach of every one. It was not always so. Catarrh has raged fiercely thru the years like a firebrand, and in the eagerness to quench it, many useless things were given out as cures, but it remains now after the slow process of extermination and discovery, to offer the positive, real cure, which has been born of ceaseless searching and common sense.

Thousands Praise Gausss.

This is Gausss' combined Treatment for Catarrh. The story is told over and over again a thousand times of the lost birthright, to health restored, of the happiness caused, of the release from a degrading pestilence and of hope and comfort and sleep returned by the use of this wonderful, simple Gausss treatment. It must be true. There are heart-stories from all over the land that bubble up from gratitude. They tell, as nothing else can, the misery in which catarrh plunges, the danger it brings, the deaths it causes, and then again there are other pictures painted in these letters of happiness and health redeemed, lost energy restored and ambition reclaimed.

Confessions of a Catarrh Victim

Some of the Experiences That Catarrh Forces Upon Its Slaves.

I get boiling mad when people tell me I've got catarrh. I've had dozens of mere acquaintances, and especially one young lady, who have come up and ventured to tell me something "for my own benefit." That expression begins to pall on me—"for my own benefit." It seems they all want to tell me the same thing—"You ought to take something for your catarrh." I'll tell you how my cousin got cured, and every doctor used to say he had the worst case he ever heard about."

Now, when a friend puts his hand on my shoulder, I gulp in preparation for catarrh. This gulp is not mere throat action, but the swallowing of mucus. Nothing would suit me better than to have the earth open and swallow me up.

I walk along the street close to the curbstone. When I ride in a car, I stand on the rear platform rather than sit down inside.

I wish I could talk without having to open my mouth to breathe. I wish that kisses were obsolete. I wish that handkerchiefs could be turned into sheets. I wish that no chair but mine would be placed at the table. I wish that other people were deaf, blind and without noses.

I wish that I were alone, always alone, to hawk and spit when and where I please. I wish that I was my mother's little fairy once more, with my little tousled head that knew not disease lying on her warm shoulder.

Now I feel that I am an outcast. I know what they think of me, everyone. I know my friends shun me, for even Jack, my old college chum, doesn't come around and chat and smoke any more as he used to do. My acquaintances only say hello, and pass by. Mrs. Grundy next door and all the other neighbors are talking about how repulsive I am. I see it in the way they look and act. People I sit next to get up and move somewhere else. People who talk to me turn their heads at an angle. And I'm in pain. It is not alone physical pain. It's my mind, too, that is in agony.

Trained Nurses Strongly Recommend Gausss' Catarrh Cure to All Sufferers.

I can't remember things as I used to. Thoughts slip away from me. I say things I don't mean, and mean things I don't say.

My head is thick and my brain is in a fog.

I walk alone, my work palls on me, my nerves refuse me, that let-her-go feeling has got me. I relish nothing I eat, and my appetite is gone. And as I think of my misery I must hawk again. My cough is a rattle. The ruby has been plucked from my cheeks, the flush of my young health is gone. My head is in a fever, but my hands are cold, and I seem to feel in them the approaching chill of the tomb—I have read of catarrh death, and my mother's brother died of the same disease. Come on, death, and relieve me.

No, my mother comes. Who, Gausss, do you say, Mother? Do you think so? I'll try, Mother. Yes, you send for the treatment; I'll use it faithfully. I won't let it go a single day without using it. They prove it in every case, do you say? All right, send on the coupon today. Perhaps, after all, there is a cure, and still one person in the world to live for, one who will love you in spite of the catarrh, your mother.

Gausss' Catarrh Treatment is the simplest and surest in the world. It cures catarrh on a common sense plan, and Gausss proves it. Cut out the coupon below and mail it today, and get a free package of the Gausss treatment and prove to your own satisfaction that it will cure you. Whether you have catarrh slightly or seriously—it may be the means of brightening your life, now overshadowed by catarrh. Send coupon to C. E. Gausss, 7996 Main St., Marshalltown, Mich.

Catarrh Everywhere, Even on Pike's Peak

No Man or Place is Immune From the Deadly Catarrh Germ.

There is no part of the land which is free from catarrh. Altitudes and latitudes have little effect in destroying the omnipresent germ. Many imagine that the climate of the West, with its high altitudes and dry atmosphere, tends to prevent catarrh. There are just as many cases, in proportion to the population, west as east of the Mississippi, only the disease is not so severe because of the climatic effect upon the nerves.

"Happy Together One More! Mr. Gausss Has Cured My Catarrh."

Even on Pike's Peak, which is over 14,000 feet above sea level, catarrh seemed to attack several of the attaches of the signal station located there some years ago.

No place is exempt, no human soul is immune from catarrh. Don't imagine because you don't live by a lake or river that you can't have catarrh, or that you have only a chronic cold when your nose has been stopped up for some time. That is usually the way catarrh starts—with a bad cold.

Better spend a few days destroying the catarrh germ right from the start, than waiting and putting off until you feel droppings in your throat and your nose clogged up.

The Gausss Combined Treatment will stop it and avoid for you years of future misery. Cut out the coupon below, if you have even a slight cold or a touch of catarrh, and send it to C. E. Gausss, who will send you a free package of the wonderful Gausss treatment, so as to prove to yourself its great power.

It costs you nothing. Address coupon to C. E. Gausss, 7996 Main Street, Marshalltown, Mich.

"If I Had My Life to Live Over."

We can point to hundreds of cases of catarrh that have dragged their bleak-eyed, nose-dripping, half-dead victims through fifteen and twenty years of misery. It all started with one little germ. Just one of Gausss' Catarrh Treatments for a little while would have killed off Mr. Germ and reclaimed to health and happiness in short order some of the world's best women and best men, who now dodder about in blank, diseased old age, or fill some cold graves—food for thought. Think of yourself at 40 or 50 or 60, clutched by catarrh. If you only had your nose blown over! The cost stamp would blot out all the misery.

It is not too late. Cut out the coupon below, fill in your name and address and take courage. Do it willingly and with hope. Mail it to C. E. Gausss, 7996 Main Street, Marshalltown, Michigan, and you will get by return mail a free package of Gausss' Catarrh Treatment to prove that it will cure you.

Sniffer Chased Out of Meeting

Enraged Audience Roughly Handles Sniffer Who Disrupts Meeting.

San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 19.—During a public primary meeting here today, a middle-aged man in the audience, who was fumbling a rolled-up handkerchief in his hand and persistently sniffing and pulling his nose during the delivery of a speech, was forcibly ejected from the assembly hall. Cries of "Kick him out" and "Choke the lobster" interrupted the proceedings, and finally resulted in a grand rush for the nose-puller by some of the enraged hearers. He was grabbed by the coat collar and unceremoniously and swiftly moved toward the door.

When the man first sat down and began loudly tearing out a throat-hawk, the audience shifted uneasily. After continuing the draw-rattle of his catarrh through one of the most stirring parts of the speech the audience gave vent to its feelings. He was roughly handled on the way out, and sustained several severe bruises. He was taken to the county hospital.

It is such occurrences as these which show the danger of catarrh. Do not let it get of its race. He can't help but show his disease. If this man had simply spent a few moments in time to send to C. E. Gausss for a package of the wonderful Gausss Catarrh Treatment, he never would have suffered such an indignity as being kicked out of a public meeting.

Some Results of Catarrh

Even Slight Cases of Catarrh Have Terrible Consequences.

Every case of catarrh, of course, is not fatal. Nor does every case result in consumption or bronchitis, but nevertheless they are very frequent. No man or woman knows what his or her case of catarrh will lead to. Men of robust health have succumbed to resulting consumption and partial idiocy. Women of strong vitality have become nervous wrecks and victims of bronchitis. Your good health is a preventive against the catarrh germs.

The more you feel sure there is no danger of the catarrh resulting in a disease more serious, the more danger there is; simply because you neglect yourself. This happens in hundreds of cases and we see it recorded almost daily in the letters we receive. "If I had only started earlier," is a very frequent expression, showing that our warning is not fanciful, but based on actual reality.

Even slight cases of catarrh may result in nose cancer, than which there is hardly a more pitiful affliction in this world.

Catarrh Fatally Frequent.

Some of the frequent results of catarrh are bronchitis, pneumonia, death and decay of bones, loss of thinking and reasoning power, death in ambition and energy, loss of appetite, indigestion, dyspepsia, ulceration, bad breath, raw throat, raw sores in the nose, general debility, and sometimes idiocy and insanity.

This is why in the death list you do not find a mention of fatal catarrh; the death is caused not directly by the catarrh itself, but a disease which was caused by catarrh. Medical books and encyclopedias will tell you even more serious news than we tell you here; probably after reading them you will have a full realization of what it is to have catarrh—a common disease, it is true, but with a common result—misery for years if not death.

Cure Is Certain.

You can cure that catarrh, slight or serious, once and forever by means of Gausss' Combined Treatment. We don't ask you to believe it before proving it yourself. Therefore we send you a treatment at our own expense, absolutely free to you. When you get it, you can prove it all to your own satisfaction. It is without question the greatest catarrh cure on earth. Cut out the coupon and send for the free treatment today to C. E. Gausss, 7996 Main St., Marshalltown, Mich. When you see your catarrh begin to leave you, you will appreciate what it is to have a real, genuine cure for catarrh that can be relied on. Send the coupon.

Catarrh Often Causes Consumption, General Debility, Idiocy and Insanity.

In the Coils from Childhood

I have suffered with catarrh since I was 4 years old, but it has annoyed me more in the last two years.

I tried everything I read or heard of, but they did me no good and I saw your advertisement in a paper and I wrote to you and received a sample package. I was impressed so favorably with the sample that I immediately sent for the full treatment.

I suffered much with the drooping back into my throat and after I had taken the medicine for three or four weeks this nasty sensation entirely ceased, and I have never had any return of it. I am now fully cured of my catarrh, and am very grateful to you and your medicine.

I will be very glad to tell any one whom I think needs it and if you wish to use my name you may do so, as I am so grateful that I wish everybody who needs it would use it, and I am sure that it will cure them. Miss Marie Drullinger, Birdsall street, South Bend, Ind.

Catarrh Kills Thinking Power

Gradual Clouding of the Brain and Loss of Memory Inevitable Result

Catarrh anywhere in the head or throat or ears is right next to the brain. The catarrh germ grows fast, does an enormous amount of damage in its burrowing into the bone and flesh and is sufficient to destroy. There are thousands of little nerves that run from all parts of the face and head into the brain. Some of these little nerves have to pass thru probably a mass of catarrhal inflammation on the road to the brain. When they do they are weakened and some are destroyed.

What affects the nerves is bound to affect the brain, and when the nerves are weakened by constant catarrhal discharges there is bound to be a certain torpor or stupidity brought about in the brain of the victim. Thus follows sleeplessness, inability to think clearly, or connect ideas, loss of memory, lack of concentration, lack of presence of mind, and a wandering thought.

When it takes such a comparatively short time to cure this terrible disease by the Gausss common-sense treatment, and regain the flash and brilliancy of the normal brain, there is no good reason why one should not spend the two or three minutes it takes to cut out the coupon below and send it to C. E. Gausss, and have him prove to you that he is right, and that he positively cures catarrh. The coupon below mailed now will bring you back by return mail a package of the wonderful Gausss treatment, it costs you absolutely nothing. Send the coupon today to C. E. Gausss, 7996 Main Street, Marshalltown, Mich.

Catarrh Terribly Embarrassing

This is Especially True at Meals, When the Uncontrollable Habits of Catarrh Often Chase Away the Appetites of All at Table.

Catarrhals Are Unwelcome Guests.

The sufferer from catarrh either leads a life of continual embarrassment and shame over his (or her) unavoidable habits, or else is so unmindful of the opinion of others as to not care how much they are annoyed or sickened.

At the table, at mealtime, when everybody is gathered about the board with sharp appetites and pleasant anticipations of the good things to come, the catarrh victim is suddenly taken with the desire (or rather, the necessity) of raising mucus. There is a scramble for his trusty handkerchief, a quick turn up of his head, a struggle to suppress the nauseating spectacle, and then—! But why detail the thing? In a nutshell, the meal is spoiled for everyone and nausea has replaced appetite as disgust has replaced antici-

The poor catarrh victim feels ready to sink thru the floor at each repetition of these mortifying, degrading scenes. He feels like a leper—like one who has no business to associate with clean, normal people. It is awful.

If you have nerves, or you believe other people have any, you will just stop and look at yourself as you are, and before other people move away from you when they see you coming, you ought to run away from them. Go somewhere, anywhere, just to be alone, and take this page with you, cut out the coupon, and send it to C. E. Gausss, 7996 Main Street, Marshalltown, Mich.

How to Judge Man's Honesty

The Man Who Lets You "See For Yourself" is Usually Honest.

Men, as a rule, are first discovered by their enemies. The antagonists turn on the searchlight, and the proof of merit will depend on being able to stand the glare. There are always men who aim to tear down every good thing, and there have been men who set out to ridicule the Gausss Catarrh Treatment and figuratively tear it into shreds. They turned on the glare and dissected it. They expected to find mere dress, and found gold. So Gausss has been discovered by his enemies.

But regardless of all this, if a man will "show the goods" he has, willingly and openly, and let his patients prove first to themselves by their own senses the value of what he offers them instead of expecting them to take his word for it—there must be something of value in his "goods," and it must show his intentions to be honest.

Every catarrh victim should make a test of the great Gausss Catarrh Treatment. It is free. All you have to do is to spend a minute or two cutting out the coupon below, filling in with your name and address, and send it on to C. E. Gausss, 7996 Main Street, Marshalltown, Mich. You will get back a package of the Gausss Catarrh Treatment in plain wrapper and under seal, with full information and instructions. It costs you nothing, and you put yourself under no obligation whatever.

Use it according to instructions; don't expect too much of the treatment you get, and it will prove to you that the worst case of catarrh can be cured, and that the Gausss Catarrh Treatment can do it.
