

FAVORS BOND ISSUE FOR BETTER ROADS

NEW COMMISSION GOES ON RECORD IN FAVOR OF NEW REVENUE PLAN.

FINANCE ROAD BUILDING LIKE COURT HOUSES

Commission Reaches Conclusion That Present Road and Bridge Taxes Are Sufficient in Main to Build Hard-Surfaced Highways Under Economical Construction—Would Pay on Installation Plan.

Des Moines, Nov. 24.—The better roads commission appointed by Governor Clarke to gather information as to road improvement and report a plan for Iowa went on record at its meeting in this city Tuesday in favor of anticipating road and bridge revenues by the issue of county bonds the same as is done for the building of court houses. After considering a report of its sub-committee it was the belief of the commission that present road and bridge taxes are sufficient in the main to build hard-surfaced roads if made available for the most economical construction. Paying for roads on the installment plan rather than building them by installments seemed to be the method used in all states that have surfaced their roads. As a result of its meeting the commission gave out the following statement:

"The better roads commission spent the entire day discussing reports from its special committee upon the problem of anticipating road and bridge revenues in townships and counties for the most economical construction. It appeared that, if the state was not to utilize its superior credit by loaning it to the localities which should vote for improved roads, the lowest rates of interest could be obtained by issuing the direct obligations of the counties. "It was agreed that whether or not special districts or townships or the counties at large should undertake road construction, all revenues should be anticipated by the state, county, township and cities, and the counties repaid by such distributions of taxes as the law may provide.

"It is the intention of the commission to gather information as to the most equitable distribution of taxes as between the state, county, township and private property, and if possible, recommend a plan for the consideration of the next legislature."

State Bonds Eventually. While the commission had gone on record at its previous meeting in favor of the people of each locality deciding for themselves what kind of roads they would build the commission will consider at its future meetings the possibility of utilizing the state's superior credit in financing road work. The state of Iowa could sell state bonds at 3 1/2 to 4 per cent while county bonds must pay from 4 1/2 to 5 per cent and district bonds would have to carry 5 to 6 per cent interest. If the state could obtain money at the low rate and loan it to the counties the saving in the interest charges would pay off the debt within the life of the higher types of construction and the counties would thus never have to pay for their roads other than the interest and up-keep. The people of the state would have to vote the necessary authority and there is some doubt as to whether the people of Iowa are ready for this plan. At the thirteen states are now utilizing their state credit for road work. If it could be accomplished the commission would look upon it with favor for it would not require the state to build a road but would merely save for the locality enormous sums by reducing the interest charge.

Farm Editors Heard. H. C. Wallace, editor of Wallace's Farmer, and Mr. Atkinson, editor of the Homestead, appeared before the commission by invitation to express their views as to what should be done. They believed that public sentiment was rapidly moving toward a demand for better roads but counseled a conservative course until our people are ready for the best. As Mr. Atkinson put it, "We must have in this state some day, roads which will not stop 150,000 automobiles and make them dangerous to life and limb at every shower."

The commission will meet again in this city on Dec. 21.

HANLEY ESTATE SETTLED.

Iowa Court Holds Heirs in Ireland Can Not Participate. Des Moines, Nov. 24.—After nearly three years of litigation final disposition of the Hanley estate, valued at several hundred thousand dollars, has been made in district court.

Judge Hubert Utterback, upon the agreement of attorneys, awarded a half interest in the estate to Tibertus, Aloysius and Alphonse Keyes. Several members of the Banks family and Mary Keyes Lynch of Limerick, Ireland, all of whom presented rival claims, failed to establish themselves as lawful heirs. Aloysius Keyes, who is entitled to several thousand dollars, has disappeared and has been declared legally dead.

The Hanley brothers, George and James, were killed in an auto wreck in Illinois three years ago. They were reputed immensely wealthy and owned 2,000 acres of valuable land near Granger.

With no direct heirs to claim the estate, heirs on the mother's side have been waiting legal battle for the remainder of the estate in district court for the past two days. Mrs. Lynch of Ireland, claimed to be a first cousin of the Hanley boys' mother. Members of the Banks family claimed cousinship by half-blood.

The original claim was made that the late Michael Keyes, a Des Moines cobbler, was a brother of the Hanleys' mother, and that his three sons were therefore entitled to a half share in the estate. Mrs. Lynch and the Banks family denied the Keyes relationship.

New Home for Newspaper. Brants to Erect New Building to House Iowa City Times-Republican. Iowa City, Nov. 24.—David Brant and Sons have begun the erection of a new home for their paper, the Daily Republican. It will be a tile-block, public building structure, one story high, 28x30 feet in dimensions, on a leased tract, 30x100, in the heart of the city.

W. C. T. U. Officers Elected. Iowa City, Nov. 24.—At the annual county convention of the W. C. T. U. of Hardin county, held in this city, Mrs. Lucy Shaner was elected president of the county organization for the coming year. Mrs. Daisy Butler, of New Providence, vice president; Mrs. Elva Hunt, of Linn Hill, secretary, and Mrs. Henry Oates, of this city, treasurer. The next convention will be held at New Providence.

Boy Hunter is Wounded. Special to Times-Republican. Fort Linn, Nov. 24.—Herbels Curl, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Curl, was accidentally shot thru the side when out hunting with his friend, Albert Alcott. Alcott was showing Curl how to use the one gun they had between them and which they were to use to hunt for a rabbit. The wound will be serious but not yet determined. Physicians operated to extract the bullet yesterday afternoon.

Robber Suspects Discharged. Special to Times-Republican. Iowa City, Nov. 24.—Three alleged bank robbers, Ray Martin, J. B. Williams and John (Brooklyn Red) Murphy, were discharged this morning after a preliminary hearing in the Iowa county court at Marengo. They were accused of complicity in the Farnell Savings Bank robbery. The evidence was insufficient to convict. Murphy was rearrested and will be taken to Centerville on a gambling charge.

CRASH HURTS TWELVE

SWITCH ENGINE HITS STREET CAR AT CROSSING IN OUTSKIRTS OF WATERLOO.

THREE OF PASSENGERS SEVERELY INJURED

Car Almost Demolished and Flying Glass Inflicts Severe Hurts to Members of Car Crew and Passengers—Accident in Yards of Illinois Central—Other Iowa Mishaps.

Waterloo, Nov. 24.—As a local street car, bound toward town, was crossing a series of tracks in the Illinois Central freight yards this morning, a switch engine collided with it, injuring twelve persons, three seriously. The car was badly demolished. All windows were broken and the injuries were mainly from flying glass. Among the more seriously injured were Mortimer Renslow, Conductor Drilling, Clifford Pratt, H. G. Conrad and Mrs. Burg.

QUARREL ENDS IN MURDER.

Foreigner Shoots and Kills Companion and Makes Escape. Boone, Nov. 24.—A. T. Sosa, 23 years old, a laborer employed at the new epileptic colony at Woodward, was shot and killed by a fellow workman late yesterday afternoon following a quarrel. Both men were foreigners.

Joe Barber, who is believed to have committed the crime, fled after the killing and still is at large. G. H. Ross, sheriff of Dallas county, and a large force of men are scattered over the entire vicinity surrounding Woodward, looking for the assassin. Ross sent to Marshalltown for bloodhounds, which will be put on the trail.

Sosa was shot three times, twice in the back and once in the left arm and died within a few minutes. The weapon was a revolver.

Masons to Erect Temple. Consistory of Iowa Plans to Build Home Costing $300,000. Des Moines, Nov. 24.—Members of the consistory of Scottish Rite Masons—and there are over 1,500 of them in Iowa—are planning the erection of a three-story temple at Fourteenth and High streets to cost $300,000, or $100,000 more than the handsome temple in Omaha for Nebraska masons, and the final action on plans drawn by committees will be acted on at the meeting here Dec. 23. This was decided upon at the important masonic meeting here last week.

It will be Greek cathedral along the lines of structures in northern Europe during the fourteenth century. The Masons own a lot 132 by 20 feet in size and the new home will contain not only an auditorium, but club rooms. When completed—and work is to start in the spring—the building will be one of the finest of its kind in the middle west.

Grinnell and Vicinity. Special to Times-Republican. Grinnell, Nov. 24.—The contract for making new storm sewers and laying new water mains to suit the new conditions made by several miles of additional paving, was given last spring to Bash & Jones. Their work is now completed and the city council accepted the work in both lines and ordered payment in full to be made. In the case of the water mains this was $11,709.93, and on the storm sewer it was $4,505.30.

Monday night was a festive one for the college football conquerors and their close friends and backers. The business men had made preparations for a feast, and a talkfest to follow, at Mears Cottage and everything went off according to schedule. After the bodily feast was over, Toastmaster E. B. Brande called out the speakers and President Main, A. C. Lyon, Fred Little, Lewis Barrett, Captain George Nelson, E. H. Spaulding, Coach McAl-mon, Dr. C. B. Harris, and B. J. Thompson, of Forest City, responded in the usual happy vein of such occasions. Dr. Gershom Hill, of Des Moines, had procured pennants for the winning team and they were presented by Dr. C. E. Harris. Two special prizes had been offered by E. B. Brande for the most useful man as a whole on the team and for the second. The first was given to Augustine and the second to MacCleren.

Contractor William Horrabin, of Iowa City, who has the contract for the bitulith paving now being laid in Grinnell, has dismissed his gang of curb and gutter men and they have returned to their homes in Iowa City, as all the work in that line planned for this year is done. Work is still going on in the laying of concrete and top-siding with bitulith masonry and will continue so long as weather conditions will permit.

J. J. Van Evert, of Kansas City, is visiting his mother, Mrs. J. E. Van Evert, and his sister, Mrs. Harry Viera, for a few days while his wife and children are visiting her relatives in Ottumwa.

"America's Reasons For Thanksgiving" will be the topic on which Rev. Edward W. Cross will speak tomorrow morning at the union meeting in the Congregational church of this city. This is Mr. Cross's first Thanksgiving day in Grinnell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Schultz and their two daughters have just changed their residence from Grinnell to Stillwater, Minn.

Mrs. Charles Stickle was removed from the hospital, where she had a very severe operation, to her home.

D. A. Laros, of the manufacturing firm of D. A. Laros & Sons, has just started for Pasadena, Cal., where he expects to remain for the winter. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Helen.

Traer News Notes. Special to Times-Republican. Traer, Nov. 24.—Sam and Vern Martin, just east of Crystal, have lost nearly a dozen hogs, nearly 100.

Miss Lucetta Owen, who returned recently from Washington, will teach the home school this winter.

Mrs. Tom Lally has returned from Milton, Wis., where she spent some weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Denny Davis.

Tom Pearson and wife, south of town, have a new son.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drahos mourn the death of a baby daughter. Owing to the death of his wife Henry Snow has decided to give up expecting further than live alone. He will make his home with his son, Charles, in Grant township. His household effects were taken out to the farm last week.

The union Thanksgiving service is to be held in the Methodist church this year. Rev. Mr. Cowland, the pastor, will conduct the service at 10 a. m. Harry Gerry is shipping 10,000 pounds of boxed poultry and forty to fifty coops of live poultry out of Belle Plaine every week. He recently has added a refrigerator plant.

B. L. Burbank's mother was stricken with apoplexy while he was at her home in Waverly. At her age, 82 years, her condition remains critical.

Mrs. John Andrews has been appointed substitute mail carrier out of Traer.

The brick work of the new Carnegie library was completed the first of the week. The ladies may well feel proud of their untiring efforts. It is a beautiful building and a great addition to Main street.

Tomorrow's Menu

- And as for the turkey and celery sauce, you should have seen how our host dispensed it.—Thackeray. BREAKFAST. Prunes, Cream and Cream, Broiled Bacon, Coffee. DINNER. Oyster Cocktails, Consomme, Celery, Roast Turkey, Browned Sweet Potatoes, Baked Onions, Cranberry Sauce, Mince Pie, Pumpkin Tarts, Camembert Cheese, Water, Salted Almonds. SUPPER. Cream Cheese Sandwiches, Hot Cocoa, Macedoine of Fruit. Crisps—Beat two eggs thoroughly, add a tablespoonful of melted butter, a cupful of rich milk and sift a teaspoonful of baking powder, half a teaspoonful of salt with flour enough to make a soft dough, and add to the other ingredients. Form into pieces about the size of an English walnut and roll as thin as paper. Bake in quick oven and serve hot with broiled bacon. Roast turkey, home style—A ten-pound turkey is a good size for any but the smallest family. Burn off the hairs and use a brush for washing outside; wash inside with cold salted water. Stuff, truss and place on its side on a rack in the baking pan, after rubbing entire surface with salt and black pepper; also rub breast, wings and legs with a little butter mixed in flour, the two blended together until creamy. Dredge bottom of pan with a little flour, adding half a cupful of cold water to this. Put in hot oven, and when five on the surface begins to brown reduce heat, basting every fifteen minutes with fat in pan. If this cooks away add boiling water as needed. During the cooking turn the turkey so it may brown evenly. If it cooks too fast covers with buttered paper to prevent scorching of the skin. It must be basted frequently and thoroughly to be juicy. Remove the string and skewers before serving, and garnish with celery tips and rings and disks of carrots, boiled and strung on a fine wire. Macedoine of fruit—Cut off the top of a large pineapple, and scoop out the center, leaving the shell intact. Cut all the soft part into dice and add half a cupful of orange and banana cut into dice, and a dozen maraschino cherries and half a cupful of maraschino juice. Sweeten to taste, chill, and serve in the shell.

SEVEN BOYS 13 YEARS OF AGE SCORE HIGH AMONG CORN GROWERS

Des Moines, Nov. 23.—Boys 13 years old are the champion corn growers in seven different counties of Iowa, the list of winners in the corn growing contests conducted under the direction of the state college at Ames reveals. The names of the thirty-nine youngsters who will leave Des Moines next Saturday for a trip to the San Francisco exposition with all expenses paid, for raising the most corn on an acre in their counties were announced Saturday night by J. W. Wooters of the extension department of the college. Thirty-eight counties participated in the corn contests. Woodbury county was divided into two parts, making two prize winners there.

The 13-year-olds who produced record yields from their acres raised from 82.5 to 90.5 bushels each. Boys 14, 15, 16, 17 and 18 years old participated. Wade Hauser, of Hardin county, who is only 16 years old, won the state championship with a production of 150.1 bushels on his acre. Besides the seven who are 13, there were four boys aged 14, eleven aged 15, six aged 16, and seven aged 17, and fourteen aged 18 participating in the contests. Each youth planted and cultivated his own acre, receiving no help whatever. The highest yields in the different counties run from about fifty-two bushels in Worth county to the 150 in Hardin county. Difference in the soil and climate in some of the cases accounts for the difference in yield.

Following are the counties which entered the contest with the name of the winner, his age, and the quantity of corn he produced on his acre: Benton—Arthur Schmidt, 14, 144.9; Black Hawk—Parker Lichty, 15, 78.1; Boone—William Pestotink, 13, 90.5; Buena Vista—Julius Baumann, 15, 75.9; Calhoun—Ray Archer, 14, 117.4; Cherokee—Ely Smith, 18, 124.6; Clinton—John Turner, 13, 100.7; Cerro Gordo—William Lator, 18, 81.5; Clay—Virgil McDowell, 15, 100.0; Decatur—Raymond Hazlett, 13, 68.3; Dickinson—John Pangburn, 13, 98.4; Emmet—Max South, 15, 63.7; Fremont—Virgil Van Ness, 15, 102.5; Floyd—Howard Wright, 16, 80.9; Floyd—Howard Wright, 16, 80.9; Greene—Ralph Teagarden, 18, 85.2; Hardin—Wade Hauser, 17, 151.1; Hamilton—Jordan Larson, 15, 96.9; Harrison—Bernard Smith, 16, 117.4; Humboldt—Charles Christensen, 13, 70.0; Kossuth—Charles P. Miller, 16, 107.9; Marshall—Wayne Robinson, 16, 100.3; Monona—George Lyons, 17, 100.0; Mahaska—Clarence Fowler, 15, 111.7; Polk—William Cole, 17, 111.1; Linn—Archie White, 15, 95.0; Jasper—Frank Guthrie, 16, 67.5; O'Brien—Otto Schuenke, 15, 94.4; Palo Alto—Harvey Sprout, 17, 75.2; Pottawattamie—Ralph Sherwin, 14, 108.8; Plymouth—Clyde Quinn, 17, 111.1; Sioux—Eddie Roghair, 13, 80.1; Story—Louis Lein, 18, 104.3; Union—Erwin Eddy, 18, 82.0; Webster—Earl Blair, 18, 131.9; Woodbury—John Leaverson, 17, 80.2.

South half: Casto Stelek, 15, 62.0; South half: Ernest Larson, 14, 103.6; Winnebago—James Garrison, 17, 78.7; Wayne—William Davis, 13, 62.5. In addition to the foregoing, there will be two more Iowa boys in the championship party which will take in the east without expense to the state, making a group of forty-one in all. The additional two will be a state-wide championship who raises the most corn on an acre in any county outside of those listed above, and the boy who gets the highest award for raising baby beef and baby pork.

NEWS AND COMMENT ON ACTIVITIES AT TAMA INDIAN RESERVATION

[From the Mesquakie Booster.] The office (Indian) in a recent letter, instructed us to withhold all annuity funds and other favors from Indian couples who live together in the future without being legally married. Already funds have been withheld from three couples for this reason, two of whom promise to secure licenses stating that they need the (stone) money. Clean-up day was quite a success this fall. The Indians displaying more interest in this day than ever before. The clean-up work included the day schools and extended to most of the Indian homes. At the same time on the same day employees and patients turned out and devoted the whole day to putting the plant in shape.

One of our pupils, Jessup Bullard, died Oct. 31 after an illness of three months. We feel very much the loss of this boy, believing that his parents had persisted in following the treatment prescribed by Dr. Thompson that recovery would have resulted. Just so long as these Indians have faith in their Indian doctors, just so long will these unnecessary deaths continue to occur. It is hoped that the next congress will enact legislation providing for the punishment of unqualified Indian medicine men.

The superintendent has been requested to send the Indian exhibit at the Tama county fair to the Centerville court course this fall. The exhibit has been dismantled, however, and we shall be unable to grant the request. John McIntosh has erected a new barn. With a new house, well fenced hog lot and a new barn John's plant is taking on the appearance of a sure enough Iowa farm. Jimmy Ward shares equally with John the credit of these improvements.

On the 16th instant the usual semi-annual annuity payment was made at the Fox school, $8,898.35 was disbursed, each Indian receiving as his share $25.72. Three hundred forty-six Indians participated in the payment, seven of whom, however, were not paid on account of non-attendance in school or far living together but not legally married. Since last payment, March 18, 1915, there have been twelve deaths and twelve births and these twelve who have already drawn their tribal trust funds make the total population of 351 on the reservation.

Nov. 3 and 4 a large number of Indians turned out and volunteered their services for road work and as a result of which the Fox school road from Sam Lincoln's to Ed Brown's was repaired and put in good condition for the coming winter. At a recent council meeting the condition of this road came up for discussion and Young Bear's suggestion that the Indians would volunteer their services if we would furnish the dinner, was taken up by the superintendent and Farmer Ellis instructed to make all arrangements and set the day. Two days' work were found necessary and the road is in pretty good condition. The spirit shown by the Indians of the Fox school district in doing this work is indeed commendable. The road is good and the tribe has been saved many dollars.

Great quantities of Oregon spruce have been shipped abroad to make aeroplanes for the warring nations. The price of the wood has accordingly jumped from $32 to $40 per thousand feet.
