Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mendenhall, 506 North Fourth street, entertained Tuesday evening the members of the Unity Club, the affair being in celebration of the fortieth wedding anniversary of the host and hostess. The rooms were festive with Christmas decorations of green and red, and a merry evening was spent informally with games and music for entertainment. In serving supper the hostess was assisted by her son Glen and Mrs. C. D. Martin, the latter of New Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. David Smith, 304 West State street, entertained Tuesday evening at dinner complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. James C. Dunn, of Chicago. Covers were laid for twenty at a daintily-appointed table on which Christmas decorations were used, and at 7 o'clock a four-course dinner was served. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. O. L. Ingledue and Mrs. Karl Ingledue. After the dinner the hours were pleasantly spent socially and Ed Swingley entertained the guests with a group of songs.

Word from Mrs. George Painter, who has been in Ottumwa for some time owing to the illness of her sister, Miss Bertha Baker, told of Miss Baker's death at 5 o'clock this morning. Miss Baker has been in poor health for several years, due to organic heart disease. She was known to friends of the Painters here, having spent last summer at her sister's home. In addition to the sisters in this city two other sisters and a brother are living. They are Mrs. S. H. Young and Miss Lettie Baker, of Ottumwa; and Charles Baker, of Los Angeles. Mr. Painter will go to Ottumwa tonight to attend the funeral.

P. F. Arney, 608 West Main street, entertained Tuesday evening at dinner the young men of his Sunday school class of the Methodist church. Mrs. Arney, assisted by Misses Wanda, Bernice, and Mildred Arney, served a three-course oyster dinner at 6:30. The tables were adorned with Christmas decorations of red, white, and green, and lighted with red candles. After the dinner the annual election of officers was held, resulting in Howard Miller being chosen president; Wilbert Swanson, vice president; Charles Peckham, secretary; and Harry Everist, treasurer. The remainder of the evening was spent socially, with a program of music and a hat trimming contest which created much merriment. John Battin received the first prize for the best trimmed hat, while the next other prizes went to Ralph Pyle and Charles Peckham.

Misses Margaret Jensen and Lydia Propp entertained Tuesday evening at a pretty miscellaneous shower for their friend, Miss Martha Ann Frisberg, who will become the bride of Edward Bollhoefer, of Newton, on Tuesday, Jan. 4. The party was held at the home of Miss Propp, 111 North Second avenue, and the guests included twenty-five of Miss Frisberg's more intimate friends. Holly, Christmas bells, and red hearts were used in decorating and a pleasant evening was spent socially. A mock wedding afforded much amusement, and a Santa Claus arrived on the scene drawing a sled piled full of gifts which were presented to the bride-to-be. During the evening a two-course lunch was served by the hostesses, assisted by Misses Hazel Ortwis, Wanda Propp, and Elsie Neiderhauser. Miss Lucile Diller, of Waterloo, and Miss Mamie Bollhoefer, of Haverhill, were guests from away. Miss Frisberg is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Frisberg, who live just south of the city on Center street.

The home of Adolph Kunkel, 606 West Church street, was quarantined this morning for diphtheria as a precautionary measure. Members of the family have been exposed to the disease thru visits to the home of Mr. Kunkel's sister, Mrs. Margaret Kunkel Dieterich, 607 West Church, when it was presumed that Leroy Kunkel, who died Monday evening of malignant diphtheria, had quinsy. No one is as yet ill in the Kunkel home.

Two small fires, neither of which did much damage, called out the department Tuesday evening. The first one, at 4:55, was at the William Leins home, 210 North Third street, where an overheated furnace smoke pipe ignited the dining room floor. The blaze was extinguished with but little damage. The property is owned by M. C. T. Wolf. The other blaze, at 6:05, was at the R. S. Hockridge garage, 515 North Third street. The origin is unknown, but presumably backfiring of an automobile engine was responsible. Mr. Hockridge put out the fire with a garden hose before the department arrived.

Fifty young people of the Central Church of Christ were entertained Tuesday evening at the church by the Society of Christian Endeavor of the church, the affair being a farewell party to Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Norris, who will soon leave to make their home in Denver. The party, which was an old-fashioned homecoming, was a most enjoyable affair. The room was attractively furnished with old fashion furniture, and Mr. and Mrs. Morris, as "grandpa and grandma," welcomed home the children who, in turn, presented them with a beautiful pair of woolen blankets. A happy evening was spent with games and music and an impromptu program of recitations. As a parting gift Mr. and Mrs. Morris gave the young people framed photographs of themselves to be hung in the endeavor room. Later refreshments were served.

MARRIED. Tuttle-Hodge. Howard R. Tuttle, of near Green Mountain, and Miss Lucy Grace Hodge, were married by Rev. C. H. Morris, at his home in this city at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pleasant Hodge, living east of the city. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Tuttle, of near Green Mountain. Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle will live on a farm near Green Mountain.

Fulfilling Conditions. Miser Thorpe's brother died and left the miser a legacy on condition that he put up a $100 tombstone over him suitably inscribed. The miser ordered the $100 tombstone—there was no getting around that—but he was determined to save on the inscription. The stonecutter proposed: Here lies the corpse of Joseph Thorpe. But this the miser refused as too long. He cut it down to read: Thorpe's Corpse. —Chicago News.
