DR. KASPAR GOTTLICH FINDS MANY VICTIMS IN TRI-CITIES.

ACTIVE IN POLISH RELIEF FUND WORK

Now Believed to Be Richard Vollmar Who Operated in Rock Island Five Years Ago—Is Self-Elected to Paderewski Party Acting in Interest of Suffering Poland.

Davenport, Feb. 7.—Dr. Kaspar Gottlich, alias Richard Vollmar, self-elected aid to the Paderewski party in collecting funds for suffering Poland, who left Moline owing the Manufacturers' hotel a bill of $35 and taking with him money contributed by various people, among them a priest, is not a stranger to the tri-cities, according to Mary Lindsay-Oliver, well known music critic and instructor.

Gottlich, first met Paderewski in Milwaukee and from him secured the sum of $250. He followed him to Moline and here secured considerable more money. Miss Oliver is in receipt of a letter from Mr. Smulski, head of the Chicago Polish relief committee, branding Gottlich as a fraud. A person believing to be him, is reported to be now under arrest in that city.

Dr. Gottlich, according to Miss Oliver, lived in Rock Island five years ago. He remained there six months. During that time, however, he was known, not as Dr. Gottlich, but as Richard Vollmar, she says.

Soon after his arrival in Rock Island, his wife became a pupil of Miss Oliver, studying music. Acquaintance ripened and Mr. and Mrs. Vollmar eventually met James Lindsay-Oliver, Miss Oliver's brother who is a mining engineer. Here is Miss Oliver's story.

Richard Vollmar was a promoter of mines—so he said. He had mining interests in the west and a party from Rock Island, Davenport and Moline went there to inspect them.

About this time Miss Oliver was persuaded to entrust to Vollmar the sum of $200, which he promised to invest for her. She has never realized on the investment.

Later, Vollmar employed James Oliver to go with him to Europe, ostensibly on mining business, but, in reality, Miss Oliver now believes, to use him as a means of raising the $200 in fluent people in Europe whom young Oliver knew.

Stranded in Scotland. They arrived in Scotland and Vollmar made a hurried trip to Paris. What happened in Paris is a question. As my rates young Oliver left in Scotland, failed to hear from his employer, was stranded there and had to send home for money to get back to America.

Then Richard Vollmar was heard of no more in the tri-cities. But, early in January of this year, Miss Oliver was surprised to receive a letter from Des Moines, which proved to be a communication from roving Richard. He was contrite, it seems, that he should have taken so long to make good on his investment for Miss Oliver, but he would be in Moline about Jan. 14 when he would repay her the $200 with interest. It was on that date that Paderewski appeared here.

Preceding the appearance of the great Polish pianist at the Moline theater, Mrs. Frank Gates Allen entertained at her home at Allendea, where the dolls made by the soldiers were on sale. Miss Oliver, with hundreds of others, attended the reception.

As she was leaving she saw Vollmar. He was at the far end of a large room, however, and the crowd was so dense that she did not attempt to speak to him. She also saw Vollmar's wife and two children.

She had not been home a half hour before she received a telephone message from Vollmar. That evening he, his wife and children called at Miss Oliver's studio.

Again Promises to Pay. Oh, most unfortunately, he did not have the $200 with him, but on the morrow he would pay, he most certainly would pay her the $200, with interest.

But on the morrow he did not pay, but promised to do so before he left the city. At that time he informed Miss Oliver that he was affiliated with the Paderewski party and was collecting funds on a commission basis.

LONG TIME ON JOB

IOWA STATE TEACHERS' COLLEGE INSTRUCTOR COMPLETES FORTY YEARS OF SERVICE.

D. S. WRIGHT BEGAN WITH OPENING OF SCHOOL

Gave First Lesson in College Which Has Grown into One of Leading Schools of State—Alumni Holding Celebration at Iowa City, With Mr. and Mrs. Wright as Guests.

Fort Dodge, Feb. 7.—Possibly without a parallel in the history of Iowa is the record of Prof. D. S. Wright, senior professor of the faculty of Iowa State Teachers' College, who this year completes forty years of service as member of the faculty of this educational institution.

Teachers college alumni everywhere are celebrating the fortieth anniversary of Professor Wright's connection with the school. Professor and Mrs. Wright were to Iowa City Sunday, the guests of honor at a big banquet of teachers college alumni there, in commemoration of Professor Wright's fortieth milestone of labor at his alma mater. Professor Wright will recite some reminiscences at this banquet.

Professor Wright is the only living teacher who has been an educator at the teachers college continuously since it was founded as a little normal school in two old buildings abandoned by the Iowa soldiers' orphans home in 1876. Today the institution has more than thirty handsome buildings worth more than a million dollars. The faculty, at the time the school opened for classes, Sept. 6, 1877, consisted of President J. C. Gilchrist, Prof. D. S. Wright, Prof. M. W. Bartlett and Miss Frances Webster, and there was an average attendance the first year of about 200 and upwards of 5,000 students enrolled during last year.

Professor Wright had the honor of giving the very first lesson in the school and has never since faltered in devoting his energy and talents to the great cause of education. Only the kind words of his students, and the consciousness of a life spent in serving his fellow men, has enabled Professor Wright to "stay by the ship" as long as he has.

Professor Wright is at present an instructor in the department of mathematics during his long career at the teachers college he has served in the major portion of the many comprised in this great teacher-training plant of the west.

CRACKER ORDER BY WIRELESS. Boy Operator at Dubuque Transacts Business For Factory.

Dubuque, Feb. 7.—Probably the first wireless order for merchandise ever received in Dubuque was received by the White House Biscuit Company. The order was sent from Leokadia, Ill., and was for 100 cases of "E. A. Peters" crackers, ordered by Elliott Pawkes, 16 years old, of 593 Hill street. The message read: "White House Biscuit Company, Dubuque, Iowa. Ship at once to E. A. Peters, Leokadia, Ill., twenty cases White House dainty crackers. Please order by wireless machine and return receipt to order, 'E. A. Peters'."

Elliott Pawkes is the son of Joseph Pawkes, chief clerk at the Glover, Overall Company. He has rigged up a wireless station and even invented his own instruments. Every evening at 9 o'clock, the regulation hour, he experiments with his machine and sets up in communication with other wireless stations.

Thursday night, while he was in communication with a wireless operator at Lanark, Ill., who is also an agent for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, the above message came to him. Pawkes copied the message and telephoned it to Joseph Meyers, manager of the biscuit company, at his home.

Mr. Meyers at first thought it was a slip and rolled down the hill, a distance of about forty-five yards. Mr. Evans had to pull the pigs back up the slope with ropes.

Sloux City. C. H. Kuhns, of Sloux City, was elected president of the Northwestern Iowa Anniversary and Picnic Association, which held its annual meeting here Thursday afternoon and evening. More than 800 Odd Fellows attended the session. R. L. Forney, of Holly Springs, was elected vice president; W. A. Worth, of Sloux City, treasurer, and P. L. Chase, of Sloux City, secretary.

Webster City. George Clavin had two runaways recently on the same day at Kanawar. His team became scared at the cars both times. He was unloading something from a car in the forenoon and when a train came along the horses took a run up the street of the town, demolishing a buggy or two, overturning a sleigh and upsetting the bobs to which they were attached. It was about 2 o'clock in the afternoon before the repairs to Mr. Clavin's sled could be made. He then went to the car a second time and the team became frightened again and ran away. They threw Mr. Clavin out and badly injured his scalp. However, he is getting along all right.

Monticello. The German Mutual Insurance Association of Monticello, which was recently reorganized, has made a statement to the state insurance commissioner. The total risks in force Jan. 1, 1915, were $2,496,604.10 and the total risks in force Jan. 1, 1916, were $2,676,302.30, making a net gain during the last year of $178,698.20. This is a good showing and the officers of the association are to be commended for the able manner in which they have managed the business. This company has been in business for over twenty years, and has furnished satisfactory insurance for all of its members during that time. The officers for the coming year are: President, R. H. Bohlen; vice president, H. H. Zimmerman; secretary, Gerd Harms, and treasurer, Fred Pleuger. The directors are H. B. Bohlen, Fred Pleuger, H. H. Zimmerman, Gerd Harms and Alfred Tolkmann.

Wauken. Movie directors missed an splendid scene here when Tom Evans' herd of forty pigs made a rapid descent of a steep and very icy hill on the farm. The farm has an abrupt slope and the pigs, starting for their morning feed,

ACCIDENTS ARE NUMEROUS.

Many Injured by Falls on icy Sidewalks at Osgoe.

Osgoe, Feb. 7.—A fall of six inches of ice covering the streets has caused a number of accidents. Among those hurt Saturday were: Miss Nellie Pierce, wrist broken; Mrs. A. Duryea, arm broken in two places; Miss Hattie Velle, arm broken; and Mrs. George Porter, ankle broken.

Rank Foolishness. You occasionally see it stated that colds do not result from cold weather. That is rank foolishness. Were it true colds would be as prevalent in midsummer as in midwinter. The microbes that cause colds flourish in damp, cold weather. To get rid of a cold take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is effective and highly recommended by people who have used it for many years as occasion required, and know its real value. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

Again Promises to Pay. Oh, most unfortunately, he did not have the $200 with him, but on the morrow he would pay, he most certainly would pay her the $200, with interest.

But on the morrow he did not pay, but promised to do so before he left the city. At that time he informed Miss Oliver that he was affiliated with the Paderewski party and was collecting funds on a commission basis.

In the meantime Miss Oliver was unexpectedly called to Galesburg. When she returned the voluble Vollmar was gone.

But he had not forgotten her. Oh, no. He wrote from the Congress hotel, Chicago, that he would return and pay her the $200, with interest.

Then Miss Oliver began hearing tales concerning a Dr. Gottlich, who it appeared, was as voluble as Vollmar. Several Moline citizens bore witness to the fact that the doctor, with the doctor, it seems, overcame his esthetic qualms and capitalized it.

The more Miss Oliver heard about Dr. Gottlich, the more she became convinced that she had known him. Gottlich is Vollmar?

Now she says Dr. Gottlich is not Dr. Gottlich, but Richard Vollmar. The descriptions of the two tally exactly and there really seems to be no doubt that Miss Oliver is right.

As previously related, "Dr. Gottlich" Why Tolerate Catarrh?

You have noticed, no doubt, that any cold aggravates nasal catarrh, and the flow of mucus annoys you that such objectionable matter could find lodgment in your head. To ignore this catarrh when the cold subsides is wrong because it continues to slowly injure the delicate linings of the nasal passages and clog them up.

To correct catarrh, cleanse the nostrils frequently with a solution of warm water and salt, insert vaseline on retiring, and take a spoonful of Scott's Emulsion after meals for one month. Scott's acts through the blood to feed the tissues, and contains soothing glycerine to check the inflammation and heal the sensitive membranes.

It is pleasant to take Scott's Emulsion after meals for one month. Scott's acts through the blood to feed the tissues, and contains soothing glycerine to check the inflammation and heal the sensitive membranes.

The Health Alarm

often sounds first in the doctor's office when some healthy looking specimen of humanity, undergoing examination for life insurance, is told that his blood pressure is too high.

Increased blood pressure is no longer confined to old age; it is frequently found in men in their 40's who are otherwise healthy. In such cases it points to approaching degeneration of the arteries—a condition which in turn indicates those errors of diet that often end in various diseases of the stomach, kidneys, liver, nerves and heart.

Among these errors of diet is coffee drinking, because of the drug, caffeine, in coffee, the constant use of which weakens the walls of the arteries. Medical authorities now insist that in all cases of high blood pressure there must be total abstinence from coffee, tea and other harmful beverages.

Hard to give up coffee? Not at all, when one uses instead the pure food-drink—

Instant Postum

This delicious beverage is made of wheat, roasted with a little wholesome molasses. It is then reduced to a soluble powder, a level teaspoonful of which with hot water makes a perfect cup instantly.

Instant Postum tastes much like mild Java coffee, but is absolutely free from the drug, caffeine, or any harmful ingredient. It does contain those vitalizing elements of the grain which make for normal balance of the system.
