

P. F. MARSTON DEAD

FORMER POPULAR GRINNELL PASTOR PASSES AWAY IN CONCORD, N. H.

GAVE UP WORK IN IOWA BECAUSE OF ILLNESS

Nervous Breakdown and Several Years of Ill Health Terminates in Death—Did Splendid Work Until Overtaken by Illness—Survived by Wife, Son and Daughter.

Special to Times-Republican. Grinnell, Feb. 21.—Deep sympathy was felt in this community when the news came on Saturday afternoon that Rev. Percival F. Marston had died that morning at Concord, N. H. While his condition has been such that death might reasonably have been expected at any time for months past yet the news when it came brought a shock. He leaves a wife, one daughter, Mildred, and one son. Dr. Marston was the pastor of the Congregational church in this city for three years or more, preaching his first pastoral sermon March 19, 1911. For the last year of his pastorate he was unable to do the full duties of pastor but the church clung to him hoping that he would recover his nerve tone. He was a strong and able preacher and, apparently, a model of physical vigor. But it is understood he had had nervous trouble at some previous period in life and the conscientiousness with which he carried out his duties had taken its toll upon him in this church of over a thousand members proved too great a strain and he broke down and has been under the care of specialists for the past two years.

PRESIDENT EMBARRASSED.

Death Again Brings Roland Postoffice Situation to Front.

Special to Times-Republican. Nevada, Feb. 21.—The administration is placed in an embarrassing position just at present, all because there is no democrat living up to Roland to be appointed postmaster. Some suggest appointing a democrat from some other community. That, however, would not likely set well with the people of Roland.

The late postmaster, O. O. Stole, who died some weeks ago, was a republican but had recently been reappointed by President Wilson. But that situation was not so aggravating, the people were already postmaster, the people were satisfied with him and there was no dissatisfaction with his reappointment.

But when it comes to selecting another republican out of the score of more who are after the office, the situation is far from a pleasant one with the administration. Roland, the capital of the state of Howard, is the center of one of the most prosperous communities of the state. It is a great agricultural field and they can raise anything there except demerits. There are a few democrats over story city way who are looking with envious eyes at the Roland situation.

OBSERVE LODGE ANNIVERSARY.

Knights of Pythias, of Iowa Falls, to Celebrate Tuesday Evening.

Special to Times-Republican. Iowa Falls, Feb. 21.—The fifty-third anniversary of the founding of the order of the Knights of Pythias will be observed in a formal way by Alpine lodge No. 7, of this city, tomorrow night. The first part of the Iowa program will be given at the Metropolitan opera house and will open with a selection by the Metropolitan orchestra. Mrs. W. E. Weiden will give a reading and Glen Drake will sing. The address of the evening will be given by Judge B. S. Salinger of the Iowa supreme court. Adjournment will then be taken to the castle hall where the knights and their ladies will enjoy refreshments, cards and dancing.

OSAGE PIONEER DEAD.

S. J. Godfrey, Resident of Mitchell County Since 1866, Passes Away.

Special to Times-Republican. Osage, Feb. 21.—S. J. Godfrey, aged 65 years, is dead at his home here after an illness of a few hours. He was a native of Wisconsin but came to Mitchell county with several brothers in 1866, making his home in Osage most of that time. He leaves a wife and one daughter, Mrs. Marie Trevet, of Kansas City.

Alta to Buy School Site.

Special to Times-Republican.

Alta, Feb. 21.—Petitions are being circulated asking the school board to buy a new site on which to erect the new $200,000 school house, and those in favor of the old site are getting ready to begin injunction proceedings against the board if the new site is selected.

CATAL ROW AT AMES

ONE MAN IN HOSPITAL WITH BROKEN HEAD AND ANOTHER IN JAIL.

BLOW FROM SCANTLING CAUSES DOUBLE FRACTURE

Quarrel Over Debt of $1 Results in Fight—Wounded Man Lays in Wait For Victor and Inflicts Fatal Blow—Surrenders to Police—Man Employed on New Hotel Building.

Special to Times-Republican.

Ames, Feb. 21.—"Bill" Johnson, of Urbandale, Des Moines, is in the Iowa State college hospital with a double fracture of the skull, lying between life and death as the result of a blow given him with a piece of 2x4 plank by W. Moorhead, another laborer employed on the new Sheldon-Munn hotel. Moorhead is in jail without a charge against him, pending a change in Johnson's condition.

The men had an argument over a dollar loan, it is said, which progressed to a fight in which Moorhead, the slighter physically, was worsted. Moorhead "laid for" Johnson in a room in the hotel and hit him on the head after he went by in the hall carrying a lantern. Moorhead gave himself up to Marshal Ricketts.

STOLEN GOODS RECOVERED.

Man Who Robbed Reinbeck Store Confesses—Pal Makes Escape.

Special to Times-Republican. Grundy Center, Feb. 21.—The burglar who robbed the Clausen & Tschirgi store at Reinbeck last week has made a complete confession and told the officers where the stolen goods were hid. Prompt wire service to Marshalltown resulted in finding the stolen goods but there some slip somewhere the other member of the gang, who was still in Marshalltown at the time the officers at Marshalltown were not Lineman Instantly Killed.

Missouri Valley, Feb. 21.—Mike Kirlin, 21 years old, son of M. Kirlin, the blacksmith, and himself an employee of the electric light company, was electrocuted at the top of a pole, twenty-five feet from the ground, Saturday afternoon, when he came in contact with wires carrying 2,300 volts of current as he was working on a break on the lines in the heart of the town. His head was terribly burned and one leg burned almost entirely off at the knee where he came in contact with the cables. The body is held at a local undertaker's morgue to await the outcome of an inquest that will be held later.

Colonel Hepburn's Will.

Washington, Feb. 21.—The will of former Congressman William P. Hepburn was filed for probate here and leaves the entire estate to his widow, Melvina A. Hepburn.

At her death the house in which the Hepburns lived in Washington is to go to Margaret Hepburn, a daughter, and the remainder of the estate is to be divided between Margaret and Charles B. Hepburn, a son. The will states that Colonel Hepburn died in Page county, Iowa.

Fort Madison.

Charging inaccuracy and inconstancy in sums charged against them for convention, prisoners are preparing to bring new guns to bear on the law which makes prisoners finance for the cost of their trial, following the receipt of the lettered amounts due the county in which the prisoners discovered surprising inaccuracy. Men who pleaded guilty and waived trial are charged as much as the man who stood trial and had witnesses are threatening to get lawyers and fight the law. A number of inmates here have written letters to the clerk of the court, where they were tried asking for an itemized bill of costs. A comparison of these show a surprising inconsistency.

Fort Madison.

Morbid melancholy over unrequited love caused Miss Georgie Wiemuth, of 133 Walnut street, at a late hour Wednesday evening to attempt her life by the poison route, taking a spoonful of iodine. The poison seared her throat and caused intense pain, frightening the girl considerably and arousing a great desire to prolong the earthly existence she had thought to terminate. A physician was called an antidote administered to alleviate the effect of iodine, tho it was stated that an insufficient quantity of the poison had been taken to cause death. Miss Wiemuth was infatuated with a local young man, who from all evidences, did not return the regard. The lack of affection on the part of the swain preyed on her mind to such an extent that about 11 o'clock Wednesday evening she took matters by the forelock and proceeded to utilize the first means that came to her hand to bring an end to her troubles. Iodine would have to be taken in fairly large quantities to cause death. In small amounts, beyond temporary discomfort and pain, the resultant effect is far from what was anticipated by the young woman.

Marengo.

Simon Snyder of the Marengo Republican has sold to J. S. Farquhar of Chicago, the half interest in that paper formerly owned by the late Marley Paine and purchased last July by Mr. Snyder. Mr. Farquhar arrived the last week and immediately took up the duties of his office. Articles of incorporation have been applied for at Des Moines and the new company will be known hereafter as "The Marengo Republican" with J. S. Farquhar as editor and S. G. Snyder publisher. He is now editing the introduction to Marengo people and has a wide circle of friends throughout Iowa county, which was formerly his home. While a student at the Marengo high school he originated the "Orange and Black" column in the Republican which will be revived. Later he wrote a series of articles on "European Travel" which was published in this paper. After leaving the University of Chicago Mr. Farquhar was for a time a reporter on the Chicago Examiner and during a period of six years with the Chicago Herald was news editor in charge of the cash, change and contract branches of the advertising staff and manager of the classified advertisements department. He is a native Iowan, born at Ida Grove, in 1890. The greater part of his school days were spent in Marengo. He was married to Mrs. Irene Lockwood in Chicago in 1912 and they have two children.

GRINNELL HOME BURNED.

Fire Caused Damage Estimated at $1,000 Williams Residence.

Special to Times-Republican. Grinnell, Feb. 21.—It was a little past 9 o'clock yesterday morning when the fire whistle sent the department on the rush to 1010 High street, the residence of Mrs. Williams, where the entire roof was in flames that soon destroyed the upper part of the house. The contents of a two-story structure and the upper story is a wreck. The loss is estimated conservatively at $1,000. There was $3,000 insurance on house and contents. Mrs. Williams was living in the upper part and J. H. Bangham and family in the lower rooms. The contents of the upper rooms were badly damaged. The fire is supposed to have caught from the chimney but it was not discovered until so much of the roof was in flames that no one can be certain where it started.

LOSES VALUABLE HORSE.

Frightened Animal Breaks Leg on Frozen Highway.

Special to Times-Republican. Ackley, Feb. 21.—John Sugar, of this city, lost a valuable horse in a peculiar manner Saturday morning. He was driving the animal single on what is known as the Jacob's road leading north from this city. There is a gravel pit beside the road just outside the city limits which filled with water last fall and had frozen over. The water beneath the ice found an outlet somewhere and ran out of the pit, leaving a huge cavern roofed over with heavy ice. Just as Mr. Sugar was opposite this the roof gave way with a thunderous roar. The startled horse gave a huge bound into the air and the ice landed on its feet and kept on them, when the driver attempted to urge it on he found that when it had landed on the frozen highway it had broken one of its legs and the animal had to be shot later.

Concrete Wins at Denison.

Paving Contract Is Let on Bid of $127 1/2 Per Square Yard.

Special to Times-Republican. Denison, Feb. 21.—Denison will use concrete in paving its streets. The council has let the contract for laying 57,000 yards to the M. L. Flynn Paving Company, of Sioux City, at $127 1/2 cents per yard. This paves thirty-two blocks, the cost to aggregate $81,000. Offers for brick were made at $1.95 for asphalt at $1.69, and bitulithic at $1.83 1/2. The paving is to be seven inches thick with one course of cement. The property owners must pay for the street intersections. Citizens are well satisfied with the kind of paving and price.

Grundy Center Items.

Special to Times-Republican.

Grundy Center, Feb. 21.—Court adjourned today for the third week of our term. The famous Frerichs will case, which was being contested by the Frerichs girls and the children of Harm Frerichs, deceased, came to a sudden end on Friday during the middle of the trial when the interested parties got together and made an adjustment.

Henry Frerichs, who suddenly disappeared from here about seven years ago, leaving a wife and three children and considerable property, has been visiting his children here this week. He has re-married since leaving here and is now living in Canada. Since his return to town he has been sued

OPPOSE STATE CONTROL

Chairman Thorne, of State Railroad Commission, Believes Railroads Are Trying to Concentrate Control in Federal Government.

Special to Times-Republican. Des Moines, Feb. 21.—Railroad influence is at work in congress to take away from the state any control of the railroads, in the opinion of Clifford C. Thorne, chairman of the Iowa board of railroad commissioners. The roads would concentrate all such control in the federal government, he says, and put up some plausible arguments as to why this should be. Commissioner Thorne declares.

AGGIES BADLY BEATEN.

Iowa Five Scores 25 to 9 Victory Over Ames on University Floor.

Special to Times-Republican. Iowa City, Feb. 21.—Iowa University's basketball quintet added another scalp to its string, defeating Ames with great ease as the score indicates, oh Iowa floor Saturday night. The "Aggies" were 25 and 9.

In about two minutes of play the Hawkeyes garnered two baskets from the field and one point on a foul, and thus, with 5 to 0 to go on, the old gold was picked as winner from the start. The Aggies never even threatened. The initial round was played 16 to 6, and the Iowans played rather lazily in the slow second half but kept the total score up to that ratio.

The Iowa team spectacularly passed and its unfiled work was a feature. Individually, the Von Lackum brothers and Schiff—the latter playing a great guarding game—were stars for the Hawks. Aldrich was Ames' best man and was the only one to get by Iowa's tight guards with field flings. In every department of the game the Aggies were as outclassed as the score indicates. Ames was handicapped even more than usual, however, by the absence of Green, the ineligible Captain Holmes' substitute, at center, as the former's infected foot was too bad Saturday to permit him to play.

GRINNELL DEFEATS DRAKE.

Showing of Scarlet and Black Five Inures Chance in Title Battle.

Special to Times-Republican.

Grinnell, Feb. 21.—It was a jubilant bunch of Grinnellians who received the report from Drake Saturday afternoon that Carney's quintet had captured a decisive victory over Ames. The local enthusiast over this contest and when the Simpson game the night before resulted in such a close margin for Grinnell it caused a noticeable lengthening of faces and many doubts were expressed.

But it is clear that Coach Carney had held his scrappy scarlet and black men well in leash during the Simpson game and was striving to appear on the floor against Drake with his team in the best possible shape. "Fat" thought he had the Simpson game sure enough anyway but he looked upon the Bulldogs with somewhat narrowed eyes.

Grinnell beat Drake worse than Iowa did and as a result the climax of the season now approaches with the Coe and Iowa contests, to be staged here next Tuesday and Saturday nights respectively.

Thankful For Relief Remedy Brought Her

Says Fruitola and Traxo Possesses All the Merit That Is Claimed for It.

After completing the necessary treatment, Mrs. S. S. Cole, Lampasas, Texas, was so well pleased with the results that she wrote the Pinus laboratories as follows: "Fruitola and Traxo are all you claim. It removed a quantity of gall-stones and I feel sure it saved my life. I am well now and thankful to you for the great good your medicine has done for me."

Fruitola is a powerful lubricant for the intestinal organs and one dose is usually sufficient to clearly demonstrate its efficacy. It softens the congested masses, disintegrates the hardened particles that occasion so much suffering and expels the accumulated waste to the great relief of the patient. Following a dose of Fruitola, Traxo should be taken three or four times a day in order to rebuild and restore the system that has become weakened and run down from constant suffering. It is a splendid tonic, acting on the liver and stomach most beneficially.

Fruitola and Traxo are prepared in the Pinus laboratories at Monticello, Ill., and arrangements have been made to supply them to representative druggists. In Marshalltown they can be obtained at McBride & Will Drug Co., Main and Center streets, and 331 South Third avenue.

Young people need clear complexions

If you find yourself "left out" because of a poor skin, and want a clear, fresh complexion, use at least once a day. Wash thoroughly with a warm, creamy lather of it, then rinse the face with plenty of cold water.

Resinol Soap

It does not often take many days of such regular care with Resinol Soap to show an improvement, because the Resinol medication soothes and refreshes the skin, while the perfectly pure soap is cleansing it.

In severe or stubborn cases, Resinol Soap should be aided by a little Resinol Ointment. All druggists sell them, or you may write to Dept. 22-P, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the bowels, like strong liquids or cathartics. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the bowels? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids.

It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brains and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. Tabor.

The intercounty high school declamatory contest that was to have been held in Tabor Friday, has been indefinitely postponed owing to the desirability of fear.

Des Moines.

Leroy Jones, amateur champion roller skater and Miss Marie Campbell, another skating enthusiast, were wedded while on roller skates at a rink here. The pastor declined to wear skates himself, altho requested to do so.

Centerville.

Miss Mabel Hilbert of the Charlton river district, narrowly escaped burning to death when her clothing was drawn into an opening of a hot blast heater which she was filling with coal. Her screams brought other members of the household to her rescue. She suffered severe burns.

Hamburg.

The old cannery factory building at Hamburg has been converted into a broom factory. D. M. McBride and W. W. Warnstaff are at the head of the new business. They plan to manufacture a double reversible broom invented by W. P. Newell, a former Hamburg broom maker.

Glenwood.

W. C. Delashmutt, Samuel Estes and other Glenwood citizens made scanty contributions to the coffers of an evangelist who spent some weeks there recently, keeping their donations for the struggling churches of the town. Each of the six churches was presented with a purse of $75.

Keokuk.

Car thieves have adopted new methods in Keokuk. Trains are boarded by the robbers and goods thrown from the cars while they are in transit thru the city. Police detected them at their work Tuesday, but the thieves made their getaway. Over $300 worth of plunder was later collected along the tracks.

Keokuk.

Richard B. B. Wood, writing in the Keokuk Gate City, declares Chief Kiskadee, famous Fox Indian leader, was the first man in Iowa to champion woman's rights, setting the example by helping his beautiful wife to chop wood and draw the water. Monroe county for some years bore his name, but later the name of the county was changed to the one it now bears. Kiskadee and his tribe were moved to Kansas by the government.

Jefferson.

Little Tommy Coughenower, the 7-year-old son of Tony Coughenower, was terribly injured on Monday when he fell from the side of a wagon and was run over by one of the wheels. The wheel passed over his leg in a quattering manner, crushing the bone from close to the hip almost to the child's knee joint. The injury is so serious that little Tommy will be fortunate indeed if it does not leave him permanently crippled.

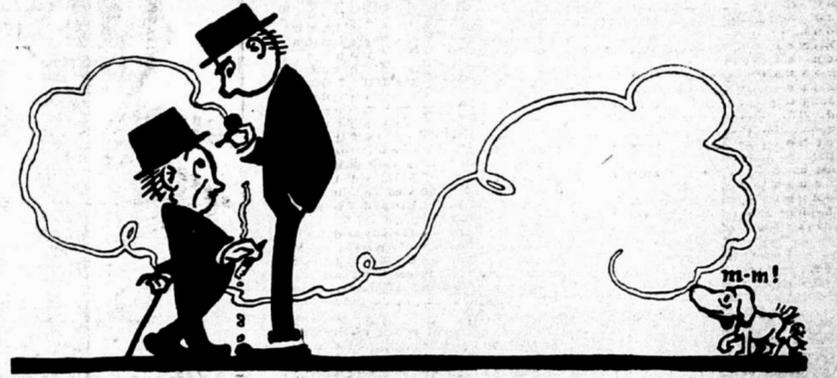

Macedonia.

John M. Henry, former publisher of the news at Macedonia, has gone to Beatrice, Neb., where he will start a "dry" weekly. Beatrice has two dailies, but no weekly. Speaking of Henry's venture the News says: "Henry will be backed in his venture by anti-saloon reformers of the town, who are now fighting for prohibition. In fact, he was offered quite a generous inducement to leave the paper here and take up a paper against the liquor element there."
