street, was hostess to fifteen guests Thursday afternoon at a miscellaneous show for Miss Lula May Walker, former postmaster at the soldiers' home, whose marriage to Fred Heller, of Newton, will take place Wednesday, April 26. During the afternoon the guests visited and sewed, and Mrs.
Redel served a two-course lunch, assisted by Mrs. J. G. Langmaid.
Misses Ruth and Esther Noid were hostesses Thursday evening to the Luther League of the Swedish church at the church. A very interesting talk on foreign missionaries was given by L. J. Sodergren, of Rock Island, student pastor, who is now filling the pulpit of the church, followed by other papers on the same subject, and a musical program. The hostesses served refreshments, assisted by Misses Eva Matson and Bianche Noid.
The Fun and Friendship Club of the Y. W. C. A., composed of employed girls of the soldiers' home, gave a very successful program in the assembly hall of the home Thursday evening. The program was opened with a concert by the home band. The remainder of the program was given by the girls, which was composed of the play, "The Teeth of the Gift Horse," followed by a drill, in which the girls wore white robes and carried Easter lilies. The pantomime was made very effective by the use of colored lights. A collection was taken up and the money is to be used for athletic purposes. The girls hope to have a tennis and basketball court at the home.
Fifty members of the W. R. C. and the aid society were entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. A. R.
Doty and Mrs. A. L. Clark at the home of the former, 509 North Second avenue.
The meeting took the form of a farewell reception to Mrs. Beatrice Brown, who leaves soon to make her home in Minneapolis. An interesting program was given, which included readings by Miss Carol Houghton, a piano solo by Miss Marjorie Newcomer, a cornet solo by Mrs. E. Berggren, accompanied by Miss Catherine Landis, and a vocal solo by Miss Landis, accompanied by Miss Newcomer. The members also brought their fancy work. At the close of the program Mrs. C. A. Landis presented Mrs. Brown with an ivory toilet set as a remembrance from the societies. During the afternoon the hostesses served a two-course lunch, assisted by Mrs. G. W. Doty, Miss John Keeler, and Miss Mabel Elliot.

Mrs. A. A. Goalby was hostess Thursday afternoon to the members of the Lila Crochet Club at her home, 505 East Church street. In honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. W. A.
George the club presented her with a cut glass dish. Later the hostess served a three-course lunch, assisted by her daughter Mildred and Mrs. C.
J. Diekmann. Yellow Easter chickens were given to the members as favors.

The missionary society of the First United Evangelical church met in the church parlors Thursday afternoon. A program of vocal numbers and readings and a talk on China was given, followed by the business meeting, in which the members decided to do home mission work in the city.
Fifty-five members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. were entertained Thursday afternoon in the parlors of the building by Mesdames W. P. Flower, C. C. Eldridge, A. L.
Frazier, W. H. Ford, Mary Fogg, and H. E. Stanton. Following the business meeting the hostesses served refreshments.

AMUSEMENTS.
At the Lyric.
A unique film, both in story and manner of presentation, is "By Whose Hand," shown at the Lyric Thursday evening to fair-sized audiences. The story deal with a murder that has been committed in the house of John Maitland. Examination in the court reveals the fact that both Maitland and his wife, their servant, and a young man by the name of David Sterling, all

"TIZ" FOR SORE,
TIRED FEET--AH!
"TIZ" IS GRAND FOR ACHING, SWOLLEN TENDER, CAL-LOUSED FEET OR CORNS.
"TIZ" makes my feet smaller.

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet; no more swollen, aching, tender, sweaty feet. No more soreness in corns, callouses, bunions.
No matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use "Tiz." "Tiz" is the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet. "Tiz" cures your foot trouble so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never hurt or get sore and swollen. Think of it, no more foot misery, no more agony from corns, callouses or bunions.
Get a 25-cent box at any drugstore or department store and get instant relief. Wear smaller shoes. Just once try "Tiz." Get a whole year's foot comfort for only 25 cents. Think of it.

had relations with the murdered man which would give them cause to seek revenge upon him. In fact they all confess in court, to having committed the murder, supposedly to shield one another.
The story is told by each witness in short shown on the screen, and the audience is left to decide who is the guilty one. Edna Wallace Hopper, Charles J. Ross, and Muriel Ostriche, take the principal roles in this novel production and play their parts with feeling and intensity.
