True Friend to the Cause. By mistake a farmer had got aboard a car reserved for a party of Princeton graduates, who were returning to their alma mater for some special event. There was a large quantity of refreshments on the car, and the farmer was allowed to join the others. Finally someone asked him: "Are you an alumnus?" "No," said the old man earnestly, "but I believe in it."—Harper's Magazine.

Lilacs. There's been a music in the night. And at the gate in mornin' light. There's lilacs—purple, pink and white. All in the sweet May morning!

I know that the music that I heard In the soft spring light was grand— But, ah, what a magical, wondrous bird Has brought out of the far-off land. This lilac of the morning.

It's never a flower, but an angel's kiss That's turned to a drop of honey; And so, take all if you leave me this— It's more than a world of money!

Im down by the path and the porch again. And I see the cottage smiling; And oh, how sweet in those ways of men

A LESSON IN THRIFT. Marshalltown seems to have put another red mark on the map with the organization to conserve paper waste and put it back into circulation again.

The scheme is in line with modern efficiency. If anything is to be classed as utterly inefficient the American custom of wastefulness takes the highest rank in that category.

One of the laws of success laid down by old men who have grown wealthy is that no man ever got rich by what he earned but by what he saved.

Take notice about the place. Check up on the waste inside and outside the house. There are mighty few homes where the waste wouldn't carry the interest on the purchase price of a house and lot.

A TEMPLE OF JUSTICE. The state bar association will appear before the next legislature with a bill for the erection of a fire-proof building on the state capitol grounds for the department of justice.

Now that the Texas guard is to patrol the border we may expect to learn of casualties among those merry makers that slip over from the other side to jocularly cut a few throats and steal and burn things.

President Wilson will show a button and start the big tri-city show at Davenport. Still have use for press buttons in Davenport tho the response fails to include tall ones dripping with saud.

Jasper county is going to build at least one gravel road clear across the county this year. Which indicates that Jasper county hasn't as many jaspers in it as some other counties.

Still the h. c. of l. goes on hoisting itself. The proposition now is to boost spectators' seats in the Chicago convention to $200. Seats however in the progressive party convention may be had from $10 up. Now suppose a man had bought his progressive seat what would he do with it when the whole kit and boodle goes over and amalgamates with the republican convention?

Even if Mr. Fairbanks were to be nominated there is no prospect of the "Fairbanks cocktail" becoming popular. A Fairbanks cocktail consists of a white radish in a glass of butter-milk.

Clifford Thorne seems to be making headway in the First district; at least he has forced his opposition to concentrate on one candidate. The First would be right pleased afterward if it should replace Kennedy with Thorne.

Silk manufacturing mills in this country now employ more than 100,000 operatives.

oil inspectors and all of the multitudinous state officers can be housed in new offices created from the space vacated by the library and departments of justice.

PRIMARIES PEANUTTING. A few weeks ago it seemed that the republican voters of the First Iowa congressional district might have a chance to choose a congressional nominee from a field of four or five strong candidates.

Land prices. It is but a few years ago that the then secretary of agriculture made a prediction in regard to Iowa land prices, which was scoffed at by people everywhere.

IOWA OPINION AND NOTES. The colonel was in charge of the government for seven and a half years. It does seem that a good deal ought to have been done toward adequate preparation in seven and a half years of intelligently directed effort.

It is just thirty days until election day. Have you made up your mind on the suffrage question? asks the Waterloo Courier.

The Sioux City Tribune observes that the Columbus and the Glenn Springs incidents. There is some brand of tolerance toward an irresponsible leader with a makeshift government has been used for months.

To the Boone News Republican "Cummins' chances seem to brighten every day."

Why should a woman who does not wish to vote herself want this right withheld from women who do wish to vote? wonders the Webster City Journal.

feel it necessary to take hold of the Mexican situation with a firm hand and a definite purpose?

There is reason to believe that the raid was participated in by Carranza soldiers. At the very moment they were firing upon Americans and looting American property.

The scene of Friday night's raid is a sparsely settled district with no railroads tapping it. Apparently the squad of eight troopers were the only American soldiers for miles.

Money is a medium of exchange which passes from hand to hand and evaporates faster than high-test gasoline in a six-lunged motor car.

Money is a convenient thing to have, but it can't take the place of a treatable stomach or an easy mind. It will purchase almost every luxury in the world except honest affection, loyal friendship and the kind of health which doesn't have to be bolstered up with patent medicine and electric belts.
