Times-Republican

Published Daily by The TIMES-REPUBLICAN PRINTING CO. TERMS: Evening Edition by mail, $4.00; By the month by mail, $12.00; Delivered by carrier by the month, $5.00; Later Edition for morning, $4.00; Twice-a-Week Edition per year, $1.00; Entered as the postoffice at Marshalltown as second class mail matter.

SERVING NOTICE.

The third party progressives have served notice on the bosses of the republican party in the east that a reasonably progressive candidate for president on the republican ticket will receive their support even though his name be other than Roosevelt, but that any attempt to foist one of the old rank upon the country will be met with division.

Wilson's capacity to get all balled up in foreign affairs, his loss of prestige since his re-marriage and the increasing hopefulness of democratic success has caused the eastern republican bosses to ignore all candidates of progressive type.

Had the publishers been clams they would have been paying an increase of 50 per cent for insurance. By kicking and figuring they have actually reduced their rate 25 per cent.

The moral is to demand an analysis of the bureau's rating, remove the little hazards and reduce your rate.

WHAT EAST DUBUQUE INHERITED.

What East Dubuque acquired from her haste to vote in saloons when Dubuque on this side of the river parted with them regretfully but at the insistence of the Iowa legislature is told in the following excerpt from the news columns of the Dubuque Times-Journal:

According to advices from East Dubuque officials Dubuquers who have gone to East Dubuque during the past few months, or since the first of the year when Dubuque went dry, have paid many dollars into the coffers of the city of East Dubuque from fines which they received when brought into police court.

To be arrested in East Dubuque you do not have to do much of anything except come out of a saloon and try and make some noise. A policeman is at your side telling you to make for the bridge.

In short East Dubuque took over all the saloon troubles of her larger sister, invited over to refreshments every rounder who had made trouble for the police and had been favored by police magistrates by "paying the costs" to get out of jail.

Take the case of Davenport. Davenport was scared when the saloons went out at the toe of the boot. She feared that the big hotel, the finest in the state, it is said, couldn't pay unless it had a bar.

Now if you were seeking a location which town would you choose, Davenport or Rock Island, Dubuque or East Dubuque? Just answer it according to your taste for companionship.

FIRE INSURANCE COMING DOWN.

Insurance Commissioner English tells us in a report that the cost of fire insurance upon an average has already been reduced in Iowa from $10.57 on the $1,000 to $10.13 since the new law establishing uniform rates went into effect.

The danger of mutual insurance loomed large at once. The noise of protest promised repeal of the law at the next session. Self interest on the part of the insured compelled readjustment of the ratings by the bureau.

When the new law went into effect the Times-Republican had its rate boosted from $16.50 on the $1,000 to $25. Upon complaint its printing plant was rerated by the bureau, making its rate $18.10 on the $1,000.

The courts of justice have fortunately saved the expense of a cumbersome trial. Why not use that money to ferret out the real criminal? It takes eternal vigilance to curb the bootlegger.

Allen's peculiar tactics. [Washington County Press.] Senator Joe Allen is evidently on his way toward destruction for "whom the gods destroy they first make mad."

The nations at war were fully prepared but they have spent $45,000,000,000 in the first two years of fighting. Take your pencil and figure out how much corn that means at 50 cents a bushel and how many years it would take the farms of Iowa to raise it.

Topics of the Times

The letters that passed between the 60-year-old ex-farmer from Marshall county and his 42-year-old inamorata indicate that it doesn't make much difference to the pen and pencil whether the welder is 60 or 16.

The fact is that the average woman will vote nearer to the sentiments she expresses at prayer meeting than will the average man. Is that the reason she shouldn't have a chance?

It was fairly good politics played at the Clinton convention. When the republicans have made their nominations the democrats will be able to fit in the situation as they see fit.

The democratic vote in republican primaries will, of course, be for Harding, but the democrat vote at the polls will be for offices for democrats. Count on a solid democratic vote for Meredith.

The president is said to be growing "impatient" over the Mexican situation. Whatever he may do later he has broken the schoolmaster time record for sitting quietly on a bent pin.

And now the papers are predicting that the contest is between Cummins and Hughes. Well, how'd Hughes do for vice president? Let's be liberal toward the east.

The New York Tribune, having arranged for the republican presidential nomination, is now busy dividing German possessions among the allies. Evidently the Tribune has skipped that essential provision as to cooking a hare which begins: "first catch your hare."

The Burlington Gazette says "the term 'bonedead' evidently was made to order for such men as Carranza and Obregon. Their insistence or alleged insistence of the immediate withdrawal of United States troops from Mexico stamps them either as lunatic or idiots."

"Joe Allen says he is the farmer's friend," notes the Davenport Democrat. "and his picture with his big hat on makes him look as if he were dressing for the part."

their trust in him," notes the Knoxville Express and suggests "such stumbling work must make Lieutenant Governor Harding wonder why Cosson don't get out of the way and let somebody run that knows how!"

The Washington Democrat "understands there is to be a new grocery up near the button factory," and suggests "why not just turn the town over to the grocery business? Why not make every store a grocery store? This will give us eighteen groceries. What is the use of going wild over groceries in Washington? Why overdo everything? But it is none of our affair, so let the dance go on."

"While there is harmony at Clinton Allen is out pounding Cosson and saying nothing about Harding. The central part of the state begins to think that Allen is deceiving himself," remarks the Davenport Times.

The Sioux City Journal is worried over the announcement that Colonel Roosevelt will not be in Chicago at convention time and wants to know "What if both conventions should want to nominate the colonel, and there should be no way of getting at him to ascertain whether or not he would accept?"

Iowa Newspapers

THE REAL CRIMINAL.

["Des Moines Capital."] "He had been drinking all day." "News Item." And as a result Frank Mundy killed his girl-wife and then shot himself. The liquor which made him a murderer was secured illegally. The crime was the result of a traffic so contemptible that words fail to define it.

It was Mundy's hand that took the life, but lurking in the dark was the hand that was responsible for the deed. The courts of justice have fortunately saved the expense of a cumbersome trial. Why not use that money to ferret out the real criminal? It takes eternal vigilance to curb the bootlegger.

RANDOM REELS

Howard L. Rann. THE PIPE ORGAN. The pipe organ is a mammoth music box which is run by wind. Other things are necessary in order to produce a good effect, but when the wind falls off the organist is as helpless as a three-masted sloop in a dead calm.

The pipe organ is superior to the reed organ because it costs more and has to be played with the feet. There are any number of people who can sit down to a reed organ and bring forth music which can be recognized as such by listeners with a trained ear, but agile pipe organists with swivel ankle joints and perfect equilibrium are harder to secure than a front seat on a free show.

The pipe organ consists of several hundred wood and metal pipes which are concealed from the congregation by a false front and the rest of the organist. These pipes need tuning every day or two, and as they get it every third year they sometimes refuse to cog, producing a weird brand expenses of the prisons. At the same time the wages paid convicts were placed to their credit—or applied to the support of their dependent families.

Only two things stand in the way of such a plan being generally adopted. Private contractors who want prison work and who want public road work, both at enormous profits, and politicians who want to use public highway departments as political machines. The taxpayers should take a hand in running their public affairs for a while and urge the adoption of reforms that will save them millions and at the same time give them something permanent and valuable in return for their money.

THE OLD ORDER AND THE NEW. [Council Bluffs Nonpareil.] It is a strange fact that the Iowa republican newspapers that are so full of praise for the ticket that was chosen at the democratic conference in Des Moines a short time ago are the same newspapers that would be full of praise for these same men if they had come forth wearing republican labels.

The facts are that some of us lack the christian spirit to welcome workers who come at the eleventh hour. Temperance principles have become popular. Republicans have been plodders in the movement. The democrats in Iowa have lagged on this line. Indeed, they look the wet side for a long while and actually won the governorship twice on this issue.

Shafts sunk into a burning coal field in Germany revealed eighteen distinct veins of blazing coal.

North Third avenue from the south line of Lincoln street to the south line of Marion street running east. Webster street from the west line of Third avenue to the east line of Second avenue.

Webster street from the west line of Second avenue to the east line of First avenue. Webster street from the west line of First avenue to the east line of Center street.

Webster street from the west line of Center street to the east line of First street. Webster street from the west line of First street to the east line of Second street.

Fremont street from the west line of Third street to the east line of Fourth street. Summit street from the west line of Third street to the east line of Fourth street.

State street from the west line of Seventh street to the west side of lot two, block three, of Sleigh's addition to Marshall. North Ninth street from the north line of Main street to the south line of State street.

North Fifth street from the end of the present paving to the north line of Hughes street. Hughes street from the east line of Fifth street to the west line of Fourth street.

South First street from the north line of Railroad street to the north line of Railroad street. Railroad street from the west line of present paving on Center street to the east line of First street.

In Marshalltown, Iowa. Owing to the contractors only when no sufficient and adequate paving now exists, and of said paving to be thirty feet in width, and except North Fifth street from the north line of State street to the south line of Jerome street, and South Tenth street from the south line of Church street to the north line of Boone street, which shall be twenty-four feet in width. Said curbing shall be of dimension six inches in width and eighteen inches in depth and be constructed of one part cement and three parts gravel, all as more particularly provided by the specifications now on file in the office of the city clerk of said city.

All grading, curbing and paving shall be done in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor as prepared by the mayor and city council, which are now on file in the office of the city clerk and a copy of reference made a part of this advertisement. The following is an approximate estimate of the construction work to be done: 47,500 linear feet of curbing; 75,700 square yards of paving.

Said work shall be commenced on or before the 15th day of June and shall be fully completed on or before the 15th day of October, 1916. The cost and expense of grading upon the completion of said improvement shall be paid from warrants drawn on the grading fund.

Notice is further given that payment for the construction of such cement curbing and paving, including labor and material and incidental costs and expenses shall be made by special assessment certificates or street improvement bonds drawing interest at the rate of one per cent annum issued in accordance with the provisions of the code of Iowa to the extent that the cost of the same is assessable by law against the real property abutting on said improvements and such other property according to area so as to include one-half of the privately owned property between the streets so to be improved and the next street whether such property privately owned abuts upon such street or not, but in no case shall privately owned property situated more than 100 feet from the street be so improved.

So improved be assessed for any part of the cost thereof, and said assessment to be in proportion to the special benefits conferred upon said property and in accordance with the law governing said certificates and certificates of improvement bonds to be issued and delivered to the contractor after the work is completed and fully accepted by the mayor and city council; any deficiency between the amount of the contract price and the amount of said certificates and also the cost of interactions when the same are not assessable against abutting or adjacent property within 300 feet of said improvement to be paid in warrants drawn on the improvement fund of said city available for the fiscal year beginning April 1, 1916, and any additional deficiency to be paid from the proceeds of a special tax levy under the provisions of Section 320 of the Code of Iowa and acts amendatory thereto. In anticipation of which revenue bonds will be issued under the provisions of Section 315 of the Code of Iowa and acts amendatory thereto. The contractor shall look exclusively to the funds stated in the contract for the payment of said improvement, and the city of Marshalltown, Iowa, shall not be held particularly liable for the payment of the cost of any part of the same, and will not incur any indebtedness therefor, and in the event that any such cost or expense shall be required to be paid from the said improvement fund to be raised by the means of the special tax on property within the city of Marshalltown, Iowa, said levy may be made to extend over a period of ten years, as provided by law.

Notice is further given that the contract between the city of Marshalltown, Iowa, and the contractor to be held in accordance with the specifications above referred to and shall provide for the completion of said contract and the maintenance thereof and keeping in repair of said paving for the period of one year; the contractor to furnish a good and sufficient bond in the sum of $50,000 thereon and in the sum of 50 per cent of the contract price to be approved by the mayor and city council of said city.

Notice is further given, that said bids will be acted upon by the mayor and city council at a meeting to be held in the council chamber in the city of Marshalltown, Iowa, on the 24th day of May, A. D. 1916 at 9 o'clock a. m., and that all bids are required to be made on written forms furnished by the city clerk, and all bids must be accompanied by a certified check in a separate envelope in the sum of fifteen hundred dollars, payable to the order of the city treasurer of the city of Marshalltown, Iowa, as a guaranty that the bidder will enter into a formal contract for the doing of the work as provided by the successful bidder shall be held and retained by the city of Marshalltown, Iowa, until such contract is fully executed, and all checks of unsuccessful bidders shall be returned.

All assessment certificates and street improvement bonds shall draw a per cent interest per annum on all deferred payments from the date of the assessment, and the option shall be given the owners of the property to assess their annual installments upon the signing by the property owner whose property is assessed for any part of the cost of said improvement of a waiver of all objections to the levy and all former proceedings.

Notice is further given that resolution ordering said improvement and the specifications for the same are now on file in the office of the city clerk of the city of Marshalltown, Iowa, and will be available for inspection of any person desiring to make bids upon the proposed work and that the contract to be entered into will be in the usual terms and will embody the requirements of the specifications for said street improvements, and shall be in accordance with the resolution ordering said improvements.

All bids will be publicly opened and the mayor and city council will act thereon at their meeting on the 24th day of May, 1916, unless action shall be deferred until some later time, and the contract will be let to the lowest bidder but the mayor and city council reserves the right to reject all bids and order new ones.

Dated the 10th day of May, 1916. J. W. WILSON, Mayor, Iowa. City Clerk of the City of Marshalltown, Iowa.

Rippling Rhymes

Walt Mason. MUSIC. Grief is brooding at my portal, woe is knocking at my door; I no longer sing and chortle, as I did in days of yore.

I'm not whistling as I labor, no one hears my merry laugh; for, alas, my next door neighbor has a new cheap phonograph. It has got a tone tin-panny, and it makes me writhe and sweat, and I say to Gentle Annie, "It will drive me dippy yet."

Now it roars, in tones of Stentor, some old spiel that should be banned, "Uncle Si at Punkin Center," with refrain by Batty's Band. And the songs it reproduces give me fantods in the toes; they are sung by cheap excuses who make music thru the nose. And it's going always, always, all day long I hear it wheeze, till I rear and tear my galways, throw a fit and bite my knees. I have called on Bob, the copper, begged that peeler, till I'm hoarse, to invoke the law and stop her, but he says there's no recourse. So I suffer pain immortal, and my heart is sick and sore; grief is brooding at my portal, woe is knocking at my door.
