

PAYING DRAINAGE WARRANTS.
 Count: Calling in Warrants For Marshall-Story County Project.
 County Treasurer S. M. Gause has called in all outstanding warrants issued to pay the cost of the Marshall-Story drainage district No. 1 project. Practically all of the warrants have been paid off in the last few days, and the remaining outstanding warrants are expected to be turned in at any time. In money these warrants that Marshall county pays amount to about $1,000.

 The drainage project was put through six years ago. The last assessment against land benefited to pay for the ditch was paid two or three years ago. Delays have prevented the warrants being called in earlier.

Q-BAN DARKENS GRAY HAIR

EVERYBODY USES IT—SO HANDY—HARMLESS—NO DYE.

By applying Q-Ban Hair Color Restorer, like a shampoo, to your hair and scalp, all your gray, streaked with gray, prematurely gray or faded, dry or harsh hair quickly turns to an even, beautiful dark shade, so every strand of your hair, whether gray or not, becomes glossy, fluffy, lustrous, soft, thick, with that even, dark shimmer of beautiful, radiant, healthy hair—just as you like to have your hair appear—fascinating and abundant, without even a trace of gray showing, only natural, evenly dark, lovely hair. Q-Ban is absolutely harmless; no dye, ready to use. Only 50c for a big bottle. B. A. Morgan's Drug Store, 10 W. Main St., Marshalltown, Iowa. Out-of-town folks supplied by mail.

OBJECTIONS ARE FEW TO PAVING PROJECTS

ONLY TWENTY-FIVE IN FOUR DISTRICTS FILE OBJECTIONS TO IMPROVEMENT.

ALL BUT SEVEN ON SOUTH CENTER STREET

Meeting Develops Net All of Objections to Be Serious or Bona Fide—Council Adjourns Hearing For Week—Only One Objector to 10,000 Feet Sanitary Sewer Project.

Objections to the proposed paving for District No. 3, Summit street; No. 4, North Center street; No. 5, South Center street; and No. 6, North Third avenue, to the city limits and to laying 10,000 feet of sanitary sewer, were heard by the city council this forenoon. Twenty-five objections were filed to the paving. Only one objection was made to the sewer project, the cost of which will be assessed to the properties benefited.

Because lawyers, who represented practically all of the objectors, pleaded that they would be in court next week, the council continued the hearing on objections until Monday forenoon. The council meets Wednesday forenoon to let contracts for Districts Nos. 1 and 2, the Lincoln highway paving, and two and one-half miles of city streets. It is probable that the sanitary sewer project will come up at that time and the clerk will be authorized to advertise for bids for it.

Attack Constitutionality of Law.
 The constitutionality of the law and the method of establishing the paving districts, alleged inequitable assessments and benefits, are the main points of attack made in practically all of the objections. M. Parker, T. F. Bradford, and F. L. Meeker, representing twenty-four objectors, filed a blanket objection in printed form for all their clients.

The law, which authorizes paving projects of this kind, is attacked on the ground of its unconstitutionality. The allegation is made that the law is unconstitutional because it exempts moneys and credits from taxation that the city may levy against the whole city to pay any share of the cost the city may assume.

Another main objection made is that the boundaries of the paving districts have been arbitrarily established and do not take in real estate benefited that ought to be included.

Objection is also made that the assessments have been arbitrarily fixed and are excessive.

Cite Example of Home.
 An instance, which, however, is an exemption, in support of the argument that property benefited has not been included in districts, is cited in the case of the soldiers' home. No pavement has been ordered along the home grounds on the west side of the street. The home grounds have therefore not been included in the district. The objectors' claim is that the home's drains will use the pavement laid on the south side of the street.

That is true, but the city expects in another year to have the home grounds paved. It is not included this year because the city did not want to take the chance of paving it, then having to pay for it if the state refused to pay. Undoubtedly the legislature next winter will pass an appropriation for the state's share of this pavement.

Assessment Question of Fact.
 The burden of the objections, as a whole, are that the assessments are inequitable and unjust. That question is one of fact. The council is required to make such assessments as the benefits and the value of the property seem to indicate, but the property owner is not compelled to abide by such assessments. He has ample recourse to protect himself by appealing from the council's assessment to the district court. There the question of the amount of the assessment will be tried out on facts as to the value of the property assessed and the benefits derived from the improvement.

Objections Not Bona Fide.
 Considering the hundreds who will be assessed for paving these four streets in the city limits, the objectors were few in number. Before the council adjourned it developed that not all the objections were made in earnest or were bona fide.

J. M. Stonestreet, an objector to paving South Center street, voluntarily told the council that he did not object to the pavement. His complaint was that the engineer's plan had assessed against him for a longer frontage than he owned. Such details, will, of course, be corrected.

John A. Sieg, an objector to the Summit street pavement, was not long ago demanding that the street be paved. To the T. H. he complained earnestly because the city council did not include Summit street with Districts Nos. 1 and 2 when they were up.

How to Heal Skin-Diseases

A Baltimore doctor suggests this simple, but reliable and inexpensive, home treatment for people suffering with eczema, ring-worm, rashes and similar itching, burning skin troubles.
 At any reliable druggist's get a jar of Resinol Ointment and a cake of Resinol Soap. These are not at all expensive. With the Resinol Soap and warm water bathe the affected parts thoroughly, until they are free from crusts and the skin is softened. Dry very gently, spread on a thin layer of the Resinol Ointment, and cover with a light bandage—if necessary to protect the clothing. This should be done twice a day. Usually the distressing itching and burning stop with the first treatment, and the skin soon becomes clear and healthy again. Sample free, Dept. 30-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

North Center street, and only one to North Third avenue. Five objected to Summit street, in addition to W. H. Matthews, whose objection was based on his fear that the assessment would be in excess of the one-fourth valuation of his property. Such details will be adjusted when assessments are made. Seventeen objections were filed to South Center street.

G. A. Mote, representing Dinsing Bros., filed objection to paving South Twelfth street, from Boone to Doty street. This objection was not against the paving, but against paving at this time, because of the stretch about 450 feet long at the M. & St. L. crossing that is not to be paved now. The expectation is that the M. & St. L. will revise its grade at this point and an overhead crossing will be put in. When it is the unpaved stretch will be paved. The Dinsing Bros. believe it best to wait and see what the M. & St. L. does and let it do it before paving.

In addition to the objectors mentioned as making objections for special reasons other objectors by districts are:
 No. 3—R. H. Brooks estate, George S. Size, John A. Sieg, J. D. Plumb, Nellie M. Size.
 No. 4—Marshall Ice Company.
 No. 5—Flora S. Wood, J. M. Stonestreet, A. M. Beckwith, A. W. Mundhenk, Bertha A. Manful, W. A. Fuller, E. R. Plum, Lucy Payette, Henry Paul estate, G. W. Fanton, W. Schmelz, John Knorr, Arnold H. Nelson, W. L. Fuller, H. W. Ogan, Selma Neiderhauser, Grace S. Foster.

Only One Sewer Objector.
 Only one person, W. H. Johnson, 501½ North Third avenue, appeared to make objection to being assessed for sanitary sewers. His objection was that he had put in a sewer and paid for all of it, and he should not be assessed for another sewer. Such assessment, at most, he was told would be small, and in cases such as his the city is preparing to make satisfactory adjustment with the property owners.

DOBSON VERY ILL.

County Auditor Dangerously Sick Result of Ruptured Appendix.

As the result of an acute attack of appendicitis, with which he was stricken Thursday night, County Auditor A. W. Dobson is very seriously ill at the Deaconess hospital. An emergency operation, delayed thirty-six hours because of a lack of consent on the part of the patient, was performed Sunday afternoon at the Deaconess hospital. The appendix was found to have ruptured, and the resultant abscess had formed. Altho the patient's condition is critical, recovery is expected unless some unforeseen complication should result.

SONS OF VETERANS COMING.

Organization Affiliated With G. A. R. Will Be Here With Encampment.

Word that the Sons of Veterans of Iowa, to the number of about 100, would be here at the time of the state encampment of the G. A. R., was brought to the city Saturday by W. L. Kerr, of Fort Dodge, division commander. This is the first word that the local convention committee has received of the decision of this organization to be present. Mr. Kerr announced his intention of making the headquarters of the delegates from this society at the Evans Hotel.

MRS. I. F. DECK DROPS DEAD.

Wife of Farmer Living West of Town Dies at Telephone Sunday.

While she was standing at the telephone talking to a neighbor, Mrs. I. F. Deck, living three miles west of town, dropped dead at 4:30 Sunday afternoon. Heart failure, with which she had been troubled for some years, was the cause of death.

Mrs. Nellie Deck was born Geddes in Iroquois county, Illinois, March 30, 1877. On New Year's day, 1901, she was united in marriage with I. F. Deck, at Newton, Ill., and in 1909 Mr. and Mrs. Deck moved to this county, settling where they now live. Two children, Frances and Irma, survive their mother, besides the husband. Mrs. Emma Geddes, Mrs. Deck's mother, lives at Newton, Ill., and there are two brothers and three sisters. They are Elmer L. Geddes, Whittiah, Mont.; J. F. Geddes, Danville, Ill.; Miss Grace Geddes, Charleston, Ill.; Mrs. E. P. Henderson, Stevens, Minn., and Mrs. F. C. Swin, Newton, Ill.

Funeral services will be held from the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock and burial will follow in Riverside.

Besides her parents she is survived by one sister at home. Funeral services will be held Tuesday morning at the home in Quarry.

GET RID OF HUMORS

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the Medicine to Dry, Take, Scaly, Itchy, Pimples, Boils and other eruptions come from humors, which may be either inherited, or acquired thru defective digestion and assimilation.

To treat these eruptions with drying medicines is dangerous. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old reliable medicine, helps the system to discharge the humors, and improves the digestion and assimilation.
 Get Hood's Sarsaparilla from your druggist. It may be confidently relied upon to do its work. It purifies the blood, tones the stomach, and builds up the whole system. It goes to the roots of disease, and its beneficial results are permanent. It sets things to rights in the system. Remember to ask for Hood's Sarsaparilla, because nothing else acts like it and nothing else can take its place.
