

BLISTERS BURNED ON CHILD'S SCALP

Would Itch. Formed Scales Which Caused Unsightly Appearance. Child Very Cross and Fretful.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My little girl's scalp was affected with something like blisters and a thickening of the skin. At first it was a place about as large as a common pea and it would itch and burn and when scratched would run a watery fluid and from that would form scales which caused an unsightly appearance on her scalp. Her hair never grew any. She was very cross and fretful. Soap and Ointment and the second application relieved the itching and burning so I purchased one box of Cuticura Soap and one box of Ointment and they healed her." NEW BALLOTS READY

BLANKS FOR ABSENT VOTERS SENT TO COUNTY AUDITORS AND CITY CLERKS.

MUST BE PROCURED BY MAKING AFFIDAVIT

Considerable Red Tape Required to Comply With Provisions of Law—Many Traveling Men Will Vote at Home in Primary, Election Falling on Monday—Errors Easily Made.

Special to Times-Republican.

Des Moines, May 26.—Absent voters ballots are now in the hands of the county auditors over the state and in some cities the city clerk so that any voter who expects to be absent from his voting place on June 5, can secure an official ballot for the primary by making application to his county auditor up to within three days prior to the primary. The application for a ballot must be made on a blank and the name may be obtained from the county auditor or clerk. On receipt of the envelope and the envelope is sealed. The envelope then has to be mailed by the voter by registered mail to the officer issuing the ballot or if more convenient it may be delivered in person.

Inasmuch as primary day, June 5, falls on Monday, many of the traveling men will vote before starting out on their trips. The absent vote is not expected to be much of a vote this time as the law is new and but few have learned how to take advantage of it. State officials whose work is in Des Moines but who retain their residences in their former homes will vote by means of the absent voters ballot.

At the Des Moines city election this spring quite a few votes were cast by absent voters and these were watched eagerly by two of the contestants, Woolgar and Conroy, who were running close.

Mad Dog Bites Stock. The state veterinarian's office received word yesterday that a mad dog on the farm of S. M. Hart, near Coon, had bitten many of the animals on the farm and that six hogs had died as a result of the bites received. An assistant state veterinarian was sent down there to diagnose the trouble and determine whether or not it was rabies.

Claim Still Unpaid. Mrs. Carrie Green, of Clinton, mother of Private J. H. Green, Jr., who was killed at Sparta, Wis., last August while doing duty with the Iowa National Guard, has never yet received the workman's compensation due her from the state of Iowa, amounting to about $1,900, and as awarded by the state industrial commission. The state officials say they have no fund from which to pay this money. In the meantime, however, Mrs. Green has been much in need of the money so complaints coming to the state house declare.

The state elected to carry its own insurance and now when the first compensation case comes up is not able to pay the amount awarded by the commission.

PLUG CHEWING A WHOLESOME HABIT

In No Other Way Can You Get All the Richness and Flavor of the Leaf

"SPEAR HEAD" BEST CHEW

Many prominent physicians declare chewing to be the most wholesome way of enjoying tobacco. "I began chewing some years ago," said one, "and I soon found that it is the only way to get the benefit of all the rich juices stored up by nature in the tobacco leaf. I refer, of course, to the plug form of tobacco, which is the most natural and the cleanest form. Chewing good tobacco like Spear Head makes the salivary glands more active, which in turn has a beneficial effect on the whole system. Add to this the sweet, mellow, delicious flavor of a chew of Spear Head, and you have the highest possible degree of tobacco satisfaction."

"I mention Spear Head because I have found that this brand is exceptionally pure, being made in a factory that's run strictly according to pure-food rules." Spear Head is made of sun-ripened Burley, which is acknowledged to be the richest, mildest, finest flavored tobacco leaf in the world. And it is produced by the latest processes, which develop the quality and luscious flavor of the choice Burley to the supreme degree. A chew of Spear Head has a wholesome relish that is not found in any other chewing tobacco. Try a 5c or 10c cut.

states—Tennessee and other distant states being represented. The foundation of the Tudor herd was a group of cattle from Scotland.

BITTEN BY RABID SKUNK.

Vinton Girl Goes to Iowa City For Pasteur Treatment. Special to Times-Republican. Iowa City, May 26.—Hydrophobia from a skunk's bite faces Miss Isma Grover, aged 11, who was attacked by a skunk, while she was walking on the banks of the Cedar river, near her home in Vinton. After it had bitten her ankle, she killed the animal, and her father, a member of the board of supervisors, sent the brain hither to the Iowa Pasteur Institute, where the creature had been a victim of rabies, probably having been bitten by a mad dog in the nearby woods. The girl, therefore, was sent here to the Iowa Pasteur Institute, and is receiving the Pasteur treatment. Her father, a student, who has her case in charge, believe they will save her life. An older woman with Miss Grover was also attacked by the skunk, but escaped unharmed.

RUNNING SHORT OF FUNDS.

Little Progress in Capitol Extension Work Can Be Made This Summer. Special to Times-Republican.

Des Moines, May 26.—Money is running low in the capitol extension fund and it is doubtful if the state executive council can do much toward the summer than to build the new bridge over Court avenue between what was East Tenth and Eleventh streets and pave that street. The force of workers on the grounds may be cut down as most of the buildings have been moved away from the site. The council has expected to let the contract for the bridge early this week but as Governor Clarke has been out of town speaking at his school commencement and will be until the last of the week it is probable the letting of the bridge contract may be delayed a few days.

The city has been asking the executive council to agree to the widening of Grand avenue from the state house and to the cutting down of the street widened but objects to any material change in the grade. West of Ninth street the cut in the street would be considerable.

The Bankers Life Association has been figuring to acquire the old Burnt school property from the school district just at the west edge of the capitol extension tract on Grand avenue and putting up a fine office building there. The association owns a lot on West Fifth street, north of Chestnut, on which it had planned to build the proposed office building. The city has proposed to change its grade on Fifth street and change its grade has caused the Bankers Life to look for a new location.

Should this big insurance association erect a fine office building fronting on the capitol extension tract it would probably be the means of getting other good business buildings to locations near the state house.

When the work on the capitol extension grounds to the south of the state house is completed the railroads may be asked to provide for a stopping place or small station on the south of the state house for the accommodation of visitors.

Grinnell and Vicinity.

Special to Times-Republican. Grinnell, May 26.—On Monday morning of next week Lieutenant Governor W. Y. Morison, of Kansas will address the students and faculty and all others who choose to be present at the college chapel. The subject is not announced but it is presumed that it is equal suffrage, as the call in that line is what has been the subject of Kansas home. On Monday evening he will also speak in the Congregational church. He is reported to be so pleasing a speaker that both sides are anxious to hear him. He is the editor of the Hutchinson Daily News and one of the regents of the Kansas State University.

Professor John P. Ryan, of the college, is to deliver the Memorial Day address at the Chester Center cemetery on Tuesday.

The urgent need of a detention hospital for contagious diseases has been again emphasized in this city and in a striking way. A case of scarlet fever developed in the hospital and quarantine has been established to the great inconvenience and money cost to a number of people as well as to the hospital as an institution, as no one can be taken there until the quarantine period is ended. There has been much and serious talk of exchanging the present location for a larger building and more extensive grounds in the western part of the city, but no move has actually been made.

Friends in this town have just learned that the funeral of George Binegar will take place at Montezuma on Saturday afternoon and a number are planning to attend.

Applington News Notes.

Special to Times-Republican. Applington, Mo., May 26.—Memorial Day will be observed Tuesday morning beginning at 9:30. The exercises will be held in the cemetery if the weather permits. Rev. Rev. Mr. Zindler's new house is now up and enclosed. The graduating exercises of the high school will be held June 3. The class consists of three boys and three girls: Will Riens, William Todd, Harold Stockdale, Amos Hoester, Claus Dreyer, and Margaret Romelfanzler. The baccalaureate address will be delivered in the Presbyterian church June 4 and will be given by Rev. William Todd.

BURN HOBO ROOST

DESTROY SHACK AND BUNKS AND BEDDING

Effort Made to Stop Influx of Human Driftwood—Similar Mission to Past House—Jail Bill of Fare Modified and Bread and Water Will Be Dietary of Weary Willies.

Ames, May 26.—The police department is so active these fine spring days that it would take a special and expert secretary to keep tab on all their doings. The season of bums and tramps, including varieties of the human race ranging from the "just too lazy to work" to the ones whose chief aim in life is to "work" those who do work, is at hand, and one wonders where all the human trash which drifts in to the city comes from. The evening was fine for an auto ride and Chief Willey invited his entire force of thief catchers and bum chasers to go for a spin with him. After stocking up with several boxes of safety matches, the auto load departed on a trip which took them to the western part of the city, where a camp had been established by those who shun the sunny paths. Near the college campus and along the railroad, the tramps had built for themselves a neat and convenient little shack of tin and stray pieces of lumber. It was equipped with bunks, mattresses and all the utensils necessary for the preparation of a meal. As the call had not been announced there were few to receive the auto load full of visitors. Just one lone occupant happened to be in the shack when the police came. He was not more to bid them welcome, the visitors proceeded to tear that shack apart. All material that would burn was heaped in a pile and matches applied. A cheerful blaze soon illumined the sky, and marked the end of a cozy and complete little haven.

Make Another Call.

Not satisfied with their work the auto load of police made a trip to the post house, and there repeated the performance, burning up all the rubbish made fine food for fires and burned without the application of 50-cent gasoline. A large quantity of discarded clothing was found here and also consigned to the bonfire. By some oversight the police neglected to touch a match to the "post" house.

Should by any chance the wandering Willies who frequent our beautiful city be laboring under the idea that the jail is not such a bad place to bunk and get good meals, let him here, by learning things to the contrary. While it has been customary for the police department to give the prisoners occupying the cells of the city bastille three square meals a day, it will hereafter somewhat curtail the menu, and two meals, consisting of two sandwiches and a cup of aqua pura, is all that is allotted to each prisoner after date. There will be no more banquet.

As inmates of suite 3, padlocked on the outside, made bold to complain of these rations, and demanded that, being a guest of the city, albeit against his will, he was entitled to the fat of the land. Chief Willey thought likewise and for his next meal, inmate of suite No. 3 was given a nice fat loaf of bread.

DAVENPORT'S LIBERAL GIVERS.

Business Men Donate $350,000 to Public Institutions. Davenport, May 26.—Giving away hard earned money is the chief pastime of the Davenport business men. Inside of three months they have given $350,000. The first $150,000 went to the St. Luke, then came $50,000 for the Fort Armstrong Centennial to be held in June. After that the business men dug up $40,000 for the national guard battery armory. Just to learn how to give they donated $20,000 for Mercy hospital for a new addition and over $1,000 for other purposes and now comes "Lend-a-Hand" asking $125,000 for a working girls home. After this $30,000 more for the battery. A symphony orchestra has just organized and will need money, after that the three-year subscription to the Greater Davenport committee becomes due, $30,000. There are twenty-five millionaires in Davenport and they have all given fairly well. The Crosssett family, which made its fortune in the lumber business, gave $15,000 to the Lend-a-Hand home and the French family gave $12,000 to the battery and before that $10,000 to the hospital and $10,000 for the working girls home. J. J. Richardson gave $15,000 to the hospital.

ISSUE SCHOOL ANNUAL.

Illustrated Year Book Published by Denison Senior Class. Special to Times-Republican. Denison, May 26.—The senior class of the Denison high school has issued a large annual, profusely illustrated. It is dedicated to C. L. Voss, who has given much money toward the equipping of the gymnasium here. Miss Chamberlin, the instructor in English and physical director for the girls in the gymnasium, is given much credit for the annual, as the originator of many special features.

Manila, May 26.—Martha Copeland, 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Copeland, died yesterday from burns and the child's mother nearly lost her life trying to save her child. While burning paper in the yard an ember blew into the lap of the girl, who with her younger sister was sitting some distance away watching the fire. The child's clothing was burned off in an incredibly short time.
