

DEATH COMES TO T. S. GARTWRIGHT

FOUNDER OF VILLAGE OF LURAY AND PIONEER OF POWESHIEK COUNTY, PASSES AWAY.

HAD BEEN ILL LESS THAN THREE WEEKS

Had Been Suffering For Years From Nephritis and Complications—Bought Nucleus of Luray Farm Many Years Ago and Added to It Until It Became Most Valuable Property.

Death, at 4 o'clock this morning, claimed Theodore S. Cartwright, a well-known resident of this city, founder of the village of Luray, and a pioneer of Poweshiek county. Mr. Cartwright died at the home of his son, T. C. Cartwright, 1110 West Main street. The end came following an illness of less than three weeks, due to uremia.

Mr. Cartwright had been in failing health for a few years, due to chronic nephritis, with which was associated a prostatic trouble of several years' standing. Last winter, shortly after Christmas, Mr. Cartwright went to Rochester in the hope of obtaining relief, and returned home in March. He had rallied quite satisfactorily from the attack, but his vitality had been noticeably lessened with each recurring attack. The last illness was brought on by over exertion when Mr. Cartwright worked too hard setting out some shrubbery at his son's home.

Man of Indomitable Energy. Mr. Cartwright was a man of indomitable energy. This trait had characterized his entire life. He was a blacksmith in the early days, and his physical strength seemingly knew no bounds. This spirit of energy followed him through his life, and finally contributed to his last illness. He was not satisfied to be idle; he must be doing something as long as he was able.

Buys Luray Land Years Ago. While a blacksmith at Malcom Mr. Cartwright traded some Texas land he had acquired for about 200 acres of land near what is now the village of Luray. He accumulated surrounding tracts until he owned about 700 acres. He platted the village of Luray, and the railroad station of the Great Western is on a part of the farm.

Mr. Cartwright farmed like he did other things. He worked on a large scale. He raised corn to feed large herds of cattle, and developed some of the finest beef cattle ever marketed in the Union stock yards, Chicago.

Native of Indiana. Theodore Smith Cartwright was a native of Indiana, having been born at New Harmony Nov. 17, 1846. He went east when a young man, and when the civil war broke out enlisted as a farmer in the First Massachusetts cavalry. He served through the war, and during the last two years saw active service.

On Nov. 30, 1868, at Racine, Wis., Mr. Cartwright took as his wife Miss Clara Walter, and came to Marengo, then the western terminus of the Rock Island railroad. He worked at his trade there for a year, and the spring following moved with the new railroad to Malcom, where he went into the blacksmithing business.

In 1889 Mr. Cartwright moved to Grinnell, and for many years traveled for the Olds Wagon Company of Fort Wayne, Ind. His territory included the entire country, and he sold the factory's output for many years. Mr. Cartwright retired from the road in 1902, and went to Hampton, where he and his son engaged in the retail lumber business. In the fall of 1904 the family moved here, that Mr. Cartwright might be near his Luray interests, which he had always supervised while on the road. Mrs. Cartwright died here April 5, 1906, and since then Mr. Cartwright has lived with his son.

Mr. Cartwright is survived only by his son in this city. Two children died in infancy, and a daughter, Grinnell, died Aug. 3, 1890.

Mr. Cartwright was a member of the Congregational church and the local Masonic blue lodge, chapter, and commandery. He was also a member of Kaabs temple, A. A. O. N. M. S., of Davenport.

Body to Grinnell. Prayer services will be held at the Cartwright home at 8:15 Tuesday morning, in charge of Rev. B. J. Martin, and at 9:15 the funeral party will accompany the body to Grinnell, where the funeral will be held at the Grinnell cemetery, also in charge of Mr. Martin. Burial will be beside the grave of Mrs. Cartwright.

REV. MR. HEINE LEAVES DILLON. Pastor Retires From Ministry to Take Up Literary Work.

Farewell services for Rev. Theodore Heine, for the past eleven years pastor of the German Evangelical church at Dillon, were held Sunday, and in the afternoon members of the congregation gathered at the church for a social time and to bid good bye to Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Heine. They left this morning for Elizabeth, Minn., to visit their son, Theodore Heine, Jr. Mr. Heine will devote his time to writing theological articles and other literary work.

Rev. H. D. Dahl, of Geneseo, Ill., has been called to take Rev. Mr. Heine's place. He and his wife and two children were expected to arrive at Dillon today.

Postoffice Holiday Hours. There will be one delivery of mail on Tuesday morning, Memorial Day. The postoffice will be open until 11 o'clock.

Flower Guessing Contest. Prizes were awarded this morning for the flower guessing contest recently held at the public library for the children of all grades in the schools.

ty-eight children competed, guessing on twenty-two pictures of well-known wild flowers. Seven guessed all but four correctly, and three tied for first place with only three wrong. In working off this tie, Letta Wilson, first grade Anson school, was awarded the first prize; Marjorie Johnston, second grade John Childs school, second; and Diana Nutter, third grade Woodbury school, third. Flower books, similar to the bird books given in the recent bird contest, were given as prizes.

Two hundred twenty three pupils from the first to the fifth grades have ordered seeds for the flower garden contest, which has been held under the auspices of the public library for the past six years. These gardens will be judged later in the summer and prizes awarded for the best showing of flowers and the best kept garden.

RAID HOUSE; ARREST THREE. Police Hold Man and Two Women on Disorderly Charge.

Officers Delahoyde and Lage raided the house in the rear of 10 May street Sunday afternoon and arrested a man and two women. They gave the names of John Ford, Earl Johnson and Ethel Brown. The police raided the place after Mrs. Esau Koon, 8 May street, had filed a complaint in Justice Burritt's court charging the women with being immoral. Ford was held on a charge of being an inmate of a resort. The hearing has been set for Wednesday morning.

County Auditor Dobson's Funeral. County officials and their deputies attended in a body the funeral of County Auditor A. W. Dobson, held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 from the Presbyterian church. Rev. J. P. Linn had charge of the service, and the church choir sang. The flower bearers were Misses Rilla Bell, Carol Houghton, Chloe Carter, and Marie Painter. The pall bearers were Supervisors W. H. Jones, C. R. Lynch, and W. A. Nichols, Treasurer S. M. Gause, Clerk of Courts S. H. Reilly, and Deputy Auditor George Enderley, Jr. Burial was in Riverside.

In attendance at the funeral from out of the city were P. J. Van Vranken, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Van Vranken, of Orchard, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Carlson, Earl and Dennis Putnam, and their wives, and Howard Putnam, all of Eldora.

NEW THIRD WARD HOMES. Two More Are to Be Built on Main and Nevada Streets.

Two more new homes are to be added to the season's improvements in the extreme western and southwestern parts of the Third ward. At 1506 West Main street Ed Johnson, a carpenter, has in the foundation for a one and one-half story frame house of six rooms that will cost about $3,500.

Mrs. Hannah O. Lindstedt, 714 West Nevada, is preparing to build a seven or eight room, two-story frame house to cost about $3,500, on the corner of the lot. The old house that occupied the spot has been moved to the south end of the lot and is being remodeled and repaired. The new house will stand on the site of the old one. As soon as the remodeling job is done work will be begun on the new dwelling.

Get Five Points in Meet. Marshalltown high school athletes scored five points in the state high school meet held in Des Moines Saturday, when Paeker took first in the high hurdles, scoring all five points for the locals. West Des Moines won the meet.

A REAL PRINT SHOP. New Type, New Presses—Modern Methods Adopted.

Most anybody can print a letterhead or circular, but few have the equipment and the desire to produce high class work—their only idea is to get it done the cheapest way possible.

When we purchased the Marshall Printing Company we put in the best of all kinds of presses. Every line of type was thrown away and new type was put in its place—then a man with a knowledge of the business was put in charge to run it. Machinery plus knowledge equals good work. For better work bring it to our plant. Marshalltown Printing Company.

ORDERS MORE ESCAPES. State Inspector Bye Notifies Owners to Build Safety Appliances.

Harvey Bye, of Cedar Rapids, state inspector for the department of labor and commerce, after spending a few days in the city, has served notice on owners of seven business and office buildings that they must erect outside fire escapes. Altogether, in the two inspections now finished, the inspector has ordered up thirty-one fire escapes on school houses, theaters and business and office buildings, and the inspection is not yet completed.

The following buildings were ordered equipped with escapes: First National Bank, McBride & Will uptown, Abbott & Son, Colonial theater building, Foreney building, occupied by Levin Dry Goods Company; Hopkins building and Woodbury building. In the case of the Hopkins building the ladder of the escape was up at the rear but it does not comply with the law. An escape ordered put on the Masonic temple a few weeks ago will be erected shortly. By will continue on Wednesday to finish the inspection here.

McLELAND AUDITOR. Former County Auditor W. E. McLeland Appointed to Fill Vacancy.

W. E. McLeland, a former county auditor, and an old resident of the city, who in recent years has been a traveling salesman for Matt Parrot & Sons, Waterloo, was appointed county auditor by the board of supervisors this forenoon. McLeland is appointed for the term of the late A. W. Dobson, which expires Jan. 1, 1917. There were a number of applicants for the place.

McLeland served as county auditor for two terms, from 1902 to 1905. George Enderley, deputy auditor, and Miss Ella Smith, clerk and stenographer, will continue in the office as usual. With the appointment of McLeland, business was resumed in the office.

NEW CHAPEL DEDICATED. Westminster Chapel of Presbyterian Church Formally Opened Sunday.

Good-sized congregations were in attendance Sunday at the dedicatory exercises of Westminster chapel of the Presbyterian church, corner Ninth avenue and Bromley street. Dr. S. R. Ferguson, of Cedar Rapids, preached the sermon and conducted the services, dedicating the new mission at 3 o'clock and evening services at 7:45. Dr. S.

W. Smith, also of Cedar Rapids, preached in the evening. Fred Seger, of Waterloo, led the singing at all the services.

Services will be held at the mission every night this week. Rev. J. F. Linn will speak tonight and Rev. J. R. McCartney, of Waterloo, Tuesday. Definite arrangements of services to be held in the chapel have not yet been made.

Preaches Baccalaureate Sermon. Rev. Orlando Ingvaldsdottir, of the Elm Lutheran church, this city, preached the baccalaureate sermon at Chelsea Sunday night. Rev. Mr. Ingvaldsdottir took for his subject "The True Wealth of the Nation," and told the members of the graduating class that valuable asset because they were just starting out and had everything before them. The service was held at the Bethlehem Lutheran church.
