SLATTERY BEATEN BY ROHN RECRUIT

FORMER THREE-I LEAGUE HURLER APPLIES WHITEWASH TO MARSHALLTOWN.

SLATTERY IS NOT IN USUAL GOOD FORM

Keupper Gets Break of Luck and Is Given Wonderful Support by Pathfinder Infield—Slattery's Wildness Mainly Responsible For Burlington's Six Runs—Murphy Again Stars.

With Slattery not in his usual form, Burlington counted six scores in two frames Thursday afternoon, and with the visiting infield playing a brilliant defensive game, the Pathfinders were able to spread the whitewash, Marshalltown losing by a score of 6 to 0.

Murphy Again Stars. As on Tuesday, Murphy again was the particular star of the afternoon, getting three safe singles out of four trips to the plate.

It was not until the ninth inning that the home team was able to get a man to second, and it was Murphy who then inaugurated the last ditch stand.

Brilliant Infield Work. Three fast infield doubles made the game interesting, Lunte, Harmon and McGlade figuring in the first inning.

Slattery Fills Sacks. It was not until the sixth that the Pathfinders were able to add to their total. Then Slattery paved the way for his downfall by passing McGlade and Morgan and hitting Lunte.

Win Game in First Frame. Burlington had the game counted in the first inning. Two runs scored in that session were sufficient, and it was McGlade's three-base shot that put the contest on ice.

Slattery Fills Sacks. It was not until the sixth that the Pathfinders were able to add to their total. Then Slattery paved the way for his downfall by passing McGlade and Morgan and hitting Lunte.

FORM ROOSEVELT LEAGUE. Eleventh-Hour Movement For "Teddy" For President Launched.

The eleventh hour movement for Roosevelt for president took shape Wednesday night in the east court room when the Roosevelt Non-Partisan League was organized with about 100 members.

A committee of five, composed of O. L. Ingledue, Charles H. Eckman, Talbot Lennox, William Hellberg, and A. E. Mickel was appointed to prepare the details for a permanent organization.
