

Finish Sewer Next Week.
In spite of frequent cave-ins and the necessity of facing the banks of the ditch with timbers and planks to prevent the sand from caving in, fairly rapid progress is being made by the city in laying the storm sewer in Summit street from Thirteenth street west to the city limits. The sewer main will be finished this week, but it will require a few days longer to finish all the laterals. These laterals pass under the street car track, and it will be some little time before the cars will operate in Summit street because of the danger of the earth settling in the freshly filled ditches.

CITY IN BRIEF

W. M. Hodges received word Wednesday of the death of his father, Jas. F. Hodges, of Rock Island, Ill. Mr. Hodges was 87 years old and death was due to the infirmities of age. Mr. and Mrs. Hodges accompanied by Mr. Hodges' niece, Miss Harriet Hodges, of Rock Island, who has been visiting at the Hodges home for two weeks, will go today to Independence, where burial will take place Friday.
A large crowd was present at the lecture given Wednesday evening by Rev. W. S. Kight, a Methodist minister of Des Moines, in front of the main building at the soldiers' home. The subject of his talk was "Ethicalism and Respect For the Flag," interspersed with several anecdotes which were very interesting. Following this the members of the W. R. C. sang two songs and Mrs. Sylvester Laird gave a reading.
T. I. Wasson and George W. Gilbert, who are willing to assume more responsibility than most men care to take on, took the members of their Sunday school classes of the Baptist church on a picnic to Stanley's mill Wednesday. The boys, twelve rollicking young Americans were up early, excepting in the cases of youngsters who knew more than their mothers and wound the alarms of their clocks and not the time. Breakfast was eaten in the woods after a wade in the river, and the day was spent imitating Perrier, Desjardins, Slatery and a few more idols. Dinner was also served in camp style by the two chaperon-chefs, and supper would have been enjoyed had it not been that Neal Clemens mistook his bare toes for wienerwursts and tried to boil them. Because of the scalded toes the members of the party hurried home to give young Neal "first aid."

Bring your watches in. Hodges.

At 2:30 cars took the children to the park, where they enjoyed a pleasant time with games. The men held a baseball game and others played croquet. A picnic supper was served at 6:30.
Complimentary to Mrs. George Nicoll, who was married July 8, Misses Sadie Morris and Margaret Nelson entertained fifteen guests Wednesday evening at a miscellaneous shower at the home of the former, 506 East Main street. A pleasant evening was enjoyed by the guests in music and dancing, and the hostesses served refreshments. Mrs. Nicoll was formerly Miss Ellen Lunkley.
While driving one mile north of Albion Wednesday night Dr. W. S. Devine collided with a yearling calf, which came from the side of the road, unobserved by the driver, and ran into the Devine automobile. The animal bent both fenders of the car badly, but Dr. Devine had his car under control and stopped it within its length.
