hage this afternoon was the direct cause of her death.

Mrs. Carr was born Henle in Oskaloosa, Nov. 19, 1877. She had lived in that place all her life. Two children and her husband survive her. The children are Clifford W. and Helen M. Carr, both of Oskaloosa. The body will be taken to Oskaloosa at 5:45 this evening for burial. Mr. Carr was with his wife at the time of her death, having arrived Tuesday evening. R. C. Cary, of Lisco, Neb., her brother-in-law, was also here, having been with Mrs. Carr on the train.

MRS. CARR DIES HERE.

Oskaloosa Woman Taken Ill Tuesday, Succumbs at Deaconess.

Mrs. Jessie Carr, aged 38, the wife of Alexander Carr, of Oskaloosa, who was taken to the Deaconess hospital Tuesday after she had become ill at the Union Station, died at 12:20 this afternoon at the hospital. Mrs. Carr's death was caused by cancer, with which she had suffered for the past year and a half. She was on her way to Hot Springs, S. D., for her health when taken ill at the station Tuesday morning. She was taken to the hospital, where she grew steadily worse, following a hemorrhage. A second severe hemorrhage this afternoon was the direct cause of her death.

A Novel Plant.

In Hawaii grows the world's rarest plant, called the silver sword. Its very name is odd and appropriate to the cactus-like growth and the long, silky gray leaves which give it its peculiar name. The reason for its rarity is that it is found only on the most inaccessible slopes of the volcanoes of this group of islands. From the earliest times it has been greatly admired by the natives, who call it "ahinahina."

gray-haired, because they had never before the coming of the white man seen silver, and therefore could not apply to the plant a name which well describes it. Climbers who have found specimens prize them more highly than do Alpine climbers the Edelweiss, since it is far more beautiful and difficult to obtain than the famous flower of the Swiss.
