STATE FAIR READY

WEDNESDAY FIRST OF TWO PRELIMINARY DAYS OF IOWA'S EXPOSITION.

LIVE STOCK ARRIVING BY THE TRAIN LOAD

Acres of Farm Machinery Already on Grounds—State Institutions Have Interesting Exhibits—Fifty Auto Manufacturers Have 1917 Models on Display—Musical Features.

Special to Times-Republican.

Des Moines, Aug. 22.—Iowa's great state fair is almost ready. The fair opens tomorrow with the first two opening days as preparation days. The full program starts early Friday morning and from then on up to and including Friday, Sept. 1, there will be "something doing" morning, noon and night at the big exposition.

Train load after train load of Iowa live stock is now coming in. Great exhibits of agricultural products, fruit, poultry, and in fact of all sorts of things are being put in place. Acres of farm machinery is being unloaded. Sixty companies and windmill concerns are putting up their exhibits. Over in the woman's building the state health exhibit, baby welfare, schools and art exhibits are being put in place.

In the agricultural hall the famous horn of plenty has been finished and stands out a huge river of corn which challenges attention as soon as a visitor strikes the inside of the building. About thirty individual farmers have entered in the individual farm exhibit and some fifteen counties will have county exhibits.

The state institutions are putting up two tents in which to show the products of the state institutions. In one tent the live stock and something of what is being done in the way of successful dairying on the state farms will be shown. In the other tent the articles made in the prisons and in the other institutions will be on display.

The automobile exhibit promises to attract considerable attention this year. Fifty manufacturers are entered and the show will be the first one to put the 1917 models on display.

Considerable will be made of the tractor show by the big manufacturers. They wish to demonstrate the work which is being accomplished along the lines of producing a tractor suitable for ordinary farm work. These companies are doing widespread advertising and will visit all the big fairs.

Those in charge of the baby health contest say the infantile paralysis scare is not affecting entries in the baby department. There has not been enough of this disease to cause much fear apparently, judging from the number of entries.

There will be speakers on child-welfare work every afternoon in the auditorium of the children's building. Mental tests of school children will be discussed by Prof. E. A. Ashbaugh, of the State University of Iowa, on the afternoons of Aug. 25 and 26. Infant welfare work will be discussed by Dr. Biefeld, of the Iowa state university, Aug. 28 and 29. Dental care will be discussed by Dr. Volland, of Iowa state university, on Aug. 30 and 31. The work will be in charge of E. O. Kingsman, director of the extension division of the Iowa state university.

There will be talks on various problems of the home and of bringing up children. The Iowa Congress of Mothers and the Parents' Teachers' Association will have charge of these programs. Domestic science demonstrations and lectures are to be given daily in the woman's building and moving pictures on educational subjects.

Musical Features. In the city of music there will be Liberator's band and concert company, Henry's band, Second Infantry band, the Ladies' Band of Knoxville, the Royal Keakalawallans, Graham's orchestra and other special music. There will be two special concerts on Sunday afternoon and evening.

The big night show in front of the amphitheater is to be "The Last Days of Pompeii," a mammoth firework spectacle showing the destruction of the ancient city of Pompeii. Over at the live stock pavilion there will be a parade of prize-winning horses and cattle each evening.

The special days as they have been arranged are as follows: Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 23 and 24, preparation days; Friday, Aug. 25, children's day; Saturday, Aug. 26, Des Moines day, auto race day; Sunday, Aug. 27, music day; Monday, Aug. 28, manufacturers' and implement dealers' day; Tuesday, Aug. 29, old soldiers' day; Wednesday, Aug. 30, Iowa day and Boys' and Girls' Club day; Thursday, Aug. 31, prize live stock parade day; Friday, Sept. 1, auto race day.

DANCERS IMPERILED BY FIRE.

One Hundred Fifty Persons Flee in Panic From Burning Town Hall. Cedar Rapids, Aug. 22.—The lives of 150 persons were endangered and $6,000 loss was incurred when fire destroyed the municipal hall at Toronto, Iowa, fifty miles east of this city, shortly after 9 o'clock Saturday night. A dance was in progress when the acetylene gas plant, with which the building was equipped, exploded, and the resulting fire leveled the structure. Although a panic ensued, none was injured in the rush from the building. A fire was summoned from Wheatland, seven miles south of Toronto, as the town affords no fire protection, but the result was unavailing.

SPONDING BRIGADE WAS HELPLESS BEFORE THE START WHICH THE FIRE HAD OBTAINED.

Tables had just been set for supper when an explosion was heard, followed in quick succession by two others, and at once the end of the hall which housed the lighting plant was in flames. The dancers turned to rush for safety, and when the press at the door became too great, many climbed thru the windows and dropped the short distance to the ground. As the fire raged unchecked it was feared for a time that it would spread over the entire town, but a southeast wind drove the flames away from the business section.

Four hundred dollars in silver was lost in the fire, representing the evening's receipts of $300, and $90 which had been left with the doorkeeper by a patron. Some of the money in the form of a melted mass was recovered from the ruins by searchers yesterday. One of the great quantities of clothing belonging to the dancers was also destroyed, as were the instruments of the band, which were left behind in the flight from the building.

The hall was a two-story building of frame construction, of which the auditorium composed the principal part. It is said that the insurance carried on the building will cover but a small portion of the loss.

BRAKEMAN FALLS FROM CAR.

Body of Carl Schultz, of Boone, Found by Track Near Dunlap.

Special to Times-Republican. Dunlap, Aug. 22.—Carl Schultz, a brakeman on the Northwestern with home at Boone, was found dead beside the track three miles east of Dunlap. His train went west toward Denison at 3:15 Monday morning. He was missed at Dunlap and his lantern was found on top of a car. Searchers found him and the body was brought to Denison for examination by the coroner. The body was badly bruised. It is supposed he fell from the top of a car.

Narrowly Avert Destructive Fire.

Special to Times-Republican.

Kennett, Aug. 22.—What might have proved a most destructive fire was narrowly averted here Monday afternoon when a candle lamp exploded in the basement of the C. O. Savre store. Prompt action of a "bucket brigade" extinguished the blaze after it had partially burned the floor and a supporting post below. A strong wind was blowing at the time, and an uncontrolled fire would have swept nearly half the town.

TENANTS NEED BANK

IOWA FARM RENTERS WOULD BENEFIT BY ESTABLISHMENT OF FEDERAL LOANS.

BEST ARGUMENT FOR LOCATION IN STATE

No Claim on Part of Iowa Because of Lack of Cheap Money—Frank R. Wilson Visits State as Advance Agent of Loan Board—Explains Provisions of Rural Credits Bill.

Special to Times-Republican.

Sioux City, Aug. 22.—Iowa's greatest argument in favor of locating one of the twelve federal farm loan banks in this state lies in its proportion of farm tenants to farm owners, stated Frank R. Wilson, chief of the division of information on rural credits, who arrived in Sioux City Sunday as "advance agent" of the credits board.

Little claim to one of the banks can be laid by the state on the basis of need of cheap money, Mr. Wilson suggested, because Iowa, in common with Kansas and one or two other states in which farm land values are very high, already enjoys a low interest rate on farm mortgages. One-ninth of all the first mortgage land loans made by the big eastern insurance companies are placed on Iowa farms, said Mr. Wilson.

On the other hand, the fact that so many Iowa farmers are tenants offers a splendid argument for locating one of the federal banks here, and for directing its work to the helping of these tenants to become owners. Cheap money loaned to this end would accomplish one of the primary purposes contemplated in the establishment of the credits board, in Mr. Wilson's opinion.

In Des Moines Next Week.

The rural credits board, the members of which are Federal Reserve Bank, Adair, Herbert Quick, Capt. W. S. A. Smith, George W. Norris and Charles E. Lobdell, will not hold in Sioux City one of the hearings for which its present tour of the country is being conducted. Meetings will be held in Des Moines, and Sioux Falls, S. D., next week. The board will be in Des Moines one week from Monday; in Sioux Falls the succeeding day, and in St. Paul on the Wednesday following.

Mr. Wilson has gone ahead of the board arranging for the appearance of all interested farm organizations at the scheduled meetings, which have been concluded in the eastern part of the country. By taking short cuts which the commission was unable to profit by, he increased his lead to such an extent that he remained in Sioux City
