

SELLING PRESSURE PULLS DOWN WHEAT

REPORT THAT GREECE HAD EN-TERED EUROPEAN WAR
CAUSES UNLOADING.

FEAR MOVEMENT OF
WHEAT THRU DARDANELLES

Corn Weakens With Wheat, Most of the Selling Being by Pit Speculators Oats Sympathize With Depression of Other Cereals—Little or No Power to Rally Is Shown—Provisions Lower.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Reports that Greece had joined the Anglo-French allies put wheat under selling pressure today and caused weakness of prices. In this connection the bears gave emphasis to announcements that there was sufficient tonnage at present in the Black sea to move 20,000,000 bushels and that the available surplus which could move if the Dardanelles were opened would as-sagrate 400,000,000 bushels. Opening cents lower, wheat December at $1.52 1/2 and May at $1.53 1/2, and May at $1.54, were followed by a substantial further decline.

Lack of confirmation of reports from Greece led later to recovery. The close was nervous, 1/4 to 1/2 cents net lower, with December at $1.53 1/2, and May at $1.55.

Corn.
Corn weakened with wheat. Most of the selling came from pit speculators.
After opening unchanged to 1/2 lower, the market underwent a moderate additional setback.

Oats.
A rally ensued when wheat showed a tendency to react. The close was unsettled at 1/2 decline to a like advance.

Provisions.
Oats sympathized with the depression of other cereals. Little or no power to rally was shown.

Selling by packers carried provisions down grade. There was no demand for pork.

Daily Grain Letter.
[From Lamson Bros. & Co., Masonic
Temple, Phone 193.]

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Wheat—Wheat prices were lower the first half of the day, largely because of an unconfirmed rumor that Greece had joined forces with the allies. Importing countries appear to take advantage of the break to buy wheat and it is probable that today's export business will exceed general expectations. Premiums continue to advance and those paid today are said to be the highest on the crop.

Corn—Corn was easier with wheat and on scattered selling by some of the largest recent buyers. An increase in the movement is indicated and many holders are afraid the government report tomorrow will not fully confirm the estimates of private experts. There probably will be no surplus of corn on the market for at least 90 days.

Oats—The oats market reacted under heavy selling by holders and prices up to mid-day were lower. The difficulty of securing cars has again been advanced as a bear argument. Seaboard buyers seem more fortunate in getting cars than shippers to interior points.

On Foot.
I sing the Road. It is a differen road from Walrus. Like him, I tramp out of the city into the country, but not to leave the city behind—to come back to it, rather through wisdom bred in the open; to test, in contact with sons of soil and salt water, ideas that shall profit the cities. I sing the pleasant converse by the stove in cottage kitchens on winter evenings; the good man in his woolen-stocking feet on the lounge by the woodbox; the good wife sewing under yellow lamp-beams. I say that it is good to listen and to reply. I say that here is no superiority or inferiority, moral or social. We are equals, swapping experience of the road, bound on the same journey, bearing the same burdens, fearing the same hopes, fearing the same fears, suffering the same rewardments, earning at a dear cost the same rewards. I say there is no city and no country, no college educated or illiterate; no Yankee and no Polack, no master and no servant—but just neighbors round a kitchen stove resting after the day's work. And I say that he who would come to this feast must come as a common man—on foot.—Seymour Denning in the Atlantic.

Grimstad Honors Ibsen.
It is well known that Henrik Ibsen wasted several years of his early life in the small coast town of Grimstad, where he was apprenticed to an apothecary, and lived in his employer's house. That house has now been bought for the town, and the shop has been restored to the aspect it presented in Ibsen's times. In a small garden in front of the house has been placed a bronze bust of Ibsen, by the distinguished sculptor, Gustav Vigeland. In time, no doubt, the memorial house will develop into an Ibsen museum.—London Chronicle.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Falling off in demand from shippers and packers caused hog prices today to have a downward slant. The price range widened.

Hog prices are "staging a comeback" from the low time last Saturday, but the packers are against giving more money for their kind.

The sellers have been able to clear very little thru the big packers since last Saturday and despite the light supply of fresh stock the amount of stale stuff does not diminish very readily.

Packers expect a good run the balance of the week and for that reason do not care to buy much at present in the hope of being able to control the situation with more liberal receipts.

The owners of the stale stock, most of which arrived late last week in anticipation of a railroad strike, are bullish and have no intention of letting packers get any bargains at their expense. So far, the country owners are not selling side, and in the end packers will be compelled to buy the "hold-overs" higher unless we get a marked increase in offerings the last half of the week.

Eleven markets received 40,000 hogs Wednesday, or 11,000 less than last Wednesday, 21,000 less than a year ago and 15,000 less than two years ago.
Total the first half of this week 110, 000, or 141,000 less than same period last week, 88,000 less than like time last year and 45,000 less than corresponding three days two years ago.
Total for 1916 to date, 2,042,000, or 2, 238,000 more than same period 1915 and 4,388,000 more than corresponding time 1914.

Cattle.
There was no special call for cattle.
Killers last week secured the country for fat cattle to ship east and in anticipation of a railway tie-up and a big run of Kentucky and Virginia cattle in the east at the outset this week also has had effect in restricting shipping orders in the local trade.
Canadian cattle were also brought across the line in the east to fill an urgent demand last week, which was created by the fear of a strike All these eastern shipments have been factors in enabling killers to hold values for bulk steers down to the level which was made last Friday, and the only exceptions are choice to prime beaves, which classes are bringing prices well up with the top level made last Thursday. On rank and file of the grassers and medium to good short-fed beaves, however, the market today was easily 40 to 75 cents lower than last Thursday and for bulk of such kinds little changed from ten days ago.

Not until next week is the trade expected to hit anything like an even stride, due to the inequitable distribution of the current receipts. Today's run was more than twice the total here Monday and Tuesday, and should the country repeat last week's performance of sending a lot of cattle here for Thursday and Friday markets, an upsetting of prices will surely follow.
Conditions now, however, are far different from those of a week ago, and a normal railway situation does not call for free week end shipping.

Sheep.
Sheep and lambs were overplentiful.
