Orville, the 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Easter, 302 North Sixth street, is ill at his home of diphtheria. The home was quarantined this forenoon. The boy complained of not feeling well Monday, and Tuesday his throat was sore. Five thousand units of anti-toxin were administered by a physician, and this morning the boy's condition was slightly improved.

Ten little girls were entertained Tuesday afternoon by Iva Woods at a farewell party for Marguerite Favaro, who leaves Thursday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Favaro, to make their home in New York City. The afternoon was spent in playing games and in writing train letters for Marguerite. Mrs. W. W. Woods served a two-course lunch, assisted by Miss Katherine Stevens.

In honor of Miss Grace Anson, who is to be married Oct. 4 to James Jensen Jr., Mrs. R. W. Vanhorn and Mrs. M. Knudson entertained twenty-five guests at a kitchen shower Tuesday afternoon at the home of the former, 504 North Fourth street. The afternoon hours were pleasantly spent in hemming holders and dust cloths for Miss Anson, and refreshments were served by the hostess.

What might have been a more serious accident occurred on the Main street road just east of town Tuesday evening, when the J. W. Pursell Ford runabout, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Pursell and Vernon Kuhns, turned over when the car skidded in the mud. The car was being driven slowly, and only turned over on its side. None of the occupants were injured with the exception of Mr. Kuhns, and he only sustained a sprained arm. The car was damaged only slightly.

Thirty-five members of the Central Chapter, O. E. S., went Tuesday evening to Gilman, where they were entertained by the chapter members of that city in the Masonic hall. The early part of the evening was devoted to initiation and ritualistic work, during which Mrs. R. H. McDowell, Mrs. C. S. Thompson, Dr. B. O. Frasey I. T. Forbes, and Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Battin gave short talks. At the close of the chapter work a two-course supper was served. Autumn leaves and garden flowers were used in the decoration of the hall.

NINE CHILDREN MOTHERLESS. Mrs. Frank E. Pierson Dies of Heart Disease Following Childbirth.

Organic nature following the birth of a son six weeks ago, caused the death at 12:30 this afternoon of Mrs. Frank E. Pierson, wife of the manager of the Western Gricer Company farm three miles northwest of the city. Mrs. Pierson's death, which occurred at the home of her mother, Mrs. Bruce Hendrix, 108 1/2 West Linn street, leaves nine children motherless.

Mrs. Pierson was born Sadie Collins in Tama county, Jan. 23, 1880, and became the wife of Mr. Pierson Feb. 10, 1896. The children are Edna, Orville, Vera, Ethel, Evaline, Mabel, Walter, Bruce, and the baby son, as yet unnamed. Mrs. Pierson's mother, Mrs. Alice Clemens, lives in this city, as do also two brothers, William and Elmer Collins, two sisters, Mrs. Hendrix and Mrs. Roy Hubler, and a half brother, Joseph Clemens. Another sister, Mrs. Charles Holton, lives at Ferguson.

The funeral will be held from the Iowa River Church of the Brethren Friday afternoon at 2:30, in charge of Rev. Frank M. Wheeler. Burial will be in the Iowa River cemetery.

MRS. HOSANNAH SLOPPY DEAD. Old Resident of City Succumbs to Long Period of Ill Health.

Death, at 12:45 this afternoon, came to Mrs. Hosannah Sloppy, aged 77, an old resident of this city, and mother of William H. and Miss Maggie D. Sloppy. Mrs. Sloppy's death was due to gastro enteritis, and followed a period of ill health dating from last March. It was only two weeks ago, however, since Mrs. Sloppy was compelled to take to her bed.

Altho the oldest of ten children of Mr. and Mrs. John Pifer, Mrs. Sloppy's death is only the second in the family, a sister, Mrs. Reuben B. Voorhies, of Glendive, Mont., having died Jan. 18, 1912.

Mrs. Sloppy was born in Northumberland county, Pennsylvania, May 1, 1839. She became the wife of John Sloppy at Freeport, Ill., Aug. 30, 1859, and ten years later came to this city to live. Mr. Sloppy died here Oct. 31, 1909. Of the four children born to Mr. and Mrs. Sloppy, three are living. In addition to the son and daughter here the other child is Mrs. E. T. Pettit, of Madrid, Mrs. Sloppy's sisters and brothers are Mrs. Emmeline From of David City, Neb.; Mrs. Caroline Mitchell, Artesian, S. D.; Mrs. Lavina Yetley, of Green Mountain; Mrs. G. W. Yetley, of Galena, Mo.; Mrs. R. A. Haughey, of Butte, Mont.; Daniel Pifer, of Denver; Henry Pifer, of Green Mountain; and John Pifer, whose present address is unknown. Mrs. From, Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Lavina Yetley were with their sister when the end came.

Funeral services will be held from the residence at 2:30 Friday afternoon, in charge of Rev. E. R. McClelland.

Not a Social Matter. Ellis was a bank cashier of many years' standing, and he thought he had seen them all—as far as curiosities in human nature are concerned. But one morning recently a haughty-looking woman approached the window and showed a check thru without even glancing at him.

"Madam," he said, "you will have to get somebody to introduce you before I can cash this check for you."

For one moment she stared at him in a frostlike manner; then, in an exceedingly scornful voice, she said:

"Sir, I am here purely on business and have no intention of making a social call. I do not care to know you!"—Harper's Magazine.
